Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Block visited at St. Paul a few days last week.

The Thanksgiving dance was well attended and those present enjoyed a very good time.

Charles Duesch of St. Peter visited here at the home of Fred Koetting a few days last week.

Theodor Gieseke and Henry Ginkel were New Ulm callers Sunday.

Santa Claus will again make his headquarters at G. W. Schlottmann's store this year and Mr. Schlottmann is arranging to give Santa Claus fully as good space as last year.

Mexico is not the only place where they have trouble. There is some not far from town, but everybody hopes that peace will soon be restored there.

Most of the young people here are having the mumps but are doing quite well at that.

NOT BEYOND HELP AT 87.

Sleep-disturbing bladder weakness, stiffness in joints, weak, inactive kidney action and rheumatic pains, are all evidence of kidney trouble. Mrs. Mary A. Dean, 47 E. Walnut St., Taunton, Mass., writes: "I have passed my 87th birthday, and thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proved most beneficial in my case." For sale by all dealers. Adv.

The Woman's Literary Society postponed their regular meeting yesterday to next Tuesday and there will be only one meeting during this month on account of the rush of Christmas work. The topic will be "New England", Mrs. Starr, leader, and Mrs. L. B. Krook, hostess.

Golden Gate.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGowan entertained a party of friends at cards Friday evening. A most enjoyable time was spent by all present.

The Misses Emma and Alice Weir spent their Thanksgiving vacation with relatives at Vernon Centre.

Mat Youngman and wife of Sleepy Eye spent Thanksgiving day at the Carl Henricks home.

James Gibbons of St. Paul is here this week visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. M. Bertrand.

Miss Lilla Pickle is attending the Short Course given by the Sleepy Eye Public Schools for the coming three months.

Miss Annie Weir is the guest of Sleepy Eye relatives this week.

Mrs. F. W. Johnson and Miss Allie Scherer returned Sunday from their visit in the Twin Cities.

College Notes.

The students enjoyed a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner. The table was spread by the Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church. Many thanks to the donors!

The concert of Thursday night proved a great success. The double quartet, Profs. Reuter and Biefer-nicht, E. Backer and Miss Stephan enjoyed encores. We quote here the utterance of one of those present, "The musical expression was perfect. Take for instance the duet 'The Spinning Bee' by Dvorak played by E. Backer and Miss Stephan; Who could not have heard that the hum and buzz of the spinning wheel and the stories glad and sad related on such an occasion were masterfully interpreted in that music?" All of the selections rendered were of the highest standard.

Catechizations to be delivered next Wednesday are the following: Bible History, "The Israelites in the Desert" by E. Backer; The intuitive, "The Evening" by M. L. Dommer; Arithmetic, "The Elements" by L. Luedtke. Because the students had a Thanksgiving dinner it was decided to give the three cows and the horse a change of diet also. That is why Mr. Stephan brought a big load of splendid hay to the college barn last Monday.

The janitor won't have to lead the horse and the cows outside on these cold days to give them water. A pipe to convey the water to the barn has been laid to make the work that much easier for Mr. Schriever.

Our fireman, Mr. J. Loeffelmacher and Mr. Schriever have repaired the other boiler in the boiler room. Hereafter only one boiler was being used. It will be put to use as soon as the cold spell sets in.

END STOMACH TROUBLE, GASES OR DYSPEPSIA

"Pape's Diapepsin" makes Sick, Sour, Gassy Stomachs surely feel fine in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach-headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes. Put an end to stomach trouble forever by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder. It's the quickest, surest stomach doctor in the world. It's wonderful.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held next Sunday. Preceding it will be the quarterly conference which begins on Dec. 11th and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Sauter of Minneapolis, the District Superintendent.

At the regular meeting of New Ulm Lodge No. 53 I. O. O. F., the following officers were elected for the year 1914: John L. Hoffmann, N. G.; Gottfried Hoehne, V. G.; Geo. Jacobs, Secy.; Frank Burg, Treas. and Christ Boock, Trustee.

Mrs. Thomas McHale and Miss Grace McHale, respectively mother and sister of Pat McHale, the genial manager of the Western Union, returned to their home at St. Paul Monday after a week's visit at the McHale home. Wednesday, the 26th, was the 23rd anniversary of the McHale's wedding day and the visitors arrived in time to help observe it.

Don't confuse the "Invincible Four" with any other musical act you have ever seen, for they are totally different. They play the Saxophone, Guitar, Banjo, Cornet, Piano and Drums, in quartette, Duo and Trio. Both classical as well as comedy. At the American Theatre, Friday and Saturday. 10 and 15c. Adv 49

Henry W. Jenning of the Town of Eden was in the city last Thursday. He is a brother of Miss Augusta Jenning who so mysteriously disappeared from the Hospital last fall and who returned to the home of her brother after an absence of about six weeks in a dazed condition, unable to tell where she had been all this time. Her feet were badly frozen and it was thought that it would become necessary to amputate one of them. Mr. Jenning says that his sister is recovering slowly and that there is now no danger that she will lose the foot that was so badly frozen.

Mrs. John Henle entertained last Wednesday afternoon and evening at cards in honor of her birthday. There were five tables at Euchre for both gatherings. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and everyone greatly enjoyed the time spent in the hospitable home. In the afternoon the Star prize was awarded to Mrs. Andrew Amann, Punch to Mrs. Caroline Haas and Booby to Mrs. Josephine Zieher. The evening prizes were won by Mrs. Katy Arbes, Star, Mrs. Mary Arbes, Punch and Mrs. T. Scheiderich, Booby.

Today will occur the marriage of Mr. George Hogen and Miss Ida Bierbaum. Rev. Albrecht will officiate and the ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Joe Karl at high noon. They will leave for a short wedding trip to Chicago and other points. On their return they will make their home at 221 South State Street where Mr. Hogen has had his property remodeled the past season. Mr. Hogen is one of the highly respected young business men of the city, having been a member of the Wm. Pfaender Agency for some years. His bride is known as one of the nicest girls in New Ulm and both have the good wishes of a host of friends.

New Ulm certainly was a Mecca on Thanksgiving Eve for all those who delight in tripping the light fantastic. Over a hundred came down from the west on the "Hughes Flyer" and from Nicollet County there was a large contingent also. The dance given by the Machine Gun Co. at Turner Hall was well attended and proved not only a social but also a financial success, the boys netting $50.00. Attorney Jos. A. Eckstein was called on for a speech and gave a clever talk. There were also dances at the Opera House, Star Hall and Tivoli, all of which were well attended. The little German Band held forth at Wagner's Hall at Essig and proved quite a drawing card. Several couples attended the dance from here and report a splendid time.

Miss Rose Bouchard who finished high school last June has gone to Mankato to enter the Normal.

Jul. Berndt, Jr. reports he has a moose head to mount. The moose was shot by Jack Quinn who was big game hunting this fall.

Henry J. Meyer of Milford returned home Saturday evening from his hunting trip in the northern part of the State and brought one deer along as a trophy of his prowess as a big game hunter.

Sheriff W. J. Julius entertained about 25 of his friends at a stag dinner Sunday afternoon. Hassenpfeffer and moose were two of the many palatable fishes that were served. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing cards.

The Misses Stella and Ruth Bragdon left Sunday after a Thanksgiving stay at the Herman Held home. Miss Ruth Bragdon is teaching at Currie, Minnesota. Miss Rose Staley and her mother were also members of the weekend house party at Held's. Miss Marie Burmeister who usually spends her vacations here is teaching at McIntosh, Minn. and was not able to get here this year.

The local Court of Foresters will be in their glory next Sunday afternoon and evening when the newly elected officers will be duly installed, the installation to be followed with a banquet at the Catholic schoolhouse. State Organizer Peter Loskiel, Secy. George Stenger and Treas. Von der Weyer of the Grand Lodge will be present and officiate at the installation. Efforts are being made to secure State Senator Julius Koller of Shakopee to come here for this occasion to deliver the principal address.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Penning and their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Schnobrich formed a part of the merry group about the hospitable board at the Andrew Stockstead farm home near Sleepy Eye last Thursday. Mrs. Stockstead is a Penning daughter. There were twenty-four who sat down to a turkey feast helped out by goose and chicken with all the old time "fixins" for a Thanksgiving dinner. The Somervilles and Mos of Sleepy Eye and J. J. Penning and wife of Eden were among the guests.

The doll sale arranged by the Ladies' Sodality at the Catholic Auditorium last Tuesday evening was a decided success. The net receipts totaled almost $200. At the card party which constituted the evening's entertainment the following were awarded the prizes: star, Mrs. Henry Gasink; gent's punch, John Schmitz, Sleepy Eye; ladies' punch, Mrs. Theo. Schwendinger; gent's booby, Emil Seifert; ladies' booby, Miss Emilie Seifert. Ono Teynor won the rocking chair and Mrs. Paul Lehmann the "bride" doll.

Twenty-two of the friends of Mrs. Chas. Engelbert took a unique fashion of arranging a surprise party for her last Saturday evening. One by one they dropped in to call on her and it took quite a time for the hostess to realize that she was the recipient of a surprise with all the usual features. The visitors had come prepared to play Euchre and brought refreshments with them so that nothing was lacking. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Lorenz Flor, Star; Mrs. Ath. Henle, Punch and Mrs. John Laudon, Booby. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all.

Peter Mack, the only surviving male member of the vanguard of pioneers that came here 59 years ago was in town Monday. In speaking of the present weather he said that it reminded him of the winter of 1856. The weather was very much the same as is being handed out now and wound up with four feet of snow on the level. He remembers that the snow was as deep as that in the woods, because he and Franz Nolle sawed off a tree just above the level of the snow and when the snow had all disappeared in the spring, the stump of that tree was over four feet above the level of the ground.

Friday, Nov. 28th was the marriage day of two of New Ulm's well-known and popular young people, Herman Jahnke and Miss Louise Julius. The young people desired that the affair be a quiet one and accordingly did not inform their many friends of their intentions when they left for Minneapolis on the early train. They were married at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. L. E. Fritsche, the attendants being Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Fritsche. Mr. and Mrs. Jahnke returned to New Ulm Friday evening and will make their home with the Julius family for a time. Mr. Jahnke is employed by the New Ulm Bottling Works. A large number of their friends gathered Friday evening and made known their good wishes for the success and happiness of the newly-weds.
