Eckstein, seeking information regarding the question of taking care of the poor. They were taken out to the County Poor Home and were favorably impressed with the manner in which the institution is managed. They also gave it as their opinion that the only humane manner of taking care of the poor is the establishment and maintenance of a home used exclusively by the county for that purpose.

At the State convention of county commissioners, held in Mankato last February, it was decided to appoint a committee to be composed of one member from each Congressional district. It should be the duty of this committee to prepare certain legislative measures regarding the authority, power and duties of county commissioners. O. M. Larson, Pres. of the State Ass'n of County Commissioners recently appointed Claus A. Swanson of Lafayette to represent the 3d Congressional district at the next convention, which will be held in Crookston, Minn. next November.

Baseball Notes.

Springfield Wins Out In Ninth.

By a splendid ninth inning batting rally, the Springfield nine won out from the Daniel Websters on the Springfield grounds by a score of 5 to 4. It was a weird exhibition of the national pastime with regard to fielding, but for excitement, the last few innings couldn't be beaten. Both teams made innumerable errors, mostly fumbles and poor throws and neither team did much clouting, altho Springfield had the advantage there.

The Websters played listlessly for 6 innings and in that time the Springfield boys annexed 3 runs on the misplays. But in the 7th after two were gone, Antony was safe on an error, and Mayer and Vogel followed with hits, pushing 2 across. Again in the 9th, two runs were registered and the score was 4 to 3 in the Webster's favor. It looked as if it would be a sure New Ulm victory, but alas! It was not to be! A single and a fielder's choice put runners on first and second and altho two men were then put out, the third one, Gus Vogel, by name, nailed one through the infield so hard that by the time it was fielded in, he was resting on second and the winning run had crossed the plate.

Opening of the Season on Local Grounds.

Next Sunday the Daniel Websters will open the season at the Fairgrounds when they meet the Winthrop nine. The Websters shut them out in a game at Winthrop two weeks ago, but they have strengthened their lineup a great deal since then. It should turn out to be a tight tussle. Come out and join the fans.

The Pirates, another local team, lost out in a close fight at Sleepy Eye. It took 12 innings to decide the game, with the Sleepy Eye Colts shoving the winning run across, making the score 7 to 6.

A Musical Comedy.

W. T. Harvey the professional who is staging Bobbie Blake for local production at Turner Hall for May sixth is a thorough gentleman and has been enthusiastically received by all those who have met him. He has just come from Owatona, where he very successfully staged King Alfafa. He knows his business well as is seen by the fact that in two weeks time he puts on a finished production. His favorable press notices from Waterloo and Charles City, Iowa; Kansas City, Mo. and many other places show his extended experience and uniform success. All these press notices are commendatory and many are very enthusiastic.

Obituary.

News has been received of the sudden death of John C. Lockway which occurred at his home in Buffalo Lake, Minn. last Wednesday morning.

Deceased was born in Austria about forty years ago, and when but a mere boy came to this country with his parents and located in New Ulm. It was in that city that he spent his childhood days and grew to manhood. He mastered the art of milling and when the firm of Ochs & Schmid embarked in the milling business in this city he became its head miller, serving in that capacity for this firm two years, and when the present company assumed charge he continued in that position for a period of about ten years. He then went to Wabasso and built a small mill, which he successfully operated several years, after which he bought the milling property at Buffalo Lake, forming a co-partnership about a year ago with our townsman M. Lehrer.

He is survived by his wife and nine children, the eldest being 18 years and the youngest 2-years old.

Mrs. John Kohout, of this city, a sister of the deceased attended the funeral.

A Morning Drive.

Even Tony Wiesner is troubled with too much business and prosperity. The well known owner of the New Ulm Bus Line, for some time past felt the necessity of hiring additional help for driving the bus from the hotel to the depots and private places in the city. Being a shrewd business man, Tony is very careful in selecting his help. However, last Sunday morning his efforts seem to have been crowned with success for he at last found a driver who dutifully stuck to his post in spite of the cold and the heavy sleep that slowly crept over him. Tony took a late passenger to the southern end of the city past the Wallachai and believing this to be a good chance to show the new help the sights, he took him "mit lang" and left the bus in his care while Tony himself got off to deliver a message.

The new driver being inexperienced in the ways of the world and the customs of "early gentlemen" took pity on the horses and drove them home to their barn leaving Tony and his passenger out in the woods where in the mean time they engaged in star gazing. The driver landed the team safely in front of the barn but was unable to unhitch and give the animals their well earned breakfast. Tony, the proud owner of four blooded animals, walked over three miles to reach home and now he vows that he will never engage professionals as bus drivers be they lawyers, Captains, mechanics or contractors.—

Sleepy Eye.

Herald-Dispatch.

About two months ago Mr. Reid who for the past twelve years has been superintendent of manufacture at the local mills resigned to take effect as soon as he could be relieved. The matter of acceptance on the part of the company has been with-held in the hope that Mr. Reid would change his mind and remain. Mr. Hull, the receiver, and Mr. Von Hagen both implored Mr. Reid to remain, but on account of ill health he has determined to take a rest. The company finally accepted his resignation, and on Monday A. W. Spehr of Mankato assumed charge of the mill as superintendent.

News was received here of the death of Wm. McCormick, the 16-year-old son of Mike McCormick of North Star. The young man passed away Tuesday and the funeral took place at Springfield yesterday. Deceased was a nephew of Messrs. John, Chas. and George Cutting of this city.

E. P. Bertrand, wife and daughter will leave on Monday next for a four months trip to Germany. They will visit the scenes of the birthplace of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand. Their many Sleepy Eye friends wish them a pleasant and a safe trip going and returning home.
