Winter has fooled us all so long that even with a cold North Wind blowing and snow falling as we write, it is difficult to believe that we are going to have some real Minnesota weather and those of us who have been hoping for some of the bracing days such as we used to have are keeping our fingers crossed and not daring to say much for fear the sun will come out and California days return. The snowfall of Saturday night lay on the surface just about as long as a good summer shower does and it begins to be time that the weather man does something to save his reputation. We want our winter NOW.

The passengers on the Northwestern going east Sunday afternoon had a little scare thrown into them when the train suddenly stopped between Cambria and Judson and it was noised about that the baggage car was on fire. It was only an incipient blaze, however, which was readily put out by fire extinguishers. The damage done was very slight. It is thought that a spark from the locomotive lodged between the ceiling and the roof of the car and that the fire originated in this way, getting enough of a start to burst into a blaze.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

The goods we carry speak for themselves and quality is our best advertisement but we want to remind you of the brands we carry.

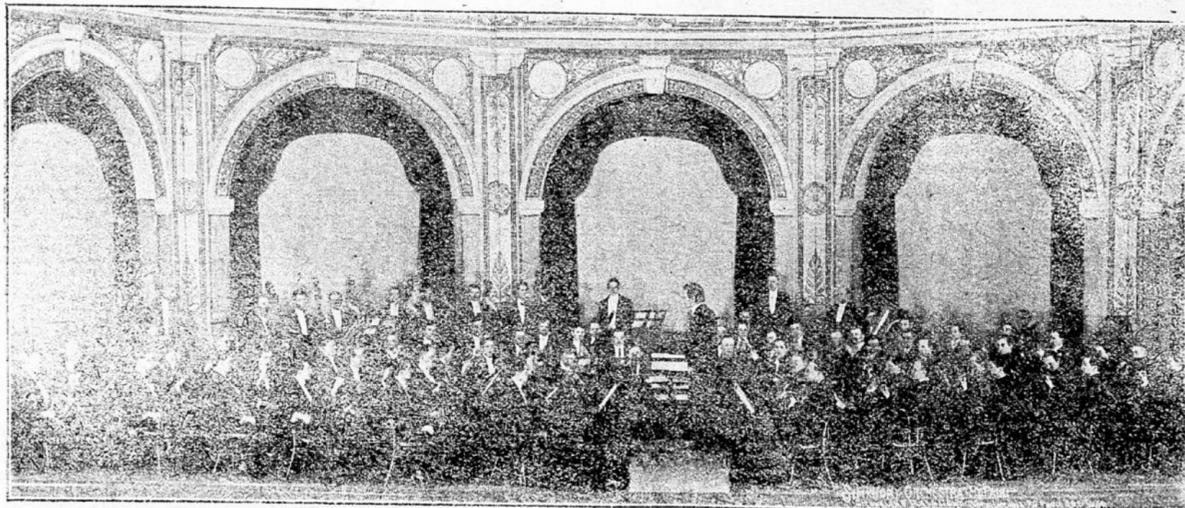

ALWAYS AND EVERYWHERE THE BEST OF THEIR KIND

Don't forget we are the only grocers in town handling the super-excellent Chase & Sanborn Coffees—nothing as good elsewhere.

ST. PAUL SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA IN TWO CONCERTS AT THE TURNER THEATRE, FRIDAY, JAN. 30TH.

That famous musical organization, the St. Paul Symphony Orchestra, with its fifty-five musicians under the direction of the brilliant conductor, Walter Henry Rothwell, will visit New Ulm for the second time on Friday, January 30th, and give two of its popular concerts, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening.

The orchestra, when it was here a year ago, made a deep and favorable impression and all who heard the concert then will be interested in learning that since then it has been materially strengthened both as to rank and file and as to principals. Notable among the new accessions are Paul Morgan, first cellist, who comes from the New York Philharmonic, and Miss Emma Osgood, harpist, who will be the soloist at the afternoon entertainment. Both are great favorites with St. Paul music lovers.

The soloist for the evening concert will be Mme Luella Chilson-Ohrman, a soprano of rare gifts and much prominence. She is to sing with the orchestra in St. Paul on the 25th and following the performance a reception is to be given in her honor by the governor of the state. Her contributions to the New Ulm program will be selections from Marsenets' opera "Manon" and Verdi's "Rigoletti."

The orchestra's afternoon program will be made up of compositions by Mendelssohn, Bizet, Grieg, Rossini, Gaunod, Glazounov and Komzak, while the evening's offerings will include selections from the best works of Wagner, Weber, Verdi, Massenet, Hellmeberger and Strauss.

The ticket sale for the two concerts will open at the Pioneer Drug Store next Monday morning at ten o'clock and as the organization is being brought here under a heavy guarantee it is to be hoped that our citizens will show their appreciation of those back of the enterprise by making their seat reservations early. Those holding tickets for the evening concert will be admitted to the matinee at half-price.
