The Woman Suffrage question has been up before the governing bodies of two of the great church organizations, the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Oregon and the corresponding body in the Lutheran church of Minnesota. Both these bodies voted not to recognize women in their councils.

Spring is usually the time of the year when the lame, halt and blind appear on our streets asking alms from our citizens. We have often asked ourselves why this should be; and it should not be. None of our citizens, we are quite confident, are going the rounds of neighboring cities asking for financial assistance. Every community ought to take care of its own dependents and no one should be forced for the sake of keeping body and soul together to peddle useless articles or to sit on some street corner singing doleful lays that get on the nerves of busy people. There is some useful work that each one of them can do and they should be kept at home and given a chance to do it, and, in doing it, to get the pleasure that life has in store for them as well as for others who render service to mankind.

Now is the Time

To Buy

That New Dress

and have the Goods Shrink While You Wait.

The uniform price is 5c per yard for wool goods and 3c per yard for wash goods not over 36 inches wide. Short lengths 15c each. No more puckered, rain-spotted, shrunk-out-of-shape suits, skirts and jackets, if the goods are sponged and shrunk by the Perfect Spotless Process. Everybody knows sponging and shrinking is a necessity, not only with woolen goods, but cotton and linen wash fabrics as well.

IN THE PAST

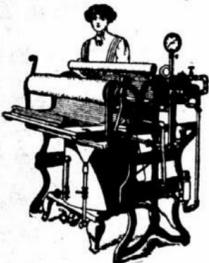

Shrinking was done by hand or laundry, which gave the goods a washed-look and destroyed the beautiful finish.

We have Installed the New

Spotless Shrinker

and

Finisher

That Sponges and Shrinks all Classes of Goods Properly.

The Better Class of Wash Goods a Specialty.

It took years to perfect a method that would shrink goods properly and leave them sightly.

We have installed this high grade shrinker as a convenience and satisfaction to our customers.

Every Lady Knows

Sponging and Shrinking is a Necessity

Not only Woolen Goods, but Cotton and Linen WASH FABRICS as well.

"As Others See Us."

Editor Review:

I was visiting with some friends at St. Peter a few days ago and I greatly admired the little city, which is surrounded by most beautiful scenery. But the good people of St. Peter do not seem to be aware of the fact that a most important thing is lacking and that is the street sprinkling system on the private residence streets. Especially West Third and Fourth are very popular streets and it would be for the general health and welfare of the public to introduce the sprinkling system and I hope the residents will make up to the fact and thereby improve their beautiful little city.

A Reader.

St. Peter people may feel inclined to take us to task here in New Ulm because we sweep in front of other peoples' doors but we are willing to listen to and take gracefully any criticisms honestly made by outsiders. We have faults here in New Ulm that long familiarity has dulled us to. Why not criticize each other in this friendly way—perhaps it will arouse each of us to a necessity for action as nothing else would. If St. Peter were to begin talking about the things we lack in New Ulm we'd begin to sit up and take notice all right. Cities need to be stirred by the force of public opinion quite as much as individuals.

Riding along on the train thru the grain country the other day we passed a field given over to the cultivation of mustard, solely and wholly, if one were to judge by appearances. On either side of it lay fields of green and healthy grain but dotted here and there thru it could be seen the bright yellow blossoms of the intruder from the mustard field.

We could not help thinking there would be a fine chance for co-operation among the farmers owning the land in the neighborhood of the yellow field. It is almost an impossibility for the owner of a mustard field to make any headway against the plant once it gets a big start. He may work year after year faithfully to clear it out but it is a discouraging job. Meantime his neighbors suffer the inconvenience of having to watch to keep the plant from being sown in their fields. Why not treat the causes instead of the symptoms? Why not all join hands in some practical plan to clean out the afflicted field by all working together valiantly to rout the enemy? In union there is strength and the many hands make light work, no one feeling the burden greatly and all benefiting equally.

Slim Fischer Says.

"Funny how a man in a 'fit of abstraction' can tell the best umbrella.

"A coat-of-arms and a garbage can are both signs of rank.

"Not every man that runs an automobile 'toots his own horn.'

"A woman may not be able to drive a nail, but you can tell the patch a man sews on his own trousers.

"Some men that are saving wealth for the future better have it made of asbestos.

"I want my religion to be like a night shirt—a good thing to sleep in and to be taken off in the morning.

"If you want to find riches without work, look in the dictionary.

"It does not make much difference what road you travel, so you get to the right place at the right time in the right way and stay right.

"A dachshund may be a thoroughbred with a long ancestry, but he is a 'low down dog' just the same.

"It's a long face that has no smile.

"The sale of safety razors has stopped at the hardware store in Buffalo Center, since the Palace barber shop got a lady manicurist.

"Whole bloomin' country, from the biggest to the small, just stand round and mutter 'bout a game they call baseball. Git up at four each morning and hustle to the train when they buy a daily paper with a headin' saying 'Rain.'"

BARNES' BIG SHOWS.

Had Aladdin stepped out of the darkness of the Arabian Nights with his magic lamp, he could not have wrought a more thrilling and heart-stirring act to satiate the calloused Romans than a few to be presented in New Ulm on Thursday, June 26th, when Al. G. Barnes' Big Three-ring Wild Animal Circus exhibits here. The show will bring to this city a veritable zoological paradise on wheels eclipsing beyond comparison any other such similar exhibition ever offered to the public.

The arena has been in use for public spectacles and amusements from the earliest ages, and its popularity has never diminished. The great changes, however, which have taken place have developed it into a civilized, instructive spectacle, instead of a performance presented only for the purpose of exciting men's passions.

Lions have always played a prominent part in those public amusements and exhibitions. They were led as trophies in the triumphs of semi-barbarians, and were exhibited and sacrificed by thousands in the Roman amphitheatre. Six hundred were provided for Pompei at a single festival. That the lion should have always figured thus in history is but natural. He is the king of beasts, and though there are other wild animals more intelligent in some ways, he always has held, and always will hold, this supremacy over all other brutes.

No wild animals were ever trained by the ancients. It was in turning the power and superiority of man over animals to financial account that the art of training wild animals was first conceived, and it was future financial gain that it has advanced step by step since. It has also been augmented by the fact that the men of the twentieth century are naturally more hazardous and seek to accomplish the most intrepid feats imaginable.

Herr Louis Roth, one of the most famous of all animal trainers, presents at each and every performance of the Al. G. Barnes' circus his challenged group of twenty forest-bred African lions. After many years of conscientious effort, he now offers them to the public for approval.

Church Celebration at Swan Lake

Elaborate preparations are being made by the members of St. Peter's society of Swan Lake for the observance of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of their organization. The anniversary occurs on Sunday, June 29th, and on that day a big picnic will be held near the Church of the Visitation.

St. Peter's society is one of the local branches of the German Catholic Benevolent society, and was organized in 1888. In the quarter of a century of its existence it has maintained a good membership, and today is as prosperous as at any time in its history.

When the picnic is held on June 29th the anniversary observance will open with high mass at 10 o'clock in the morning. The pastor, Rev. Father Skluzacek, will officiate, and at noon the ladies of the parish will serve one of the dinners for which they are famous. At 2 o'clock a speaking program will be carried out, and one of the orators will be George Stelzle of Minneapolis, who will deliver an address in German.

Good music will be provided, and there will be no lack of attractions. J. H. Karpen and Leonard Giefer are on the committee on invitations, and they are going about their work in a way which insures a large attendance.

A committee consisting of Chas. Sondag, Dominick Tacheny, John Jutes, Adam Jutes and J. H. Sons is in charge of the arrangements for the picnic.—St. Peter Herald.

Shoot at Hunter's Rest.

"Billy" Koch is getting back into his old form and managed to capture the gold medal at last Sunday's shoot at Hunter's Rest and he feels quite proud over his feat. "Sapp" attributes his downfall to the fact that he had failed to provide himself with a white vest for the occasion. The following scores were made:

	King	Standard
Wm. E. Koch.....	179	12
Joe. Klaus.....	163	27
John Hauenstein Jr.....	147
Hy. Meyer.....	147	33
Ohas. Hauenstein.....	140
Hugo Gebser.....	136	15

Your Checks are Receipts.

"Pay as you go" is an excellent maxim provided you "pay-by-check". It's foolish to carry money on the person, except for the smallest purchases and incidentals, for aside from the care and inconvenience there is always the danger of theft or loss.

But with a check-book of this bank in your pocket the inconvenience and worry is eliminated. You write out a check for the exact amount of each purchase, your check-stub is a record for reference and the check itself will later be returned to you by the bank and may be retained as a receipt.

Some persons may think of the check account as being complicated. Nothing could be more simple, however. We keep books for you and there is a record for your every transaction.

One Dollar for Seventy-five Cents on Circus Day

1/4 OFF

That is exactly what we will give in merchandise to our customers on CIRCUS DAY — THURSDAY, JUNE 26TH.

If you will but stop to consider that our goods at regular prices are always the lowest in price and in many instances sold for less than their real value, you will readily perceive that this twenty-five cent rebate on every dollar's worth of goods means much more than the casual glance might indicate. If we were offering you old goods or clothing hastily thrown together for bargain sale purposes, then such reduction as we offer would mean nothing to the economical buyer. But when you can purchase high-grade standard goods at an actual saving of one-fourth, then you are really getting
