

Of Interest in the City.

Chas. P. Stengel transacted business in St. Paul last week.

Carl Mueller has returned from Europe and joined his wife in St. Louis.

Henry Engel was a business visitor in the Flour City the forepart of the week.

Company A will be formally inspected by Major Buschers next Wednesday evening.

Miss Ida Bachmann of Sleepy Eye visited here during the week with friends and relatives.

Jorgen Sveine and Miss Marie Skarphol of Lake Hanska will be united in marriage today.

Robert Meisner, who lives ten miles northwest of Gibbon, will sell his farm and move to New Ulm.

The ladies of the Hecker Post Circle will give a card social at Schell's hall on the evening of October 10th.

Peter Kitzberger is nursing a broken finger received while trying to hitch an unruly horse last Saturday.

Miss Bertha Wandersee went to Fairfax Monday to attend the wedding of Miss Emily Drusch and Fred Schroeder.

Andrew Amann and Peter Mertz paid an official visit to the town of Home last week as viewers of County Ditch No. 13.

Mrs. J. Sullivan and baby arrived here from Des Moines, Iowa, Monday afternoon. They will visit with Mrs. Sullivan's sister, Mrs. W. C. Haubrich.

Prof. Ackermann, accompanied by John Boock Sr., attended a Lutheran mission fest at Gibbon last Sunday. Prof. Ackermann delivered the principal address.

While leading a horse to water, J. N. Schmitz, an aged farmer of Home township, was kicked squarely in the face by the unruly animal and badly disfigured.

Carl Larson, a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Chute, of Lake Hanska, was drowned recently while rafting on the Columbia river near Carpoose, Oregon.

United States Senator La Follette of Wisconsin will lecture at St. Peter tomorrow evening. Here's hoping he meets with a better reception than he did in New Ulm.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Forster died of convulsions on Wednesday and was buried Friday morning. The grief stricken parents have the sympathy of all.

P. J. Eichten moved into the Wicherski building on Centre street on Saturday and Herman Held immediately took possession of the Engelbert residence vacated by Mr. Eichten.

The state convention of Federated Woman's Clubs opened in Faribault yesterday. The New Ulm organizations are being represented by Mrs. A. J. Alwin, Mrs. Fred Meier, Mrs. G. F. Reinecke and Miss Ella Stoll.

A. R. Eggenberger has retired from the editorial management of the Hanska Herald and will hereafter devote his entire attention to the interests of the Hanska Milling Co. by whom he was recently employed. His brother, G. F. Eggenberger, succeeds him in charge of the Herald.

Secretary Pierce of the Brown-Redwood Young Men's Christian Association was in the city Monday endeavoring to create an interest in the convention which is to be held in Redwood Falls next week. New Ulm will probably be represented by the following: Dr. Reinecke, Dr. Miller, E. A. Deters, Edwin Juni, Geo. Schmidt, Edward Critchett and Mr. Jones.

Mrs. Armstrong is spending the week with Minneapolis friends.

Carl Weschcke, the Springfield druggist, was in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Olin and children of Franklin are guests at the home of Postmaster Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Skinner enjoyed a visit last week from their daughter, Mrs. Dyer of St. Paul.

Attorney Henry Flor transacted legal business at the county seat of Sibley county last Friday.

Peter Thompson of Hanska has accepted a position as buttermaker for the creamery at Bergen.

W. B. Mather and wife attended the wedding of a cousin of Mr. Mather in Winona Wednesday evening.

The New Sweden Mutual Fire Insurance Company has paid out nearly $4,600 during the past summer for losses caused by lightning.

Miss Lena Haubrich departed on Monday for Colorado Springs in the hope of benefiting her health. Her sister, Annie, accompanied her.

Nic Andring, the jovial liveryman, sprained his ankle while stepping from a sidewalk in Sleepy Eye the other day and as a result will be laid up for several weeks.

Jack Irving has traded his Nicollet county farm for the hotel and saloon building of Albin Carlson in Hanska. The farm consists of 160 acres and is valued at $7,200.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Dietz were pleasantly surprised by their numerous friends Thursday evening, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

In a single day last week the Eagle Roller Mill Co. sent out in cash to its numerous wheat buyers the enormous sum of $85,000. And this came pretty near being a daily occurrence for over a week.

Emil Hage came up from Hanska Saturday evening to attend the farewell party given in honor of G. W. Barnes. He remained over till Sunday evening in order to see "Our New Minister."

Dr. Finnell of St. Paul, who is well known here underwent an operation for stomach troubles at St. Joseph's hospital in St. Paul Saturday. It is reported that a second operation will be necessary to save his life.

Mr. and Mrs. Timms arrived here from Portland on their wedding tour Thursday evening and spent the balance of the week receiving the congratulations of the bride's many friends. Mrs. Timms was formerly Miss Emma Hummel.

Nicollet county will get along without a grand jury at the October term of court. Of the petit jurors Wm. Backer of Courtland and Oscar Erdahl and Ben Challstrom of Bernadotte are among those chosen from the west end of the county.

At the Methodist conference in Marshall last week some of the assignments made were as follows: Rev. Perry to Nicollet; Rev. Nelson to Sleepy Eye and Sanborn; Rev. Babcock to Springfield; Rev. Hotchkiss to Franklin and Fort Ridgely.

The merry-go-round, which was attached by Sheriff Julius at the driving park the last day of the County Fair, was sold on Monday to John Siebenbrunner Jr. for $800. F. W. Fritsche, representing the manufacturers, came here from New York to be present at the sale.

Roy Bzowski, a Northwestern brakeman, was seriously injured by being pinched between two freight cars in the local yards last Tuesday. A number of his ribs were broken and it is thought that some of the broken members pierced the internal organs. He was taken to Waseca for treatment.

Dr. Carl Scherer went to Minneapolis Monday on business.

Mrs. Boesch is expected to arrive here from Los Angeles this week.

Mrs. W. C. Haubrich called on her Mankato friends Monday afternoon.

Mrs. James Sapey of Mankato is paying a visit to her sister, Mrs. Chas. Stengel.

Mrs. Milleis returned Sunday from a week's visit with relatives at Hager City, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Geo. Schlemann of Winthrop visited over Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. F. W. Johnson.

Theo. Lampe, a Lake Benton miller, is endeavoring to organize a company to take over the old Cobden mill.

Mrs. Cook returned to her home in Roseau Saturday afternoon, her mother, Mrs. Popp, accompanying her.

Henry Meierding of Morgan has purchased a 180 acre farm in Eden of Wm. G. McPhee. The price paid was $9,000.

The annual grand lodge convention of the Herman Sons' Sisters of the state will be held at Young America next Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. W. Scherer and children of Mankato spent a portion of the week at the old Manderfeld homestead in Cottonwood.

Contractor Reiser took a crew of men over to Lafayette Thursday to begin the work of laying several blocks of cement sidewalks.

Chas. Stuebe left for Chicago Saturday with a train load of cattle from the Minnesota-Dakota Cattle company's ranch near Everett.

Alois Rewitzer, a former resident of Sigel, died at his home in Sleepy Eye Tuesday evening of last week. He leaves a wife and six children.

Miss Cecilia Muckl, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Carl Manderfeld, for over a month, returned to her Cincinnati home Sunday afternoon.

Albert Wandersee, Edwin Bruns and Fred Meyer, all college students, made a bicycle trip to Gibbon Saturday afternoon. They covered the distance in an hour and a half.

Geo. Forster and wife came down from Springfield last week to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. John Forster's little baby. While in the city they were guests at the Henry Seifert home.

An automobile party, composed of Wm. Silverson, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Johnson and daughter, Mrs. J. L. Schoch and Miss Allie Scherer, made a trip to Sleepy Eye Friday afternoon in Mayor Silverson's Royal Tourist.

A number of the Second Regiment band boys, including J. J. Juenemann, Henry Kitzberger and Joe Schuster, went to Redwood Falls last week to help out the local band during the three days of the Redwood county fair.

A Springfield special brings the information that William Keyster was found dead in the timber one mile east of that village on Sunday. The dead man was sixty-five years of age and had left home on Friday to go into the country to gather grapes.

Rev. Mamer of Searles went to Gibbon Thursday to perform the marriage ceremony whereby Bernard Mamer of Wellcome and Miss Antoinette Altman, of Fairfax became man and wife. The groom is a brother of the priest and a druggist by profession.

Mayor Silverson went to Minneapolis Monday to attend a meeting of a committee appointed by the country millers of the state to secure, if possible, the correction of certain practices by the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce which are looked upon by the interior millers as discriminative.

At the annual convention of the German Catholic Staats-Verband in Hastings last week Alderman Eibner of this city was re-elected as the association's secretary. The delegation chosen to represent the state at the national convention next year also includes Mr. Eibner, as well as Rev. Father Sandmeyer.

The Lutheran ministers of the Minnesota Synod and the Minnesota district of the Missouri Synod will meet in New Ulm October 15th and remain in session four days. It is expected that between 100 and 150 visiting pastors will be in attendance and among them will be Rev. Dr. Piper, the well-known St. Louis divine.

Mrs. Yustina Prah, an aged lady, died at her home near Comfrey on Monday of last week and was buried on Thursday. The following from this vicinity attended the funeral: Mrs. H. E. Vogelpohl and sons, Herman and Ernst, Mr. and Mrs. William Prah, Carl Prah, Mrs. Fred Dahlig, Mrs. Fred Prah and Mr. Wikoski.

Fred Kruse, a Mankato hunter, had a narrow escape from drowning in Swan Lake Saturday. While taking a shot at some flying ducks his boat capsized and Kruse found himself floundering in over ten feet of water and a long way from shore. Had it not been that other hunters on the lake witnessed the accident it is extremely likely that if Kruse would have gone to a watery grave. His gun was recovered the next day by Mr. Joern of Nicollet.

The next time you are buying Groceries—be sure you place your order with us and get not only the highest grade in quality, but also the lowest prices. Our store offers an attractive field for every housekeeper to economize in household necessities and fine food stuffs. Everything the best, best brands of canned goods, staple and fancy articles. Give us a trial,

Red Front Grocery,

New Ulm, Minn.
Both Phones 72.

Wm. Eichten of Wanda visited here over Sunday with his parents.

Rev. C. J. Albrecht recently dedicated a new Lutheran church at Darfur.

Barley sold at $1.05 in Minneapolis yesterday. Such a circumstance is without precedent in the Minneapolis grain market.

County Treasurer Berg went to Sleepy Eye Saturday to attend the funeral of his old friend and school mate, Alois Rewitzer.

Wm. Silverson will bring his annual New Ulm visit to a close and return to Cincinnati tomorrow. Early in December he will start for his winter home at Nassau on the Bahama Islands.

Leo Merth has sold his residence in Sleepy Eye to Wm. McPhee of Franklin, who in company with Geo. Cutting has purchased the wagon and carriage shop of Roy Palmer. Merth will move to New Ulm.

Hon. Ole Peterson of Brighton recently furnished the Northwestern Agriculturist with an interesting article on the best practical way of providing a farm home with a modern water supply.

The second annual convention of the Young Men's Christian association of Brown and Redwood counties will be held at Redwood Falls next Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Prominent speakers will be present and a pleasant feature of the program will be a banquet at one of Redwood Fall's leading hotels.

W. M. Hopkins, formerly general freight agent of the Minneapolis & St. Louis, has been appointed a member of the uniform classification committee selected by the railroads to work with the interstate commerce commission to draw up a classification list applicable throughout the country. He receives his appointment from the Western roads, together with four others from the Northwest and the West. Mr. Hopkins is the only railroad man from the Twin Cities and in this territory to get a place on the committee.

Active preparations have been inaugurated for the annual convention of the Minnesota Butter and Cheese Makers' Association to be held in St. Peter the latter part of October. Vice President Lindall has secured a promise from Gov. Johnson that he will address the buttermakers at the banquet on October 31st and he has also received assurance of an address by C. H. Webster, chief of the dairy division of the department of agriculture. Other speakers will be Dairy Commissioner Slater, Prof. Haecker and H. J. Credicott of Chicago.

The Furs I Sell

are made on honor and sold on merit.

For 43 years I have been making furs, consequently the goods I sell must be right. So are my prices.

Small Furs
Fur Jackets
Fur Coats
Fur-lined Garments

Chas. A. Albrecht,
384 Wabasha St.,
St. Paul, - Minn.

Clothcraft Facts

Clothcraft Clothes are intended for the man who is particular about what he wears—the man who wants his clothes to be correct in style—reliable in quality—perfect in fit, and priced moderately.

The more difficult you are to please, the more Clothcraft Clothes will please you.

Suits - $10 to $25
Overcoats $10 to $25

HUMMEL BROS.

Ottomeyer's

We are offering for a short time some rare Bargains in Ladies' shirt waists at half the regular price.

Ladies', Gentlemen's and Children's Hose at..... 10c
Ladies' stylish collars worth 25c, on sale 12c

Summer Underwear

to be closed out at cost.

We would call attention to our large line of fall and winter coats which are now in; also to our new dress goods coming, and we shall show the largest line of dry goods in this section of the state.

Embroidery and Laces Cheap

Eggs are taken in exchange for goods.

Fall Millinery

Ladies of New Ulm and vicinity are herewith invited to inspect our first showing of artistically Trimmed Hats from New York and Chicago, and our own Designs.

Mrs. B.

Follmann

HARVEST FESTIVAL
at Turner Hall
Sunday, October 13

arranged by the Ladies' Society of the Turnverein

During the afternoon and evening meals will be served "a la carte."

DANCING

in the evening. Everybody is cordially invited.

MARKET REPORT.

Corrected Oct. 2, 1907.

Wheat No. 1	31 00
" " 2	29 97
" " 3	29 94
Flour, Patent 100 lb.	2 70-2 95
" Family "	2 60-2 85
" Bakers "	2 35-2 55
" Graham "	2 15-2 35
" Rye "	2 40-2 55
Shorts	90
Bran	85
Oats	44
Rye	73-72
Flax	1 13
Corn	50
Potatoes, per Bushel	35-40
Butter, per lb.	15-28
Eggs, per Dozen	17
Cows and Heifers 100 lb.	2 25-2 75
Steers	2 25-3 10
Calves	3 00-3 00
Sheep	3 50-4 50
Lambs	4 00-4 00
Hogs	5 25-5 80

* I guarantee my pictures and am sure I can please you. Give me a call.
ALBERT LODAHL.

FREE!

To YOU. The BEST offer that has ever been made. $1.00 worth of Prussian Remedies absolutely free with the purchase of one 25 lb. pail of Prussian Stock Tonic.

$1.00
ABSOLUTELY
FREE

This gives you the opportunity to buy the BEST at the price of the cheapest.

PRUSSIAN STOCK TONIC

is never sold for less than $3.50 per pail and it's worth every cent asked for it. This special offer is made to induce you to TRY Prussian goods and PROVE to yourself WHAT they will do.

Make Your Purchase To-Day

as this offer is for a limited time.

Eugene A. Pfefferle, THE RELIABLE DRUGGIST.