Obituary.

Miss Josephine Galle died at the St. Peter Hospital shortly after noon Thursday. Altho the family had notice of her serious condition, the news of her demise proved quite a shock to them and to her many friends. The deceased was born in New Ulm, March 23rd 1879 and was therefore only 31 years old when she answered death's summons. She was a good, kind-hearted and loveable young woman, ambitious to make her way in the world for herself and to be of financial assistance to her family and at an early age went to Minneapolis to seek employment. At first she was employed in the Glass Block and when this situation proved too exacting she accepted a position at the West Hotel. She was very dutiful and painstaking in her work and this may have brought on the nervous break-down which she suffered about 8 weeks ago. She received treatment in Minneapolis for several weeks and was brought to New Ulm by her mother about 5 weeks ago in the hope that the home surroundings would prove beneficial. At first she seemed to improve, but she suffered a relapse and it was thought advisable that she receive treatment in the Hospital at St. Peter where she was taken about two weeks ago. The deceased is survived by her mother, her brothers Fred Galle of Minneapolis and Frank Galle of Mankato and her sisters, Mrs. L. Fugmann of Chicago and Ella, Louise and Florence who live with their mother. The remains were brought home Thursday evening and laid to rest Saturday afternoon in the City Cemetery. Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Galle, Rev. C. J. Albrecht officiating.

Edward Maltzahn, for more than 20 years a resident of New Ulm, died at his home on South State Street Monday morning at one o'clock at the age of nearly 66 years. He has been ill ever since October, being in poor health when he returned from a several months' visit with relatives at Newport, Ky. last fall. Death was due to chronic liver trouble. The deceased was born in Schleswig-Holstein, August 19th, 1846. His childhood and youth were spent at Hamburg and in the fall of the year 1872 he emigrated to America coming directly to Cincinnati where he resided until the year 1880 when he came to New Ulm. After a two years' residence here, he returned to Cincinnati where he remained for a period of seven years. He then came back to New Ulm and went into the saloon business, retiring therefrom in the year 1893. Since then he has not followed any active line of business. He was united in marriage to Anna Hardtke, who survives him, in Cincinnati on February 2nd, 1876. There are no children to mourn his loss. At last reports two brothers and one sister were living in the old country. The funeral will be held from his late home, this (Wednesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock p. m. Albert Steinhauer will deliver the funeral address.

A. H. Lienhard who recently sold his residence property on South State Street to G. A. Ottomeyer has purchased a home in Minneapolis and will depart for that place in the early part of June.

The Class Play to be given by the Seniors next Friday evening has made rapid strides in preparation and a finished performance is promised all who attend. There is no doubt the affair will be very successful as the work has been conscientious and faithful.

The work of raising funds for the proposed new Bethesda Hospital has been taken up with renewed vigor within the past few weeks. Conferences have been had and committee meetings held. At a gathering of those most vitally interested last Wednesday evening highly satisfactory and favorable reports as to the progress of the work were submitted. The wellknown firm of architects Alban & Hausler of St. Paul, have prepared plans for the new hospital and they will be on exhibition at Reim's Jewelry store and at Buenger's furniture store.

B. H. Deters, the newly elected City Justice had his first case last Wednesday. Mrs. Friedrich Fehhaber had her husband arrested for non-support and he was brought before the Justice Tuesday. An adjournment was taken till Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The defendant demanded a jury trial and the attorneys agreed upon a jury of six before whom the case was tried, lasting till four o'clock in the afternoon and resulting in a verdict of "not guilty" after only 15 minutes deliberation. It was a case of airing disagreeable family troubles in public and drew a large crowd of the curious. Justice Deters threatens to throw up his job if he is to have many more cases like this one.

Social Events.

The young people had the center of the stage the past week in a social way as nearly all that was doing was done by them. There were two dancing parties given by the younger set besides the one following the Junior-Senior Banquet. The latter is the big social event of the High School year and is always looked forward to with much anticipation and preparation. This year the classes are large and the evening proved especially pleasant.

The Dutch Room at Turner Hall was the scene of the banquet. The tables were made gay with garlands of smilax and bouquets of tulips. Covers were laid for seventy-one guests, twenty-four of them being for the Seniors and thirty-seven for the Juniors, the other guests being the High School Faculty, Mrs. Hess and Miss Heimerdinger who were specially invited.

A pretty way of selecting supper partners was used. The ladies drew tiny penants bearing numbers and the gentlemen were required to spin a Wheel of Fortune which carried more of the penants with corresponding numbers. The place cards were in the form of little booklets in maize and brown containing quotations from noted authors.

The banquet began at seven P. M. and lasted until nearly nine. Supt. Hess was Toastmaster. Ezra Durbahn, President of the class of 1912 responded when called on with a toast to "The Seniors as I See Them;" Ervin Haenze, '13, gave "What the Juniors Have Done." Miss Koch of the Normal Department gave a talk on "Normal and Abnormal Seniors." Clarence Hess, '13, "What the Juniors Hope to Do." Miss Weschoke's toast was "Our Heroes." Miss Heimerdinger gave a most interesting account of her work; Joseph Groebner, '12, chose "The Senior in Athletics" for his subject and Mr. Peterson, Principal, told the guests "How I Stood It." After the banquet the young folks enjoyed dancing until one o'clock in the Gymnasium which had been decorated with the maize and brown for the Juniors and maize and blue for the Seniors. Hofmeisters Orchestra furnished the music.

Mrs. Otto Seiler will entertain the teachers of the public schools this evening. A leap year party at Woodmen Hall was enjoyed by twenty-five couples of the young people last Thursday evening. The hall was decorated with penants for the occasion and Gruenfelder's orchestra played.

The next older set of girls and boys also arranged a dancing party at Woodmen's Hall last week. About a dozen couples gathered there Saturday evening and danced until midnight to the music of Gag's orchestra.

The Turner Frauenverein celebrated the birthdays of Mrs. Friedmann, Mrs. W. G. Alwin, Mrs. H. Hein, Miss Alice Haerberle, Mrs. R. Hauenstein Thursday at the Club Rooms. About sixty ladies were present to do them honor and all enjoyed the informal gathering very much. Supper was served and during it the birthday congratulations were offered by Mrs. Scherer, Mrs. L. B. Krook sang "I Hear You Calling" and "Swing High, Swing Low," Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Schapekahn recited, Mrs. Brandt read and the Misses Ilda and Henrietta Hauenstein played a piano duet. After the supper Miss Heimerdinger who is coaching the Senior Class play entertained the guests with a group of readings that were enthusiastically encoored, to which she responded with Eugene Fields "Wynken, Blynken and Nod."

The two Women's Clubs of New Ulm held their final meetings of the season last week Tuesday and elected officers for the coming year. Mrs. G. F. Reineke was re-elected President of the Current News Club, Mrs. W. Stoll, First Vice - Pres., and Mrs. J. Buschers, Second Vice - Pres.; Miss Vera Strickler will serve as Sec'y., Mrs. H. D. Bessmann, Fed. Sec'y., Mrs. C. G. Reim, Treas., and Mrs. C. W. Miller, Critic. Miss Strickler as a delegate of the Club will give a paper on Civics and Suffrage as Related to Each Other at the Second District Convention at Jackson, May 22nd and 23rd.

The Woman's Literary Club chose Miss Allie Scherer President for the year 1912-13. Mrs. M. A. Bingham will serve as Vice-Pres., Mrs. A. J. Alwin, Cor. Sec'y., and Mrs. W. B. Mather, Treas. The program committee will consist of Mrs. M. A. Bingham, Mrs. F. H. Behnke and Mrs. W. B. Mather.

Perfect Photography, Wonderful Fire Scene. From the standpoint of spectacularism alone, with the tremendous cost, the army of Indians and the great number of horses and cattle, as well as the stirring battle scenes, this subject would be recorded as one of the greatest films the world has ever seen. It's grandeur is simply overwhelming.

Those who were fortunate enough to see our first western feature, "The Indian Massacre" will not want to miss this subject, the second of the series.

The Keystone of a Bank is Character

There is a structure which every institution builds for itself. It is called character, and every act is a stone in this structure. An institution, in order to have a good character, must think honesty, act honestly, breathe honesty. The people soon determine between the genuine and the counterfeit. They know the ring of the true metal and the base. —L. M. Jones.

On this the whole structure of our bank is based. The increasing business is a guarantee that it is appreciated by depositors. Accounts of companies and individuals solicited. Every facility given consistent with conservative banking.
