

SAFE INVESTMENT

Experience proves that first mortgage property are the safest and most profitable form of investment. We furnish choice mortgages, yielding interest at the rate of 6% net. Please call on us for full information.

N. HENNINGSEN INSURANCE AGENCY
Masonic Block
NEW ULM. - - MINN.

LOCAL NOTES

Albert Matke of Madison, Minn., visited friends here the past week.

There will be a dance at Essig next Saturday night, Jan. 6, in Krause's hall.

Joe Lauterbach and Ted Olson of Redwood Falls visited in town over Sunday.

Supt. R. B. Kennedy returned Thursday from his Christmas visit to his mother's home in Ohio.

Miss Nellie James and Mrs. Emma Wellmann will open their sewing school January 8th. Combination system taught.

Joe Kosek of Lafayette has been visiting at the home of his cousin, Frank Kosek, for several days the past week.

Chas. Loesch of Minneapolis spent New Years with his parents in this city. He returned to Minneapolis yesterday (Tuesday.)

The N. Henningsen Agency has a large supply of fancy and plain calendars. They are yours for the asking.

Mr. and Mrs. August Klause of Senforth, Minn. visited over Christmas at the Klause home. Mr. Klause is a brother of our Chief of Police. Mr. and Mrs. Klause returned to their home Saturday.

Dr. Vogel is the proud possessor of a new $1000.00 Baldwin Player-Piano purchased of Wm. J. Winkelmann.

Mr. Franklin Edwards has been confined to the house since Sunday with an attack of illness which has all the indications of appendicitis. We trust this may not prove so serious and that Mr. Edwards will soon be entirely recovered.

A New Is A Lighthouse.

For years J. S. Dennahue, South Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck, himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years, and without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now at seventy I am feeling fine." For Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles, indigestion, liver and kidney troubles they're without equal. Try them. Only 25cts. at O. M. Olsen's.

Miss Edith Current a student at the University is spending her vacation at home.

* Come in and look at the beautiful Baldwin Piano at Winkelmann's. It is the talk of the town.

Mrs. Ida Bobleter of St. Paul spent Christmas week at the Vogel Home. Her son, Charles Schorregge, was also here.

Emil Wurm of St. Paul, has been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wurm. The Review acknowledges a pleasant call.

Mrs. Adolph Meile is entertaining her father, Rev. J. J. Hillmer and her sister, Miss Jennie Hillmer, of Winona during the holiday season. They expect to leave next Friday.

New Years Day was observed at the Catholic Church by the celebration of three masses, at 7:30, 9 and 10:30 a. m., the same as on Sundays. There were no special Sylvester night services.

Wm. J. Julius attended the Sheriff's Convention which was held at St. Paul Thursday of last week. The convention resolved to ask the next Legislature to pass a law giving the Sheriff's authority to make arrests upon a request to do so contained in a telegram from a police officer.

Charles Durham, Lovington, Ill., has succeeded in finding a positive cure for bed wetting. "My little boy wet the bed every night clear thro' on the floor. I tried several kinds of kidney medicine and I was in the drug store looking for something different to help him when I heard of Foley Kidney Pills. After he had taken two thirds of a bottle he was cured. That is about six weeks ago and he has not wet in bed since." O. M. Olsen.

A milling machine of the latest pattern was recently installed by Mueller & Aab in their machine shop which is operated in connection with their automobile garage. It is what is known as the Haase lathe miller and can be attached to and operated with the lathe which they now have in their shops.

Editor Dehnell and Mrs. Dehnell of the "Worthington Republican" were in town New Years Day on their way to attend the funeral of Mr. Dehnell's uncle Mr. Hess. While waiting for trains Mr. and Mrs. Dehnell came up to look over our plant and we enjoyed a pleasant visit with them. They tell us that Worthington supports its two printing establishments very well. Mr. Dehnell was formerly employed on the Journal force some years ago.

On the first day of the New Year at 6:30 p. m. Miss Esther Mary Johnson and Carl Bengstrom were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Ex-Senator and Mrs. Chas. A. Johnson at St. Peter. Rev. Victor Malmberg tied the nuptial knot in presence of the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties. Miss Bengstrom, sister of the groom, attended the bride and Raymond Johnson, brother of the bride, attended the groom. Miss Elfrieda Toberer played the wedding march. After a brief honeymoon to the Twin Cities the newlyweds will go to house-keeping at St. Peter. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mueller, Dr. and Mrs. Emil Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. Dan. Williams and Miss Elfrieda Toberer were wedding guests from here.

Raymond Schnobrich of Sleepy Eye visited in town Saturday afternoon.

G. W. Funk of New Rockford, North Dakota, spent Christmas week here.

Mrs. Albert Peglow is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tiedemann.

Louis Sandau completed the work of plastering the new residence of A. C. Ochs last week.

Mrs. M. A. Bingham returned Saturday from her visit at her sister's home in East Orange, N. J.

Miss Frances Krook left yesterday for Excelsior, where she will spend a day and then go on to Ann Arbor to take up her school work again.

Fred Hubbard of Excelsior and Stanley Bingham of Minneapolis came back to the old home town for holidays. They returned Monday.

Mrs. M. Mullen left New Years Day for a trip to California, Honolulu and back by way of Mineral Wells, Texas. Mrs. Mullen will be gone several weeks.

Miss Hertha Weschke has been entertaining her brothers Carl and Ernest, both of St. Paul. Ernest was here over Christmas and Carl spent New Years at the old home.

Mr. Wm. Steinke, one of the County Commissioners, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Schultz on North Payne Street while attending the County Commissioners sessions.

Do not allow your kidney and bladder trouble to develop beyond the reach of medicine. Take Foley Kidney Pills. They give quick results and stop irregularities with surprising promptness. O. M. Olsen.

Peter Eichten bought the Friton property on South Broadway from Henry Meierding last week for the sum of $3100.00. Mr. Eichten expects to move into his newly acquired property next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flatau entertained Mr. Flatau's brother, Albert, and his sisters, Marie and Annie, over Sunday and New Year's day. The young people came up from La Salle Saturday and returned Tuesday.

Henry Stiemann of Tacoma, Wash., is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Stiemann. He came the 24th and will make a stay of about two weeks. Mr. Stiemann reports having met Joe Schneider of New Ulm in Tacoma some little time ago and says he is looking fine.

The Misses Clara and Emma Rost of St. Peter visited at the Toberer home over Saturday and Sunday. When they returned they were accompanied by Miss Elfrieda Toberer who went down to attend the marriage of Miss Esther Johnson, daughter of Ex-Senator Johnson to Carl Bengstrom, Monday evening.

O. E. Liedet of Sanborn came down Saturday evening to spend New Years with his people. Mr. Liedet was formerly employed by the Fullerton Lumber Company at this place and went from here to work for the Lampert Lumber Company at Sanborn. He says business in general there is dull owing to the very poor crops.

A great many homes will feel rather empty and lonesome this week for nearly all the students are leaving to return to school. However, there are also a number of pupils returning to New Ulm from outlying districts and the teachers returned Tuesday so that what we lose of our own we make up by what we have of others.

St. Patrick Council, K. of C. presented the local Catholic Church with a new communion railing. It was designed and manufactured by the E. Hackner Company of La Crosse, Wis. The railing itself is of white enamel and gold with eighteen onyx columns and a marble top and cost $500. The design is very beautiful and it certainly proved an acceptable gift to the church.

Rev. Tesch conducted New Year's services at the Bethel Church Monday morning at the usual hour. It was the intention to conduct New Year's services at the Searles Church Sunday but these had to be abandoned on account of the inclement weather. Presiding Elder M. Schoenleben of Mankato will conduct the quarterly meeting of the Evangelical Church at Courtland, Saturday and Sunday and at the Bethel Church Sunday evening.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Minnie Silverson to Hjalmer Lund Hoidale at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Silverson at Shelbyville, Indiana, December 28th. The bride is the only daughter of William Silverson, Vice-President of the Eagle Roller Mill Co. and has a host of friends in New Ulm where she made her home until a few years ago. She is a graduate of Wellesley College and was at one time principal of the New Ulm High School. The groom is a brother of Einar Hoidale, at one time County Attorney of Brown County, and is associated with him in the law business in Minneapolis. The groom and bride will be at home to their many friends at Hotel Maryland in Minneapolis after Feb. 1. The Review joins their many friends in wishing them a pleasant and happy journey through life.

Long Overcoats      Raincoats
Medium Overcoats      Slip-ons
Light-weight Overcoats      Sheep-lined work Coats
Dress Overcoats      Storm Overcoats

Everything in the Overcoat family all reduced in prices.

$20 Overcoats now $16.50
$18 Overcoats now $15.00

Men's and boys' Winter Suits and Overcoats at like reductions. Don't Wait.

HUMMEL BROTHERS
14 No. Minnesota St.      New Ulm, Minn.

JUST A MOMENT, PLEASE

The Following Program is for TO-NIGHT and TOMORROW

"Message of the Arrow"
Western Drama.

"The Girl and the Motor Boat"
Drama. A vividly told story of life in the Thousand Islands, among the summer palaces, yachts, and motor boats. Photographically, the film is remarkable, and the brilliant cast makes its action exceedingly human and intensely interesting.

"Art Industries in Kabylie"
A very instructive film, showing a great deal of the industries found in Kabylie, a city of Morocco, not far from the Mediterranean coast.

"College Sweethearts"
A well acted, and very amusing farce comedy.

When in Doubt, Go To The Princess Theatre
New Ulm's Home of Amusement

HEADQUARTERS FOR

LIVE and DRESSED POULTRY; EGGS, HIDES and FURS.

WHAT HAVE YOU TO SELL? WE ARE HERE TO SERVE YOU.

STORK BROTHERS

Foley Kidney Pills

always give satisfaction because they always do the work. J. T. Shelmut, Bremen, Ga., says: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills with great satisfaction and found more relief from their use than from any other kidney medicine, and I've tried almost all kinds. I can cheerfully recommend them to all sufferers for kidney and bladder trouble." O. M. Olsen.

The genius is a man who thinks of something that immediately sets all other men to wondering why they hadn't thought of it themselves.

Miss Bessie Schrader went to San born last week Tuesday to sing at the wedding of Miss Elsie Essig of North Star to Harry Raymond of Sleepy Eye. Other guests from here who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gluth and Inez and Edw. Gluth, Misses Elsie and Louise Gruessendorf, Miss Mabel Durbahn, Charles and Bessie Lillie, Mrs. Henry Schrader and daughter, Miriam, and Mr. and Mrs. Moll and Albert Moll. Mrs. Schrader spent the week in Tracy, returning after New Years.

The Redwood Falls Gazette editor makes a plea for a boy scout organization and he should succeed. Redwood is afflicted with about everything that's known to the mummy class, including an armory and an artificial lake. Bill Sunday has touched them up, and they have a poor house that costs enough that in time it may become a real necessity. The Gazette should have the boy scout organization and it should boiler for a small-pox epidemic and a compulsory vaccination law.—Tracy Herald.

Start the New Year Right
Use Up-to-date Stationery

We have just received a new Tablet containing 48 sheets of the finest linen paper; each sheet embossed with name of our city.

When sheet is folded it has the appearance as having been taken from a box of the finest Papeterie.

Our special offer for one of these tablets and a package of the latest style of envelopes

ONLY 25c

This gives you just 2 boxes of the finest paper for the price of one box of ordinary paper. Besides, each sheet is beautifully embossed with the name of our city.

We are also showing some of the latest styles in Box Paper at a very low price. Call and inspect our line. It will please you.

Eugene A. Pfefferle
RELIABLE DRUGGIST