LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Belland of Milroy spent Sunday at the Fred Meine home and visiting with other relatives.

Armand Petry came down from St. Paul Friday to spend the week end with his many friends. Mrs. Petry who had been here with the children for a week returned home with him Monday.

A. S. Dorn, county auctioneer was in the city Wednesday calling on friends and looking up prospective sales. He states that there will be quite a number of sales this fall. Mr. Dorn is a splendid fellow and a right smart auctioneer.—Sleepy Eye Herald Dispatch.

P. J. Ritschel and family removed to their new home on South State Street the past week. Every known convenience is supplied and the place is very comfortably arranged. It has not been completed in all its details but it will be soon and then Mr. and Mrs. Ritschel will settle down to enjoy life.

Otto Kruschke, of New Ulm, last week purchased the farm known as the Old Mantle place in Ridgely township, Nicollet County, consisting of nearly 160 acres from G. A. Boemmels, of Cairo; consideration, $78 per acre. Mr. Kruschke expects to take possession of his newly acquired property in about a month.—Fairfax Standard.

Adolph Gluth of Morgan looked after business matters in New Ulm last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Hellmann and daughter Florence returned home last Friday after a visit of two weeks with relatives at Faribault.

Mrs. W. G. Alwin and children left yesterday afternoon for Arlington where they will rusticate for the next 3 weeks on the Herman Breikreutz farm.

Arthur Huhn who went to camp with the boys came home with them for a few days visit. He has returned to his work. Walter Backer has also been at home for a short visit.

John Lauschke of Buffalo Lake has been visiting the past week with his daughter, Mrs. John Hetlinger. His health is somewhat impaired and he may stay here all summer.

Mrs. Otto Jaeger of Lamberton who underwent an operation at the Loretto Hospital six weeks ago, had recovered sufficiently Sunday so that she was able to leave for her home.

Martin Schluck was successfully operated upon at the Loretto Hospital Monday noon for obstruction of the bowels. Last Friday Mrs. Mary De-wanz submitted to an operation on the gall-bladder.

Mrs. Fred W. Peuser who accompanied her sister Mrs. Henry Hammer and daughter Esther of Harvey, N. D. to Adrian, Minn. for a visit with Mrs. Charles Julius, another sister, is expected home next Monday.

Mrs. O. M. Olsen and Mrs. C. H. Cornwall and little daughter arrived Saturday from Moline, Ill., where Mrs. Olsen has been visiting for three weeks. Mrs. Cornwall will make a stay of two or three weeks here with her parents.

Work on the new front for the Emil Metzinger store was begun last Thursday. When complete it will add materially to the appearance of the building and give Mr. Metzinger a great deal more display room. It will take about 3 weeks to finish the job.

Last Wednesday afternoon Miss Alma Wiedenmann and Fred Gareis were united in marriage at Sleepy Eye. The ceremony was performed at the home of Paul Wiedenmann in the presence of a small number of relatives and intimate friends. Rev. W. C. Albrecht of Sleepy Eye read the marriage service. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Margaretha Wiedenmann of New Ulm and the groom a brother of Fred Gareis of Milford. Both were born in the Town of Milford and grew up there. For the past few years, the bride has resided in Portland, Oregon and after the marriage they started on their wedding trip which will take them to Portland first and later to Long Beach, Cal. If the latter place suits them, they will settle down there; otherwise they will return to Portland to make their future home.

Wm. P. Stork of Tyler came down Sunday to visit a few days with his relatives.

Mrs. Carl Bengston of St. Peter was a guest last week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Emil Mueller.

Albert Stindt, parochial school teacher at Lewiston, Minn. and family are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Weissenborn.

The rear part of the John Zischka saloon property has been torn down and the building of the new block will soon be under way.

Louis Merrill of Minneapolis was a guest all last week at the Henry Engel home. He returned to Minneapolis Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Siras Zimmerman and Miss Jessie Zimmerman of Saybrook, Ill., and Mr. E. J. Obermeyer of Lafayette, Ind., spent last week as guests at the Stork home.

Mrs. Ida Schwantes who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Theo. G. Budde at Kellogg, Minn. for the past two weeks, returned home last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Martin Hose leaves this week to go to Chicago where she will visit for three weeks with her sister, Mrs. Fuerst and her mother who is also in Chicago at the present time.

The Strickler and the Franklin Edwards families are enjoying an outing at Spring Park, Lake Minnetonka, this week. Dr. Strickler will probably go down for a day or two also. Mr. Edwards accompanied the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wellner and son, Harvey, and Mrs. Simon Wellner, of New Ulm, spent Sunday with relatives in Fairfax and vicinity. Fred and family returned to New Ulm Sunday but Mrs. S. Wellner remained for a couple weeks visit at the home of her sons, Louis and Charles, in Fairfax and vicinity.—Fairfax Standard.

After residing in Nicollet for several years Otto J. Penkert and family have moved to New Ulm to reside. Mr. Penkert has not as yet decided as to what his vocation will be in the future, but for the present will make his home at New Ulm. We regret to see Otto and his family leave our midst, but join in extending best wishes for their future welfare.—Nicollet Leader.

Aug. Dahl, manager, and Henry Engel, head miller of the New Ulm Roller Mill, in company with contractor John Weiland were in the village Tuesday looking over the company's property here and making plans and arrangements to enlarge the storage capacity for grain. The present accommodations have been outgrown by their ever increasing business and the company was forced to provide more facilities. The present plans are to enlarge the bin capacity 70,000 bushels.—Hanska Herald.

Ten of the leading lights of the city accompanied by Ed. C. Veecks of Mankato and Theo. Schonlau and Hjalmer Hoidale of Minneapolis, leave today for Walker, Minn., on a fishing trip to last the balance of the week. A glance at the list of names of those going shows that even if they should not bring home any fish there will be no lack of fish yarns for their friends. L. B. Krook left yesterday to act as pathfinder and the others are J. R. Higgs, J. H. Siegel, Chas. Vogtel, Wm. Silverson, G. B. Weiser, Jos. H. Vogel, Alf. H. Vogel, Fred Johnson and H. N. Somsen.

A merry auto party from Milford enjoyed a pleasant trip last Sunday. The families of Wm. Gluth, A. G. Falk, Carl Schreyer, H. Fritsche, Frank Guth and Alfred Rein and the Zimmermann boys made up the company. They drove to Clements and stopped there at the home of Wm. Huehn where they were served a fine lunch and went on for dinner at the H. Huehn home near Rowena. They visited in Wanda with Otto Huehn and Sperling families, leaving for the home trip at 7 o'clock. They reached New Ulm early enuf to attend the last half of the park concert. Everyone enjoyed the ride greatly and as a member of the party said, "no one sang Home, Sweet Home, because they found so many other places that were just like home."

The Misses Emma Hellmann and Anna Hahselbruck attended the Ringling Bros. circus at Mankato Friday. Others who went down from here were Herbert Baltrusch, John Hofmeister, Elmer Cordes, Arthur Huhn, Otto Hogen, Henry Dahms, Mrs. Ed. Cordes, Mrs. H. A. Vogel, Mrs. H. H. Vogel, Joe Karl, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tauer, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Buenger, Miss Anna Vogel, Mrs. Wm. Steljes, Hilding Krook and family and Miss Frances Krook, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vercoe, Miss Lillie Frash and M. E. Schuster. They say that Mankato never saw such a crowd before and that there must have been 20,000 at the afternoon performance. Quite a number of those from here went down in their cars and did not have to depend on the train to return. The night passenger did not get here until three o'clock.
