

Of Local Interest.

Misses Lucile and Bessie Hubbard are here on a visit from Minneapolis. Mrs. C. H. Helmes of St. Paul is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Johnson.

Wm. J. Siebert of this city has made application for a liquor license in Sanborn.

Anton Bartl and John Zischka will be partners in the saloon business after April 15th.

Rudolph Ochs, having settled up his affairs at Le Sueur, may open a meat market in Sanborn.

Eleanora, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider, is very low with pneumonia.

Mrs. John Mattes left Tuesday for New Ulm where she will visit for several weeks.—Gibbon Gazette.

Mayor Heimann of Fairfax was calling on his old New Ulm friends and business associates Friday.

John Sorheim of Lake Hanska is a patient at St. Alexander's hospital. He is suffering from tuberculosis.

John McMillan, the former Nicollet county sheriff, has accepted a position with the Advance Threshing Machine Co. in Minneapolis.

Judge Olsen held a special term of court in chambers at the court house Friday. Ditch appeals were the only matters considered.

Rev. Sauter of the Methodist church of this city addressed a Sunday school institute at Springfield Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Mead of Glendive, Montana, visited during the week at the home of A. W. Bingham. The latter is a brother-in-law of Mr. Mead.

"Marie Loreto" is the title of a drama to be presented by members of the St. Elizabeth Society at the Catholic Auditorium on the evening of April 7th.

The New Ulm Maennerchor will give a concert in Fairmont the latter part of April. The "Deutsche Verein" of that city has put up a guarantee of $200 to cover the expenses.

Representative S. D. Peterson's bill for the appointment of a commission to superintend the erection of a monument to the First Minnesota battery at Shiloh has passed the house.

The Hauenstein Brewing Co., through its treasurer, Martin Hose, has made application for a license to sell liquor in Gibbon. This will mean six saloons for Gibbon, says the Gazette.

Ferdinand Bleck, who for the past year or more has been a railway mail clerk in Washington, has returned to New Ulm to accept a position with the Eagle Mill Co. He takes the place vacated by Deputy Postmaster Wedendorf.

Hon. M. C. Tift, the democratic candidate for congress in the Sixth district last fall, was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Tift is the present head of the Workmen order in this state and his visit to New Ulm was in that capacity.

The commencement exercises of the state agricultural school were held last Wednesday. The graduates from this vicinity were Olive Potter of Springfield, Paul Carpenter of Leavenworth, Ella Shelly of Hanska and Levi Samuelson of Lafayette.

Gen. Bobleter left Friday afternoon for Columbus, South Carolina, to attend the interstate convention of the National Guard. Major Lambert accompanied him from St. Paul, the two officers being the regularly elected delegates from Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Henningsen returned from Mudlavia, Indiana, on Friday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schilling Sunday morning.

F. W. Johnson attended the annual meeting of the Elks lodge in Mankato Friday evening.

Mrs. A. J. Schramm has been entertaining Mrs. Sassen of Sundown the past few days.

Mrs. Paul Voss of Echo has been spending the past few days with her mother, Mrs. Scherer.

Fred Kretsch will resume charge of the Star Hall saloon with the beginning of the new license year.

F. W. Zimanski, an old resident of Sleepy Eye, is receiving treatment in the local hospital for asthma.

Mrs. L. J. Buenger entertained Mrs. Tonn and Mrs. Seemans of Cambria, Wisconsin, the forepart of last week.

Charles Wagner and wife, who have been spending the winter in California, will start for home about the middle of April.

Jim Crow, a traveling scizzors grinder, was arrested by Chief Klaus Saturday afternoon for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Jos. Fesenmeier of Cottonwood and Fred Hamann of this city started for Colorado yesterday to look over the land situation in that state.

June 9th is the date set for the annual convention of the Woman's Federated Clubs of Brown and Blue Earth counties. The convention will be held in this city.

Senator Seward's bill for adding Pipestone county to the Ninth judicial district and giving the enlarged district another judge has been recommended for passage.

Fred Crone, a brother-in-law of Mat Siebenbrunner, died at Sanborn Friday afternoon of cancer of the stomach. The deceased's wife is a daughter of Peter Gag of this city.

The Eagle Mill Co. has contracted for two new elevators to be built at Cresbard and Hoven on the new Minneapolis & St. Louis extension in South Dakota. Each elevator will have a capacity of 30,000 bushels.

New Ulm's naval recruits, Raymond Juni and Alfred Palmann, went to Minneapolis Wednesday and from there were assigned to the U. S. Receiving Ship Franklin at the Navy Yards near Norfolk, Virginia.

George Graemes, representing the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co. of Minneapolis, was in the city the latter part of the week and paid to Dr. O. C. Strickler the sum of $2,000, the same being the amount of an insurance policy carried by his late mother.

The enterprising business men of Lamberton have organized a corporation, with a capital stock of $15,000, for the purpose of operating a factory for the manufacture of cement building blocks and drain tile. Leonard Redding is president of the new corporation and Alfred Roos is its secretary.

Senator Johnson of St. Peter wants the legislature to appropriate $25,000 for a monument in Nicollet county at the place where the treaty of Traverse de Sioux was signed. His bill asks for a commission to take charge of the work composed of Gen. James H. Baker, A. A. Stone and Gen. L. F. Hubbard.

Joseph Saeckl, who moved to New Ulm from his farm in Lafayette township in 1905, died at his home in this city last Wednesday morning as the result of a stroke of paralysis. The deceased was born in 1836 and had been a resident of this vicinity since the time he came to America in 1868. Six children survive him.

The county commissioners will meet in special session next Friday.

Nic Andring and Chas. Stuebe were at Gibbon Monday purchasing horses.

Mrs. Jeat Pfeiffer has gone to Morton to see her son, who is still very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klotz Jr. are the happy parents of a son born on Monday.

Mrs. Follmann, Miss Weber and Miss Liesch spent Sunday with Sleepy Eye friends.

George Guth has sold his farm of 159 acres in Cottonwood to Hummel Bros. of this city for $7,950.

Miss Adelle Schneider has accepted a position as saleslady in the Philbrick department store in Redwood Falls.

Prof. A. Ackermann was at Zumbrota Sunday and installed the newly-elected pastor of the Lutheran congregation at that place.

Ben Fesenmeier has accepted a position as engineer in Colorado City, Colorado. He left with his family for his new home yesterday afternoon.

John Backer has concluded to retire from the saloon business. Alois Brey has applied for license to sell liquor in the place now occupied by Mr. Backer.

Anton Greim and Carl Krug, inmates of the county poor farm, died there this week, the former on Wednesday and the latter the day following. Both were over seventy-five years of age.

M. Mullen returned from his trip to Hot Springs and Texas Saturday evening. While at Fort Worth he received an unexpected visit from Albert Bogen who is still running a newspaper at Taylor.

James Roy McDonald, a tramp printer, was arrested at Sleepy Eye yesterday for threatening to shoot Policeman Krueger. Judge Geschwind gave him a sentence of thirty days in the county jail.

Present indications are that New Ulm will have only twenty-eight saloons the coming year instead of thirty as at present. All of the old stands will be continued with the exception of the Opera House saloon and Can. Neno's.

The Mankato Review recalls the fact that in 1862 the county commissioners of Blue Earth county passed a resolution authorizing a bounty of $200 for every Sioux Indian killed within the county. The resolution continued in force until March 20, 1872.

Messrs. Poehler, Guilbert, Blasing Comnick, McMahon, Stiehn and Schreier of the Henderson Bowling Club played a match game with the Athletes of this city Wednesday afternoon and another with the tournament team in the evening. The visitors were defeated in both games.

G. W. Cunningham of Berlin, Wisconsin, has purchased an interest in the New Ulm Stone Co. and in a day or two will assume active superintendency of the crushing plant at Red Stone. Mr. Cunningham is an experienced man in the business, having managed a similar plant at Berlin for several years.

Among those who participated in the proceedings of the American Society of Equity meetings at the Opera House last Wednesday was Andrew French, who made the race for congress against Jim Tawney in the First district last fall. French's home is at Plainview and at present he is a member of the State Board of Equalization.

Anton Grethen, a veteran of the First Minnesota battery and one of the well-known Germans of the state, died at his home in Minneapolis last Wednesday. In the fifty years that he lived in Minnesota Grethen followed various professions. He was a lawyer, a musical director, a newspaper editor and a public official, having served Hennepin county three times as county auditor.

The Woman's Clubs of this city have decided to invite Gov. Johnson to address the Federated Women of Brown and Blue Earth counties when they meet here in convention on the 9th of June. Mrs. C. W. Miller forwarded the invitation yesterday, and, should his excellency accept, the address will be delivered at the Turner Theatre. The women also have in view other excellent features for the entertainment of the convention.

A small, but apparently enthusiastic, audience gathered at the Opera House Wednesday afternoon to listen to addresses by representatives of the American Society of Equity. W. A. Harding of Winnebago was the principal speaker and in a rather forcible manner outlined the plans, the hopes and aspirations of this new organization for fixing the prices of farm products. When the speechmaking was concluded a local organization was effected with the following officers: President, Wm. Hoffman; vice-president, Henry Manderfeld; secretary, B. Juni; treasurer, Fred Becker. Resolutions were also adopted expressing appreciation of the work of James Addy and H. G. Hillesheim and likewise of the courteous aid extended by the people of New Ulm.

Fra Diavolo.

The Beggar Prince Opera Company, with an especially strong cast, a wealth of beautiful costumes and pretty girls and funny comedians, will come to the Turner Theatre next Sunday evening in a fine production of Auber's romantic opera, "Fra Diavolo." This opera will be popular as long as operas have vogue, and the Beggar Prince Opera Company will be welcomed everywhere and as long as it is kept up to its present standard of excellence. Today it is an established favorite with lovers of light opera and comprises men who can sing and ladies who are pretty and proficient. A treat is in store for all who enjoy high-class comedy in music.

George Leary came down from Wattertown Sunday to spend a few hours with friends.

Mrs. Carl Crone and Mrs. J. H. Vogel are spending a few days with Twin City friends.

The firm of Dietz & Wilschek, owners of the North Broadway saloon, has been dissolved. Jos. Dietz will continue as sole proprietor.

A conference of Lutheran pastors will be held at Renville next week. Rev. C. J. Albrecht and Prof. J. Schaller, A. Ackermann and J. Meyer of this city will attend.

A broken bottle falling from a shelf resulted in painful injuries to the little child of Anton Ruby Sunday morning. A couple of deep and ugly gashes were cut in the little one's face.

Gottfried Boehme, building contractor, public official and member of various German societies, died in Minneapolis on Saturday. The deceased settled at St. Anthony as long ago as 1857 and was well acquainted with Germans all over the state.

Among those who attended the Pfander-Neumann nuptials in St. Paul Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Rinke of Lamberton and Dr. L. A. Fritsche, John Neumann, Miss Allie Scherer, Miss Aurora Neumann and Miss Martha Eichmann of New Ulm. The latter acted as bridesmaid.

Special services will be held at the Lutheran church this week according to the following program: Holy Thursday at 10 a. m.; Good Friday at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Easter Sunday at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Easter Monday 10 a. m. Celebration of the Lord's Supper will be had in connection with the Friday and Sunday morning services and on Good Friday the members of the confirmation class will attend their first communion.

Read This Announcement.
REMOVAL SALE
Goods at and below cost.
It Means Money in Your Pocket

The carpenters are now busy tearing out the front partitions of our new store in the Ottomeyer block and replacing them with something new and more up-to-date. And by the time April 10th rolls around, everything will be in readiness, and I want you all to call at my new location. I will have new cases, optical room and private sales room, with all the modern conveniences. It will be one of the most up-to-date Jewelry Stores, equal to any of a city much larger than New Ulm. And from now until I get into my new location I will have a Removal Sale, and those only that read the newspaper advertising will profit by this. I want you to of reading them. Cut out the coupon below when anticipating a purchase and get the discount stated thereon. You must present coupon in order to get reduction.

Get the Habit

HAUBRICH, The Jeweler

COUPON.

This coupon entitles bearer to a cash discount until April 10th, 1907, on the following goods:

10 Per Cent on Diamonds and Watches.

20 Per Cent on everything else in the store.

3

W. C. HAUBRICH, Jeweler and Optician.

GIRL WANTED—For general household work. Inquire of A. J. Esser. 12tf

Prof. W. J. Roberts has rented a residence at 622 North State Street and is now prepared to give lessons in sight singing and to teach piano, organ and violin. He is also ready to undertake the direction of bands and orchestras. Phone 403, New Ulm Rural.

* Celery at 4c a stalk at F. H. Behnke's

* Best oranges, 30c a dozen. Chas. Fiedler.

* Nice apples at 40c a peck. F. H. Behnke.

* Stuebe Bros. are in the market for good horses. Don't sell elsewhere until you have seen them as to prices.

When it becomes necessary to consult a physician, everyone wishes to go to one well-qualified and with experience. Dr. Addison Jones, the Chicago specialist, was for years a professor in a medical college and comes well-qualified to diagnose and to treat chronic diseases successfully. Dr. Jones' next visit to New Ulm will be at the Dakota House on April 3rd. Call and see him.

OCHS BROS.

FOR WELL-DRESSED WOMEN.

This Jacket is a garment built on new lines. Note the charming cut—a certain piquant touch of French "chic" that adds so much distinction. In make and material it is Wooltex Standard and guaranteed for two seasons' satisfactory wear. Other Wooltex styles of equal attraction are also on exhibition here. New ones appear daily. If you like select style, backed by certain and uniform quality, you belong among our customers. Come in and see for yourself.

A SKIRT-BEAUTY.

A Skirt-beauty is this new number, fresh from our Spring line. Its design is new and original, and its materials offer a wide choice in the latest fabrics—all of which are proved pure wool by the acid test. This is only one of our many new Wooltex styles which enjoy such a reputation among well-dressed women everywhere. Each garment is guaranteed to please you in every respect of style and quality. Their tailoring would teach a lesson to the highest priced custom tailor. Come and Look.

OCHS BROS., The Bee Hive.

DON'T FORGET THAT

Easter Box of Candy

You wanted to buy your wife, sweetheart or sister as an Easter Gift.

We have just received a large shipment of New and Up-To-Date Boxes filled with the Finest and Best CHOCOLATE and BON BONS direct from the factory at Boston. Being direct, of course they are fresher than can be obtained elsewhere.

PRICES FROM 10c TO $2.50 PER BOX.

Also Easter Egg Dyes, Rabbits and Easter Souvenir Postals in great variety at Eugene A. Pfefferle, THE RELIABLE DRUGGIST.