

Of Interest in the City.

Prof. F. W. Sardeson, the university geologist, was in the city Saturday.

Henry Neuworth returned Saturday morning from a three weeks' outing in North Dakota.

Miss Staley will entertain at what at the home of her sister, Mrs. Herman Held, next Saturday evening.

Adolph Meile will assist in the City Drug Store during Jos. Arbes' absence from town on his honeymoon trip.

Cashier Fred Pfander of the State bank was confined to his home the greater part of the week with sickness.

Mrs. Knud Mo of Springfield was the guest of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. George, the latter part of the week.

Miss Clara Friton, formerly of this city, graduated on Monday from the Eleanor Miller School of Oratory in St. Paul.

R. A. Claybrook, New York representative of the Eagle Roller Mill company, will pay a visit to the home offices of his employers tomorrow.

The Second Regiment band serenaded County Auditor Vogel Monday evening, the occasion being the forty-second anniversary of his birthday.

Jay Behnke, baggage master at the Milwaukee depot in Minneapolis, is spending the week here with his mother. He is accompanied by his wife.

H. B. Trask, who was formerly a traveling salesman and made his home in this city, is now conducting a small hostelry near the West hotel in Minneapolis.

John Larson made a hurried trip to North Dakota the forepart of the week and before returning sold a farm near Drake, a growing village in McHenry county.

Cleveland Frederick, upon graduating from the medical school of the Northwestern university in Chicago next month, will locate, for the practice of his profession, at Springfield.

Andrew Duetsch, the well-known Cottonwood citizen, has rented his farm and will hereafter reside in Searles. He has purchased the Reinhart dwelling, until recently occupied by Rev. Mamer.

Leslie Helmes of St. Paul, who is with one of State Engineer Ralph's surveying crews at work on the Watonwan river, came up from St. James Saturday evening to remain over Sunday with friends.

As soon as Paul Kann had succeeded in extricating himself from the predicament in which he had placed himself by cashing forged checks he packed his grip and pulled out for Chicago. It is not expected that he will return.

Chas. Dietz has sold his farm in Cottonwood township to Charles Lambrecht of Clark, South Dakota, for $45 an acre. Dietz will hereafter devote his whole attention to his business in Mapleton, that of saddler and harnessmaker.

The Eagle Roller Mill company has engaged Contractor Gronau to prepare plans for a second story to the new portion of its office building. The plans are to provide for three additional rooms, one for President Silversen, one for the typewriters and one for reception purposes. Work on the improvement will be commenced next month.

The Minneapolis Journal Junior of Sunday contains one whole page of drawings by Wanda Hazel Gag of this city, illustrating an original Mother Goose story. Miss Gag, who is only fifteen year old, has developed wonderful artistic talents and the fact that she has attracted, at such an early age, the notice of metropolitan papers like the Journal must indeed be gratifying to her and all her friends.

MAY DANCE

Herman Nagel expects to attend the national turnfest at Cincinnati in June.

Pat McCormick, formerly of this city, has engaged in the saloon business at Evan.

The Minnesota Central Telephone company will rebuild its line between New Ulm and Cobden.

Miss Julia Berndt came home from Hibbing last week to spend a brief vacation with her parents.

Mrs. Nix will return today from her winter's stay in Cleveland, Ohio. She has been gone since last August.

Miss Schubeck of Cincinnati is being entertained this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Silversen.

Capt. Louis Scherer entertained the high school students Monday forenoon with an instructive talk on life in the army.

The Company A rifle team will go to St. Peter next Monday to shoot off a match with the crack marksmen of Company K.

Rev. Buzzell, at one time a resident of this city, was recently installed as pastor of a Unitarian church in Barre, Massachusetts.

Fred Sievert and wife, Mrs. Chas. Sievert and Miss E. Bentz of Gibbon were visitors over Sunday at the home of August Gronke.

A new boat has been added to the fleet of the New Ulm Naval club. It is a fine twenty-foot gasoline launch owned by Jas. F. Garrow.

Gustav Albrecht has transferred his automobile garage interests to Stanislaus Sperl. The sale, however, does not include Mr. Albrecht's two autos.

Mrs. Andrew Kokesch of West Newton died at the hospital in this city early last week at the age of seventy-eight years. Death was due to blood-poisoning.

E. A. Hottinger came up from St. Paul Monday to renew his acquaintanceship with old-time friends. It was his first visit to his old home in eight years.

H. Von der Weyer, cashier of the National German American bank of St. Paul, stopped off here Thursday while on his way to attend the bankers' meeting in Sleepy Eye.

F. P. Zschunke, the clothing merchant, has rented the residence property on Broadway between the opera house and the new federal building. The property is owned by Dr. L. A. Fritzsche.

Fred Fritzsche of Lafayette and Jacob Hindermann of Ridgely were the only parties from this vicinity in attendance at the meeting of the Minnesota River Improvement league in Belle Plaine last Thursday.

Rev. Scherer, assistant to Rt. Rev. Msgr. Sandmeyer, has been granted a prolonged vacation. His place is being temporarily filled by Rev. Heinz, who for the past seven months has been doing similar work at Nicollet.

August Schultz of Sleepy Eye, who was one of the petit jury members for the present term of court, was excused Monday because of sickness in his family. His wife, it seems, had fallen down a cellar way on Sunday and fractured one of her legs.

Saturday was the twentieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pfander and in the celebration of the event the "bride and groom" were very pleasantly assisted by the members of the Merry Go Round Club and their husbands.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bingham expect to spend the coming two months in the New England states. Their beautiful German street home will be occupied during their absence by the family of Mr. Schofield, the superintendent of construction for the federal building.

New Ulm furnishes another inmate for the Walker sanitarium for consumptives this week in George Limburger, a younger brother of the girl who returned from that institution a few weeks ago. He was taken there by Chairman Eckstein of the board of county commissioners yesterday.

The following are the scores made by the Rifle club at Hunters' Rest Sunday morning: King target—C. Hauenstein, 128; W. E. Koch, 178; Ed. Jahnke, 152; George Jahnke, 120; F. J. Nanno, 101; John Muhs, 109; Henry Meyer, 158; Fred Meyer, 133; Otto Oswald, 68; Wm. Pfander Jr., 159; Man target—Hauenstein, 99; Koch, 116; Ed. Jahnke, 130; George Jahnke, 66; Nanno, 45; Muhs, 97; Henry Meyer, 106; Fred Meyer, 85; Oswald, 89; W. Pfander, 139.

Miss Augusta Wendt spent Sunday visiting Springfield friends.

The marriage of Henry Reimer and Miss Maggie Ries was solemnized yesterday.

Elmer Seiter of La Crosse has been in the city the past few days visiting his parents.

The stillborn child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Werner of Milford was buried yesterday.

Chas. Kaiser of this city has the contract for the erection of a $7,000 school house at Milroy.

A meeting of dairymen is to be held at St. George next Wednesday. Good speakers will be in attendance.

Mrs. Chas. Silversen will give a unique "mock wedding" party at her home this evening for Miss Addie Olsen, who is soon to become a bride.

Richard Bieraugel and Herman Lange of Lafayette township have gone to Montana with a view of purchasing land and locating there permanently.

The commencement exercises of the Sleepy Eye high school will be held on June 4th. Prof. George James of the State University will deliver the principal address.

"Let us be gentlemen and lawyers," said Judge Quinn in one of the opening scenes of the Carmody comedy yesterday and then the court went on in the even tenor of its way.

The trustees of Dr. Martin Luther college will go to Hutchinson tomorrow to inspect the building and site offered by that city in its bid for the removal of the college.

Commissioner Ole Jorgenson of Linden was the only member of the county board to vote against the granting of a liquor license to Gerhard Gulden of Searles.

Mrs. Helen Engel, mother of Henry Engel, will arrive in New Ulm from Chicago today. She intends to spend the next few months with her sister, Mrs. Jacob Pfenniger.

The board of county commissioners last week adopted a resolution allowing the judge of probate an additional $200 for clerk hire. Commissioners Eckstein, Polkow and Tauer voted for the resolution and Commissioners Jorgenson and Knudson against it.

Judge Quinn of Fairmont, who is taking Judge Olson's place on the bench this week, had the misfortune the day before he arrived in New Ulm to fracture one of the bones of his left wrist. The accident occurred while cranking the engine of a gasoline launch.

The "Alcantara," the most pretentious gasoline launch on the Minnesota river, has been undergoing repairs the past few days and is now ready for service. Excursion parties are making use of it daily, and, if the present high state of water continues, the boat promises to prove one of the most alluring attractions of the summer season.

Geo. W. Root and wife of Grass Valley, California, arrived in the city Sunday afternoon. Mr. Root is the president and manager of the Grass Valley Mining company and it is his intention to spend several days here talking over matters pertaining to the development of the company's properties with resident stockholders, of whom there are quite a number. Edw. Koos of Kenosha, who is one of the company's directors, is also in the city. He is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pfefferle.

It was a clever entertainment that the students of the high school gave at the Turner Theatre Friday evening. Besides "The New Squire," a one-act sketch produced in a commendable manner by Alvin Gruenfelder, Van McHale, Carl Hein, Stanley Koehler, Peter Scherer and Andrew Amana, there were excellent numbers by the high school orchestra, the boys' and girls' glee clubs, the Misses Elsa Hein and Elsa Marti and Master Walter Kunze. A good-sized audience was in attendance and liberally applauded the participants in the program.

Otto Kuefner, a St. Paul attorney who used to represent the German government in the Northwest prior to the appointment of Consul Grunow, and W. H. Pitzu, a Nebraska City lawyer, were in town Thursday taking depositions in a case growing out of the disposition of the estate of Rev. Wirth, a Catholic priest who died in Springfield several years ago. The principal witnesses were Albert Steinhauer, the administrator of the estate and John R. Schmid, Rev. Wirth's banker. Difference of opinion as to who should be the beneficiaries of a certain insurance policy carried by the priest constitutes the bone of contention.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Spielbrink last Saturday.

Mike Bartl of Stillwater has been spending the week here with his cousin.

Geo. Heymann of Graceville has been visiting relatives in this vicinity the past few days.

Mrs. Heinz, mother of the new assistant to Rev. Sandmeyer, was entertained for a number of days last week by Mr. and Mrs. Nic Andring.

Miss Myrtle Foote, an American who has been doing missionary work in Turkey, lectured at the Congregational church Sunday evening on the Armenian massacres.

Rev. Scholzen of St. Leo, who was at one time assistant to Rev. Sandmeyer, has been granted a furlough of several months and will spend it traveling through Europe.

The Christian Arndt bastardy case, which was to have had its preliminary airing in justice court yesterday morning, will not be heard until next Tuesday. The fact that the attorneys for the interested parties were kept busy with the trial of cases in the district court is given as an excuse for the postponement.

Judge Quinn, who is taking Judge Olson's place on the district bench this week, set a new mark in court etiquette yesterday when he ordered three young men out of the court room for laughing, told others that they ought to be at their studies instead of being curious hangers-on at a trial, and warned a bunch of women that while whispering might "go" in a classroom, it couldn't be tolerated in a court of justice. It is needless to say that his admonitions had a most salutary effect.

The Memorial day exercises in this city next Monday will be marked by the usual parade. Participating in this will be the Second Regiment band, Company A, Burg's battery, Hecker Post, the members of the city council, the scholars of the public and parochial schools, the ladies of Hecker Circle and citizens in carriages. Gen. Bobleter will act as marshal and will have as aides Majors Vogel, Buschers, Eckstein, Fritzsche and Graff. The parade will form near the Indian monument at 9 o'clock.

The Brown County Breeders' association will hold a basket picnic in the Turner Hall park on Tuesday, June 8th. Throughout the day addresses will be delivered by Prof. Andrew Boss of the State Agricultural college, L. E. Potter of Springfield and other prominent authorities on stock breeding and plans will be brought forward for an elaborate stock exhibit at the county fair. The association will also consider the advisability of holding a combination registered stock sale.

Jos. Schroepfer was arrested Saturday on the charge of stealing a watch from Paul Leonhardt. Leonhardt missed the watch some time ago, but it was not until last week that it was known that Schroepfer had it in his possession. When confronted with the charge of theft, he stoutly proclaimed his innocence, saying that he had purchased the watch from a hebo, but the police are not in the least inclined to credit his story. He will have his hearing before Justice Henningsen next Friday, the charge being petit larceny if he is willing to plead guilty; otherwise grand larceny.

Leonhard Haeberle.

Leonhard Haeberle, a native of New Ulm and one of the city's prominent business men, died suddenly yesterday morning as the result of a stroke of apoplexy.

The attack came just as he was preparing to arise for his day's work, but so severe was it that he lived only a few minutes.

All New Ulm was shocked by the news, and all New Ulm expressed a feeling of regret, for Mr. Haeberle was one of New Ulm's own. He was one of the first white children born here and he lived to be honored and respected by all who had watched his development.

He was born on the 8th of February, 1856, the son of those pioneer settlers, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Haeberle, and he spent all of his life in this neighborhood. In 1882 he married Katie Hoffmann and as a result of this union two children were born, Elmer and Henry, both of whom are still living.

For twenty years he was engaged in the ice business and so successful was he in his endeavors that when he died he enjoyed a monopoly of the business in the city.

His funeral will be held from the Turner Hall next Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Cottonwood Notes.

Henry J. Dietz has accepted a position as bridge carpenter with the Northwestern Railway company.

The grading of the roads leading up to the town-line bridge is now completed.

A number of young people pleasantly surprised Miss Emily Schneider Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Manderfeld attended the funeral of the former's uncle in Mankato Friday.

Gerhard Guldan has once more been granted a license to conduct a saloon at Searles.

Homing pigeons were released in St. James Sunday morning and exactly two and one-half hours later were in St. Paul. The weather conditions were somewhat unfavorable, but the birds taking the first three prizes averaged a speed of about 1,200 yards a minute. Fifteen birds started and all finished without accident.

It developed at the meeting of the Minnesota River Improvement League in Belle Plaine Thursday that the league is $550 in debt. A committee, composed of Senator C. A. Johnson and Attorney George Olsen of St. Peter and Attorney Irwin of Belle Plaine, was appointed to devise ways and means for the raising of additional funds.

Gov. Johnson has filled the vacancy on the Hennepin county district bench, caused by the death of Judge Donahue, by the appointment of Wilbur Booth, an able and brilliant lawyer. This is the place for which Einar Hoidale was urged by many of his friends.

Gov. Johnson has appointed Hamilton V. Poore of Bird Island state bee inspector to succeed Robert Russell. Poore is president of the State Beekeeper's association.

There may be some new counterfeit $100 bills, but that concerns banks and subtreasuries and not average mortals.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

A deaf and dumb man has been admitted to the bar in Georgia. There's room in the country for more deaf and dumb lawyers.—St. Paul Dispatch.

The Great Western elevator in Hanska has been closed for the summer.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CUREN & Co. Toledo, O.
