Mrs. John Baasen of St. Paul is being entertained at the home of her sister, Mrs. Francis Baasen, on German street.

Walters & Hughes of Cambria have purchased of R. E. Faller of Redwood Falls an exceptionally high-bred Percheron stallion.

Michael Fohl, an employe of Stuebe Bros. for several months, has severed his connections with that firm in order to accept a position in Fargo.

A chimney fire at the Zeller home on German Street brought out the fire department yesterday morning, but beyond that caused neither damage nor inconvenience.

Mrs. John Stelljes Sr., surrounded by her children and grandchildren, pleasantly celebrated the seventy-second anniversary of her birthday Thursday afternoon.

Bishop Edsall of the Episcopal diocese will visit New Ulm next Friday. In the evening he will deliver an address at St. Peter's church and also administer the rite of confirmation.

Mrs. T. W. Saul arrived from Minneapolis Saturday afternoon to spend a few days with her husband, who is one of the expert accountants now going over the books of the Eagle Roller Mill Co.

A deal has been in progress this week which will probably result in the transfer of the meat market next to the Brown County Bank from Mrs. Frank A. Schnobrich to Paul B. Gudknecht of Vesta.

Prompted by the protests of its subscribers, the New Ulm Rural Telephone company has rescinded its order for a raise in monthly rental rates. This action was taken at a meeting of the directors held a week ago.

The lecture by Prof. Thos. McClary, which was to have been given at the Turner Theatre in February but which was postponed on account of the blizzard, is now scheduled for March 17th. Prof. McClary's subject will be "The Mission of Mirth."

The Broadway saloon conducted for the past two or three years by John Domeier was closed by Sheriff Julius Monday on the strength of a writ of attachment issued at the instance of the wholesale liquor firm of Geo. Benz & Sons of St. Paul. The extent of Mr. Domeier's liabilities are as yet unknown.

E. F. Taylor, the laundryman, was at Aberdeen and other points in South Dakota nearly all of last week seeking for a desirable location for the establishment of a steam laundry plant. Mr. Taylor wants to get into a field that will warrant a plant several times as large as the one he has been conducting here.

The King's Herald of the Methodist church held their annual meeting Sunday afternoon and elected the following officers: President, Martha Garbrecht; vice, president, Hilton Durbahn; recording secretary, Erna Sell; corresponding secretary, Walter Miller; treasurer, Alma Garbrecht, librarians, Loyd Alwin and Ervin Schrader; organist, Harold Reineke.

IT MIGHT SHOCK.

But it's a fact. If you were to lose that position wouldn't you become a dependant of your friends? Soliciting credit of every one?

State Bank of New Ulm

Mrs. J. L. Cuddy is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Yoemans of Eagle Lake.

Mrs. Andrew J. Olin and children are visiting with Mrs. Olin's mother, Mrs. S. D. Peterson.

The "Meyers" defeated the crack Sleepy Eye bowling team Wednesday evening with a score of 2,185 to 1,972.

Miss Helen Everett of Redwood Falls has been the guest the past week of the Misses Ida and Dorothy Hauenstein.

Jos. Schreiner paid $9.95 into the city treasury last week as the result of "too much joy." Justice Henningsen inflicted the fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schneider, who have been visiting here for a month, returned to their home in Spokane yesterday.

The Sleepy Eye creamery is now the sole property of Jens Jensen, he having purchased the interests of his partner, Mr. Hagen, last week.

Joe. Cutting, the popular coach of the Washington University football team, is visiting with his parents, Hon. and Mrs. C. P. Cutting, in Sleepy Eye.

Joseph Helget, a resident of Cottonwood, died early Monday morning at the age of thirty-one years. He leaves a widow and three small children.

Eugene Koehler has purchased the Weber residence property on South Broadway and will occupy it in about two weeks. The price paid for the property was $3,000.

Wm. Dahms, one of the bookkeepers in the Eagle mill offices, has resigned his position in order to take up the poultry business on an extensive scale on a farm in the town of Linden.

Herman Mueller, the Courtland farmer who lives on the old Mueller homestead just across the river from New Ulm, is having plans drawn for a $5,000 residence which he intends to erect next summer.

Carl Baehr of Minneapolis commanded the West Point cadets as they marched in the inaugural parade at Washington. The young man is a son of the late editor of the Minneapolis Freie Presse-Herold.

A new directory of Brown County is soon to be issued by the Brown County Journal. The important work of preparation will be under the supervision of the J. G. Emery Directory company of Chicago.

Geo. Yates of Wasioja, Minn., is a guest at the home of his niece, Mrs. Emil Mueller. He is accompanied by his daughter and Herbert Stewart, a friend of the family who returned to Minnesota recently from Skagway, Alaska.

The Sleepy Eye authorities have commenced a crusade against saloon-keepers who are in the habit of selling liquor to minors. One of them, Henry Roberts, was fined $15 and costs by Judge Geschwind on Thursday for just such an offense.

Valentine Orth, the Essig wheat-buyer, was called to Winnipeg recently to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Henry D. Bauer, whose death occurred very suddenly as the result of a hemorrhage of the brain. Mr. Bauer was formerly a resident of Milford.

Attorney Ellsworth of St. James has set his eyes in the direction of the lecture platform. At Hanksa Monday evening he delivered an address on "The Twentieth Century Ideal" which is pronounced by those who heard it a gem of eloquence, thought and diction.

Hereafter the switching in the yards of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road in this city, instead of being done by the regular freight crews, will be done by a special switch engine and crew sent over from Winthrop every morning. By this arrangement it is hoped to have the south and north-bound freight trains leave New Ulm on schedule time.

Sheriff Julius returned from Portland, Oregon, Monday evening. He says that Linfred Isackson, the man he was after, appealed to the supreme court from the district court's decision upholding the governor's requisition order and that now it will be several months before the desire of the Brown county authorities can be enforced.

A. F. Redmann, formerly a resident of this city and until recently traveling claim adjuster for the Consolidated Casualty Company of Minneapolis, has formed a partnership with D. H. Dessen, also of the Flour City, for the transaction of a general real estate, loan and insurance business. The firm will have its offices in the Metropolitan Life Building in Minneapolis.

Albin Carlson, who for the past year has been conducting the Travelers' Exchange, a first-class saloon and cafe on Minnesota street, entered into a deal with Ferdinand Gollnast yesterday, whereby he leases the latter's saloon and hotel property near the Northwestern depot for a period of three years. Mr. Carlson will take possession on the 15th of April and shortly thereafter Mr. Gollnast will embark on a trip to his old home in Europe.

Geo. Doster and family returned from Le Grande, Oregon, last evening.

Gottfried Hoehne has sold his farm in Cottonwood to Jos. Stueber for $45 an acre.

Joe Cutting, the star football player, has signed with the Mankato baseball team for the coming season.

Mrs. Paul Voss of Echo arrived here yesterday for a brief visit with her sisters, Miss Allie Scherer and Mrs. Tory Olson.

John J. Juenemann, a former New Ulmite, has organized a cadet band in Redwood Falls, where John is now numbered among the enterprising business men.

A. R. Bowling, who at one time conducted a business college in this city, died recently at his father's home in Detroit, a victim of that dread disease, consumption.

Mayor Andrews of Mankato will not permit spiritualistic seances at the theatre in that city on Sunday evenings. He issued an order to this effect to Manager Griebel last Thursday.

A term of the district court for Lincoln county was convened at Ivanhoe by Judge Olsen yesterday. W. T. Eckstein of this city is in attendance in his official capacity as court reporter.

Frank Leibold caused the arrest of John Sackel the other day on the charge of using abusive language tending to provoke an assault. Justice Brandt fined the offender $5 and costs.

Mrs. E. C. Johnson was brought down from Hendricks Saturday to undergo an operation at St. Alexander's hospital. She was accompanied by her husband, brother and sister and by Dr. Jensen.

A deal was consummated Monday whereby Ochs & Baer, the enterprising tinmiths and hardware dealers, will on the first of next month become the tenants of the Henle building now used as a bowling alley.

G. A. Ottomeyer will go to St. Paul today for the purpose of arranging for the establishment of a permanent ladies' suit department in connection with his store. This will be an innovation in New Ulm that the ladies will certainly appreciate.

Representative Daizell of Renville county has introduced a bill in the house appropriating $7,500 for the purchase of the old Fort Ridgely battlefield and the preserving of it to the state as a military park. The bill should, by all means, become a law.

J. W. Brown, the South American collector for the J. I. Case Threshing Machine company, was here this week on his annual visit to his old home. Mr. Brown now lives in Valparaiso, Chili, but his business frequently takes him all over the Southern continent.

Representative Pfaender has come forward with a relief measure, re-implementing the Brown County Agricultural society for the loss sustained by it in the destruction of one of its buildings by cyclone. The bill was referred to the committee on appropriations.

M. A. Warren, the veteran book agent who was here at the time of the first blizzard, delivering sets of "Minnesota Through Three Centuries," died suddenly at a hotel in Mapleton early Monday morning. He evidently expected death, for in his pocket was found a slip of paper containing the names of relatives who were to be notified in case of his demise.

Senator Farrington of Ortonville and Senator Johnson of St. Peter are the joint authors of a bill appropriating $25,000 for the construction of dykes and dams at Big Stone Lake so that the Minnesota and Whetstone rivers will be restrained. It is provided in the bill carrying the appropriation that the level of the lake shall not be above the usual high-water mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Stierle of St. Paul, who have many friends in New Ulm, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Monday evening. The venerable couple were married in Cincinnati in 1859 and came to St. Paul in 1868, where Mr. Stierle still conducts the drugstore which he founded at that time and which for many years after ranked among the leading apothecaries of the Sainly City. It was under the tutelage of Mr. Stierle that W. G. Alwin of this city acquired his first knowledge of pharmacy.

The Minnesota river surveying crews, under Capt. Gates A. Johnson, completed their work into New Ulm Saturday evening and started down the river towards Mankato Monday morning. One of the results of their work, particularly interesting to the people of New Ulm, is the determining of the exact distances between various points along the river in this vicinity. For instance, the distance from Cap. Hindermann's landing to the Wiesen-thal bridge, a stretch about which there has always been much dispute in boating circles, is exactly 23.16 miles. From the bridge to the Eagle Mill, around the island, is 1.82 miles. The crews expect to reach Mankato by Saturday.

A. Danielson reopened the New Ulm Music Store on Saturday.

Peter Madsen and family of Prairieville have moved to Todd county.

Company A will be inspected this evening by the battalion inspecting officer, Maj. Buschers.

C. Filzen Sr. received notice last week of the death of his brother, Jacob, in Luxemburg, Germany.

Prof. and Mrs. Critchett entertained the members of the basketball teams at their Broadway home after the game Friday evening.

Petitions in bankruptcy were filed last week by W. A. Funk, the well-known Mankato lawyer, and his wife. The liabilities of the two are placed at $42,618, as against assets aggregating $48,900.

Miss G. Reed of Milwaukee, trimmer for Mrs. Pfeffeler, and Miss E. Dusel of Stevens Point, who is to hold a similar position in the millinery store of Mrs. Follmann, arrived in the city early this morning.

Petitions are being circulated in the county calling upon the commissioners to authorize the remarking, with stone or concrete posts, of the section corners of the entire county according to government survey.

Senator Johnson of Nicollet county would have the state construct a bridge across the Minnesota river at Traverse des Sioux as a memorial to Gov. Alexander Ramsey. The bill which Senator Johnson has introduced in this effort carries an appropriation of $10,000.

The Sleepy Eye public school board has begun a systematic war against pupils who are addicted to the use of tobacco. At a meeting of the board Thursday evening, which Mayor Steinke and members of the police force attended, it was decided to strictly enforce the law prohibiting the use of the weed. The police were instructed to arrest every school pupil found using tobacco.

James and Walter Blake, two young men who were raised at Franklin and Fairfax but who came here towards the end of the week from St. Paul, after spending a night or two in the St. Peter jail, were arrested Saturday evening for stealing an overcoat, a jacket and some overshoes from the barn of the Hauenstein Brewing company, south of the city. When arrested they admitted the theft, but pleaded that they were intoxicated at the time and did not know what they were doing. The Hauenstein people not caring to prosecute, the young men were therefore charged only with drunkenness. Justice Henningson fined each of them $10 and costs or 10 days in jail. Not being able to pay the fines, they were remitted on condition that the young men leave the city immediately. This they did.

The meeting held at Schell's hall Monday evening for the purpose of discussing the clay products of this vicinity and considering the advisability of establishing a plant for their manufacture was not largely attended, but those present were all representative business men. W. H. Whiting of the Whiting Investment Exchange of Minneapolis briefly outlined the nature of the propositions he was willing to make, in the event that it was found that the clay existed here in the required quantities, and so far were his proposals on the face of them that favorable interest was awakened at once. A committee composed of Dr. Strickler, Philip Liesch, L. J. Buenger, F. H. Behnke, Hubert Berg, Jacob Klossner Jr. and B. Juni, was appointed to canvass the situation and the very next morning they set about their work with a will. The essential thing at this time seems to be to find out exactly what we have in the way of resources; that once ascertained, the rest will come as a matter of course.

Mrs. Catherine Seifert, wife of Christian Seifert of Sigel, and sister of the well-known Eckstein brothers of this city, was called to her last reward Wednesday evening about half-past ten o'clock. The deceased was born in the village of Runitz, Bohemia, on the 26th of June, 1858, and came with her parents to America in 1864. Her first home in this country was on a farm in Sigel and here she spent, almost uninterruptedly, the remaining days of her life, marrying Mr. Seifert in October, 1879. Ten children were born to her, all of whom are living. They are William, Charles, Ida, Alex, Frieda and Benjamin, who are still at home, and Henry G., a druggist at Sherburne, Mrs. Frank Forster, Mrs. Hubert G. Theisen and Mrs. Henry Holm. She also leaves her mother and four brothers, Joseph A., Andrew J. and W. T. Eckstein of New Ulm and Geo. C. Eckstein of Sigel. Throughout her illness, which extended over nearly two years, she was a patient sufferer and never, for a moment, gave up hope of her ultimate recovery. Her reputation in the community in which she spent the greater portion of her life was that of a woman of noble traits, a kindly mother and a neighbor whom everybody esteemed. Her funeral occurred from the Holy Trinity church in this city Saturday forenoon.

Miss Rosa Haas visited at the home of George Griebel a number of days this week.

The Essence of Taft's Policy.

If the inaugural message of President Taft is any forecast of the achievements of his administration the following is what we may expect:

Maintenance and enforcement of the reforms initiated by his predecessor.

Differentiation between combinations based upon legitimate economic reasons and those formed with the intent of creating monopolies and artificially controlling prices.

Tariff revision at a special session of congress that will be sincere and not a sham.

A graduated inheritance tax as a revenue measure.

The consideration by congress of the bond issue plan of providing for waterways improvement.

Liberal appropriations for army and navy on the ground that preparedness for war insures peace.

Reforms in monetary and banking laws.

Establishment of the postal savings banks system as promised in the republican platform.

Mail subsidies to encourage steamship lines.

The construction of the Panama Canal according to present plans.

Care in the appointment of negroes to office.

Educational voting qualifications to free the South from the menace of domination by an ignorant electorate.

A change in the injunction law, but vigorous opposition to the secondary boycott.

Catarrah Cannot be Cured

with local applications as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrah Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrah Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrah. Send for testimonials free.
