

F. P. ZSCHUNKE & Co.

Fine Clothing and Shoes.

Just Arrived!

FINE SUITS AND OVERCOATS.

School Suits

NEW AND AT LOW PRICES

Also SCHOOL SHOES.

Come and see them before you buy.

THE NEW STORE

In the Gebser Building

F. P. ZSCHUNKE & CO.

School Children

will find the largest line of Good and up-to-date

Tablets

Pfefferle's Reliable Drug Store.

Remember we treat you right and will give you the largest tablet that money will buy, besides a little present thrown in free. Come and see our line of school supplies before laying in your stock. We'll save you money.

Eug. A. Pfefferle,
The Children's Friend.

The cold winds of next winter will not trouble Phil Schaneger. This week he placed a contract with Cuddy & Olding to supply his home with a hot water heating plant. Mr. B. Olding tells us that many of the farmers are putting in the hot water system this year as it proves to be the cheapest kind of heating, besides adding to the comfort of the home.—Redfield (S. D.) Review.

Rev. C. Hohn, pastor of the Methodist church, goes to St. Paul next Tuesday to take his chair in the St. Paul Park seminary. Rev. Hohn will return to New Ulm every Friday thereafter to deliver his Sunday sermons. When the conference meets in St. Paul on September 24th a minister will be assigned to New Ulm to fill the vacancy in the local pulpit.

Fashionable Correspondence Stationery.

Fine Box Paper and Tablets in the latest styles and tints.

School Tablets
and supplies of all kinds at OLSEN'S DRUG STORE.

LOCAL NEWS.

* Get a good spring and mattress. J. H. Forster.

Rev. S. G. Updyke preached in the Congregational church at Marshall Sunday.

Rev. C. B. Fellows of Minneapolis, preached Sunday in the Congregational church.

Landlord H. D. Smalley of Sleepy Eye, was in the city for a short time Saturday evening.

J. N. Treadwell of St. Peter, was here Friday the guest of his daughter, Mrs. H. L. Beecher.

Mrs. Fred Engelbert departed yesterday for St. Paul, where she will remain until Monday.

Mrs. M. Mullen of New Ulm was the guest of relatives here during the week.—St. Peter Herald.

G. W. Barnes and A. P. Brooks saw Dan Patch go a mile against time at the fair grounds Monday.

Miss Meta Hellriegel has entered the Mankato Commercial college and will take a business course.

Henry Flor went to St. Paul yesterday to make arrangements for entering the St. Paul Law school.

Miss Eva Klossner reached home Saturday evening from a week's visit with Minneapolis friends.

The Second Regiment band will go to Mankato next Monday to furnish music for the Labor Day parade.

Max Pfaender went to St. Paul Saturday to be in readiness for the opening of the state agricultural college.

Hjalmer Hoidale went to his old home at Dawson Saturday for a two weeks' outing with his dog and gun.

Three new candidates were initiated into the mysteries of Foresterism by St. Court last Thursday evening.

Miss Ida Koch returned Thursday evening from a visit at Arlington with her sister, Mrs. Robt. Heidmann.

Thomas Collins left for Minneapolis yesterday to attend the state fair and enter the University of Minnesota.

Miss Edith Schmidt will leave New Ulm next Friday for Winona, where she will enter the state normal school.

Mrs. W. A. Hubbard and Mrs. Otto Seiter gave a needle work party at the home of latter Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. K. E. Mo and children of Springfield, came Thursday for a week's visit with Judge and Mrs. S. A. George.

D. H. Hardt returned Friday evening to his home in Friend, Neb., after a visit with Rev. and Mrs. Christian Hohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Held entertained a party of friends at their home on Washington street Saturday evening.

The Misses Gustie Kuehnel and Aurora Neumann returned Sunday night from a fortnight's visit with Chicago friends.

Mrs. H. Furst and two children of Chicago, are being entertained by Mrs. Furst's mother, Mrs. John Hauenstein.

Miss Birdie Mullen goes to Notre Dame, Ind., next week to take a post-graduate course at St. Mary's academy.

Miss Lulu Hose went to Owatonna Monday to re-enter Pillsbury Academy.

Mrs. W. C. Haubrich is back from an extended visit with her parents in Des Moines, Ia. She returned home yesterday.

Miss Emma Symes of Blooming Prairie, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Taylor. She will remain about a month.

Dr. L. A. Gebhardt goes to Minneapolis this morning to attend the annual meeting of the Minnesota State Dental society.

Miss Eva Considine arrived from Milwaukee last Thursday and will act as triumer for Mrs. T. Thomas during the fall season.

Fred Stolz will resume work for the Fullerton Lumber company next week. He has been absent from the office for two months.

Mrs. H. L. Beecher and sister, Miss Lois Treadwell of St. Peter, paid a visit to Mrs. H. N. Hendricks of Sleepy Eye, last Wednesday.

Nellie and Charles McFadden, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. N. Henningsen, returned Monday to their home at Duluth.

Miss Gertrude Bendixen and Miss Harriet Ruenitz, both of Springfield, were in the city last week the guests of Miss Lulu Hose.

New Ulm children are again busy with their books. The public schools opened Monday and the Catholic parochial school yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Quane were in Mankato last Wednesday night to attend the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Quane.

Miss Martha Eichmann, who is now employed in a wholesale millinery house in St. Paul, has been engaged as trimmer by a Mapleton milliner.

Trousdale's Minstrels played to a good audience at the New Ulm opera house last Wednesday night. They gave a very creditable performance.

Misses Lulu Doehne and Minnie Retzlaff will re-enter the state agricultural college this fall. They expect to go to Minneapolis about October 1st.

Theo. Crone got home last Wednesday from his extended stay in Chicago. He feels much improved since taking treatment in a sanitarium in that city.

Mechanical and electrical engineering are the branches which are to be taken up by Bert Hubbard. He leaves for the University of Minnesota this morning.

Miss Amalia Nix will return to St. Paul the latter part of the week after having spent the summer in New Ulm. The St. Paul schools open next Monday.

O. M. Olsen was a passenger for St. Paul Friday. He will remain in that city a fortnight or more looking after the interests of the Western News company.

As soon as he is relieved from duty Carrier Henry Krambeer will take up his residence on his farm in Sigel. He has disposed of his property in the city.

* The new Crescent caps, very latest thing in the line of ladies' headgear. Just received. You should have one.

Mrs. T. Thomas, at the Millinery Parlors.

Mrs. E. I. Collins and Miss Mame Murphy return tomorrow to Washington, D. C., after an extended visit with relatives and friends in New Ulm and Milwaukee.

Dr. O. C. Strickler was called to Hanksa Saturday to set a dislocated shoulder for Peter Nipper. The accident was caused by the man falling from his wagon.

William and Rex Bingham, Alwin Berg, A. Rooney and M. Kiefer, young men of Sleepy Eye, drove over from that place Sunday and spent the day with friends.

Edwin Juni has decided to complete his education at the University of Minnesota and will go to Minneapolis next Friday. He intends studying mining engineering.

Mrs. Chas. Albrecht and daughter, Alma, departed for their home in St. Paul Saturday morning after spending a week with Col. Wm. Pfaender and other relatives.

On Saturday evening the Concordia band gave another of its street concerts on Minnesota street. There are two more in the series, the next to be given Saturday night.

Assistant Postmaster Gottlieb Schmidt was absent last week upon his vacation. He called upon Sleepy Eye friends and visited with his son, William, at Watertown, S. D.

Between thirty and forty new pupils were enrolled by Supt. E. T. Critchett Thursday and Friday. He regards the outlook for a large school attendance as encouraging.

Friday's damp weather did not prevent the Second Regiment band giving its open air concert in German Park. It was greatly enjoyed by the small crowd that turned out.

"Strickler's Blackberries" is the title which the histrionic artists who are to give the minstrel this winter have adopted. They will soon hold the first rehearsal of their olio.

Miss Bretta Price arrived from her home at Republic, Kansas, Sunday noon for a short stay with Prof. and Mrs. E. T. Critchett before taking up her school duties near Sleepy Eye.

There was a large crowd at the Winthrop street fair on the opening day. The rains of Wednesday and Thursday greatly interred with the celebration, as was also the case at Tracy.

W. B. Mather returned Thursday evening from his trip to Milwaukee and Chicago and visit in Joliet, Ill. In the Windy City he and A. F. Ottomeyer looped the loop and visited all of the other attractions the city had to offer.

Mrs. L. Pfeifferle and daughter, Celia, of Tacoma, Wash., arrived here Friday evening for a stay of a couple of months with relatives. Mrs. Pfeifferle formerly resided in St. Peter but has not visited in Minnesota for nearly fourteen years.

Col. Wm. Pfaender was a passenger for St. Paul yesterday. He will attend the reunion of the First Minnesota Battery to be held this morning and will also go out to the meeting of the pioneers at the state fair grounds this afternoon.

Chas. Silverson and guest, Wm. Camerer, journeyed to St. Paul last Wednesday. The latter will visit in that city and St. Louis before returning to his home at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. Chas. Silverson and daughter, Charlotte, left yesterday for Cincinnati, Ohio, Mrs. Silverson to spend the winter with relatives and her daughter to resume her musical instruction.

All Woodmen are requested to meet at Masonic hall at 1 o'clock p. m. sharp Monday September 7th. Members of Harmony Camp, for the purpose of forming for the Labor Day parade.

Carl Seherer has matriculated in the University of Michigan and will prepare himself for the practice of medicine. He intends leaving for Ann Arbor, Mich., about the middle of the month.

B. Juni has decided not to accept the appointment as carrier upon rural route No 1 and Postmaster L. B. Krook has notified the postal department to that effect. As yet no carrier has been named.

Miss Theodosia Updyke and sister, Marjorie, go to St. Charles next Saturday, the former to take up her work as principal of the St. Charles high school and Miss Marjorie to resume her studies.

After spending several weeks in California, Mrs. Helen Seiter and daughters, Mrs. W. G. Alwin and Mrs. C. H. Helmes, have reached Spokane, Wash. They will remain there for a visit of a month.

Miss Clara Jackson of Sparta, Wis., has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Held since Thursday. She is on her way to Bellingham, Minn., where she will teach in the public schools.

H. J. Ormsby of Black River Falls, Wis., a government inspector of rural mail routes, passed through the city Friday enroute to his home. He had just finished laying out a route at Nicollet village.

The night blooming cereus in Kaschau & Simmet's barber shop attracted considerable attention last week. This year the plant had two buds, the first blooming Thursday and the other the following evening.

R. Sweet and Archie McKay, harvest hands, imbibed too freely of the flowing bowl last Wednesday and were taken in tow by Chief Klause. Thursday morning Judge Henningsen fined them each $5, which they paid.

Mrs. Eliza Jane McKellip, a sister to Mrs. D. A. Glass of this city, died at her home in Rice county on August 22nd. She was 82 years of age and had been a member of the Presbyterian church for nearly seventy years.

The Misses Alma and Hertha Marti very delightfully entertained a party of about twenty of their friends last Thursday evening. The affair was in the nature of a card party and dainty refreshments were served.

Dr. Sid Gallagher of Winona, well known in New Ulm, was one of the participants in the state golf tournament, held last week on the Minnehaha links near Minneapolis. He played with the Meadowbrook club of Winona.

Mrs. Hoerr, daughters Esther and Ortrud, and son Roland, who were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brust for several weeks, started for St. Paul Saturday morning. They will visit there a short time and then return to St. Louis, Mo.

* List your property with the Elliott Land Co. for quick and prompt sales. We have offices and representatives in Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and the Dakotas. Information promptly given and low R. R. fare on all roads. Call at the office in the Ottomeyer Block.

While sharpening a plow share last Wednesday John Schapekahn was painfully injured. The blade caught upon the emery wheel and struck him in the face, inflicting several bad cuts and tearing his lip. Dr. Weiser dressed his wounds.

In future the Sunday school of the Congregational church will be at 2 in the afternoon instead of 9:30 in the morning. The Christian Endeavor society meets at 6:30 instead of 7:00 in the evening and evening services are held at 7:30 instead of 8 o'clock.

Yuanita Mueller, an 18-year-old daughter of an Owatonna photographer, disappeared from that city last week and is believed to have joined a theatrical troupe. Miss Mueller was well acquainted in New Ulm, having visited here upon several occasions.

While in Cincinnati this time Mrs. Chas. Silverson will be able to present when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Schmitt, celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. On September 19th Mr. and Mrs. Schmitt will have been married exactly half a century.

It is understood that the case of Chas. Baltrusch vs. Henry Hanann has been settled out of court. Attorney Albert Pfaender, who was named in the complaint as one of the defendants, has received no notification of the action against him being dismissed.

B. Juni and Gottlieb Arndt got back last Tuesday night from their western trip. They made the long journey for the purpose of looking up mining property at Durkee, Col., but while absent also visited the cities of Ogden, Utah; Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash.

General Joseph Bobleter and Major L. G. Vogel left for Comfrey Monday for a few days' outing among the chickens with Commissioner P. J. Miller and C. M. Erickson. Both of the New Ulm officers are crack shots and they should return with an abundance of game.

House For Sale Cheap.
Modern 8-room brick house located on Minnesota and 5th North streets offered for sale cheap. House has electric light and city water. Good barn on the premises. For price and terms apply to this office or to Geo. Groelner, Winthrop, Minn.

Marriage Licenses.
Olaf J. Bentwohl.....Lake Hanska
Mattie Hersbaug.....Lake Hanska
Chas. S. Whitmore.....Sleepy Eye
Mabel McBain.....Sleepy Eye
Eugene Grimes.....Eden
Rose Huntress.....Sleepy Eye
Edward M. Grimes.....Eden
Augusta Kuehls.....Home
Louis W. Diederich.....Sleepy Eye
Emma H. Friton.....New Ulm