FIERCE ASSAULT ON TURK LINES

Bulgarians Resume General Attack at Tchatalja.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS FAIL

Indications Are Object of Bulgaria is to Hasten Turkey's Acceptance of the Allies' Terms.

London, Nov. 18.—Negotiations for an armistice have failed and the Bulgarians opened an attack against the Turks all along the Tchatalja lines.
The heavy artillery duel continued throughout the day.

It appeared to be a Bulgarian preparation for an infantry attack. The Turkish fleet participated vigorously in the defense at the Marmora end lines and presumably Turkish warships assisted at the Black Sea end also.

Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, in a dispatch claims to have repulsed the Bulgarian attack and destroyed three Bulgarian batteries. The dispatch follows:

"The battle which commenced with an attack by Bulgarian infantry lasted until one hour after sunset. The enemy, who advanced chiefly facing our right wing and our center, was repulsed by our infantry and artillery fire. Three Bulgarian batteries were destroyed."

All through the day the sound of the heavy guns, booming distantly, was heard in Constantinople. It ceased only with darkness.

In the afternoon the wind shifted and it seemed for a time as though the battle had ended, but again the booming was heard and the movement of troops could be observed not far from the very gates to the capital.
A detachment of several thousand from the Tchatalja lines was replaced by fresh troops who had been held in reserve near the city.

No news of the battle has been received as yet from Sofia and no information as to the strength of the forces engaged on either side.

Battle Ceased at Nightfall.

Nazim Pasha's headquarters are near the Hademkeul railway station.
According to latest reports the battle ceased with nightfall.

The resumption of hostilities is not regarded as indicating collapse of peace negotiations, but rather as a means to hasten Turkey's acceptance of the allies' terms by proving her complete helplessness, or, as one correspondent phrased it, "to establish an accomplished fact before making further communications."

The Bulgarian government organ, Mir, reverts to the subject of peace and plainly intimates that the allies are prepared to consider the question of an alliance with Turkey, provided the latter promptly accepts their terms, which would give Turkey the opportunity of welding her territories into a modern state and making friends of her conquerors.

The Balkan states clearly have in mind the formation of such an alliance as would be able to defy European interference in the disposition of the spoils of war.

Every day brings fresh dispatches recording the terrible spread of cholera.
It now is stated that there are 1,000 cases daily, with a mortality of 50 per cent, while the Turkish authorities are impotent to take any measures to prevent its further spread.

This being the case it still is doubted whether the Bulgarians will risk the danger of a march on Constantinople.
It is therefore believed that hostilities have been resumed in order to hurry the port's acceptance of whatever terms the allies dictate.

Their Own Behalf.

New York, Nov. 15.—In the picturesque language of the Bowery three of the gunmen on trial for the actual murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, gave on the witness stand the version of the slaying which they hope will win them acquittal.

In stories which fitted together perfectly, and in some parts proved almost literal repetition, the three gunmen accused Bridgie Webber, Harry Vallon and a mysterious "stranger" of firing the shots that killed the gambler; themselves they pictured as innocent bystanders, lured there by Bald Jack Rose.

Dago Frank, the fourth gunman, they all testified, was not on the scene at all.

Madrid, Nov. 13.—Jose Canalejas, premier of Spain, was assassinated here.
Manuel Pardo y Zarrate, the assassin, shot him twice behind the right ear and then attempted suicide.
It is said he was an anarchist. The premier was killed instantly.

The shooting occurred in front of the office of the ministry of the interior, fronting on the Puerto del Sol, or gate of the sun, a big square in the center of Madrid, the busiest spot in the city. Stepping up behind and slightly to the right of his victim the assassin pointed a pistol point blank at the premier's head and discharged it twice in rapid succession.
Then he shot himself before the police had time to seize him. When taken to a hospital he was found to be still living.

seriously injured when an inbound and crashed into a freight train at Irvington, a suburb.

Fifteen seriously injured were taken to the Deaconess hospital in this city.

The wreckage caught fire, but the flames soon were extinguished. Most of the dead were found in the wreckage of the first car, which telescoped the baggage car.

The engineer of the passenger train is believed to be in the wreck, but the engineer of the freight train escaped by jumping.

was later announced by the president from the executive offices, with the explanation—that Mr. McClung resigned voluntarily.

It is believed that Carmi Thompson, now private secretary to the president, will succeed him.

The treasurer declined to discuss his retirement in any way, but it was rumored that his resignation came as the result of continued friction with Secretary MacVeagh.

Wilson Says Congress Will Convene About April 15.

TARIFF LEGISLATION FIRST

President Elect Declares Pledges of the Party Ought to Be Redeemed as Promptly as Possible.

New York, Nov. 16.—Governor Woodrow Wilson announced that immediately after his inauguration as president of the United States he would call an extraordinary session of congress to convene not later than April 15 for the purpose of revising the tariff.

The president elect will sail for Bermuda this afternoon for a vacation and will return on Dec. 16. To set at rest in the meantime speculation as to what he would do with regard to tariff revision he issued the following statement:

"I shall call congress together in extraordinary session not later than April 15. I shall do this not only because I think that the pledges of the party ought to be redeemed as promptly as possible, but also because I know it to be in the interest of business that all uncertainty as to what the particular items of tariff revision are to be should be removed as soon as possible."

Beyond this brief announcement the governor said he had nothing further to say. Most of the opinions he had received from public men seemed to be in favor of an extra session, he said.

Hastened His Announcement.

The governor did not intend to express himself about an extra session so soon after his election. Although he has favored the idea of an extra session because the present arrangement would not bring the new congress into session until thirteen months after its election he had expected to spend more time in ascertaining public opinion.

With the time to be consumed in discussion the governor felt that if an extra session were not called the benefits of tariff revision would be postponed for practically two years.

Throughout the campaign he reiterated that he desired an immediate revision of the tariff and that Democratic leaders knew perfectly well how to proceed about it.

The governor was impressed by the argument also that with an early announcement as to an extra session Democratic leaders in congress could begin to take counsel at an early date so that much of the preliminary detail could be worked out before congress convened on April 15.

CARRIED DYNAMITE

Defendant Who Plead Guilty Gives His Evidence.

Indianapolis, Nov. 16.—Carrying dynamite about in a market basket was the way Edward F. Clark, an ironworker testifying at the so called dynamite conspiracy trial, said he arranged to blow up nonunion jobs.
Clark, an official of a local union in Cincinnati, pleaded guilty at the beginning of the trial of the forty-five men accused of complicity with the McNamara brothers in the illegal transportation of explosives.

In detailing his confession on the witness stand he told of personally blowing up work on a railroad bridge across the Miami river at Dayton May 3, 1908, and leaving behind an umbrella which bore his initials. Clark asserted officials of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers induced him to do dynamiting.

Once, he said, while inspecting work in Cincinnati, President Frank M. Ryan pointed to a railroad bridge across the Ohio river and said, "There would be a good place to put a shot."
