Mrs. Rinke's Millinery.

Another progressive farmer, Ed. Carlson, living 6 miles west of Lafayette, bought a gasoline plow and tractor outfit. He secured the machinery from the Loefelmacher agency of Fairfax. He did 35 acres of plowing in two days.

Dick Brust came up from Mankato for a day's visit at home Sunday, returning Monday. Dick must have a good stand-in with the American Express Co. since he was called to his new position by one of the head men of the company. Dick will make good.

Mr. A. E. Hanson of Rt. 3, Hanaka was a county seat visitor last week Thursday and dropped in to the Review office to get one of the fine Hanaka Parcel Post Maps which we have. Ask the cashier at the Security State Bank how you can get one also. He can show you a sample.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the Thespians of the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Catholic Church Sunday evening in their rendition of the one act farce entitled "The Trouble at Satterlee's" and the three act German comedy "S Krautschaferl." The program was interspersed with vocal and instrumental musical numbers, thus rounding out a fine evening's entertainment.

Special next Saturday, Strawberry Short Cake 15c. Home Bakery, Wd. Eibner. Adv

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bingham and Miss Elfrieda Toberer drove to Fairfax Sunday and viewed the ball game, returning the same evening.

Last week Julius Krause bought out the saloon business conducted by Otto Oswald at Cobden. He expects to take charge on May 19th. Mr. Oswald will move to New Ulm, but has, as yet, no definite plans for the future.

Court Reporter W. T. Eokstein spent Sunday with his family. He returned to St. Peter Monday morning to be on hand when Court convenes. From present indications the entire week will be consumed in the trial of the cases that are pending.

At a recent meeting of Hoeker Post No. 48 G. A. R. it was decided to celebrate Decoration Day this year in an appropriate manner. R. Pfeifferle, Jacob Klossner, Jr., Franz Grebe, R. Marschner and Wm. Frank were appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements.

This week Henry Shelbel of Searles bought 320 acres of good prairie land near Alexander, N. D., through Wm. Schaleben & Co. That firm also sold 400 acres near New Ulm to Dr. O. C. Strickler of that city. Mr. Schaleben informs us that there is a larger demand for good farms this year than ever before.—Madella Times-Messenger.

The visiting K. C. bowling team of Mankato consisting of F. A. Landkauer, Dr. C. W. Weir, Dr. F. A. Kemp, Louis Huetl and Otto Lavam went down to defeat Wednesday evening on the bowling alleys in the basement of the Catholic schoolhouse by a score of 2319 to 2255. They were trimmed up by a team consisting of C. P. Eichten, Ray Pfeifferle, Dr. O. J. Seifert and Ed. Berg. This is the first time that the local players won out against the Mankato team and they naturally feel elated over their victory.

Miss Marguerite Keegan as a pupil of Dr. R. Lagerstrom will join with Miss Leona Moulton of Kasota, also a pupil, in giving a piano recital at the St. Peter Armory next Friday evening, May 16th. Miss Keegan is down for four solos on the program besides playing in two duets. Several cornet solos by Arthur Olsen will lend variety to the entertainment. Miss Keegan has chosen as her selections Borowski's "Mazurka No. 2," Sinding's "Rustle of Spring," "Pas des Amphores" by Chaminade and Bachmann's "Les Sylphes."

The adjourned stockholders' meeting of the Union Hospital Association was held last Wednesday afternoon at Schell's Hall. The only matters discussed were those regarding plans for the new building. President Klossner reported what the Committee which had visited the Mankato Hospitals had learned and a resolution was adopted giving the Board of Directors full authority to go ahead with the work, have plans and specifications made and approved and rush building as rapidly as possible. Several of the stockholders doubled the amount of stock they had subscribed and everything looks favorable for an early completion of the hospital.

For the 1913 Graduates we have a complete line of Silver, Pearl, Ivory and Ebony Novelties from 50c to $5.00. C. G. Reim, The Leading Jeweler. 20-22

By a unanimous vote of the directors of the Good Roads and Development Association of Springfield, it was decided to have a meeting at the Springfield Opera House on Saturday, May 17th at one o'clock p. m. W. G. Frank, Herman Polkow and Julius A. Rieck were appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements and they are hard at work now securing speakers to give practical talks on good road building. An effort will be made to secure D. H. Evans of Tracy, Judge Lorin Cray of Mankato and G. W. Allen of Madison Lake. The program as planned will occupy about two hours. It is the intention to treat the visitors to an exciting ball game during the course of the afternoon.

J. S. Stickney, representing the Pioneer Nursery of New Ulm, was a caller here Tuesday and Wednesday.

On Wednesday morning Landlord Emil A. Hacker of New Ulm assumed charge of the West hotel. He comes highly recommended and is a pleasant gentleman to meet, which will insure him the same splendid patronage accorded the retiring landlord, A. H. Johannes.

M. J. Klinkhammer has sold his saloon business in Nicollet to Henry L. Wentzlaff and expects to return to New Ulm in the near future to reside. The new proprietor has taken charge of the business on Monday.—Nicollet Leader.

Mrs. N. Henningsen and Mrs. Ida Bobleter returned from their winter's sojourn in Los Angeles, Cal. Sunday. They were gone over four months and enjoyed every minute of their stay. Mr. Henningsen drove to Mankato early Sunday morning and they came home in his car about noon.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Meta Lindemann to Mr. Frank Temple of La Salle, Ill. has been made by the parents of the bride-to-be. The wedding will probably take place some time in the early summer and the young people expect to establish their home in Milwaukee where the firm for which Mr. Temple works is located.

We have nice diamond rings from $9.00 to $100.00. C. G. Reim. 20-22

Saturday evening's Musicales at Turner Hall given by W. J. Winkelmann to display the beauty of tone and expression of the Manual piano player was well attended by the music-loving people of the city who thoroughly enjoyed the piano numbers by E. H. Miner of Chicago and the vocal selections by Mrs. Monson and Miss Winkelmann.

We have on hand some stationery which we wish to close out at bargain prices. We need the room it occupies and are going to put it down to a point where every one will want to lay in a supply. It is all good material but we have not enuf of any one kind to fill a large order. Drop in and look over the lot. It is all neatly boxed and there is some exquisite material among it. Prices range from 15 cents per box to 35 cents while it lasts. Review office.

Another meeting of the Minnesota Valley Scenic Highway Association was recently held at Shakopee which was well attended. From the reports of the committee in charge of raising the necessary funds, it appears that nearly all the requisite amount has been subscribed. Hennepin County raised its appropriation from $1500 to $10,000, an additional $3000 was subscribed from cities and villages in the valley and only $1900 more has to be raised to bring the total donations to $46,000. The government is expected to double its donation and this would make the total fund sufficient to build the road.

Today's Weddings.

Mr. Rudolph Kemski and Miss Laura Krause left this morning (Wednesday) for St. Paul where they will be married by Judge Hanft, returning to New Ulm to make their home after a short visit in the Cities and at Waconia.

The bride-to-be is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Krause of this city and all who know her love her for her many beautiful traits. She has always been a favorite among the young people with whom she has grown up and the good wishes of all are with her for her new life. Mr. Kemski is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kemski of Waconia and has been employed at the Review plant as foreman of the mechanical department for two years, having worked as assistant for something more than a year prior to his promotion. His fellow employees think most highly of "Rudy" and are glad, indeed, to have him settle down and take unto himself so charming a wife.

The young people will begin housekeeping at 527 North German Street and will be at home to their friends after June 1st.

To-day at 2 o'clock at the Friedens Church will occur the marriage of Miss Alma Knees and Mr. Ernst Rolloff. Rev. Mayer will officiate and the witnesses will be Miss Meta Rolloff and Harvey Knees. The bride is a daughter of Philip Knees of Millford and the groom a son of Ernst Rolloff living half a mile south of Essig. A reception for the close friends and relatives will be held at the Knees home after the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Rolloff will go to housekeeping on the groom's farm near his father's place.
