Architect A. J. Van Deusen of Winnona, is preparing plans and specifications for the heating and plumbing for the Catholic parochial school.
Bids will probably be received about September 1st.

The Misses Mamie Neumann, Lucy Crocker, Lucy Hauenstein, Lily Juni and Irma Juni went to Lake City last week to call on the members of Company A. They attended the big military ball Saturday evening.

Representative Ole Peterson of Brighton, spent several hours in the city Thursday. Mr. Peterson was one of R. C. Dunn's most ardent supporters and naturally he is well pleased with the result of the state convention.

Chas. H. Stuebe returned last Wednesday night from Everts, S. D., where he spent ten days on the Minnesota & Dakota Cattle company's ranch. At Pierre Mr. Stuebe purchased a carload of horses which he will sell in this vicinity.

Nagel, while working with a derrick at the M. & St. L. Monday, had the misfortune to have the first finger of his right hand quite severely crushed.
He will not be able to work for some time.

Since her return to this city from California Mrs. W. Boesch has been giving her property in this city considerable attention in the way of repairs and improvements and in most cases has decided to raise the rents quite a little.

Frank Schmelz who lives in the town of Cottonwood, entertained a large number of his friends and relatives Sunday. His place was apparently the most popular in the county that day and all who were present say that they had an excellent time.

Last Wednesday afternoon a funnel-shaped cloud passed along east of the city. A number of people noticed the embryo twister and for some minutes it caused considerable apprehension.
It was at some height, however, and the threatened blow did not materialize.

The morning services at the Congregational church in this city will be reception of new members and communion in the morning and in the evening the sermon will be from the was found in the bottle.

Supt. Adolf Wagner last week received a letter from Lewis & Ketcher, Chicago parties, in which they made inquiries regarding power for an electric motor. From the tone of the letter he inferred that they intended to locate in New Ulm but they neglected to state the nature of their business.

Miss Lillian Klossner has written to her parents from Paris and informs them that she is enjoying every minute of the time. A chance meeting with a gentlemen in one of the hotels revealed the interesting fact that he had a knowledge and acquaintance in New Ulm and made inquiries of parties whom he had known here, all of which goes to show that the world is not so large that one can get beyond the circle of those who may have known them.

Robert Hose, one of the popular and successful business men of the city, and Miss Hannah Dahl were married at the home of the bride's parents in Minnesota. Miss Lillian Dahl was bridesmaid and A. MacMillan of this city, acted as best man. It will be remembered the bride was at one time a teacher in the public schools and she has many friends here. Mr. and Mrs.
Hose will be at home here after a few days' visit at the exposition.—Sleepy Eye Dispatch.

Judge Hennings dismissed the case against Barney and Peter Bertrand of Home township, when it was called before him last Wednesday.
They were arrested for assault on complaint of Carl Moeck, who claimed that they stopped his team while he was driving along a roadway across their land. There was no evidence to show that the Bertrands did not have a perfect right to prevent Moeck from crossing their premises and they were discharged by the court.

Old Firm Dissolves.

After eleven years of co-partnership, Ath. Henle and Albert Nicklaus, of the blacksmithing and wagonmaking firm of Nicklaus & Henle, last Wednesday severed their business connections. Mr. Nicklaus retires from the firm and Mr. Henle will continue the business. He has disposed of a half-interest to John Bongartz of Minneapolis, the new firm to be known as Henle & Bongartz. The latter is a practical horseshoer and blacksmith and will be able to sustain the firm's reputation for high-class workmanship.
