Mrs. E. T. Critchett who has been visiting at the Siegel and Henningsen homes recently returned to Minneapolis Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hage were guests at the Ouren - Brudelle wedding at Hanska last Wednesday. Mr. Hage was one of the speakers at the wedding banquet.

Mrs. Ella Martin who spent a few days visiting with her mother, Mrs. Dietz, at the home of August Hummel returned to Arlington Monday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Irene Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brunner of Fairfax visited with New Ulm friends and relatives the latter part of the week. While here they sold their dwelling-house on Dayton's Bluff to Fred Bongarts for the sum of $750.00.

Mrs. Mike Hegler of the Township of Sigel and John Preisinger of New Ulm, both of whom were operated upon for appendicitis at St. Alexander's Hospital Tuesday of last week, are convalescing rapidly and will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

D. D. Daly, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, has called a meeting of the executive committee to be held at St. Paul on the 19th of March. The main work will consist in fixing the date of the State convention to elect delegates to the National Convention which convenes in Baltimore on June 15th.

During the two weeks beginning Monday, March 11th and ending Saturday, March 23rd there will be a demonstration of cooking on the Monarch Range at the hardware store of F. H. Retzlaff. Be sure to go in and see the fine work this stove does. See the new advertisement on page 3 for particulars.

H. W. Engelbert recently sold out his hardware and implement business to his sons Charles and Wm. E. who will conduct it hereafter under the firm name of Engelbert Bros. Charles has grown up with the business and will have active charge of it. Wm. E., the other member of the firm is bookkeeper at the Citizen's State Bank and will for the present, at least, retain his position with the bank.

The Marshall News - Messenger has this to say about a former New Ulmite: "A. J. Gag at his city drug store has made substantial improvements during the past two weeks. A handsome metallic ceiling reflects an agreeable light from the improved lighting system introduced. The prescription partition has been moved back several feet, giving a far more commodious store room, and considerable additional space for his ice cream tables. With new painting and rearrangements of counters and goods, the place has the appearance of a thoroughly remodelled store, modern and fully up-to-date."

The Masons are planning to give a dance in the near future but no definite plans have been made as yet.

Prof. Handy of the State University will give a talk on "Masonry" at Masonic Hall tonight to members of the order.

Monday the Gratz house on South Minnesota Street now occupied by Al. Olsen was sold to John Reinhart for $1525.00.

Mrs. Paul Voss of Echo joined the ladies who went down to Winthrop to help Mrs. Spoerhase celebrate her birthday last Saturday and when they returned to New Ulm she accompanied her sister, Miss Allie Sherer, and visited with her till Tuesday.

F. H. Retzlaff and Fred Windhorn attended the Hardware Mens Convention in St. Paul last week and while there Mr. Retzlaff purchased 2 full carloads of automobiles. He has recently extended his store space greatly and now intends to keep on hand a full line of E. M. F., Flanders and Imperial Cars. The first carload will arrive this week, the second following later. The public is invited to call and look the new machines over.

News was received here recently of the death in Los Angeles, of Mrs. Emma A. Russell, a sister of the late S. D. Peterson. Mrs. Russell was a pioneer resident of Los Angeles, having gone there to live many years ago. She had been in poor health for some time, and spent the last four months of her life in a hospital. She was 69 years old at the time of her death which occurred the 24th of February last. Her husband, David Russell, and two sons survive her.

A Catholic church for Nicollet Village is practically an assured fact the congregation having decided to start building operations this spring. The plans drawn up call for a brick building measuring 32x57. The building will be simple in design but substantial and every dollar put into it will be made to count. The church when completed, will cost about $4,000 and will add much to the beauty of the village. About $1,300 has been subscribed by the members. Fred Volk and August Schiebel were awarded the contract for erection of the new church.

The Medical Society of Brown and Redwood Counties will hold a meeting in New Ulm Friday of this week. The business session will take place in the afternoon and supper will be served at the Dakota House at 7 o'clock after which the professional session will be held. Their friends bespeak for the new law firm a successful career.

Last summer all the friends of the Scofield family were grieved and shocked by the rumor that Ralph Scofield had died while his father was stationed in the Canal Zone. Recently, however, letters from Mrs. Scofield state that they are all well and that Ralph is getting on nicely in his second year of High School work where they are stationed at Ames, Ia.. Altho this is belated information there may still be some one of their friends who has not heard the pleasing news and for that reason we give it at this late date.

Emil F. Buenger took charge of the well-known Buenger furniture store Monday of this week. As was to be expected, an effort would be made to keep the business in the family and Louis J. Buenger, the former owner, and his brother Emil F., agreed upon terms of sale last week. The new proprietor comes to the business with years of experience back of him and there is every reason to believe that he will make a success of it. Louis J. Buenger, who was recently elected Vice President of the Northwestern Bedding Co. expects to remove to Minneapolis within a few weeks to assume active charge of the new business enterprise he has become associated with. For the present he retains the ownership of his business block in New Ulm.

Uncle Ezra says

"It don't take more'n a gill uv effort to git folks into a peck of trouble" and a little neglect of constipation, biliousness, indigestion or other liver derangement will do the same. If ailing, take Dr. King's New Life Pills for quick results. Easy, safe, sure, and only 25 cents at O. M. Olsen.
