

Held Bros.
BOOK STORE

School Commences Mon., Aug. 29.

Buy your School Books and School Supplies from us. We have a full line of all the Books, Writing Paper, Tablets, Pencils
and other things necessary for a complete school outfit.

Held Bros.
BOOK STORE

LOST-- A LAME BACK

It is safe to say that over two hundred lame and weak backs in New Ulm have been relieved and cured by using

Juniper Kidney Pills.

They are a wonderful combination of the Best Medicines ever used for Kidneys or Weak Backs. We guarantee every box to give entire satisfaction or your money gladly refunded. □

50 Pills only 50 cents.

Eug. A. Pfefferle,
The Reliable Druggist.

Wanted.

Student wanted to learn telegraphy. Tuition free. Inquire at this office. 36-1f

To the Citizens of New Ulm.

The citizens of this city are kindly requested to decorate their residences for the Catholic festivities which take place in connection with the meeting of the Catholic Benevolent Association in this city Sept 24-25.

COM. ON DECORATION.

A Good Investment.

Finding it desirable to devote my time exclusively to Western business interests, I offer my elevator and mill and my wheat and flour business at Gaylord, Minnesota, for sale. I will sell for cash, but prefer to take as part payment an improved farm and a mortgage on the milling property, at a low rate of interest.

Address, W. W. Strickland, Superior, Wisconsin. 37

Boy Wanted.

Good boy wanted to learn photography. Inquire at the studio of A. J. MEYER. 33f

Wanted.

A good, bright boy to drive a delivery wagon. Inquire at the Model Meat Market, Chas. Stuebe, Prop.

Wanted.

Industrious man or woman as permanent representative of big manufacturing company, to look after its business in this county and adjoining territory. Business successful and established. Salary $20.00 weekly and expenses. Salary paid weekly from home office. Expense money advanced. Experience not essential. Enclose self-addressed envelope. General Manager, Como Block, Chicago. 40

Mankato Commercial College Mankato, is the school for you to attend. Send for their free catalogue.

The Star Billiard and Bowling Hall
FRED KRETSCHE, Prop.
Everything New, Clean and Up to date.

SHIP YOUR GRAIN. We are the only firm in this city dealing exclusively with the farmer. All Millers know that our care are of one grade and not elevator mixed, which explains why our service is more satisfactory than any other concern. Submit us samples for grades etc. COOPER COMMISSION CO., Minneapolis, Minn.

GROCERIES

The first precaution to be taken in buying Groceries is to be sure they are

FRESH AND PURE.

We sell so much goods that no part of our stock has a chance to stay long on the shelves. This keeps the stock constantly changing and consequently the goods are sure to be fresh.

As to purity, we look out for that. No goods that are not pure and in every way fit to use goes into our store, and of course none goes out.

When you pass our store just notice the

Fine line of fruits.

Fruits for canning purposes a specialty.

Red Front Grocery
Geo. Hauenstein. Phone 43.

LOCAL NEWS.

O. Meyer of this city visited in St. Paul last week.

Frank Nenko and wife are visiting friends in Omaha.

Chauncey Olcott at Mankato Theatre next Monday Sept. 19th.

Miss Lillian Juni began her school in the Diepolder district on Monday.

* Have your pictures framed with the newest frames, at J. H. Forster. 35f

Mrs. G. W. Nicholson is visiting friends in Watertown, S. D., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Richardson of this city spent last week in Winona visiting friends.

J. H. Siegel, head miller at the Eagle mill, was in Minneapolis several days last week.

C. W. A. Krook is enduring an affliction of rheumatism this week and is confined to his home.

Prof. A. Ackermann of the Lutheran college of this city, will preach at St. James on Sunday next.

Olaf Benson, one of the proprietors of the farmer's store at Gibbon, was in the city Friday on business.

Don't fail to hear or see Chauncey Olcott next Monday night at the Mankato Theatre in his latest songs.

Mrs. John Buschers and children came home Saturday from a two-week's visit with relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. M. Mullen entertained a large party of her lady friends at whist at her home last Thursday afternoon.

Eugene Pfefferle and wife were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Penning in the town of Home, over Sunday.

Mrs. M. C. Dill and granddaughter, Margaret, returned from a visit south Saturday and are again at Dr. Schoch's.

Professor Brandup one of the owners of the Mankato Business college, was in the city Thursday in the interests of his school.

Edward Sprenger left on Thursday last for St. Paul where he will resume his studies in St. Thomas seminary.

The price of wheat seems to be continually upward and the bulls in the market are predicting wheat at $2 before next May.

Miss Lillian Klossner who commenced her work in the Mankato Normal school last week, was home over Sunday.

*J. F. Neumann will have his regular Monday bargain sales from now until Christmas. Watch for our ad in the papers.

Geo. W. Barnes, president of the Inter-State of this city, left on Saturday for Canby in the interest of the insurance company.

O. M. Olsen of the Model drug store, left for the cities Friday and while there will purchase part of his stock of holiday goods.

Subject for the morning discourse at the Congregational church will be "Heaven." In the evening, "Contrasts and Similarities."

The veterans of Hecker post G. A. R., of this city spent the day very pleasantly at Hunter Rest Sunday, where they held a picnic.

Prof. J. Meyer of the Lutheran college of this city, preached at the mission fest in Sleepy Eye Sunday.

Alderman Anton Richards of this city, went to Hector Saturday for the purpose of superintending the threshing on his farm in that vicinity.

Last Thursday and Friday Adolf Wagner, superintendent of the electric light and water works of this city, was in Minneapolis on business.

O. J. Quane of St. Peter was here over Sunday with his family. He is getting out an excellent paper for the democratic nominee for governor.

Leo Gruenfelder, son of Prof. Gruenfelder of this city, departed for Prairie du Chien last week where he will enter a Catholic school at that place.

The Hanska schools opened for the term with an attendance in all grades of forty-one scholars. The teachers there are Prof. Eggensperger and Miss Ouren.

Herman Petersen of Brownton was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Henningsen one day last week on his way to attend the business college at Mankato.

John Riddler of St. Paul, representative of the Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons of this state, was in the city Monday and held an inspection of the local chapter.

CRONE BROS. SPECIALS.

The largest line of baby shoes in the city. Just convince yourself.

For Fur Coats for men or ladies come to us. The most complete line that ever was shown.

Just received a full line of Buster Brown collars at 10c. All sizes.

Oil cake any quantity.

Douglas shoes. The best for the money. Try a pair.

What is the use paying $2.50 for corsets made to order when you can get one to fit for $1.00.

Look at our cloak stock. The finest and largest in the city.

There were fourteen members of the Catholic Order of Foresters from Sleepy Eye who joined the party that went from here to Minneapolis last Sunday.

Christ Spellbrink closed a deal with S. D. Peterson Saturday whereby he comes into possession of a team of horses that were the property of Mr. Peterson.

Mrs. Follmann has again secured the services of Miss Cora Halbach in her millinery store. The young lady was here last year and remained through the season.

By reason of a disabled engine Conductor Richardson's train which runs from Mankato, via St. Peter to this city, was several hours late Saturday evening.

Gustav Boock of Washington, D. C., arrived in the city last week and will spend the vacation that the government allows him, visiting his mother and friends here.

On the 25th of this month it is expected that John A. Johnson will be in the city and will deliver an address on the issues of the campaign from the democratic viewpoint.

*Special remnant sale at J. F. Neumann's next Monday.

H. J. Miller of Laverne, candidate for the republican nomination for congress in opposition to Mr. McCleary, was in the city yesterday, in the interests of his campaign.

The Mission Fest of the Lutherans that was held in Sleepy Eye Sunday attracted a number of people from this city who drove to the above place, enjoying the day thoroughly.

Dr. O. Gray of Springfield made his regular visit to this city where he has several patients taking osteopathic treatment from him. It is his purpose to come here every week regularly.

The Women's society of the Evangelical church will serve ice cream and sandwiches and coffee at the home of Emil Kachel this evening and extend a cordial invitation to all to come.

Miss Annie Parr of New Ulm and Albert Hoffmann of Gilfillan were married here at the Catholic church Tuesday morning. Fr. Berger was the officiating clergyman.—Morgan Messenger.

Some of the new firemen on the Northwestern are: C. J. Cam of Winona, Joseph Miller of New Ulm, Roy Norman of Bryon, F. C. Prievert and T. H. Crozier of Winona.—Waseca Radical.

*Next Monday; great remnant sale at J. F. Neumann's.

It is the intention of a number of the active turners of the New Ulm society, to go to St. Paul on the 18th to take part in a turnfest that is scheduled to take place in that city on that day.

Miss Amelia Wellner, who gave such excellent satisfaction as trimmer for Mrs. Thomas last year, arrived in the city last week and has resumed her position in that popular millinery emporium.

The Eastern Star fraternity of this city announce that they will give one of its popular socials at the Masonic hall on the evening of the 4th of October. The program will consist of cards and dancing.

Father Sandmeyer and Wd. Eibner went to St. Louis last week as delegates from the St. Joseph society of this city to the meeting of the Catholic Central society which takes place in the world's fair city. While there they will visit the fair.

Rev. C. H. Sauter of the Methodist church of this city is at work on his annual report which is to be submitted to the conference of the German Methodist church which convenes in Le Sueur this month on the 22d.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sorenson, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Sorenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baltrusch in this city, left Sunday afternoon for Norseland, the home of Mr. Sorenson's parents where they will remain for some time.

* Buy the New Royal sewing machine. Warranted for 10 years. Only $38 at J. H. Forster. 35f

The Sleepy Eye Dispatch says that Rev. F. S. Rant went to Arlington Saturday to take charge of his new parish. He returned to this city Tuesday and will spend a few days in this vicinity before taking up his work.

There are 101 pupils enrolled in the high school at present, and more are expected before the winter sets in. This is the largest number that has been enrolled at any time. The number last year was under 100. The total enrollment of all grades is about forty more than it was last year.

Martin Penning was in the city yesterday with his seventh load of plums. He says the yield has been wonderful this year, though the rain at the ripening time has injured many. He says the "Surprise" plum, which is one of his best varieties, is the only plum on exhibition in the Agricultural building at the world's fair.

The annual potato picnic, which is one of the features of this season of the year in this vicinity, took place on the farm of George Schneider on Sunday. A large number of people were present from this place and participated in the festivities of the occasion. The principal item on the bill of fare was baked potatoes.

Mrs. B. Follmann who has been before the public in this city as one of the foremost milliners of the city, is ready again this fall with one of the best displays of fall millinery on the market. She will have her opening day on Thursday, the 22d of this month and will be pleased to see all who are interested in the latest conceits in millinery at her place at that time.

Agent Beecher of the Northwestern makes the announcement that his road will run a special excursion train to the cities on Saturday of this week. The trains will leave at the regular hours during the day and the price of tickets will be $1.50 for the round trip. These tickets will be good returning on any of the trains the following Monday.

Some of the men who are working on the gravel train that stops in this city, brought complaint to the local police that one of their number was given to appropriating articles for his own use that did not belong to him and they wanted him arrested. The complaint included a pair of shoes and a razor, but no such articles could be found on him and he was allowed to go.

August Marschner, former editor of The Mankato Post, who moved to Winona a little over a year ago, has been employed of late in a job printing office in the Twin Cities. He contemplates going back to the editorial chair, and has applied for the position of editor of the two newspapers at Fairmont, run by the same firm, The Fairmont Independent edited and published in the English language, and The Martin County Zeitung, in the German language.—Mankato Free Press.

Mrs. S. A. Pfefferle has in another column an announcement to the effect that she will have her fall opening of millinery at her store on Minnesota street, on Thursday the 22d of this month and she invites the public to her place to see the new lines of fall hats and styles that she will have for their inspection at that time. She has secured the services of Miss Hutchinson of Chippewa Falls as trimmer for the season and this young lady is competent to satisfy the most exacting. The ladies will be very welcome on the 22d as well as at all times at her store.

W. S. Little, who is assisting in the office of Bingham Bros. in this city during the absence of his brother, who is somewhere on the Pacific coast, was the recipient of an unusual request one day last week. It seems that there is to be a county fair in Lyon county, his home place, and the hired man on his father's farm is to have the distinction of being married at the fair. In order to have the ceremony as complete as possible, the hired man has written Mr. Little requesting him to act as best man at the wedding. The later has taken the request under advisement.

Rasmus Jacobson from the town of Linden, was in the city last Thursday. He is one of the farmers in that neighborhood who has secured a good thing out of this year's harvest. He says that most of the farmers in his neighborhood are as well fixed as he is, but there are some in Butternut Valley, who have found that it does not pay to use seed reproduced from the same grain each year. One man who has followed this method for many years finds this year that his grain only weighs about forty pounds to the bushel, and that he can only sell it for feed as it is worthless for flour.

Schools are open and the children need school supplies. Don't fail to come in and look at our assortment. We can please. We have a fine line of

Tablets, Lead Pencils, Pencil Boxes, Pen Holders, Slate Pencils, Colored Crayon, School Bags and lots more.

Be sure and come to us. A nice Blotter free with each tablet.

W. G. ALWIN'S
CITY DRUG STORE.

...Fall Millinery Opening...
Thursday, Sept. 22d.

The advance styles are here and ready for your inspection. Hand-made and draped hats, suit and outing hats. All the new styles for fall wear are being displayed.

Invitation to the Ladies!

Our opening takes place on the 22d of this month and all the ladies of the city are invited to call and inspect the display.

Mrs. S. A. Pfefferle.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

of New York, now holds for policy holders over

$400,000,000

an amount in excess of the assets of any other insurance company by many millions of dollars.

Oldest in America. Largest in the World.

Has earned more for policy holders, Has paid more to policy holders, Holds more for policy holders, Than any other company in the world.

A. F. REDMANN,

District Agent, New Ulm, Minn.

Just Received!
A carload of Iron Beds
Springs and Mattresses

which we offer to the public for inspection. Quality is what talks and if you take quality into consideration you will be convinced that we are loaded with bargains. Don't fail to call on us if in need of FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, LINOLEUM, WALL PAPER, CURTAINS, COUCHES, ROCKERS. Remember that our prices are right.

J. H. FORSTER.

Undertaking attended night or day.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE REVIEW.