Editor Hodges and wife were pleasantly surprised at their home Monday evening, December 2nd, by a large number of neighbors and friends who came there to assist the worthy couple in celebrating their silver wedding. Bro. Hodges was equal to the occasion and made the best speech he ever made in his life.

During the early morning last Saturday, fire from the steam engine of John Essig who lives in the Town of Milford set fire to a lot of corn fodder and the result was, before it could be subdued, two stacks of hay, a lot of corn fodder, four cattle and the new corn shredder owned by Mr. Essig was destroyed. It was fortunate the wind was in the right direction otherwise all the farm buildings of Mr. Addy would have been burned. The shredder was a new one and cost $800 with no insurance. Mr. Addy figures his loss at about $600 with insurance in the Stark Insurance Company.
