

Happenings in the City.

August Puhlmann is confined to his home with sickness.

Rev. Mamar is spending a few days with friends at New Prague.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fritsche last Wednesday.

Chas. Stuebe went west as far as Marshall last week buying furs.

Edward Gerboth of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is visiting here with his parents.

John Hauenstein Jr. will leave for St. Paul tomorrow to be gone several days.

John Howard arrived in the city Saturday to look after his sheep interests.

Miss Bertha Lieb gave a card party at her Franklin street home Sunday evening.

Editor Quane of the St. Peter Herald was calling on his old New Ulm friends Friday.

Herman Raabe spent the week making a tour of inspection of the Eagle Mill elevators.

During 1906 the New Ulm Stone Company disposed of 329 carloads of crushed stone.

Miss Elsie Schmidt returned Saturday evening from a month's visit with Milwaukee relatives.

Miss Martha Skork attended a club dance of the Delta society in Mankato last Saturday evening.

Gen. Bobleter went to St. Paul Saturday to attend a meeting of the legislative committee on Military Affairs.

Stuebe Bros. last week purchased two fine otter pelts. The otter is getting to be a very rare animal in these parts.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ochs of Fairbault were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ochs in this city Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Hattie Rudolph arrived here from Revere Friday evening and is sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry Engel.

Manager Kohn of the Minnesota Central Telephone Co. went to Hanska Thursday to install a long distance booth in the Hanska hotel.

Ferd. Crone of this city and Peter Manderfeld of Minneapolis attended a bank director's meeting in Gibbon the forepart of the week.

Miss Angela Olding gave a basket social at the school in District 15 last Thursday evening. A goodly number attended from New Ulm.

The members of the Second Regiment band are arranging for a masquerade ball to be given at the opera house on the evening of Feb. 3rd.

Geo. Graen of the Burg Cigar Co. has leased the Webber home on South Broadway. His family will arrive here from Watertown in a few days.

A number of ladies drove out to the home of Mrs. Andrew Backer in Milford last Thursday evening and assisted in celebrating the anniversary of her birth.

Peter Mertz of this city has been re-elected a director of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank of Sleepy Eye. Wm. Brust was chosen cashier for another year.

Rev. Rett Olmstead of Decorah, Iowa, will deliver an address at Turner Hall on the evening of January 31st. His subject will be: "Faith from a Unitarian Standpoint."

The Sperl will case was thrashed over before the supreme court last Thursday. Einar Hoidal once more appeared for the contestants and Jos. A. Eckstein for the chief beneficiary of the will.

P. D. Raverty's name appears among the list of those appointed as gallery keepers for the lower house of the legislature. The appointment was obtained through the influence of Representative Peterson and carries with it a salary of $3 per day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engelbert were Mankato visitors Saturday.

Otto Schneider is learning the city routes as substitute mail carrier.

G. W. Barnes returned Saturday evening from a week's stay in St. Paul.

Dr. and Mrs. Graff entertained a dozen couples at whist Sunday evening.

John Rummings of St. Paul spent a portion of the week at the home of F. H. Behnke.

Mrs. F. Burg Jr. went to Lambert Friday with a supply of masquerade costumes.

Miss Ida Hauenstein returned Sunday from a two weeks' visit with her sister in Springfield.

Peter Johnson was unable to attend to his high school duties yesterday on account of sickness.

County Attorney Erickson was in town Monday evening representing the state in the Wilfahrt case.

The deal by which Henry Monzinger was to obtain possession of the Engelbert saloon fell through.

John X. Neumann will go to Colorado next summer to continue his studies in chemical engineering.

Sheriff Julius and Henry Rolwes, the court house janitor, are attending the sheriff's convention in St. Paul this week.

About twenty ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Fred Brust yesterday afternoon and assisted her in celebrating her birthday.

The Mental culture committee of the Turnverein is arranging an elaborate program for the annual Washington's birthday celebration.

Mrs. H. L. Beecher and Mrs. Fred Meier went to St. Peter Friday to hear the lecture of Capt. Richmond P. Hobson, he of Merrimac fame.

Engineer Buckholtz of Mankato is taking Engineer Yates' place on the New Ulm-Mankato run this week. Mr. Yates is enjoying a brief vacation.

Edward Vogel of Springfield has been bound over to appear before the next grand jury on a charge of bastardy. He gave bail in the sum of $500.

John, the son of Representative Peterson, is reported to be seriously sick with pneumonia in St. Paul. Mrs. Peterson left for his bedside Sunday afternoon.

H. J. Knudson of Sleepy Eye tendered his resignation as county commissioner to County Auditor Vogel on Wednesday, but the following day withdrew it.

Dr. Westbrook, dean of the University Medical School, has agreed to deliver a lecture at Turner Hall sometime during the winter. Mr. Benj. Stockman is in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. F. W. Johnson and Miss Vera Helmes were guests at Winthrop last Wednesday and Thursday. Parties were given in their honor by Mrs. Augusta Seiter and Mrs. Geo. Schieman.

Prof. Wilson, agronomist of the South Dakota Experimental Station, was in the city Monday looking over the plant of the Minnesota Seed Co. While here he was the guest of Fred Meier.

Mesdames Beecher, Meier and Behnke of the Woman's Literary Club and Mrs. H. D. Beussmann of the Current News Club will attend the state meeting of the Woman's Federation in Minneapolis next Saturday.

The bursting of a frozen water pipe in the basement of Bierbaum & Backer's store Monday morning resulted in completely flooding the cellar and doing considerable damage to potatoes and other vegetables.

The Ladies Society of the Turnverein held its annual meeting on Wednesday. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Henry Engel; vice president, Miss Tillie Heymann; secretaries, Miss Emilie Beinhorn and Miss Dora Schmidt; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Burg Jr.

Max Hanft, until recently traveling salesman for the Minneapolis Furniture Co., has launched into business for himself, having, with two other experienced parties, established a wholesale furniture house in the city of flour and sawdust. Everyone of Max's many New Ulm friends will wish him good luck in his venture.

Speaker Johnson made Representative Peterson chairman of the committee on corporations, other than municipal. The Brown county legislator is also a member of the following committees: Appropriations, General Legislation, Insurance, Military Affairs and Railroads. For the first time in several sessions his name does not appear among the members of the Committee on Temperance.

Fritz Wilfahrt of Sigel was brought before Justice Henningsen Monday evening charged with assault in the second degree. His offense consists in having beaten and abused his wife on repeated occasions while under the influence of liquor. Justice Henningsen set his hearing for January 31st and granted bail in the sum of $500 in order to give the prisoner an opportunity to go home and look after his stock.

Mrs. Marie Bogen was a Sleepy Eye visitor Saturday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Koehler yesterday morning.

Agent Starr of the Northwestern transacted business in Mankato Monday.

The Athletic Bowling Club defeated the Colts Monday evening by a margin of 75 pins.

Mrs. Lorenz Flor entertained a number of lady friends at cards Wednesday evening.

Albin Carlson, the Hanska merchant, transacted business here Sunday and Monday.

Andrew Gag, who has been working for a year or more in a St. Paul drugstore, is home on a vacation.

A crew of men arrived here from Winona Monday to cut ice for the local ice house of Northwestern railway.

There will be in the neighborhood of sixty people going to Springfield Saturday to participate in the Maennerchor concert.

The ladies of the Current News Club will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by the Woman's Literary Club at the home of Mrs. H. L. Beecher.

Mrs. R. L. English, formerly of this city but now living at Marshall, is the guest of Mrs. Zieckrick. She is accompanied by her daughter.

Alf. Keller went to Minneapolis Saturday to take an examination before the Pharmaceutical Board for a certificate as assistant pharmacist.

It is reported that Peter Hein, a piano and organ salesman who used to visit this city, was arrested recently in an Iowa town on a charge of rape.

Julius Berndt and Albert Ring went to St. Paul Monday to represent the local Hermann Sons lodges at the annual meeting of the state grand lodge.

E. J. Ruenitz and the Misses Bendixen and Gamble of Springfield will assist as soloists in the Maennerchor concert in Springfield next Saturday evening.

The Second Regiment band acted as an escort in the Schmucker funeral cortege yesterday afternoon. Mr. Schmucker was one of the band's honorary members.

Beginning next Monday Rev. Muelhausen will conduct revival meetings at the Evangelical church for two weeks. During the second week he will be assisted by Rev. Schulz of Sleepy Eye.

A new livery barn will be erected on First South Street between Minnesota and Broadway. The building will be located on the west end of the old Merchants Hotel site and will be occupied by Nic Andring.

Fred Williams' son, Walter, who has been in St. Luke's hospital in St. Paul for several months receiving treatment for a crippled limb, returned home last week with the limb almost wholly restored to normal form and strength.

The will of the late Judge Webber has been admitted to probate. The New Ulm residence and household furniture and cash and notes to the value of $6,500 is left to his widow. The balance, with the exception of two very small bequests to his sisters, is left to his son. No inventory has been made, as yet, of the estate.

The St. James and New Ulm High School clubs played a game of basketball at the Opera House Friday evening, the New Ulm players winning to the tune of 24 to 4. Immediately afterwards a second team from the local high school was defeated by a Dr. Martin Luther College club. The score in this game was 16 to 13.

Fred Meier returned Saturday evening from attending the Tri-State Grain convention at Fargo. He says the blockade condition in northwestern Minnesota is far worse than anyone down here can imagine. Many stations on the branch lines have not had any train service for over a week and at one town no freight of any kind has been received this year. Nor does there seem to be any prospect of immediate relief.

The local Commandery Knights were inspected by J. G. Burchard of Marshall last Wednesday evening. The following visiting Knights were in attendance: Geo. H. Chamberlain, W. A. Hawkins and John Hutchin of Marshall, H. M. Ball and S. W. Ellerson of Morgan, E. A. Lyman, A. C. Schmall, R. Loddell, Geo. Drake, M. Hingeley, N. V. Hunter, J. N. Tompkins, Joseph Tyson, F. A. Japs and O. L. Dornberg of Redwood Falls, O. W. Hagen and Dr. James of Sleepy Eye and Mr. Sundberg of St. James.

The following is the personnel of the Festival Orchestra, being drilled for the Maennerchor concert by W. T. Eckstein: First violins, Wm. Pfaender Jr. and Jos. C. Hofmeister; second violins, Ed. A. Stoll and Herbert Huevelmann; cello, Jos. A. Eckstein; double bass, John Henle and Armand Petry; flute, Peter Kitzberger; clarionets, Henry Kitzberger, Tony Weis, Jos. Tastel and Otto Fritsche; cornets, John Wartha, Fred Fritsche and John Fritsche; alto, Geo. Marti and Lorenz Flor; trombones, John J. Juenemann and Alb. Schilling; drums and bells, Frank Stengel.

F. H. Retzlaff shipped a carload of horses to Minneapolis yesterday.

The register of deeds in this county during 1906 recorded 1,406 instruments.

W. B. Mather and Herman Held are attending the Masonic grand lodge meeting in St. Paul.

Saturday night was the coldest of the present winter. The thermometer registered 17 below zero.

The Woman's Literary Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Geo. Zieckrick. Mrs. Hubbard acted as leader.

A special to the St. Paul Daily News announces the engagement of Capt. Albert Pfaender and Miss Marie Neumann.

The fire department was called out about eleven o'clock Monday night by a chimney fire in the Beetle house on Fifth North Street.

John Wartha was serenaded by the members of his orchestra Sunday evening, the occasion being Mr. Wartha's birthday anniversary.

Postal received from G. A. Ottomeyer indicate that he and his family have reached Los Angeles safely and after an enjoyable and interesting trip.

Andrew J. Edkstein, Frank Smasal and Anton A. Henle went to the little village of Bath in Freeborn county on Sunday and assisted in the installation of officers in a Court of Foresters.

The Minneapolis Journal records the death of John Schmidt in Minneapolis on Sunday. The Journal says that the deceased at one time lived in New Ulm and was a survivor of the Indian massacre.

Messrs. Herrian, Gronau and Starr of this city attended a special session of the I. O. O. F. grand lodge in Mankato Monday. The meeting was held for the purpose of conferring the grand lodge degree upon a number of part noble grands.

The marriage of Miss Rebecca Jeske of Cottonwood and Mr. Herbert Weiner of Lambertson was solemnized on Wednesday at the Evangelical church parsonage in this city. The young couple will make their home in LaMoure county, North Dakota.

The new officers of New Ulm Lodge No. 21, Order of Hermann Sons, are as follows: President, Julius Krause; vice president, Chas. Schroeck; corresponding secretary, Julius Berndt; financial secretary, Gottlieb Oswald; treasurer, Peter Herrian; trustees, Chas. Hauenstein.

Senator and Mrs. Somerville are new at St. Petersburg on the west coast of Florida.

Springfield is to have a Farmers' Institute on Feb. 6th. One will also be held at Comfrey on the 12th.

M. Lehrer of Springfield joined a friend in Chicago last Wednesday and in a few days will sail for Italy.

Louis Reinhart of Cottonwood lost one of the fingers of his right hand while operating a circular saw last Thursday.

A daughter of Peter Dahl of Linden died of consumption last Thursday evening and was buried on Monday in the Linden cemetery.

Wm. Zimanski has sold his farm in the township of Home to August Kroschel. The farm consists of 172 acres and brought $6,000.

W. W. Dunning gets the deputy oil inspectorship for Sibley county, Pete Fay for Nicollet county, G. W. Vaughn for Redwood county and W. C. Rempel for Watonwan county.

L. Scharf has resigned as cashier of the Courtland State Bank to accept a similar position with a bank at Robinsdale. His successor in the Courtland institution has not been selected.

Around the County.

Senator and Mrs. Somerville are new at St. Petersburg on the west coast of Florida.

Springfield is to have a Farmers' Institute on Feb. 6th. One will also be held at Comfrey on the 12th.

M. Lehrer of Springfield joined a friend in Chicago last Wednesday and in a few days will sail for Italy.

Louis Reinhart of Cottonwood lost one of the fingers of his right hand while operating a circular saw last Thursday.

A daughter of Peter Dahl of Linden died of consumption last Thursday evening and was buried on Monday in the Linden cemetery.

Wm. Zimanski has sold his farm in the township of Home to August Kroschel. The farm consists of 172 acres and brought $6,000.

W. W. Dunning gets the deputy oil inspectorship for Sibley county, Pete Fay for Nicollet county, G. W. Vaughn for Redwood county and W. C. Rempel for Watonwan county.

L. Scharf has resigned as cashier of the Courtland State Bank to accept a similar position with a bank at Robinsdale. His successor in the Courtland institution has not been selected.

The New Sweden Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. has 2,659 policies in force covering risks which aggregate $4,013,485. During the past year 381 policies expired, but 412 new ones were written.

Four St. Peter saloonkeepers have been arrested for selling liquor to minors. When arraigned they pleaded not guilty and were bound over under bail to await the action of the grand jury in May.

The annual meeting of the Searles Co-operative Creamery Co. was to have been held last evening but had to be postponed on account of the sickness of the secretary, Mr. Backer. It will be held next Monday.

John Mueller has sold his saloon in Springfield to Fred Bauch, the latter to assume charge the first of next month. Mueller is a New Ulm boy and is compelled to retire from business on account of poor health.

The Nicollet County Telephone Company is making an effort to secure control of the Sibley County line owned by A. A. Buck of Henderson. Mr. Buck's line starts at Henderson and runs through to Arlington, Green Isle and New Auburn.

The annual meeting of the state association of cement sidewalk manufacturers in St. Paul last week was attended from this county by Louis Sandau of New Ulm, Chris. Arveson, F. C. Koehne and E. C. Jorgensen of Sleepy Eye and Peter Hanson of Springfield.

The Hanska Milling Co. had its annual meeting last week and elected the following officers: President, John Thorgrimson; vice president, Theo. Thormedson; secretary and manager, F. G. Chambrad; treasurer, Anton O. Ouren. Chas. Winkler, an old New Ulmite, continues as head miller.

A literary society was recently organized in West Newton with the following officers: Clarence Hotchkiss, president; Sidney Hotchkiss, vice-president; Mrs. Catherine Massapust, treasurer; Miss Ida Steiner, chairman of program committee. The meetings are held in the school house in District 10.

The Lafayette-Bernadotte creamery received, during 1906, 2,247,213 pounds of milk and manufactured 95,852 pounds of butter. The total cash receipts for the year were $22,328.26 of which $16,965.31 went to patrons for milk. Officers were elected at the annual meeting as follows: President, J. A. Johnson; treasurer, August Samuelson; secretary and manager, C. A. Swanson; directors, E. D. Grussen-dorf and Andrew J. Johnson.

The new officers of New Ulm Lodge No. 21, Order of Hermann Sons, are as follows: President, Julius Krause; vice president, Chas. Schroeck; corresponding secretary, Julius Berndt; financial secretary, Gottlieb Oswald; treasurer, Peter Herrian; trustees, Chas. Hauenstein.

Senator and Mrs. Somerville are new at St. Petersburg on the west coast of Florida.

Springfield is to have a Farmers' Institute on Feb. 6th. One will also be held at Comfrey on the 12th.

M. Lehrer of Springfield joined a friend in Chicago last Wednesday and in a few days will sail for Italy.

Louis Reinhart of Cottonwood lost one of the fingers of his right hand while operating a circular saw last Thursday.

A daughter of Peter Dahl of Linden died of consumption last Thursday evening and was buried on Monday in the Linden cemetery.

Wm. Zimanski has sold his farm in the township of Home to August Kroschel. The farm consists of 172 acres and brought $6,000.

W. W. Dunning gets the deputy oil inspectorship for Sibley county, Pete Fay for Nicollet county, G. W. Vaughn for Redwood county and W. C. Rempel for Watonwan county.

L. Scharf has resigned as cashier of the Courtland State Bank to accept a similar position with a bank at Robinsdale. His successor in the Courtland institution has not been selected.

The new officers of New Ulm Lodge No. 21, Order of Hermann Sons, are as follows: President, Julius Krause; vice president, Chas. Schroeck; corresponding secretary, Julius Berndt; financial secretary, Gottlieb Oswald; treasurer, Peter Herrian; trustees, Chas. Hauenstein.

Senator and Mrs. Somerville are new at St. Petersburg on the west coast of Florida.

Springfield is to have a Farmers' Institute on Feb. 6th. One will also be held at Comfrey on the 12th.

M. Lehrer of Springfield joined a friend in Chicago last Wednesday and in a few days will sail for Italy.

Louis Reinhart of Cottonwood lost one of the fingers of his right hand while operating a circular saw last Thursday.

A daughter of Peter Dahl of Linden died of consumption last Thursday evening and was buried on Monday in the Linden cemetery.

Wm. Zimanski has sold his farm in the township of Home to August Kroschel. The farm consists of 172 acres and brought $6,000.

W. W. Dunning gets the deputy oil inspectorship for Sibley county, Pete Fay for Nicollet county, G. W. Vaughn for Redwood county and W. C. Rempel for Watonwan county.

L. Scharf has resigned as cashier of the Courtland State Bank to accept a similar position with a bank at Robinsdale. His successor in the Courtland institution has not been selected.

Red Front Grocery

We are always supplied with a full line of seasonable fruits and vegetables.

Try our Buckwheat and Pancake flour and our Pure Maple Syrup, the best there is.

We deliver goods promptly to all parts of the city.

Red Front Grocery

343 43 Bierbaum & Backer

For that Dandruff

There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of SARSAPARILLA
PILLS
CHERRY PECTORAL

* Reading glasses worn in time do far more good than later. Do not neglect your eyes. Prof. Myer, at Reim's Jewelry Store, Wednesday to Saturday, Jan. 30 to Feb. 2.

Many Children are Sickly.
Mother Gray's sweet Powders for Children, used by Mother Gray, a nurse in Children's Home, New York, Break up Colds in 24 hours, cure Feverishness, Headache, Stomach Troubles, Teething Disorders, and Destroy Worms. At all Druggists, etc. Sample mailed free. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

MARKET REPORT.

Corrected Jan. 23, 1907.

Wheat No. 1	74
" " 2	72
" " 3	69
Flour, Patent 100 lb.	2 20-2 46
" Family "	2 10-2 36
" Bakers "	1 85-2 05
" Graham "	1 85-2 05
" Rye "	1 90-2 19
Shorts	80
Bran	80
Oats	38
Rye	48
Flax	1 04
Corn	47
Potatoes, per Bushel	35-40
Butter, per lb.	15-33
Eggs, per Dozen	20
Cows and Heifers 100 lb.	2 25-2 75
Steers	2 25-3 10
Sheep	3 00-3 50
Swine	3 50-4 00
Lambs	4 00-4 50
Hogs	5 85-6 00

Send Your Cattle and Horse Hides to the Crosby Frisian Fur Company, Rochester, N. Y., and have them converted into coats, robes, rugs, gloves and mittens. Better and cheaper goods than you can buy. Never mind the distance. Crosby pays the freight. See our new illustrated catalog page 13. If interested send for it.

Gain Flesh, Get Strong, Use Vinol.

the delicious Cod Liver Preparation without Oil.

VINOL makes Old People Young and Young People Old.

VINOL is not like nasty Cod Liver Oil your Grandparents used to take, it is a modern, up-to-the-times Cod Liver preparation, pleasant, nourishing and result producing.

VINOL is sold on our Guarantee to do just what we say it will—If it fails to give results your money is waiting for you.

Eugene A. Pfefferle
Reliable Druggist.

Closing scene in "The Pit," to be produced at the Turner Theatre next Sunday evening, January 27th.