Well, Here it is.

Bill—A California farmer keeps his men working night and day in two shifts, during the busy season. He has powerful searchlights mounted on his plows.

Jill—I never knew before that there was such a thing as light farm work.

An Attitude Resented. "That neighbor of yours up the road seems very contented." "Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "He's one of those selfish people that keeps on farmin' instead of listenin' to speeches that tell him to wait for some one to come along and uplift 'im."

Glorious. "Now that you and George have separated, I suppose you intend to return to your parents?" "Oh, mercy, no! I'm going to have enough alimony to enable me to inhabit Pullman cars and steamships 'early all the time."

Goodby. "Why have you given up the idea of going in for a professional career?" asked her friend. "Because I have met a perfectly splendid man who thinks I would be a lovely ornament to a bungalow that he has his eye on."

A REAL GRIEF.

Wifey—It makes me so mad. Just think, I got caught out in all that rain. Hubby—Afraid you caught death o' cold, eh?

Wifey—No; but I was carrying my new pink chiffon parasol.

Didn't Work. He tried to laugh his trouble off—Alas, he's still forlorn. The treatment failed, but do not scorn—He tried it on a corn.
