

Easter Egg Dyes.

Colors and Papers, in one package, contains enough to color 100 eggs, only 5c a package.

See our beautiful line of Easter Novelties. Chickens, Rabbits, Etc. Prices cheap at

Pfefferle's
Reliable Drug Store.

THE SECRET?

It's inside the can! Defined flavor, firmness, tenderness, are the excellences for our line of canned Vegetables—selected by actual test of merit, not by gaudy labels.

- Try a can selected at random.
- Tomatoes Moccasin Brand 2 cans for..... 25c
 - Corn Moccasin Brand per can..... 10c
 - Peas Moccasin Brand Sifted, per can..... 15c
 - Wax Beans very tender per can..... 13c
 - Beans stringless (Blue Diamond) per can 13c

Red Ribbon Mocha & Java Coffee is our leader and if you try a pound you won't use any other. Prices 20c to 35c.

The Red Front Grocery,
GEO. HAUENSTEIN.
Telephone 43.

Euchre! Euchre!

THE LADIES OF THE
New Ulm Turnverein

WILL GIVE A
Euchre Party

—AT—
TURNER HALL,

—ON—
Wednesday Eve., March 30th.

Admission 25 cents, which includes lunch.
Everybody welcome.

The Star Billiard and Bowling Hall

FRED KRETSCH, Prop.
DANCE EASTER MONDAY APRIL 4TH.

For Sale.
The Appelgren property on 2d street. Buildings and lots. Also a good jewelry business and stock of jewelry, for sale cheap. GUST APPELGRÉN,
12-15 Winthrop, Minn.

For Rent.
Three-room house with up-stairs; barn and chicken stable, on 3 1/2 acres of good land, 15 blocks from Postoffice. Will rent for $50 a year. Inquire of Ed. J. Bobleter, Real Estate, Ins. and Collections, P. O. Block. 9tf

House for Sale.
House and three lots with small barn; lots have shrubbery and fruit trees. Eighty-barrel cistern and new well. Inquire of CAP. NENNO.

Al-Ki will cure chapped hands, sore lips, rough skin, pimples, blackheads, blotches, dandruff and all imperfections of skin and scalp. Druggists or by mail 25c a bottle. AL-KI Chemical Co., St. Paul, Minn. Dec. 10.

For Rent.
Six rooms in the second story of my brick building near the Eagle mill. City water; first-class condition.
12-13 N. HENNINGSEN.

Lost Pocket Book.
A pocket book containing $35 and some small change was lost Monday, March 21st. Finder please leave with Postmaster Krook and get reward.

LOCAL NEWS.

Prof. E. L. Dills was a Minneapolis visitor Saturday.

Mrs. H. L. Beecher visited in Minneapolis last week.

A boy was born last Wednesday to Wm. Ochs and wife.

A. C. Ochs of Springfield, sojourned in the city Thursday.

C. H. Hornburg of Mankato, was in the city for a few hours Thursday.

J. D. Quane and wife of Mankato, spent Sunday with relatives in the city.

Col. Wm. Pfander has been confined to his home by illness for nearly a week.

R. E. O'Keefe, the successful Franklin attorney, was in the city Saturday evening.

Miss Ida Heers will open her kindergarten at Turner hall on Tuesday, April 5th.

Twenty-seven saloonkeepers have applied for liquor licenses, one less than a year ago.

Miss Anna Salfer of Mankato, visited with New Ulm relatives from Friday until Sunday.

Day after tomorrow, Good Friday, the pupils of the public schools will be given a holiday.

See the "Passion Play of Oberammergau" at the Congregational church tomorrow evening.

Miss Martha Eichmann has accepted a position as trimmer for Miss K. M. Glaser of Sleepy Eye.

Mrs. Herman Hein returned yesterday from Chicago, where she attended the funeral of her mother.

Miss May Mowery arrived home from Carleton college last Wednesday to spend the Easter vacation.

Several of the local shriners are planning to attend the conclave in Minneapolis Friday evening.

Albert Ross and Miss Kate Brophy, young people of Springfield, visited with friends here Sunday.

The New Ulm Gun and Rod club will hold its annual meeting and elect officers next Tuesday evening.

The regular monthly services of the Lutheran church have been postponed to the second Sunday in April.

Some twenty classmates of Francis Critchett agreeably surprised him Monday evening, it being his birthday.

Francis Critchett will accompany his father to Minneapolis tomorrow to receive treatment for spinal trouble.

A. J. Olin passed through the city Friday while returning to his home in Franklin from a business trip to Iowa.

Dr. Otto Wicherski has completed his studies at the Chicago Medical college and has begun practicing in that city.

Monday evening the Elite Whist club held its last meeting for the season at the home of H. D. Beussmann and wife.

Editor A. T. Johnson was over from Winthrop Saturday evening to see the Fairfax degree team confer the Oriental degree.

K. E. Mo and wife of Springfield, and Wm. Behnke of St. James, were here yesterday for the funeral of Mrs. Delight Tuttle.

B. Stockman is expected to reach home next Sunday. He sailed from Liverpool March 17th on the steamship Minnesota.

On account of election falling upon next Tuesday the city council will not hold its annual meeting until the following night.

Masons are putting in the foundation for the new marine boiler at the Eagle mill. The boiler will be shipped here early next month.

A meeting of the Brown County Agricultural society, which was to have been held Thursday evening, was postponed until tonight.

W. I. Nolan, the Minneapolis humorist, will give an entertainment in this city on April 8th under the auspices of the Masonic lodge.

* All kinds of Grass Seeds, at W. G. Alwin's Drug Store. 15

Teachers of the eastern end of the county will hold a meeting in this city next Saturday. County Superintendent John Cutting will be present.

Hugo Dorn of Fairfax, says the Standard, will move to New Ulm, he having taken a position in the bottling department at Schell's brewery.

Chas. Silverson was in Philadelphia Sunday and this week will visit a number of eastern cities. He is expected to reach New Ulm on April 4th or 5th.

The Sons of Herman lodges of Minnesota will hold their annual picnic in this city Sunday, June 19th. Special trains will run from the Twin Cities.

The ice has begun to move out of the Cottonwood river and the Minnesota will break up soon. It is not likely that the water will be high this spring.

Mrs. J. H. Siegel returned Saturday evening from Evansville, Ind. She was accompanied by Miss Josie Siegel of that city, who will visit here this summer.

IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

CRONE BROS. SPECIALS.

Your baby should have the prettiest little shoes that are made. We've got 'em. 50c to $2.

If you buy a pair of Budd's children's shoes, you get the best shoes that the price will buy.

Boys' and children's suits are in. We're showing something new this season in the "Duplex" and "Tear-about" suits. Be sure to see them.

Spring is not far off with the spring styles in sight at our store.

New line of Neckwear for spring just received.

We have a new line of ladies' belts that is irresistible. All the new designs and trimmings at prices from 25c up. Come see them.

Never before have we had such a large and beautiful assortment of Ladies' stock collars as we now have.

We have them in white, black and colors, beautifully embroidered at 25c to 90c. Also a nice line of sets consisting of turnover collars and cuffs to match from 25c to 50c. Black Jet collars 75c to $2.25.

Early Thursday evening the fire department was called out and made a run to the Aug. Wittmann residence on State street. A burning chimney caused the trouble.

Attorney H. N. Somsen, G. W. Barnes and A. P. Brooks were in St. Paul Thursday and Friday in the interests of the Minnesota Mutual Fire Insurance company.

The Schumann Grand. Concert company appeared at the Turner Theatre last Wednesday evening. Portions of their entertainment were very fine and it all gave satisfaction.

Prof. John Mayer, of the Dr. Martin Luther college faculty, went to Mankato Thursday night and conducted Lenten services in the German Lutheran church at that place.

George Diedrich shipped his household goods to Lake Benton Thursday and left for that place with his family the following day. He will have charge of the Lambert lumber yard.

Chas. Stuebe's building lot contest opened Monday and it promises to become very popular. On June 1st the person holding the lucky number will be given a warranty deed to the property.

Attorney I. M. Olsen, who will probably be the next mayor of Sleepy Eye, occupied a seat at the New Ulm opera house Thursday night and witnessed the nomination of the city ticket.

The members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church were very successful with their Easter fair, held Thursday in the Boesch building. They cleared the neat sum of $115.

Mrs. A. B. Swindlehurst, a matron in the state school for indigent children at Owatonna, visited the city Monday. She was examining into the welfare of several children who have been adopted here.

Company A will be given its annual inspection next Saturday evening by Major Gerlach, retired. The Springfield section will be down and Capt. Buschers expects to be able to muster his full company.

Confirmation services were held in the Lutheran and Evangelical churches Sunday morning. In the first forty-three boys and girls received the sacrament, while at the Frieden's church the class numbered five.

Rev. D. O. Bean will lecture on the "Passion Play" in the Congregational church tomorrow evening, showing stereopticon views of the picturesque old-world tragedy. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

This evening the ladies of the Turnverein will give their progressive euchre party, which was postponed from last Wednesday night. The card parties are always popular and a large attendance is looked for.

Capt. John Buschers went to Springfield Thursday and put the militia section there through a stiff drill. He reports them in excellent shape and says they will make a good appearance at the inspection Saturday night.

Yale won the intercollegiate championship at the meeting of the American Gymnastic association in New York City Friday night. The University of Minnesota team, of which Elmer Haeblerle was a member, was not placed.

Dr. Weaver's Treatment.
Syrup for the blood; Cerate for skin eruptions.

Nearly 40,000 gallons of water were used by the department at the Peterson fire Saturday. What this means is shown by the fact that the normal consumption of the entire city at this time of the year is between 50,000 and 70,000 gallons.

New Ulm ladies spent their time very profitably yesterday in examining the new millinery styles. Mesdames B. Follmann, T. Thomas and S. Pfeifferle all held their Easter openings and without exception the stores were crowded.

There was only one vote against the incorporation of the village of Eran. The articles have been filed with Register of Deeds W. C. Miller and they show that twenty-five voters favored the proposition, while there was one lone man opposed.

Stephen Lamm, a pioneer resident of Mankato and reckoned as one of the wealthiest men in the state, died last Wednesday morning after a long illness at the age of 77 years. Mr. Lamm was a conservative financier and was known throughout the northwest.

Copies of the Duluth News-Tribune which were received in this city last week contained accounts of the death of Mrs. Anna M. Laueremann, wife of J. J. Laueremann, at one time engaged in the shoe business here. The interment was made at Willemette, Ill.

It is not generally known in New Ulm that Norman Lind is now in the lumber business at Everett, Wash. In connection with his father he has for a year past been doing a jobbing business in logs and lumber under the firm name of Norman Lind & Co.

The New Ulm cadet band, under the leadership of B. Gruenfelder, will give a concert in the New Ulm opera house on Sunday evening, April 10th. A year ago this organization gave a very successful recital and their April concert will prove fully as popular.

Pretty love scenes for the young ladies, excitement for the gallery, tears for sentimental, and laughter, songs and dance that will cheer the hearts of all, in "How Hopper Was Sidetracked" at the New Ulm opera house next Sunday evening, April 3d.

Queries sent out by the Northwestern Miller to representative men of the Northwest as to the next president of the United States show the great strength of Theodore Roosevelt. Out of 1,200 replies more than 1,000 were for Roosevelt, while none mentioned Hearst.

W. B. Soukup, for a year and a half bookkeeper at the mill, will go to New Ulm next Monday to take a position in the Eagle mill of that city. W. B. is a thorough accountant and an industrious young man, who is a valuable employee to any firm.—Sleepy Eye Herald.

Mrs. Bloss entertained Wednesday the occasion being her birthday anniversary. There were about 18 present. Among the guests were Madames Tappe, Sandau, Fritsche, Wankum, and Doberenz, of New Ulm. An elegant lunch was served at 6 o'clock.—Winthrop News.

Eleven petitions were filed with City Clerk Louis Schilling Saturday. Of the caucus nominees Chas. Silverson, Ed. J. Bobleter, Wm. Frank, N. Henningsen, Ernst Brandt and Jos. G. Tauer all filed, while the independent candidates are Louis Schilling and Frank Schubert.

Col. C. H. Johnson, the prominent Mankatonian who recently succeeded P. A. Gunders as a deputy public examiner, stopped off in New Ulm Thursday and went over the books of Auditor Vogel and Treasurer Schneider. He was accompanied by another deputy, S. H. Bezolier.

* All kinds of Grass Seeds, at W. G. Alwin's Drug Store. 15

Five Sleepy Eye bowlers took three games out of five from the Buenger Block team Saturday night. The Buengers, who made their appearance in neat sweaters with the name of the block embroidered across the fronts, captured the first two games and then dropped three straight.

Articles of incorporation of the Hanska Rural Telephone company have been filed with the secretary of state. The capital stock is placed at $50,000 and the incorporators are D. F. Wood, G. W. Chambard, E. G. Hage, C. I. Stone, Casper Olstad, A. O. Ouren, Carl Olstad, Iver Stone and Christ Strom, all of Hanska.

H. B. Constans, Jr., of St. Paul, visited the city Thursday and spent the day calling upon old residents of the city. Mr. Constans is a son of H. B. Constans, Sr., who was at one time mayor of New Ulm and county auditor of Brown county. The younger man had not returned to New Ulm since leaving here eighteen years ago.

Dissolution of Partnership.
The partnership heretofore existing between Alred J. Vogel and Jos. P. Vogel, lumber dealers, under the firm name of A. J. Vogel & Co., has been dissolved. Persons indebted to the firm are requested to settle their accounts before May 1st, 1904, without fail. For the liberal patronage which has been accorded the firm in the past its members desire to express thanks and Alred J. Vogel, who will continue the business, respectfully requests a continuance of the same.

A. J. VOGEL,
JOS. P. VOGEL.

OCHS BROS., The Bee Hive.

WHEN you are in the city we invite you to call at The Bee Hive to see our magnificent line of Spring and Summer Goods which we are displaying, and which are arriving daily. We are showing all the latest designs, materials and shades in that can be obtained in the eastern markets, and are selling them at our well-known low prices.

Dress Goods and Wash Goods

Call and be convinced that our assertions are correct.

WE ALSO TAKE EGGS IN EXCHANGE for which we pay the highest market price.

Ochs Bros. The Bee Hive

What Looks Good in a Room?

It's the walls upon which

The Alabastine Colors

have been used.

The time is now here to beautify your rooms. We have all colors in Alabastine.

Only 50c for a 5 pound package.

W. G. ALWIN'S City Drug Store.

"RAINSTOP"

Cravanette, Box Coats, Rubber Coats, Firemen's Coats, Dray Men's Coats, Drivers' Coats. Everything in the line of rainy day clothing.

Prices right.
Goods guaranteed.

F. P. Zschunke & Co.

Complete line of hats and furnishings

Last Mountain Valley

THE GARDEN of WESTERN CANADA.

The Richest Part of the Great Saskatchewan Valley.

DON'T BUY LAND or LOCATE Anywhere

Until You Have Investigated Our Holdings.

This is the Richest Land in All Canada!

Ample Rainfall, Rich Soil, Splendid Water and Abundant Fuel.

More than 2000 FAMILIES from the Northwest Located in this District last year.

60 TOWNSHIPS TO SELECT FROM.

$8.00 PER ACRE.

EASY TERMS.

These lands will advance tremendously and rapidly.

DON'T WAIT, BUY NOW.

Descriptive matter, Maps, etc., on application.

WM. PEARSON & CO.,

383 Main Street, WINNIPEG, MAN.

We offer subject to previous sale $70,000

Mankato Malting Co. Ten Year Six Per Cent Gold Bonds.

These bonds are in denomination of $100. Interest coupons payable semi-annually at the office of Security Trust Co., in St. Paul. They are secured by a Deed of Trust covering all the property now owned or to be acquired by the Malting Co. which is one of the most prosperous companies in the state. A sinking fund of $7,000 per year is to be paid to the Trustees to provide for the payment of principal at maturity. Bonds will be sent to your local bank to be delivered upon payment. Large or small amounts.

We recommend these bonds as absolutely safe and one of the finest investments we have ever handled. Write us for full particulars and descriptive circular. Write today. Mention this paper.

GILMAN & CO.,

GERMANIA LIFE BUILDING, ST. PAUL, MINN.