Mrs. Mark Dyer of St. Paul is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Skianer at 600 South German Street. She will remain over Thanksgiving and possibly longer.

Martin Carlson of Gibbon got his fingers caught in a circular saw last Tuesday and one of the fingers was badly cut. He was brought to New Ulm for treatment.

Sheriff W. J. Julius is resting up at Moquoketa, Iowa from the strenuous election campaign. He is not expected home till next week. His daughter Florence accompanied him on the visit to relatives.

Home made cakes, cookies, noodles, doughnuts and Xmas cookies for sale by Ladies of the Turnverein at the Hall, Friday, December 13th. Card Social in the evening. (Advt)

Altho the Mankato city election is months away, possible candidates for the mayoralty are already being mentioned. Geo. W. Scherer, a New Ulm boy, is being urged by his friends to get into the game. Mr. Scherer is not only popular among all classes in Mankato, but he has, as a member of the schoolboard, proven that he has the executive ability needed by the chief officer of a municipality. We predict his election if he enters the race.

An Ideal Christmas Gift for Wife, Mother, Sister, Sweetheart or any Men Friends.

J. C. Ristau of Spokane, Wash., a half-brother of Mrs. Julius Schmidt, arrived here Monday afternoon for a brief visit. He is a fruit grower and had shipped to this point a carload of choice apples which he will sell here. Mr. Ristau left New Ulm over 30 years ago. He visited his friends and relatives here about two years ago.

The next meeting of the young men's club of the German M. E. Church will be held next Monday evening. The meeting was postponed this week on account of a series of nightly evangelistic meetings which Rev. Hohn is conducting. These meetings will continue the rest of the week excepting Saturday.

Wednesday evening Joseph Smasal, Julius Krause, Robert Williams, Hugo Gebser, Cap. Nenko, W. E. Korth, Gust. Goetsch, William Thiedemann, Nick Schuweiler and E. Schilling autoed to Gibbon to take part in a skat tournament which the Gibbonites had arranged for that evening. Skat players attended from Winthrop, Stewart, Hector, Grafton, Buffalo Lake, New Ulm and St. George. The New Ulm players were evidently not in good form, because of the ten prizes awarded, they carried home only one and that was the booby prize, a beer stein. And they do say that Schilling, the gentel Dispatch man, had to do some tall hustling to be able to connect with that.

THE LADIES AID OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

will hold their

ANNUAL FAIR and SUPPER

The Ladies Society of the Turnverein have organized into a literary society to take up subjects for reading and study during the winter. The first meeting was held Sunday afternoon. As yet the course of work has not been fully decided upon.

Thanksgiving festivities are recorded on page 3 of this issue. Make a habit of looking for additional local news on inside pages. From now to Xmas you will always find some there because there will be so much to write up that we can not get it all in the usual space.

On his way home from Virginia Monday Mr. Fred Behnke stopped off at the cities and went out to the Agricultural School to visit his daughter Miss Gretchen, who is Superintendent of the Dining Hall at the School. Mr. Gieseke accompanied Mr. Behnke and the two gentlemen greatly enjoyed their visit to the institution which is growing so rapidly.

The American Theatre has something special to offer for Thanksgiving on page 3. Don't miss it.

The New Ulm people who want eyeglasses that not only stay on good, but which also give comfortable vision, go to
SCHLEUDER, The Optician (Advt)

The Minnesota Educational Association Meeting will hold its fiftieth annual session next week Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 5th, 6th and 7th in St. Paul. The High School teachers and Mr. Hess expect to attend and there will be no school in the High School from Thursday noon, December 5th, until the following Monday. Bingham.

Some hunters who wounded a tree while in the woods the past week report that the sap was running as freely as in spring. Others have told us that the pasque flower has begun to grow and is peeping out of the ground on the bare hillsides. Parsnips left in the grounds are sprouting anew and cellar stored vegetables are showing evidences of the unusual warmth of the late season. The Pioneer Press has a Chippewa Indian prediction which says there'll be no snow until after New Years but plenty of it then.

Social Events.

Mrs. Laesch, Mrs. Follmann and Mrs. Olsen entertained at Whist Monday evening. There were eleven tables and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Leary, Mrs. F. H. Behnke, Mrs. Siegel, Mrs. Metzinger, Mrs. Strickler and Mrs. Langmack.

The third of the Masonic Club Dances will be held Saturday evening.

The Current News Club met with the Mrs. A. J. Vogel yesterday afternoon. The roll call was given by each member responding with some useful household hint. Mrs. J. H. Vogel acted as leader with Mrs. Zelle as assistant. The topic studied was "England." Mrs. C. W. Miller furnished the music and Mrs. Schroeck was down for Current Events. The next meeting is scheduled for December 10th at Mrs. Reineke's.

The reception given at the Beecher home last Thursday evening in honor of James Beecher was a most delightful affair. The rooms were beautifully decorated in white and yellow chrysanthemums. The guests were pleasantly entertained with musical numbers by Mrs. Sommen and Mrs. Mather, Mrs. Reim and Mrs. Miller. Frappe and delicious refreshments were served.

Our big game hunters Henry J. Meyer and George Jahnke returned from their hunting trip to the northern part of the state Friday evening. George Jahnke was fortunate enough to land a buck weighing over 100 pounds. Hunting proved a more difficult task than in former years, because there was no snow on the ground and the noise made in going thru the timber scared off the game. It is planned to have a venison lunch for the members of the Hunter's Club at Turner Hall in the near future and Mr. Jahnke and Mr. Meyer will be the hosts at this function.

New York Giants vs. Boston Red Sox, 1912. PRINCESS to-night. NO IMITATION. (Advt) 48
