Official Paper of the City of New Ulm.

New Ulm is fortunate in having among her citizens men public spirited enuf to take upon themselves the burden of guaranteeing the success of such an undertaking as the University Week course. The expenses this year called for an appreciably larger guarantee than last year and yet this did not deter the business men from agreeing to stand back of the venture and as a result we have just had the benefit of one of the finest courses of instruction and enjoyed the work of artists in several lines for a whole week. It is pleasant to know that the deficit which must be met by the guarantors is small for that indicates that the public appreciated what was being offered them and made use of it even in spite of many other attractions and interests which centered on this week. The committee in charge must be given all credit for their work in carrying the enterprise thru so successfully. Those who got out and sold tickets especially should be thanked because it is a most unpleasant task to do this work at the best. The Union Concert Band also gave its services for advertising each evening, entirely free of charge, and deserves hearty commendation for this work. Another reason for self-congratulation in New Ulm is the possession of a place so eminently fitted to house such a course of lectures as is Turner Hall. All of the University people expressed themselves as surprised and gratified to find so fine an opera house and said that the services rendered them by the Turnverein in connection with the use of the Hall was all that any one could ask or wish for. And last, but not least, is the fact that the increased attendance shows a growing appreciation and desire for entertainments of this higher class in our city. That alone guarantees that the cost of the Week is well repaid, for to awaken a desire for such instruction is the first step to moral uplift and civic betterment. Let's all look forward to next year's University Week with pleasant anticipations.

But we made one mistake, didn't we, and that in spite of repeated warnings. While the children were perfectly welcome at the sessions where they could understand they were decidedly de trop at all other times and proved themselves to be veritable pests in dozens of instances when Dr. Phalen was trying to give her most interesting talk on the Drama there was a constant skurrying around of the youngsters. Some of them even went so far as to skip out and then come back again, making a racket both going and coming and quite preventing their elders from hearing the remarks of the speaker. And this was only one lecture on one day and merely a sample of what had to be endured nearly every day. Why?

DEMOCRACY'S CHOICE.

In Mr. Hammond the Democracy of Minnesota presents a candidate who is without a stain—a man who has proved his good faith, his sincerity and his loyalty to truly Democratic ideals by his service in the Congress of the United States, and, above all, by his unremitting zeal in support of the splendid program that is making the administration of Woodrow Wilson a shining star of hope.

NEW ULM, MINN.

He is a candidate whom men may follow with good heart and good conscience, whether they be members of his particular political party or not.

The state's need of a real leader is wider and higher and deeper than any partisan consideration. Mr. Hammond's sound democracy is important, in this connection, only because it means that he will be the Democratic choice at the primaries, and thus will be registered in the list of those from whom the people will choose in November. It is incredible that the Democrats would be stupid enough not to nominate him by an overwhelming majority.

Mr. Hammond is a big man, a broad man, an upstanding starlighting, appealing figure that will commend itself mightily to the rapidly increasing number of men who realize that what this state needs is not that this party or that may triumph, or that this faction or that of one party or another may prevail, but that its people, without regard to partisanship, shall elect to the governorship a real man who will be a real leader, and who will conduct the state out of the tangle of waste, extravagance, neglect and servitude to special interests that now afflicts it.

Congressman Hammond was born in Southboro, Mass., in 1863, and he graduated from Dartmouth college in 1884. He moved to Minnesota shortly afterwards, taught school, studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1881, and took up the practice of his profession at St. James. His public activities include service as county attorney of Watonwan county, eight years on the state normal board and four terms in the congress of the United States.

When the people of the second district of Minnesota revolted against a Tory and reactionary representative in congress, they chose Winfield Scott Hammond to carry the standard of their revolt.

Now that the people of Minnesota have revolted against a Tory and reactionary state administration, they have the splendid opportunity of choosing Winfield Scott Hammond to carry the standard of their revolt.

The Democrats in mass convention have chosen wisely and well; and the people at large throughout the state will show their approval of this choice next Tuesday when they have the opportunity to vote for a clean upright man as their candidate to fill the highest office in the state.

ROBY GOES TO STILLWATER.

Sentence was passed on Harry Roby, formerly of Belgrade township, Monday morning, June 1st. Judge I. M. Olsen imposed an indeterminate term in the Stillwater penitentiary. Under the law the minimum length of his sentence will be seven years, and he may be confined for a period of thirty years.

Roby was convicted of a statutory offense at the May term of the district court. When the jury returned a verdict of guilty his attorneys, Stone & Anderson, asked for a stay of sentence, and were granted until June 1st.

Last Monday they asked that the verdict be set aside, and entered a motion for a new trial. This was denied by the court, who thereupon gave the prisoner an indeterminate sentence. Exceptions were filed by the attorneys for the defense, and it is understood that they will appeal to the state supreme court.

Roby was taken to Stillwater by Sheriff August Olson last Tuesday morning.—St. Peter Herald.

Competitive examinations for two Nicollet county postoffices, those at Courtland and Lafayette, are to be held in St. Peter on Saturday, July 18th. An executive order issued by President Wilson requires competitive examinations by the United States civil service commission for the position of postmaster at all fourth-class postoffices at which the annual compensation is $180 or more, and a circular issued by the commission sets forth the fact that examinations for the postmastership at Courtland and Lafayette will be held in St. Peter on July 18th. The circular states that application forms may be secured from the postmaster at the office for which the examination is to be held, from the United States civil service commission, Washington, D. C., or from the postmaster at the office at which the examination is to be held.

YOUNG MINISTER MARRIED.

"The Dupree Leader" of Dupree, S. D. contains the following marriage announcement which is of interest to many here.

"A pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Geesey, in the southeast part of town, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Miss Julia M. eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Geesey, was united in holy matrimony to Rev. Arthur W. Blauert, by Rev. E. J. Berg, Lutheran pastor of Moberly, who was a classmate of and attended the Northwestern University and Seminary at Milwaukee with the groom and came to South Dakota together with him.

The bride appeared in a gown of cream tulle, trimmed in lace, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom wore a suit of blue serge. Miss Birdie, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and was dressed in white. A. E. Blauert, brother of the groom, was best man. The home was nicely decorated with pink and white roses.

The bride is one of the most popular young ladies in this community. Her good character and pleasing personality have made her many close friends, and she is well fitted for the position she takes in the new home.

The groom is a Lutheran pastor of this place, and has lived in our midst nearly a year and made many friends by his sober and industrious habits, qualifying him well to carry out the pledge he has taken.

After the ceremony the immediate relatives and friends sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper of five courses.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, indicative of the high esteem in which they are held. They will make their home in Dupree.

"TWILIGHT LEAGUE" FORMED.

New Ulm is going to have base ball whether or no! It really is time that this town woke up and realized the value of base ball from many standpoints, and the fellows have who long realized this are going after the matter this year with a will. In addition to the two city teams that will go out and do battle with clubs from other cities, New Ulm will now enjoy the excitement of a "Twilight League." Already the business and professional men have been enlisted in the good cause and housewives are beginning to re-arrange their schedule of meals for the lords and masters of the households will be quite too busy at 6 o'clock every Thursday evening to be bothered with so infinitesimal a matter as eating supper. For the match games which are to be played each Thursday evening at Twilight are scheduled to begin promptly at 6 o'clock.

The first game of the series will be played next Thursday between the employes of the Post Office and the tonsorial artists of the city. Henry N. Somsen will umpire this first exciting match and it is safe to say that he will be able to back up his decisions with perfectly good reasons for each one. At any rate it will be well for him to have his case well prepared for objections are likely to be entered with more or less disregard of both baseball and legal procedure.

In foot work the teams should be evenly matched but it is going to trouble the post office people some to find anyone for the coaching line who can equal any of the barbers in chin work. This advantage may be offset, however, by the deftness with which Uncle Sam's boys can handle any sort of package coming their way. Under these circumstances, the spectators may look forward to a maddening score of 1 to 1 for fourteen innings, and it will be anybody's game to the last man up.

The line up for the two teams will be:
Eight Hour Men Short Story Experts
E. Hempel P John Arndt
J. J. Moriarity C Ed. Vogel
J. Vetter 1st Wm. Arndt
R. Piemeyer 2nd John Wiedl
H. Neuwirth 3rd Hy. Vedder
H. Baltrusch SS Ed. Macho
J. Karl Center Alfred Nagel
J. Hofmeister Right Joe Koehler

Evidently the barbers look forward to meeting with something unusual for they have been careful to provide their team with substitutes in the persons of George Arndt and Leslie Peuser. The Government employes probably have sworn to return home with their shields on or them.

The Twilight League thus far consists of the two teams above mentioned and also of teams from the milling industries, from the breweries and business and professional men. This is quite enuf to carry the work along for several weeks and by that time the interest should be at white heat and should the Boston Bloomer team come this way New Ulm would have a team fit to meet the girls.

In a wild travesty on the national pastime at the local ball park Sunday afternoon the Athletics defeated Fairfax, 8-6. The victory was due to hard hitting and fast base running, altho the locals lost many chances to score. The game was slow and uninteresting.

Fairfax scored in the first after two men were out. Dodge walked and scored on Ploof's two base hit. Pfeiffer held the visitors safe after that till the 9th The Athletics started things in the second. Hodgins walked, stole second and scored on Donahue's hit to right. Donahue stole second and scored on Burk's hit. The locals added two more in the 5th. "Chic" Williams walked, stole second but was out at third when Cordes hit to the infield. H. Williams singled, Cordes going to third. Williams stole second Pfeiffer hit to left scoring Cordes and Williams. Two more were added in the 6th. After two were out Dahms hit to deep center for a home run. C. In the 9th inning Fairfax scored 5 runs after one man was out. Murnane was safe on first, Mundloh hit safe to center, Dodge was hit filling the bases. Pfeiffer forced in Murnane by walking Ploof. Brunner hit to left scoring Mundloh and Dodge. Brown hit safe, scoring Brunner and Ploof.

"SWEET LAVENDER"

Bright shone the lights—the band played. But threatened storm did not deter. A goodly assemblage at Turner Hall, gathered to hear "Sweet Lavender".

The performance being over—the rain caused a little boom, for to save a hat or a silk cravat, all repaired to the old Dutch Room.

Kindred spirits of the Verein then concocted a little plan to play a little comedy upon their leading man.

And in addition to him, upon any other merry wight who chanced to come upon the stage and seemed inclined to "bite".

So in the bar-room proper was placed a thing to awe: Reclining in a deep arm-chair a figure stuffed with straw.

His apparel much the worse for wear—Broad brimmed hat and seedy shoes, Overalls of ancient date Calculated no art to infuse.

O'er his features a newspaper was placed To hide his state of fallen grace, To cover up his snooze—and booze, And the lineaments of his face.

The first who came upon the scene Was one who makes Herman's Brau Inquired about the intruder, And said "Such things won't do!"

Cautiously the covering he lifted Laughing echoes the old walls made! Said he, "Just pass the joke along—Give the boys some lemonade."

Came then Junior Pioneers, And spied the loathsome sight. The old Hall rings with loud protest, One exploded nearly—quite!

Said he "This thing's a shame, 'I'll quit the Turnverein! Never before in fifty years 'Have tramps been lodged herein!'"

"I'll throw him out—who is he? Call for the police!"—"Stay do not wake 'You know him'—and a peep was taken. Them emissaries on comedy bent. Looked up their President.

Said they—"The ting's a shame. We hold you for this blame." In came he like a 9 tunderbolt, And in tones terse and plain, Said—"Put this man out!"

He went he spoiled by rain!"— Then strong men laid on hands And the scene was o'er, As his garments were torn in twain And scattered on the floor— Except it follows—

The expenditure of about 2 dollars.

Word was received here a few days ago that Otto G. Bluhm, a typo in the Austin Daily Herald and Miss Elisabeth Buchanan were married. May 28th at Austin where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Bluhm learned the printing business in local offices.

THE TRUTH

Some people are averse to telling the truth about anything, some only tell the truth about some things and others believe that the truth does a whole lot better than a down right lie. I only believe in the latter, and that is to tell the truth under all conditions if you positively know that you are right, and not tell others that are in doubt that things are not right and fix things that are made by others in such a way that they will not work satisfactorily when the people that manufacture the articles have more Brains in one DAY than the party making this display has in one whole YEAR.

I mean by the foregoing that one of the merchants here in town that says that he used to be a gentleman had taken a stove of the same type as I sell and is demonstrating as a stove that would do good work in a smokehouse and showing his customers that the New Perfection does not smoke when it really is one of the easiest stoves there is on the market to make smoke and tells them that the long chimney gives the oil more combustion than the other. After the oil is burning combustion takes place and after that there is nothing that you have except what heat you get from your oil that is consumed and when you have to drive it for a foot or more it stands to reason that you are sure to have waste which you will not ave on one of the Stratford stoves that I sell and put out on trial when they want it. See me if you want a good stove.

The defiance Auto Tire that I sell has them all beat and has a guarantee back of it that is worth while and the same with all the bedding, furniture and rugs that I sell. So if you want a good square deal come in and get what your DOLLAR is worth. Hoping to receive my share of your patronage I am,

Yours very truly,

J. E. HAYCRAFT

Senator Haycraft is receiving much favorable comment from the newspapers in the second district, and is generally conceded to stand the best in the race for congress. Franklin Ellsworth has not proved himself a winner and besides Mr. Haycraft has a flying start on the other candidates. He will poll a big vote from those people who have watched his record in the legislature. And in experience and character is well fitted to represent this district in congress.—Currie Independent.
