

FINAL COUNT COMPLETED

Figures of State Canvassing Board Vary But Little from the Unofficial Returns.

Simpson Leads on Republican Ticket and Johnson on the Democratic.

The official count of the vote cast in Minnesota for state officers at the last general election was completed Thursday evening. In almost every instance there is a change from the returns as last recorded, but in no case is there a change in the general results.

Gov. Johnson's plurality is 27,779 and his majority 13,646. The exact vote for each of the respective candidates was as follows: Johnson, 175,136; Jacobson, 147,357; Geo. D. Haggard, prohibitionist, 7,024; Beecher Moore, socialist, 6,516; William Allen, independence league, 593. Lt. Governor Eberhart received 164,884, or less than Gov. Johnson. His democratic opponent, Reiter, received 109,010.

For secretary of state Julius Schmah received 175,465 and Richard Lamb 96,561.

For treasurer Deinhart's vote was 179,867 and Nelson's 103,330.

For attorney general Simpson was given 180,521 and Matthews 93,569.

Mills led in the contest for railroad commissioner, in spite of strong newspaper antagonism, and Mee was lowest. Mills received 143,778, Elmquist 140,804, Bjorge 85,857 and Mee 81,404.

The wide open tax amendment was defeated by a vote of 134,141 to 65,776.

Belated Election Returns.

The Review has aimed to report the results of all the annual lodges and society meetings, but in some manner the following were overlooked:

Congregational Men's Club: President, Dr. E. G. Mihleis; vice president, F. H. Krook; secretary, Wm. Meile; treasurer, W. B. Mather.

Progress Lodge, Ancient Order of United Workmen: Master Workman, Reuben Townsend; Foreman, Otto Seiter; Overseer, Chas. Stuebe; Recorder, John G. Gronau; Financier, Wm. Frank; Receiver, Fred Pfander; Guide, Chas. Roeder; Inner Warden, Louis Breu; Outer Warden, George Tauer; representative to the grand lodge, John G. Gronau; trustee, Theo. Mueller.

Royal Neighbors: Past Oracle, Mrs. Elsnor; Oracle, Mrs. R. W. Scherer; Vice Oracle, Mrs. F. Hubbard; Recorder, Miss Ida Hauenstein; Receiver, Mrs. A. Schiller; Chancellor, Mrs. O. Dingler; Marshal, Miss D. Hauenstein; Assistant Marshal, Mrs. Bernhard.

Congregational Ladies Aid Society: President, Mrs. Mihleis; vice president, Mrs. Zeile; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Beecher.

Arbeiter-Verein: President, Chas. Lindemann; vice president, Ernst Pfeiffer; recording secretary, Otto Tappe; financial secretary, Carl P. Manderfeld; treasurer, Fred Pfander; flag bearer, Louis Guemmer; sick committee, Emil Darkow, Bern. Krause and Werner Juenemann.

A special to the Minneapolis Tribune from Ivanhoe reads as follows: George Graff, at present clerk of court of Lincoln county, is being brought out and indorsed by his friends throughout the state for appointment by the governor as a member of the state board of control to succeed S. W. Leavitt at the expiration of the latter's term. Mr. Graff has resided at Ivanhoe since the town was started. He came here at that time to open up the First National bank at this place as its cashier. Previous to this time he was the state secretary of the German Catholic societies of the state and resided at St. Paul, having been elected to the latter office while living at New Ulm, where for ten years he had been one of the prominent merchants. Mr. Graff has at all times taken an active part in politics and has always been a staunch Democrat.

The annual report of the board of audit appointed by Governor Johnson to examine the accounts of the Minnesota State Agricultural society shows the society to be in the best condition financially it has ever been. The total receipts for 1908 in connection with the state fair were $291,800.03 and the total disbursements were $246,034.26, leaving a balance on hand of $45,765.77. Moneys received from the sale of tickets at the fair amounted to $174,037.50, as compared with $142,867 in 1907.

A burglar who had entered a minister's house at midnight was disturbed by the waking of the occupant of the room he was in. Drawing his knife he said: "If you stir you are a dead man. I'm hunting for money."

"Let me get up and strike a light," said the minister, "and I'll hunt with you."

HOMELY, HONEST and CLEANLY.

These Qualities and Its Humor the Chief Charms of "Quincy Adams Sawyer."

A prominent American dramatic critic concluded a recent play review with this sentence: "If a wholesome, honest, cleanly play that alternates pathos and laughter with galling gun rapidity is what theatre-goers want they will go to see 'Quincy Adams Sawyer,' and it is quite evident they are going."

In these few words he summed up the facts and the reasons therefore that epitomize the success of the great rural play that for four years has been touring the country to record-breaking houses everywhere. The great masses of the people want their drama to be wholesome and cleanly; they leave the highly seasoned dramatic pabulum to the so-called society epicures. They want "no problems," no suggestive disquisitions upon topics that, outside of the theatre, are not discussed in public.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" gives them an honest story of wholesome people told brightly with great human interest. The pathos is of the decent sort and is never obtrusive. The fun, while fast and furious, is always cleanly. In addition, the play is given the most complete and elaborate production possible to the modern stage. The company has been selected with special reference to the fitness of the players for the work they are to perform and the ensemble shows that completeness which is welcomed by theatre-goers.

When the play is seen here at the Turner Theatre on Sunday evening, January 3rd, it will be presented by the original eastern company, and the proof of all the foregoing statements will be so self-evident as to be indisputable.

JEST 'FORE CHRISTMAS

Father calls me William, sister calls me Will,
Mother calls me Willie, but the fellows call me Bill!
Mighty glad I ain't a girl—rather be a boy,
Without them sashes, curls, an' things that's worn by Fauntleroy!
Love to chawnk green apples an' go swimmin' in the lake—
Hate to take the castor-ile they give for belly-ache!
'Most all the time, the whole year round, there ain't no flies on me,
But jest 'fore Christmas I'm as good as I kin be!

Got a yeller dog named Sport, sick him on the cat;
First thing she knows she doesn't know where she is at!
Got a clipper sled, an' when us kids goes out to slide,
'Long comes the grocery cart, an' we all hook a ride!

But sometimes when the grocery man is worried an' cross,
He reaches at us with his whip, an' larrups up his boss,
An' then I laff an' holler, "Oh, ye never teched me!"
But jest 'fore Christmas I'm as good as I kin be!

Gran'ma says she hopes that when I git to be a man,
I'll be a missionarier like her oldest brother Dan,
As was et up by the cannibuls that lives in Ceylon's Isle,
Where every prospeck pleases, an' only man is vile!
But gran'ma she has never been to see a Wild West show,
Nor read the Life of Daniel Boone, or else I guess she'd know
That Buff'lo Bill an' cowboys is good enough for me!
Excep' just 'fore Christmas, when I'm am good as I kin be!

And then old Sport he hangs around, so solemnlike an' still,
His eyes they seem a-sayin': "What's the matter, little Bill?"
The old cat sneaks down off her perch an' wonders what's become
Of them two enemies of hern that used to make things hum!
But I am so perlit an' tend so earnestly to biz,
That mother says to father: "How improved our Willie is!"
But father, havin' been a boy hisself, suspicious me
When, jest 'fore Christmas, I'm as good as I kin be!

For Christmas, with its lots an' lots of candies, cakes, an' toys,
Was made, they say, for proper kids an' not for naughty boys;
So wash yer face an' bresh yer hair, an' mind yer p's and q's,
An' don't bust out yer pantaloons, and don't wear out yer shoes;
Say "Yessum" to the ladies, and "Yesser" to the men,
An' when they's company, don't pass yer plate for pie again;
But, thinkin' of the things yer'd like to see upon that tree,
Jest 'fore Christmas be as good as yer can be!—Eugene Field.

Cigar Dealers and Smokers.

Nearly forty years of successful experience as manufacturers of cigars has taught us how to best serve our patrons and the public.

Private Brands A Specialty. Special Prices on 5,000 Lots.

Our cigars sell. The best reason in the world why they sell so well is because they are GOOD.

Wide-awake cigar dealers have learned to know that it pays to buy what their customers like best. We keep with the procession. New demands bring new methods.

We are not content to go along in a placidly funeral way, without ever doing anything to arouse interest or showing a disposition to cater to the trade as though it was really worth attention. The best advertisement any business firm can have is the recommendation of pleased and satisfied customers. We easily trace a good deal of our patronage to such a source. Our cigars suit the smoking public. There's SELLERS. If you deal with us you will be pleased also and satisfy your customers.

Our Latest Achievements.

COMMERCIAL CLUB and BLIZZARD 10CTS.

Some Smoke Sense. Money gone up in smoke, is money wasted if it is poor smoke. If the smoke is good, the money is well burned. A poor smoke is an abomination, a good smoke is a joy forever. You can smoke a good cigar, an ALWAYS GOOD cigar by buying our BLIZZARD or COMMERCIAL CLUB.

They are strictly hand-made. Clear Havana filler and always fresh, with a tone, that's all their own. The word "BEST" has been so thoroughly misused and abused that many people stand askant at it. It often means nothing, or worse than nothing.

BLIZZARD and COMMERCIAL CLUB CIGARS. What other word will meet the requirements of this situation?

We were very cautious to select only a superior quality of Havana tobacco in producing this cigar and the workmanship represents the most intelligent and thorough work money can hire. If there was better tobacco grown than is used in this cigar we would have used it. If any better cigar makers could be got, they would have been obtained.

We are the sole owners and originators of these brands, the equal of which, both as regards quality and intrinsic value, has never as yet appeared in the Minnesota Market.

The day for the small man in the steel business has passed. If he attempts it, it argues that he does not deserve success.

If the government encourage combinations it must have a court to fix prices to the consumer.

Our policy has been a failure if, after forty years' coddling by a tariff, a steel concern cannot do without the crutch of protection.

Pianos at a discount of 20 to 40 per cent.

When Lyon & Healy of Chicago started in to rebuild their big establishment the entire piano trade of the United States wondered what Lyon & Healy could do with their vast collection of fine instruments, for these were no cheap factory pianos, but pianos of makes of the highest reputation.

What Lyon & Healy have done is to mark pianos, hundreds of them, at a discount of 20 to 40 per cent. The response upon the part of the public is marvelous.

If you know the names of good standard makes of pianos and the prices always paid, you will need no second invitation to write to Lyon & Healy, 10 Adams street, Chicago, for lists and terms. For you can secure a genuine $300 upright for $180, or other bargains in proportions.

Lyon & Healy give their own guarantee with every one of these pianos. Nothing like this opportunity has ever been given to music teachers, students and music lovers heretofore.
