AUTOMOBILE LAW TO BE ENFORCED

City Council Takes Action. Police will be furnished with Stopwatches. Watermains to Eagle Roller Mill.

Night Watchman Appointed.

The law relative to speed limit of automobiles within the city limit was one of the topics that was thoroughly discussed by the city fathers at the special meeting held last Monday evening and the deliberations of the councilmen culminated in a resolution which demands a strict adherence to the state law. The policemen will be furnished with stopwatches and in the future all violators are dealt with according to law. Large signs are ordered to be placed on all roads and thoroughfares leading to the city.

The contract for the laying of watermains from the pump station to the Eagle Roller Mill was awarded to W. D. Lovell, Minneapolis for the contract price of $3038.

The city clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for laying watermains to the New Ulm Roller Mill. These bids will be received up to and opened on July 5th.

The advisability of appointing a nightwatchman was again talked over and as a result Anton Stiemann was appointed to act as regular policeman during the summer months.

At the regular session held last week a committee of the Commercial club, consisting of F. H. Behnke, Wd. Elbner, Fred Pfander and Heimann Held, also Robt. Soberer, president of the Minnesota Flint Rock Co., appeared before the council and urged the necessity of establishing a permanent roadway from the city to the stone quarries. Up to a few weeks ago the companies used thoroughfare over the land of Mrs. Mary Baasen, this, however, is now fenced in. President Buenger was authorized to appoint a committee to look into the matter and report at a future meeting.

Chief Klaus, through President Buenger, asked for the appointment of an additional day-policeman, or, if this could not be done, the purchasing of a motorcycle. The territory, the chief says, is too large to be covered by one man.

Contractor Puhlmann was allowed the balance of $500 for the construction of the city water reservoir. The amount was ordered paid. E. H. Haeberle received $640.07 as the balance for grading, graveling and boulevarding Minnesota street, between Fifth and Eighth South street. Grebe & Emmerich were allowed $50 as final settlement for constructing the sewer on South Minnesota street.

The city clerk was ordered to publish notices, requesting property owners to trim the trees in front of their premises. This must be done before June 20th, in the event of failure to comply with this request, the city will order the work done and the expenses will be assessed against the property.

The Turntag.

A large number of Turners from the Twin Cities gathered in this city to participate in the annual Turn-Tag of the Minnesota-Turnbezirk. A great many came on Saturday and in the evening a dance was held at Turner Hall. The beautiful reception room proved a favorite place for the evening. On Sunday afternoon the various classes of St. Paul, Minneapolis and New Ulm put on some of their gymnastic work which proved very entertaining. The ladies of St. Anthony park opened the program and executed a Gilbert dance which was well done and showed good work on their part. The marching drill by the ladies class of St. Paul was probably the best number of the group work and Mr. Schintz is to be congratulated on the splendid success of his class. A St. Anthony turner, Herbert Watson showed what could be done with club swinging and executed some remarkable feats. The next number was apparatus work by a picked class of the various actives which gave evidence of splendid work and training. The New Ulm Zoeglinge put on a dumb bell drill which as usual was exceedingly good. The ladies of the West Side, St. Paul showed grace and good work in the Mazurka which was their number on the program.

The New Ulm ladies class did very creditable work in their bar-bell drill. The program closed with a flag drill by all the ladies of the different classes aggregating about 80 ladies. After the program a social hour and supper followed. At nine o'clock a great number left for their homes on the special, while others took the early morning train. The guests all spoke their delight and appreciation of New Ulm hospitality and especially that of the Turners, however, New Ulm can easily say that the "pleasure was all ours."

The College Concert.

As might have been expected the annual concert given by the students of Dr. Martin Luther College at Turner Hall Monday evening was an entire success and proved a rare musical entertainment. It is to be regretted, however, that not more people were in attendance, although a good sized audience greeted the students and their artistic musical renditions. Prof. Reuter directed during the concert and he is to be congratulated on the splendid training of his musicians and singers. Every number was enjoyed and gratefully received especially the beautiful little poem of F. R. Lowell "The Fountain" which Prof. Reuter has set to music. "The Story of a Tack", quartette by the Messrs. Zarwell, Boernike, Wechter and Krueger demanded a repetition. "Normannen zug" sung by the male choir, was a difficult selection and therefore a greater amount of credit is due the singers and the director for their good work in the rendition of this number. Mention should also be made of the songs: "Hark, hark my soul"; "Mutter wenn ich gross geworden"; and "Jauchzend erhebt sich die Schoepfung". The orchestra did also praiseworthy work and their several numbers were heartily applauded by the audience.

The Misses Martha and Gustie Keckelsen and Anna Habelbruck spent last Friday at Sleepy Eye.
