

To Exterminate Chicken Lice

there is only one sure and effective way and that is by applying

Avenarius Carbolineum.

It is simply necessary to paint or spray the interior walls, the floor and roosts of the poultry house, to exterminate all vermin and to keep same away permanently.

GROCERIES

The first precaution to be taken in buying Groceries is to be sure they are

FRESH AND PURE.

We sell so much goods that no part of our stock has a chance to stay long on the shelves. This keeps the stock constantly changing and consequently the goods are sure to be fresh.

As to purity, we look out for that. No goods that are not pure and in every way fit to use goes into our store, and of course none goes out.

When you pass our store just notice the Fine line of fruits.

Fruits for canning purposes a specialty.
