The Woman Makes the Home

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.

Mrs. Fred Gerboth visited with Sleepy Eye friends last week.

Mr. Wm. C. Steinke of Sleepy Eye returned from San Francisco, Seattle, Spokane and other points in the west on Monday.

Victor Lund and family, Mrs. T. F. Bergquist, Charles Lundgren, Hakan Johnson, Fred Finley and J. E. Peterson of Lafayette were New Ulm visitors last week.

The Christmas program and basket social arranged by Miss Martha Reinhardt, the teacher of School District No. 28 in Nicollet County last Friday proved an unqualified success.

The Postoffice will be open until 10 a. m. today and the city carriers will make the morning delivery but none in the afternoon. The rural carriers will make the rounds as usual.

Anton Ouren, Andrew Johnson, Anton Paulson, Andrew Shellum and Martin Torgrimson of Hanska are planning on a pleasure and sight-seeing trip to Texas during January. They expect to visit El Campo, Houston and Galveston.

Jos. A. Henle and family of Ellsbury, N. D. arrived last Wednesday for a couple of weeks visit with his and his wife's relatives. This is the first time in seven years that Joe has found it convenient to pay his old home a visit and he thoroughly enjoys it.

Last Tuesday evening the activities of the Turnverein had a "Kommers" at the hall after their regular hour of physical culture work. This was the first social meet they have had this year and it was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Prof. Hein was the recipient of a fine student's lamp which the class presented to him as a mark of appreciation.

The poultry show held last week at St. James under the auspices of the Watonwan County Poultry and Poultry Association was a success in every way. None of the local fanciers exhibited any birds. The only one from this county who entered his birds was Wm. Dahms of Hanska who was awarded 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th prizes for his Black Langshan pullets.

Henry Engel returned Saturday from Morton, where he had been since Tuesday, superintending the work of getting the Morton Merchant Milling Co.'s plant started. Some trouble was experienced in getting things started, but everything was running smoothly when Mr. Engel left. The mill is owned by New Ulm parties. Frank Fesenmaier who was born and raised in the Town of Cottonwood is again on the job as engineer.

By inadvertently stating in the Hanska Herald a few weeks ago that the Tri-State Telephone Co. had been sold to the Northwestern Telephone Co., Bro. Eggenberger created considerable commotion and caused some excitement even at the head offices of the former company and an official was sent out here to chase down the report. In last week's issue of the Herald the error is corrected and everything is once more serene in telephone circles.

At a recent meeting of the New Ulm Arbeiterverein the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., Chas. Lindemann; Vice Pres., Geo. Puchner; Fin. Secy., Carl Manderfeld; Secy., Otto Tappe; Treas., Fred Pfander; Committee on Sick, 1st ward, Frank Lindmeyer; 2nd ward, John Wiese; 3rd ward, Werner Juennemann. The society is in splendid shape, financially, having $2000 in the Treasury, the most of which has been invested and is drawing interest.

Obituary.

Mrs. Katherine Vierling died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Jacob Spaeth Friday evening at 6:30. Death was due to the ailments incident to old age and altho she had been in failing health for over a year she was confined to her bed only four weeks.

The deceased whose maiden name was Katherine Bender was born in Muehlhausen, Baden, Germany, Febr. 6th, 1830, and was in her 83rd year when Death's summons came. She came to this country with her parents in the year 1853 and was married to Christoph Vierling the same year in Philadelphia. From there they went to Columbus, Ohio, where they remained until the year 1868 when they came west and settled on a farm in Nicollet County just across the river. Her husband died 25 years ago in March. Mrs. Vierling remained on the farm until 18 years ago when she came to New Ulm and made her home with Mrs. Spaeth. She is survived by her daughters, Mrs. Jacob Spaeth and Mrs. John Vierling, both residing in New Ulm, and her son John Vierling who lives on a farm near Wabasso, Redwood Co. She is also survived by her brother Jacob Bender of New Ulm and a sister who resides in Columbus, Ohio. The funeral took place Monday afternoon with services at her late home at 1:30 and church services at the Lutheran Church at 2 o'clock Rev. Albrecht officiating. Interment was made at the Lutheran Cemetery.

Jacob Wagner, an old and respected pioneer of the Town of Cottonwood died Thursday morning, aged 78 years. About 17 months ago he suffered a slight apoplectic stroke and since that time he has been mentally and physically in bad shape, and Death came as a relief to him. He was up and about until the Friday preceding his death when he fell down while outside. Since then he was confined to bed. The deceased was born in Bohemia, Austria, June 21, 1834 and came to New Ulm as early as the year 1858. He took an active part in the defense of New Ulm during the Indian Massacre and was wounded. About 44 years ago he was married to Margaretha Eckstein, his surviving widow and shortly thereafter took up farming in the Town of Cottonwood, which he carried on successfully until a few years ago, when he retired from active work. Besides his widow, he is also survived by his sons Anton and John of the Town of Cottonwood; William of New Ulm, and his daughters, Mrs. Geo. Fischer of Searles and Mrs. Geo. Hagler of Sleepy Eye. At the time of his death he was a member of the St. John's Society of Searles, who attended the funeral in a body. Funeral services were held at the Catholic Church Saturday morning, Rev. Mazier officiating.

Charles M. Pomeroy, the oldest white settler of Watonwan County, died at Madelia, December 18th, aged 84 years. He located in Blue Earth County in 1855 and in the spring of the following year crossed over the line into what is now Watonwan County and built the first house on Watonwan County soil, in which he made his home. He took an active part in the suppression of the Indian Outbreak in 1862. The deceased was prominent in his County and enjoyed the unique distinction of having held every county office with the exception of that of sheriff.

Gerhard Schapekahn died in the prime of life at his home on North Minnesota Street Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. Death was due to arterio sclerosis with which he had been afflicted for some time. For a whole year he had been unable to work, but was confined to his bed only during the last week of his illness.

The deceased was a native of Germany, having been born in Gehrde, Province of Hannover, August 16, 1860. His mother died when he was but 2 1/2 years old and at the age of eleven years he came to this country with his father and has since then resided in New Ulm continuously. On October 5, 1892 he was married to Serbine Weddendorf who with one daughter and three sons survive him. His untimely death is also mourned by his sisters Mrs. William Ruemke and Mrs. Fred Auferheide. The deceased was a carpenter by trade and was considered one of the best in his line of work in the city. For years he was a member of the firm of Schapekahn & Co., formerly well-known contractors of this city. By nature he was of a cheerful disposition and looked upon the bright side of life, until his ailment had reached that stage where this was no longer possible. He was a good citizen, a good provider for his family and a true friend, and his demise means not only an irreparable loss to his family, but to a large circle of acquaintances and friends as well. The funeral was held Friday afternoon with brief services at the home at 1:30 and at the Lutheran Church at 2 o'clock, Rev. Albrecht officiating. He remains were laid to rest in the Lutheran Cemetery.

Death came as a relief to Mrs. Katherine Guth at her home on South Washington Street Sunday morning shortly after six o'clock. Her demise was due to dropsy of the heart with which she had been afflicted for years. About a year and a half ago, she suffered a paralytic stroke and four months ago she had a second stroke, which reduced her to an invalid. The deceased whose maiden name was Katherine Scheible, was born in Lamesheim, Wuertemberg, Germany on the 30th day of December, 1838, and was consequently nearly 74 years old when she died. At the age of 16 years she came to America with her parents who located at Cincinnati. Here she was married to George Guth, her surviving husband, on the second day of April 1859. Eleven children were born to them, all of whom are alive. They moved to Worster, Ohio in 1864 and came west in the year 1871 and settled on a farm in the town of Cottonwood where they resided until 19 years ago when they came to New Ulm to spend their declining years in peace and comfort. She is survived by her husband, and her sons George of Sleepy Eye, Louis of Redwood Falls, John of the State of Washington, Frank of Cottonwood and Albert and Otto of New Ulm and her daughters Mrs. Mary Mueller of Fairbault, Mrs. Bertha Schnabel of Gibbon, Mrs. Anna Kuehn of Wanda and Mrs. Emma Snaefter and Miss Rosa Bentzen of New Ulm and 35 grand children and 5 great grand children.

Funeral was held Tuesday morning with services at her late home at 10:00 and church services at the Friedens Church at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. Mayor officiating. Interment was made in City Cemetery.

Mrs. Schultz and Mrs. Townsend of Minneapolis, nieces of the deceased, attended the funeral.

CROUPY COUGHS AND WHEEZY COLDS.

The quickest simplest way to rid the children of dangerous croupy coughs and wheezy stuffy colds is to give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It gives almost instant relief and stops a cough promptly. It soothes and heals. Contains no opiates. O. M. Olsen.

Lawrence Schneider received a telegram on Wednesday that a little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hering of Chicago. Mrs. Hering will be remembered as Miss Kate Schneider.

If you can't decide what to do, Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn., will tell you. Write for free catalog. (Adv.) 51-52

Mrs. Fred Seiter and little daughter Allice returned to New Ulm Friday from their visit to Bedford, Ind., and Chicago. Mr. Seiter got home the next day from his trip to Washington. They timed their return so as to be at home for Mrs. Seiter's father's birthday celebration on Sunday.

BOYS! Now be real good, just for once and take along a box of those famous Smith's Chocolates Dreams when you go - well you know - it's the only real candy to give your or someone else's sister. At the annual meeting recently held the Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W. elected the following officers for the ensuing year: C. of H., Mrs. Wm. Vercoe; L. of H., Miss Kate Krueger; C. of C., Miss Tillie Heymann; Fin., Mrs. Jos. A. Eckstein; Recorder, Otto R. Kohn; Treas., Mrs. Jos. Bobleter; U., Mrs. Albert Nanno; Asst. U., Mrs. A. L. Breu; I. W., Mrs. Emil Schaefer; O. W., Mrs. Emil Gebhardt; Organist, Mrs. Otto R. Kohn; Trustee, Wm. Vercoe.

Franklin Brust fractured the bone of his right leg directly above the ankle shortly before noon on Monday. He was coasting down Center Street hill with some other boys, when the bob struck a tree at the corner of the Siegel residence and he sustained the injury mentioned. A physician was immediately called who reduced the fracture. The little fellow will be laid up for weeks and it will spoil his Christmas to which he has been looking forward.

Contractor Herman Koop and a crew of men are hard at work finishing up some carpenter jobs in the Town of Cottonwood. Extensive improvements are being made on the residence of Theo. Waibel and a new barn is being erected for St. John's parish at Searles. Herman Fritsche expects to build a new residence next spring. The foundation for the same was recently completed by Contractor Geo. Reiser of New Ulm.

COUGHING AT NIGHT.

One bad cough can keep the whole family awake at night. Phil. Disornow, Schaffer, Mich., says: "I could not sleep on account of a bad cough, and I was very weak. I used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and soon the cough left and I slept soundly all night." O. M. Olsen.
