Univ. Lectures Begin Monday

BEE-CULTURE WILL BE DISCUSSED FIRST. DEBATE IN EVENING.

BUSINESS MEN'S LUNCHEON TALKS WILL COME LATTER PART OF WEEK.

Next Monday, June 1st, at two o'clock the work of University Week will open in New Ulm with an out door lecture in Turner Hall Park by Francis Jager, Professor of Bee Culture in the University of Minnesota. Prof. Jager is known in New Ulm as a thoro student of Bee Culture and his demonstration of the life and habits of the busy little creatures will prove of great interest and no one should miss it.

Due emphasis should be given the fact that all teachers and pupils of all the schools in New Ulm are strongly encouraged and urged to participate in this outdoor meeting in order to reap the advantages of its educational values. Prof. Jager as a practical beekeeper of many years experience deals with his chosen subject with a strength of knowledge and a clearness of penetration that comprehends not only the practical sides of this interesting pursuit but brings out those aspects of it that appeal to the general interest, the teacher, the pupil, the student of Nature, the Horticulturist, the Fruit Grower, and the Market-gardener.

Prof. Jager will add to the interest of his talk actual demonstrations in proof of the facts he states thru the medium of a colony of bees safely housed behind the glass walls of an observatory bee-hive. This hive is so constructed as to make possible a close examination and scrutiny of the systematic operations of the little people that are actively engaged inside. Here is an isolated opportunity for the children to see the Queen-Bee living in royalty as it exists in Beedom. It will also offer the man, woman, or child interested in Nature the one opportunity to visually follow the industrial activities of the bees in the many-phased processes of comb-building, brood-rearing, and honey-production. There is not a man, woman, or child in New Ulm that can afford to ignore this opportunity. Let Turner Hall Park be packed with straining eyes and ears hungry for information on this interesting subject.

After this outdoor lecture and demonstration, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Prof. Jager will continue his interesting and fruitful discourse from the general lecture platform within Turner Hall. His talk in the hall will be more in adjustment to the intelligence and grasp of the older folks but will not lack interest for the youngsters. The attendance at the opening program of "U" week ought to prove a signal success in favorably demonstrating the spirit and vivacity of the people of New Ulm.

All practical bee-men or people having bees should make it a point to attend these lectures and bring their bee problems with them. Prof. Jager in drawing from his vast storehouse of information is willing and ready in the spirit of fraternal liberality to hand out knowledge along any line of bee-keeping, be it the working out of methods of swarm-control, the solving of problems of successful honey-production, or in dealing with the intricacies of Queen-rearing. He would also like to meet the bee keepers of the neighborhood personally and answer their direct and individual questions.

Following Prof. Jager's talks will be given a concert by Mr. and Mrs. George Ransom. Mr. Ransom is a cellist and Mrs. Ransom a soprano. Their number occupies the time from 3:50 to 4:10 and will be a delightful intermission. Mrs. C. L. Atwood, President of the State Federation of Women's Clubs will then address the gathering on the "New Community Spirit". Both men and women should hear this talk. New Ulm lacks true community spirit. Go and listen to Mrs. Atwood and learn to forget personal differences in zeal for the common good.

It is planned by the Women's Clubs of this city to arrange a reception for Mrs. Atwood following her talk so that all the women of the city may meet her. It is likely that this function will be held in the club rooms of the hall at 5 o'clock, although this is not yet definitely decided upon.

The Monday evening program opens with music and will be devoted chiefly to the Debate on the Initiative and Referendum. The University students debating this question are R. F. Swenson, Fred Tryon, W. W. Butler, and Frank Morse.

Tuesday's program contains a talk by Dean F. J. Wulling on the "Practical Operation of the Pure Food and Drugs Law" and because people know so little of the operation of the laws that were ostensibly made to protect the consumer, but do not do so, they should not fail to hear Dean Wulling on this subject. At 3:50 soloists from the University Glee Club will furnish the lighter number on the program for the afternoon. The second lecture begins at 4:10 and will be delivered by Prof. Washburn who will talk either on Insects or Birds and either topic will furnish material for an interesting hour. The evening program consists of a Concert by the Euterpean Glee Club and Soloists. The singers are fourteen young women of the State University.

In brief the programs for the balance of the week will be as follows: Wednesday "The Panama Canal", illustrated, by Wm. F. Bennyhoff. "Child Welfare", with an illustrative collection of pictures, by Miss Jane Webster. Dramatic Reading, "Peg o' My Heart" by Miss Alice R. O'Connell. "Wild Birds and How to Attract Them", illustrated, by Ernest Harold Baynes.

Thursday, 12 o'clock Business Men's Luncheon Address: "Efficiency in Municipal Government" by Prof. E. N. Morgan. "The Message of Music", a lecture illustrated with Victrola records by Prof. Leroy C. Case. Reading: "The Littlest Girl" by Miss Effie Nordgarden. "The Rights of Women Under Minnesota Laws", Recital: "Rudyard Kipling", illustrated with songs and readings, by Dr. James Davies.

Friday, 12 o'clock Business Men's Luncheon Address: "Rural Credit Legislation" by Prof. J. F. Ebersole. "Kindergarten Games and Folk Dancing" by Miss Edna S. Fischer. "Social Forces in the Drama", by Dr. Anna H. Phelan. Program of Dramatic Reading: "King Robert of Sicily", with musical accompaniment, by Mr. Walton Pyre. The players presenting "Sweet Lavender".

Saturday, "The Education of the American Girl" by Miss Louise McDannell. Recital: Madame Meta Fust-Schumann, Soprano by Mrs. Karl Scheurer, piano. "The Public Health Problem" by Mr. Christopher Easton. Concert: The Scheurer Trio, Karl Scheurer, violin, Mrs. Karl Scheurer, piano, Madame Schumann, soprano.

Next weeks issue will inform our readers more fully as to detail and also notify of any changes contemplated in the program.

GRADUATION PROGRAM.

Friday evening of this week the graduating exercises of the High School will take place at Turner Theatre, at 8 o'clock. Twenty-three young men and women will receive their diplomas at this time. The following is the program for the exercises.

1. Overture: Selected High School Orchestra.
2. Salutatory-Essay: Minnesota's New State Prison Miss Martha Editha Kunze.
3. Music: a. The Owl and the Pussy Cat b. Philomel Girls' Glee Club.
4. Essay-Valedictory: Our Highways Harry A. Mecklenburg.
5. Music: Romance Miss Thornton.
6. Address Dr. James E. Freeman.
7. Presentation of Diplomas
8. Music: The Rain Cloud Girls' Glee Club.

The subject of Dr. Freeman's address has not yet been announced as he expects to be governed more or less by circumstances and the inspiration of the moment. He is rector of St. Mark's Church in Minneapolis and is said to be one of the finest speakers in the state today and there is no doubt that he will have something to say worth listening to since he has familiarized himself with conditions in New Ulm and will know how to reach his listeners.

TAX PAYERS ATTENTION.

County Treasurer Henry J. Berg desires to call the attention of the taxpayers to the fact that at least 1-2 of the real estate taxes must be paid before June 1st. Because the last day of May is Sunday, the Treasurer will be in his office all day Saturday, Decoration Day, to receive taxes.

There will be Festival Services Pentecost Sunday at the Friedens Church and the Sacrament of the Lords Supper will be observed, in the morning at 10 o'clock. There will also be Pentecost services at the usual hour in Sssig.

The Fesenmaier Band has kindly agreed to furnish the music for advertising purposes each evening during University Week. When you hear the sweet strains of this band follow them and enjoy the treat offered by the programs at the Hall.

HONOR THE BOYS OF '61.

Saturday, Memorial Day, will be observed in New Ulm in the usual fashion by the military parade and exercises at the Cemetery. Col. Buschers will be Marshall of the Day and his aides will be Capt. Vogel, Juni, Burg and Groebner. The speakers as announced last week will be Attorney Davis of Marshall and Rev. C. Hohn. The parade will form at the Indian Monument at 8:30 and from there will pass down Center Street to Broadway, south to Second Street and along Minnesota to Fourth North, turning then to State out which street it will proceed to the cemetery. Citizens should join in this demonstration of honor to those who gave their best efforts to protect their country and now lie at rest under the sod or are passing along the shady side of life's journey. Following herewith is a list of the living veterans and one of the dead. We believe that there is one name missing from the former list but have been unable to learn whose it is. Let us all show what honor and respect we can for these men by observing the day in a respectful manner.

ARMORY WORK DELAYED.

Either the plans for the proposed armory for New Ulm must be materially changed or a further appropriation must be secured to complete the building according to present plans and specifications. That is the conclusion the armory board came to last Wednesday afternoon when they opened the bids for the proposed work. Only two bids had been received for the general contract, Weiland & Stegemann of this city being the lowest bidders. Their bid was $34,600 and that of the J. B. Nelson Construction Co. of Mankato called for $39,787.

For the plumbing and gas fixtures only one bid had been received, that of P. Soukup of New Ulm for $1950 and none were received for the electrical wiring and fixtures. The Kielland Engineering Co. of St. Paul had submitted a bid for $3,783.00 for installing the heating plant and Al. W. Potts of St. Peter proposed to do the same work for $4,680.00.

According to Col. John Buschers, the proposed armory complete as now planned would cost in the neighborhood of $45,000. As this is $13,000 more than is available for armory purposes, the board was forced to reject all bids. The next thing, no doubt, that will be done is to have the plans and specifications materially altered. Capt. B. Groebner and Edwin Juni and some of the contractors were present when the bids were opened.

PROF. MOSEL RETAINED.

The College Board of Trustees met at the College Tuesday morning to transact the yearly routine business. Those present were Rev. Naumann of Goodhue, Fred. Schweppe and Rev. Pankow of St. James, Richard Albrecht of Milwaukee, Rev. Siegler of Watertown, Wisc., Rev. Dueterheft of Sanborn, Rev. C. J. Albrecht, Teacher Blauert, Prof. Ackermann and F. H. Retzlaff. Very little out of the ordinary was taken up. Pres. Ackermann read his annual report of the College conditions and it was discussed by the Board members, such suggestions as were made for the betterment of conditions being ordered to be carried out. Prof. Hugo Mosel was re-engaged or the next year since his work here has been eminently satisfactory.

ILL HEALTH PROMPTS SUICIDE.

Monday morning Coroner G. F. Reineke received notice to view the remains of Christ C. Peterson of the Town of Home who had from all indications died by his own hand. The Doctor accompanied by Sheriff W. J. Julius left about noon for the Peterson place in the Minnesota bottom above Cummings Ferry. After viewing the remains and examining into the facts, the Coroner decided that it was a plain case of suicide and that an inquest was unnecessary.

It appears that shortly after 8 o'clock in the morning Mr. Peterson went to the barn where he swallowed a dose of strychnine and threw away the bottle which was found later on. He then walked back into the house and lay down on the floor. He soon went into convulsions and the family telephoned to Fairfax for a doctor, but before he arrived the man was dead.

The suicide was only 53 years old and is survived by a wife and 10 children, the oldest 21 and the youngest 3 1-2 years of age. For the past 20 years he has been suffering with rheumatism and it has been so bad recently that he has been unable to do any work to speak of. The family has been living on 15 acres of land in the bottom and the wife, aided by the children has been making a living for the family. In recent years Mr. Peterson has been worrying considerably about his financial affairs, especially this spring because he had no money to pay his taxes with. He had never threatened to commit suicide but evidently had thought of it as he had remarked at different times, that he wished he were dead.

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL GRADUATION.

Sunday afternoon, May 31st at 4 o'clock p. m. has been designated as the time when the graduation exercises of the Holy Trinity School will be held at the Catholic auditorium. Sixteen girls and seven boys will be awarded diplomas at this time. Master McIvor has been selected as the salutatory and will speak in English. The valedictory will be delivered by Miss Emily L. Groebner. In addition the program will contain several musical numbers.

The presentation speech will be made and the diplomas awarded by Rev. Robert Schlinkert. The following are members of this year's graduating class: Victor O. Berndt, Alex. J. Haag, Edward T. Hirt, Alois J. Marti, Herbert A. McIvor, Frank J. Tauscheck, Henry J. Hauser, Helen F. Berg, Mary E. Brewer, Anna F. Deml, Leona M. Dietz, Florence B. Dorn, Vivian M. Foerster, Emily L. Groebner, Bertha T. Kral, Harriet C. Luettich, Lucy C. Maloney, Coletta M. Mayer, Elsie M. Preisinger, Lucile I. Schleuder, Lauretta G. Schmitt, Matilde C. Schwindinger and Frances B. Zeig.

PIPE ORGAN RECITALS.

Mr. Edward Rehlin, the renowned concert organist from New York City, came, played, and conquered. The two recitals he gave on the new pipe organ at Dr. Martin Luther College on Sunday afternoon and evening showed his artistic accomplishment and his consummate skill as technician. On heavy work, such as rendering a fugue by Johann Sebastian Bach or a Toccata by Widor, he gave the audience an opportunity to hear the voluminous sound of the large organ. To do justice to these pieces seemed to be an easy matter to the artist, although requiring qualifications far above those of the ordinary organist. Selections in lighter vein, the Musette and Rondo by Romeau, were played in a captivatingly beautiful manner. The improvisations showed Mr. Rehlin as an organist with original thoughts and astounding imagination. This was evidenced by his improvisation on the hymn, "Jerusalem, Thou City Fair and High." In short, the artist lived up to the testimonial given him by the greatest living organist, Charles Marie Widor of Paris, who said, "I certify that he is an excellent organist and a very intelligent musician. He is endowed by nature, and has developed his precious gift."

The facts pertaining to the artist and the organ the management has tried hard to bring before the music-loving public of our city. Every one of our local papers had advertising matter to this effect. Special circulars were distributed and quite a number of them were sent through the mail. The telephone was used in calling attention to the great musical treat in store for every one. The college students and some of our citizens tried their very best to sell tickets, thus bringing the matter before the people in a concrete and tangible way. It would be unfair not to give due credit to every one of the local papers each and every one having done some extra "boosting." What was the result? Only a very small attendance in the afternoon and a half-filled house in the evening. Although we are ready to admit that the audience present at each recital was select, intelligent, and appreciative it is not enough to explain the musical lethargy of the general public. New Ulm people like to be called music-lovers; was this reputation borne out in fact on Sunday last? Not if we look over the financial sheet of the management. Had it not been for outside aid, namely Mankato which helped to bear a part of the burden, expenses would not have been made. Is this fair treatment on the part of a music-loving community?

The selections rendered by the choir under the leadership of Professor Fr. Reuter were fine and loudly applauded. Of the new organ Professor Rehlin has this to say, "Too much cannot be said in praise of the intonation with each stop decidedly characteristic of its purpose, and still, the ensemble always blending into a tonal coloring of perfect balance, an achievement which should place the builders in the very first rank in this country."

LAYING OF CORNERSTONE.

Next Monday afternoon, Pentecost Monday, June 1st at two o'clock the corner stone of the Union Hospital which is being erected at South Broadway will be laid with appropriate ceremonies. The program for this important event has not been fully completed but it can be definitely stated at this time that there will be two addresses, one in English and the other in German.

J. Klossner, Jr., President of the Union Hospital Association will be master of ceremonies. Mayor L. A. Fritsche will officiate at the laying of the corner stone and it is expected that he will make a brief address. Other numbers on the program will be provided for and it can be safely stated that the ceremonies will be very impressive and worth while to witness. A cordial invitation is extended to the public of New Ulm and vicinity to attend.

Miss Hetlinger Is Not Indicted

WILLINGER GOES TO STATE PRISON TO SERVE INDEFINITE TERM.

JOHN SCHONS GETS $3.50 WORTH OF SATISFACTION FROM DIEPOLDER.

In less than two days the grand jury had completed the work devolving upon them and after having made their final report to Judge Olsen Wednesday afternoon, they were discharged. So far as is known only four cases were examined into by them, those which had been referred to them by the lower courts. No indictment was returned against Louise Hetlinger who was charged with perjury nor against Wm. Wenger of Sleepy Eye against whom a burglary charge had been filed. Three indictments were returned in all. Two of them were directed against Martin Willinger, one charging him with assault and the other with carnally knowing a female child. He was arraigned Thursday and on Friday pleaded not guilty to the charge. The other indictment found was against Otto Schreyer who is charged by the grand jury with assault in the second degree. When arraigned Thursday he pleaded not guilty and by consent the case was continued to the December term of Court.

In their final report the grand jury expressed themselves as well pleased with the appearance of the public buildings and the manner in which the various offices are conducted. They did find, however that the wiring in the basement of the courthouse is defective and that by reason thereof there is danger of fire. They recommended that steps be taken at once to remedy this undesirable condition and also recommended that each floor be provided with fire hose to be connected with a stand pipe in the building.

Wednesday morning the trial of the jury cases was begun. The first case was sent to the foot of the calendar and a jury impaneled in the case of Robert Lambrecht against Otto Schreyer. This is a personal injury case, the plaintiff claiming damages by reason of injuries received in a runaway which occurred Dec. 24th last year. Plaintiff claimed that the runaway was caused by the wrongful acts of the defendant Schreyer and it seems that the jury took this view of the case because after a deliberation of only a few hours they agreed upon a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $750.00. The case went to the jury Thursday afternoon about three o'clock and Friday morning they brought in a sealed verdict for the amount above stated. A stay of 40 days was granted plaintiff to give him ample time to make a motion for a new trial if he should decide to do so.

The next case to be tried was also a personal injury case. George Johnson of Sleepy Eye sued the United Flour Mills Co., formerly Sleepy Eye Milling Co., for damages on account of injuries sustained while riding on one of the elevators of the mill. In this case also a sealed verdict was returned. The case was given to the jury late Friday afternoon and shortly before 8 o'clock they agreed upon a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $725.00 which they brought into Court Saturday morning.

In the third case to be tried another sealed verdict was returned. In this case A. H. Dorn sued Christian Garbe, Sr. and Christian Garbe Jr. to recover nearly $800.00 commission for selling the farm of the defendants near Sanborn. The trial of the case was concluded shortly before five o'clock Saturday and on Monday morning the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendants, "no cause for action."

Yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock the last of the jury cases to be tried at this term of Court was disposed of when the jury in the case of John Schons vs. Jos. Diepolder reported a verdict in favor of the plaintiff and assessed his damages at $3.50. This was a civil suit in which the plaintiff claimed damages for an alleged assault committed upon him by the defendant in front of Ottomeyer's store a couple of months ago. Immediately upon receiving this verdict, the Court took a recess until this morning to take up any court cases that counsel might desire to have tried at this term of Court. It is expected that there will be nothing to require the attention of the Court when it reconvenes this morning and that it will adjourn sine die.

Monday morning Co. Attorney A. Frederickson moved the criminal calendar Martin Willinger who was indicted for (Continued on last page.)
