FULLY SEVENTY-FIVE KILLED

Sixth Explosion Occurs in English Colliery.

Colnborough, Eng., July 11.—There was a sixth explosion in the Cadeby colliery, in which at least seventy-five and perhaps a larger number of men were killed Tuesday.
Though members of the rescue parties were overcome by fumes, no bodies perished. The succession of blast after blast in the mine is making the search for the bodies of Tuesday's victims almost suicidal.

HOUSE DECLARES FOR IMPEACHMENT

Judge Archbald Arraigned by Vote of 222 to 1.

Washington, July 12.—The house of representatives adopted, by a vote of 222 to 1, articles of impeachment against Judge Robert W. Archbald of the United States commerce court.
Representative Farr of Pennsylvania cast the single vote against the bill of impeachment. Mr. Farr is a lifelong friend who has all along voiced confidence in Judge Archbald's integrity.
Only three members had spoken in the judge's defense. They were Representatives Farr, Bowman and Focht, all Republicans of Pennsylvania.
The scene now will shift to the senate, which will sit in judgment in the case. While there has been a disposition voiced in the senate to postpone the trial until autumn, Chairman Clayton of the house committee on the judiciary, and one of the prosecuting managers, declared his conviction that the senate would take up the impeachment soon.

ABOUT THE STATE

News of Especial Interest to Minnesota Readers.

CYCLONIC STORM IS FATAL

Three Persons Killed in the Twin Cities—Damage to Property Enormous.

Three dead, another mortally injured; an estimated property loss of $100-000; houses unroofed, sheds and barns crushed, windows shattered, basements flooded, train and trolley car service abandoned on many lines, telephone and telegraph communication in many directions hampered, several gardens and field crops ruined and numerous narrow escapes—these figure in the total computed from incomplete reports of the havoc left in the wake of the cyclonic storm which swept the Twin Cities and suburbs. The storm area covered St. Paul, Minneapolis, South and West St. Paul, and intermediate points between St. Paul and White Bear lake and Stillwater, and all through Southeastern Minnesota.
At Lakeview, near Lake City, five national guardsmen were seriously hurt by lightning and many others shocked.

The rain was very heavy, in some places being reported as very like a cloudburst.
A large cow barn on the farm of John Bergman, dairyman, collapsed during the wind, killing Mrs. Anna Freyer, Ellsworth, Wis., and Mary Bergman, five years old, instantly. Mr.
Bergman, his wife and their three other children, Helen, aged seven; John, aged four, and Joseph, aged eighteen months, were in the barn at the time, but escaped with minor injuries. Twenty cows were in the barn, and all killed by the falling walls.

At Minneapolis Ralph C. Gillette, eldest son of L. C. Gillette of the Minneapolis Steel and Machinery company, was killed instantly by a bolt of lightning while seeking shelter under a tree on the Interlachen Golf club links during the storm. Dr. C.
W. Card, a dentist, was knocked unconscious and was in a serious condition for a few minutes after the shock. Joe Nelson, ten years old, a caddy boy, is thought to have been fatally injured by the bolt of lightning that struck Mr. Gillette. E. S. Houston, a coffee salesman, was stunned by the same stroke, but recovered shortly.

SEVERAL PERSONS DROWNED

Number of Lives Lost in the Twin Cities and Vicinity.

Holiday outings cost the lives of two St. Paul boys and one Stillwater boy by drowning; two at a picnic party at Square lake, eight miles northeast of Stillwater, and one in the Mississippi.
Chester Root, twenty-one years old, lost his life in a vain attempt to save Joseph Waters of Stillwater with whom he was diving from a boat at Square lake in sight of a crowd of nearly 100 persons.
Arthur Dolan, the twenty-one-year-old son of Thomas Dolan, unable to swim, was caught in an undercurrent in the slough in sight of three younger boys, who procured help within a minute after he disappeared, but all ef-orts to find his body were of no avail.
Ous Hammer, whose address is unknown, was drowned in the Mississippi at Minneapolis, after the boat, it is believed, had driven him insane.

WOUNDS WIFE; KILLS SELF

Domestic Quarrel Leads to Tragedy Near Minneapolis.

William Phipps, forty-five years of age, a truck gardener and drayman of Wayzata, Lake Minnetonka, shot his wife in the breast and then killed himself on the porch of their home. Mrs.
Phipps is in a serious condition.
The couple started quarreling in the house and then repaired to the front porch where Phipps drew a revolver and fired three shots at his wife, one of which took effect in the breast.

DROWN IN SIGHT OF CROWD

Two Minneapolis Boys Lose Lives in River.

Roy Johnson, aged nine, and James Case, eleven, were drowned in the Mississippi river at Minneapolis, when, after walking down the stream, they fell off a "steppot" and perished in full view of many persons standing on the bridge.
The body of young Johnson was found by the police two hours after the drowning.

WOMAN ROBBED OF $2,350

Masked Men Secure Considerable Sum and Escape.

While her husband slept on a lower floor masked men entered the home of Mrs. John Fulton at McGregor and robbed Mrs. Fulton of $2,350 in cash and escaped.
When awakened by the men Mrs.
Fulton fainting. Mrs. Fulton some years ago had lost some money in the collapse of a bank.

THREE DROWN NEAR DULUTH

Bodies of None of the Victims Are Recovered.

Three drownings among pleasure seekers occurred at Duluth when Mabel and Josephine Sanders, sisters, aged eighteen and twenty years, daughters of Chris Sanders, a prominent business man, perished in Rice lake, a summer resort, twelve miles out, and John Renauld, twenty years old, lost his life in the harbor.

The Sanders girls were capsized in a rowboat in which they were crossing the small lake. Persons who saw the accident were too late to reach them, although the victims made a desperate fight to cling to the overturned craft.

Renauld lost his life while attempting to learn to swim, using a fragment of a life preserver. He was one of a party of twenty who were on a day's outing. Three of his companions were with him and tried to save him. None of the bodies was recovered.

SHOOTS TWO WOMEN; THEN KILLS HIMSELF

Domestic Troubles Cause of Triple Tragedy.

William H. Mowry shot his wife and his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. J. Brown, on the lawn in front of his home at Hastings, then went into the kitchen and committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. Both women are believed to be fatally wounded.

The tragedy occurred soon after Mowry arrived home from the Hastings state asylum, where he was employed as night watchman. The as-thorities say the tragedy resulted from domestic troubles and that, in a fit of frenzy, Mowry fired twice at his wife. One shot took effect in the left arm and the other in the breast.

Mowry then fired another shot at Mrs. Brown, the bullet taking effect in the abdomen. He then ran into the house and was found later lying on the floor of the kitchen dead.

Mowry was married last fall in Minneapolis. Both women were taken to the sanitarium.

WINONA DISTRICT DELUGED

Rain Falls for Three Hours in Southeastern Minnesota.

Winona county and the southeast section of Minnesota was deluged by a rain which held forth for fully three hours.
The rain fell spasmodically, but came in torrents in Winona. Telephone and telegraph wires were broken and twisted.

FIVE CARS ARE DERAILED

One Man Killed in Wreck on the Great Northern.

Alexandria, Minn., July 15.—Five cars of the west-bound Oriental limited, the crack train of the Great Northern, went down an embankment at 1:45 p. m. one and three-quarters miles west of Melby village, and a short while later fire destroyed the wreckage. One person was killed and a physician aboard the train dressed the injuries of eleven others. Many more are believed to have been injured. The dead:

Neil Campbell, fireman, St. Paul.
Conflicting reasons are given for the wreck. One is that it was caused by a defective rail; the other that the roadbed had been so softened by the recent rains that it was unable to support the heavy train. This theory is given the greater credence, in view of the fact that two big freight trains passed over the rails only a short time before the Oriental.

KILLED BY FREIGHT TRAIN

Aged Couple Meet Death While Riding Track Motor.

Red Wing, Minn., July 15.—William Goyer, sixty years old, and his wife Anna Goyer, the same age, were struck and instantly killed by an extra freight train on the Chicago, Great Western railroad at a sharp curve seven miles from Red Wing.

Goyer was a section foreman, and his wife accompanied him on a tour of inspection of the track. They were using a gasoline motor, when the freight crashed into them. Goyer's body was mangled and his wife's skull crushed.

BIG STRIKE IS IMMINENT

Cotton Mill Workers Vote to Strike in Massachusetts.

New Bedford, Mass., July 15.—Members of the Loom Fixers' union and of the Industrial Workers of the World, which includes representatives of many crafts, voted to strike in sympathy with weavers who fail to report for work in the cloth mills. The twisters also have voted to join the strike, and the carders and spinners are awaiting sanction of their national bodies before taking a final vote on the question.

The strike of weavers, who are protesting against the posting of notices announcing a new system of grading the cloth, will involve nearly 13,000 operatives.
In eight mills the objectionable notices either have been removed or were not posted and at these the weavers will remain at work.
