Mrs. Joseph Bianchi will entertain the U and I Whist Club Thursday afternoon.

The Misses Ida Falk and Bertha Altmann attended the Southern Minnesota Teachers Convention at Mankato Friday.

The Library Concert program for tonight appears in this issue. It is a fine one. Look it over and then reserve your seat at the Pioneer Drug Store.

A. G. Wagner, traveling salesman for the Phoenix Chair Co. was in the city the latter part of the week, visiting his mother who is in failing health.

Court Reporter W. T. Eckstein who is on duty at the Redwood County term of court, was home over Sunday. He returned Monday morning to finish up the court work which may last the balance of the week.

The Ladies Guild of the Episcopal Church have arranged their annual sale for next week. It will be different from anything ever undertaken here before and promises to be interesting and unique. See their ad on page 7 this week for details as to time and place.

Did You Ever Attend an ADVERTISING SALE?

The Ladies Guild of the Episcopal Church Will Hold One
Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Nov. 20, 21 and 22 in the Toberer Building, north of the Citizens State Bank on Minnesota St. You will enjoy going to this unique affair. Don't forget the dates and place.

Mrs. M. Mullen returned last week from her visit with her daughter's family in St. Louis.

Do not forget that the Library Concert will be held tonight at Turner Theatre. You should be there.

Miss Bertha Forstner left last week for St. Peter where she will take up a three year course at the St. Peter Hospital for Nurses.

Do you want an automobile free? If so become a contestant in the New Ulm Publishing Co's. great subscription contest. Just think of it! An $850 Automobile absolutely free as the first prize.

Mrs. Robert Zimmermann of Courtland and Miss Lily Eberth, daughter of Herman Eberth of Lafayette were operated upon for appendicitis last Wednesday morning. The latter case was an especially severe one. We are glad to report that both patients are doing very nicely.

Rev. A. Biebighauser who was pastor of the local Methodist Church over thirty years ago, was in attendance at the district convention of foreign missions which was held in this city last Wednesday. Rev. Biebighauser is now in charge of the parish at Springfield. We acknowledge a pleasant call.

"School days!" Are your child's eyes equal to the strain? If not, better see Prof. Myer, at C. G. Reim's Friday p. m. and Sat. Nov. 22-23. (Advt.)

Ernst C. Pless, a son of Otto Pless of our city was elected representative of Sibley County over his opponent, Mansfield of Arlington with a majority of 275 votes. Attorney Albert L. Young, formerly of Gibbon, now of Winthrop, was elected County Attorney without opposition.

Dr. H. K. Lum, a classmate of Drs. J. L. Schoch and O. C. Strickler while they were attending the medical school at Ann Arbor, Mich., was in the city for a brief visit last Wednesday. From here he went to Springfield to call on Dr. J. C. Rothenburg, also a classmate.

Adolph Wagner left Sunday for Mason City, Iowa. From there he goes to Minneapolis, Grand Rapids and Ann Arbor, Mich. Business takes him to the first three places. At Ann Arbor he will visit with his sister, Mrs. Caroline Hagberg who recently returned from Germany.

Louis Halvorson of Hanska was a New Ulm visitor last Friday and paid the Review office a visit while here. Mr. Halvorson comes from a section where a strong socialist influence was felt at the last election and he looks forward confidently to the ultimate success of the party.

When are you going to get into the Review-Post subscription contest? You will never find a better time to start than right now. You know it is never too late to start but the contestants who start now will have a good start and should be far ahead of those who start next month. Stop your thinking about entering and act now.

Henry J. Meyer of Milford and Geo. Jahnke of Cottonwood left Friday for Puposky and Island Lake to hunt big game. They started out well equipped with the necessary munitions of war and will no doubt be successful in killing a few bear, because that is the game they are after. They may receive nothing more tangible as a result of their hunt, we are quite confident that we shall be regaled with bear stories upon their return.

Dr. L. C. Quast, formerly of New Ulm, now of Rushville, Nebraska, won the distinction of ranking highest of all the candidates who took the Nebraska State Dental Board Examinations held recently at Lincoln. Dr. Quast is too modest to tell us this but he has asked him several times to tell us of himself but we have learned it in a roundabout way and are glad to tell his many friends of his continued success in his profession.

"Tells the Whole Story."

To say that Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is best for children and grown persons. Contains no opiates ates tells only part of the tale. The whole story is that it is the best medicine for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and other affections of the throat, chest and lungs. Stops la grippe, coughs and has a healing and soothing effect. Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and accept no substitutes. O. M. Olson.

Miss Edna Tappe visited friends in Fairfax Sunday.

Crone has a remnant sale this week. Ad page 2.

One of the popular features of the Obrecht Stock Company which is to appear at the Turner Theatre all of next week is the celebrated Obrecht Ladies Orchestra. A fine fifteen minute program is rendered by this exceptional organization as a prelude to every evening's performance.

Just received another car of New York apples consisting of Baldwins, Canada Red, Rhode Island Greenings, Ben Davis, Northern Spy, Rambo, Steels Reds, Tallmann Sweet Etc. (Advt.) STORK BROS.

Dick Baasen and nearly 100 others, most of whom seem unwilling to plead guilty, took advantage of the M. & St. L. excursion to the Cities Saturday. What was the matter with the trip, friends? It seems to have had a peculiar effect on our otherwise open and candid citizens. We have been asked repeatedly the past two days not to tell about this one or that one who made the trip. Why?

The guessing contest on the weight of the enormous loaf of bread baked in a malleable range oven during demonstration week at the New Ulm Hardware Store had two hundred entries. Mrs. George Guggisberg was the lucky guesser. She estimated the loaf would weigh 24 pounds and 1 ounce which was exactly what it did weigh. She received a small oil heater as prize and the second award consisting of the loaf itself went to George Reiser whose estimate was 24 pounds.
