

F. P. ZSCHUNKE & Co.

Fine Clothing and Shoes.

Just Arrived!

FINE SUITS AND OVERCOATS.

School Suits

NEW AND AT LOW PRICES

Also SCHOOL SHOES.

Come and see them before you buy.

THE NEW STORE In the Gebser Building F. P. ZSCHUNKE & CO.

Wrist Bags....

All the latest and newest styles of Wrist Bags and Ladies' Purses just received.

For a few days we will sell you what you want in this line at a very low price. Please call and examine the line. Prices from 25 cts. up to $4.

Eug. A. Pfefferle,
The Children's Friend.

Father John Prior, for fourteen years pastor of St. John's Catholic church at Mankato, was accidentally killed while hunting near Ivanhoe last week. While riding in a buggy he was leaning upon the muzzle of his gun when the weapon was discharged, the shot entering his left breast, passing through his neck and lodging in the back of his head. His remains were sent to his parish at Wykoff, Minn., for interment.

General Joseph Bobleter and County Auditor L. G. Vogel of New Ulm, and C. M. Erickson and P. J. Miller constituted a hunting party last Tuesday, September 1st. The hunters were fortunate in securing a creditable number of birds, and with the exception of Mr. Erickson, continued the hunt Wednesday and Thursday. The New Ulm gentlemen were entertained by Mr. Miller during their stay here.—Comfrey Times.

Fashionable Correspondence Stationery.

Fine Box Paper and Tablets in the latest styles and tints.

School Tablets
and supplies of all kinds at

OLSEN'S DRUG STORE.

LOCAL NEWS.

* Get a good spring and mattress. J. H. Forster.

Chauncy Alcott will be at Mankato on Monday night, Sept. 14th.

Mrs. Jos. A. Eckstein departs next week for a visit at Spokane, Wash.

Miss Grace Jones of Sleepy Eye, is being entertained by Mrs. O. C. Seiter.

Col. Wm. Pfaender returned home Saturday evening from his St. Paul visit.

Mrs. H. L. Beecher and children visited in St. Peter several days last week.

Miss Emma Green returned Thursday to St. Paul to resume her art teaching.

Chas. Arbes spent the early part of the week in Bird Island calling upon friends.

Miss Sadie Solem of Minneapolis, arrived Monday for a visit with New Ulm friends.

Stephen Updyke is visiting at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. S. G. Updyke.

Miss Ida Hermann and Miss Ada Nagel were guests of Tracy friends a portion of last week.

Mrs. W. T. Eckstein and niece, Miss Elsie, left Saturday for a visit with relatives at Windom.

Miss Birdie Mullen goes to Notre Dame, Ind., next Saturday to enter St. Mary's Academy.

Miss Elizabeth Jaehn of Springfield, is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Karl.

During the hard rain of Monday evening .86 of an inch of water fell in less than thirty minutes.

A cupola has been built upon the roof of the Empire mill to carry off the heat from the boiler room.

Rev. C. Hohn went to St. Paul Monday to assume his duties as vice president of St. Paul Park college.

A daughter made her appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Scheemann of Courtland, Saturday.

Mrs. C. Breed of Morristown, visited with Mrs. R. L. English last week, returning to her home Thursday.

Frank Webber came down from Minneapolis yesterday for a short stay at the home of his parents.

Mrs. T. Thomas returned Friday from Minneapolis, where she selected a portion of her millinery stock.

Carl E. Fritz has been named as carrier on rural route No. 1, with his father, Chris Fritz, as substitute.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schreyer are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter who made her appearance Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Mullen and Miss Birdie were in the Twin Cities last Friday and attended the state fair.

Dr. Otto Wicherski is back from Rush Medical college, he having taken the summer course at that institution.

Mrs. K. E. Mo and children returned Friday to their home at Springfield after a visit with Judge and Mrs. S. A. George.

Chas. Reuter and Miss Lydia Grussendorf, both of Lafayette, were married in this city last week by Rev. C. H. Dallman.

Wd. Eibner left for Chicago Saturday with his daughter, Carrie, who will take a course at Josephina Academy.

Ochs & Baer last week put in the steel ceiling in a new building at Springfield owned by Geo. Ross of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Snell of Canby, arrived Friday evening for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barnes.

Dwight Mowery and sister, Miss May, leave next Monday for Northfield to resume their studies at Carleton college.

The Eagle mill was shut down Monday to allow its employes to observe Labor Day. It started again yesterday morning.

Miss Mabel Remund returned to New Ulm last Saturday where she will attend the high school for another year.—Waseca Herald.

H. W. Commons, of the grain commission firm of Commons & Co., Minneapolis, was a guest of A. W. Bingham Monday.

John J. Juennemann and wife went to Redwood Falls last week to attend the marriage of Miss Grace Lauterbach and Andrew Cook.

Miss Ida Heers opened her kindergarten at Turner Hall yesterday morning. The Misses Fritton will not open their school this fall.

Several local printing offices observed Labor Day. The Review, News, Post and Fortschritt offices were closed Monday afternoon.

* Dr. W. R. Murray of Minneapolis, specialist in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, will be at Dr. J. H. Vogel's office Sunday, Sept. 13th. Hours 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Francis Critchett has received a letter from Clarence Selter in which the latter states that he has entered a dental school at Omaha, Neb.

A football team is being organized at the New Ulm high school and challenges will soon be issued to the high schools in this vicinity.

Dr. L. A. Gebhardt got home Friday noon from Minneapolis, where he attended the annual meeting of the Minnesota State Dental society.

Three New Ulm girls who will teach in the schools of Brown county this year are the Misses Lillian Juni, Alice Pfefferle and Kate Russell.

Alex. F. Ottomeyer returned last Wednesday from Chicago and Milwaukee, where he purchased Crone Bros.' fall stock of clothing.

Jacob Schroeder of Seaforth, Redwood county, and Miss Bertha Wotschke of this city, were married in the Lutheran church last evening.

Judge of Probate Fred Schweppe of Watonwan county, returned to his home in St. James last Thursday after a visit with New Ulm relatives.

Postmaster Ed. Carlson of Hanska, was in the city Friday. He reports that the work upon the new hotel for that town is progressing nicely.

Sleepy Eye boasted of a daily during the carnival last week. With commendable enterprise Editor Bath issued the paper from the Dispatch office.

* The new Crescent caps, very latest thing in the line of ladies' headgear. Just received. You should have one. Mrs. T. Thomas, at the Millinery parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Melges entertained a number of young people Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Emma Melges of New Ulm.—Redwood Gazette.

Dr. J. H. Vogel was in Hanska on Thursday and Friday of last week looking after the practice of Dr. D. F. Wood during the absence of the latter.

On Saturday evening the Concordia band gave their street concert in front of Hummel Bros. Another concert will be given next Saturday evening.

Miss Brettia Price has taken up her teaching duties in school district No. 16. She is making her home with James Allison and family of Lone Tree.

Edwin Juni left Saturday for Minneapolis to enter the University of Minnesota. Monday morning he went to Lake City to participate in the rifle contest.

Mrs. A. H. W. Eckstein came down from Duluth last week to be present at the funeral of her uncle, the late Henry Beinhorn. She returned to her home Saturday.

Mrs. Maerker, formerly Miss Bertha Streissgruth of this city, returned last week to her home in Milwaukee, Wis., after a pleasant visit with friends and relatives here.

Owing to the inclement weather it was necessary for the Second Regiment band to postpone the concert which was to have been given in Turner Park Sunday evening.

Monday morning the Second Regiment band journeyed to Mankato and provided music for the labor day parade in that city. The Mankato papers speak very highly of their playing.

Wm. Huevelmann is a master hand in the care of horses. Last month the heavy team which he drives upon the sprinkler took on about 200 pounds of flesh apiece in spite of the heavy work.

Miss Minnie Schon arrived Monday evening from her home at Good Thunder and will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. D. Kogge. She has arranged to learn millinery with Mrs. T. Thomas.

Advices from the manufacturers state that the new hook and ladder truck will not be ready for delivery much before October 15th. As yet no steps have been taken to dispose of the old truck.

Contractor John Gronau has completed the brick work on Henry Frenzel's new building at the corner of Center and German streets and the owner expects to be able to occupy it in about a month.

Miss Marie Bogen has returned from her extended trip to Europe. Miss Helen Schlichting of Chicago, who accompanied her on her visit to the continent, is at present visiting with a sister in Owatonna.

Elmer J. Anderson, a Minneapolis & St. Louis brakeman, crushed the first finger on his right hand last Thursday while working about the ditcher in Fritsche's ravine. Dr. Strickler dressed the digit.

Marshal Mike Franz brought two prisoners down from Sleepy Eye Friday evening to serve thirty-day sentences in the county jail. Sam Stewart was committed for using abusive language and Frank Kennedy was given a month for being too handy with his fists.

The Misses Kummer, who were the guests of Mrs. Nix last week departed Wednesday for their home at Cleveland, Ohio.

Andrew Roesch's daughter, the little girl who had her hip fractured last week, is recovering nicely from the effects of her accident. Dr. Weiser will not be compelled to amputate and he does not fear shortening of the limb.

Mrs. G. W. Barnes had the misfortune to fall down stairs at her home on South Broadway Saturday morning. She was confined to her bed for several days and has not yet fully recovered from the effects of the accident.

P. J. Eichten, representing J. J. Eichten, a large wholesale liquor dealer of Stillwater, was in the city yesterday looking for a dwelling. He intends to move his family to New Ulm and will make this place his headquarters.

Builders' journals and other publications which cater to contractors are exhibiting great interest in the Brown county jail. Every week Andrew J. Eckstein receives communications from some of them asking him to supply details.

George Schmidt and Fred Hubbard left for Lake City Saturday. They will act as markers during the rifle contest for places upon the Minnesota team and also during the match between the sharpshooters of this state, Illinois and Iowa.

Dr. O. C. Strickler was called to Hanska last Friday to reduce a fracture for little Anna Thorson, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Thorson, residing near that village. The child fell from a granary and broke her left arm above the wrist.

F. H. Behnke, treasurer of the Brown County Agricultural society, last week received from State Auditor S. G. Iverson a check for $274.51, the local association's share of the $14,000 appropriated last winter by the legislature. All of the counties in the state shared equally in the apportionment.

H. C. Kaschau retired from the barber business Saturday night and will spend a few weeks in New Ulm before leaving for Chicago to enter the Chicago Dental college. Anton Simmet, who is now sole proprietor, has engaged Arnold Stamm to take the second chair.

Mrs. B. Follmann returned from her trip to Chicago and Milwaukee last week. She has engaged Miss Nellie Dille to trim again this season and has an advertisement in this issue of the Review, calling attention to her grand opening on Saturday, September 19th.

The St. Paul Daily News has inaugurated a piano contest and will give a $400 instrument to the lady receiving the largest number of votes before October 31st. Among the ladies who are entered are Mrs. W. R. Hodges of Sleepy Eye, and Miss Emma Anderson of Springfield.

"We are prepared for the suckers," reads a sign in W. G. Alwin's show window, but the local druggist does not wish to convey the impression that he is looking for the unsophisticated. His unique advertisement refers simply to a nice display of bottles, with the rubber attachments and other apertures.

FALL MILLINERY STYLES.

Trimmed hats for autumn wear are commencing to come in. Shapes this fall are very neat and chic and the mode in designs attractive. Watch for the date of our Grand Opening.

I have a nice assortment of Battenberg, Stamped Linens and Indian Beads. Also everything for the infants—Infants' Cloaks, Hoods, Etc.

Mrs. T. Thomas,
Buenger Block. The Millinery Parlors.

New Ulm Day at the Carnival.
Four hundred strong tells part of the story of New Ulm day at the Carnival. At seven o'clock Wednesday evening the music of the Second Regiment and Concordia bands announced to our townspeople that New Ulm had come up in force to take in the Carnival. It was a gala night and things moved lively until the special, composed of four coaches left at 11:30 p. m. It takes a band to warm things up and New Ulm certainly has some of the finest bands in the state. On all sides could be heard expressions of satisfaction by the visitors in regard to the exhibitions, so the committees feel in part repaid for their efforts, while the citizens of the town feel highly gratified to note that our sister town has taken such a lively interest and materially boosted the enterprise. Come again New Ulm, we are pleased to entertain you.—Sleepy Eye Herald.

* Hartz Mountain Canaries. The imported, also the home grown for sale by Mrs. W. W. RUSSELL, New Ulm, Minn. 321 South State St. 41

The New Hats for Autumn wear.

The advance styles are here and ready for your viewing. They're stylish, nobby, swell. Untrimmed, trimmed and tailored effects. Hand made and draped hats, suit and outing hats. The new hats for early Fall wear are being displayed, showing the new materials and the fashions that are going to be worn through September and October. Chic and smart ideas in all the up-to-date styles.

Don't fail to attend our Fall Opening, SAT., SEPT. 19

Mrs. S. A. Pfefferle