Monday evening twenty-five of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Buenger arranged a surprise party for them, the occasion being the tin wedding anniversary of the couple. Gifts of a suitable character galore were taken along with refreshments and the evening was spent most delightfully.

For the past ten days the executive committee of the commercial club has been raising funds for defraying the expenses of entertaining the editors next Saturday. If the committee should have overlooked any who would like to attend the banquet, they should call on F. W. Johnson, chairman of the committee.

Sunday-afternoon about 1:30 Fred Loesch, assistant engineer at the electric light plant, had the index finger of his left hand caught in the machinery and the tip crushed so severely that a portion of it had to be amputated. Altho he is able to be around, Mr. Loesch will be incapacitated for work for a couple of weeks.

At the meeting of the Board of Education held Saturday evening the board organized by electing Geo. B. Weiser, president; A. F. Reim, secretary and C. W. A. Krook, treasurer. Theo. Scheidrich was re-appointed janitor of the present high school building and the new school-house building, Fred Meyer of the Washington school-house and the East Primary and John Ambrosch of the Lincoln school-house.

Have you any golden glow or other yellow flowers that you can spare for use in decorating the banquet room for the editors and business men next Saturday? If you have kindly telephone the Review office, 101, as we are going to need all that we can get. We will call for it Friday if you will let us know before noon that day. Sunflowers will also be used if they can be procured.

Thor Snilsberg writes us from some unpronounceable place in Norway, sending greeting to all his friends. He says he arrived at Christiania two days earlier than he expected. He finds himself the busiest man on earth but expects to get a rest with his people among the mountains. He found both his father and sister in improved health when he reached home. The Review will take greetings to Thor from New Ulm and assure him that we are all looking forward to his return.

Mrs. Susanna Carroll and her daughter Miss Gertrude of Ft. Myer, near Washington, D. C. were in the city for a short time early last week. Mrs. Carroll came here to renew acquaintances with friends she had not seen for years. Her maiden name was Susanna Jennings and she lived in Sigel Township at one time and later in New Ulm. She had not been here for 31 years and found things very much changed and most of her friends and acquaintances dead or gone. She had been visiting a nephew of hers at Wanda and stopped off at New Ulm on her way home.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Reineke who have been visiting the past week in Chippewa Falls, Wis. and other points, returned from Waseca, their last stopping place, Sunday evening.

Winifred Mo of Minneapolis who has been visiting at the Weiser home for several weeks returned home Friday. She was accompanied by Katharine Weiser who will spend a few weeks at the Mo home.

Prof. John X. Neumann of the Wisconsin State University arrived in the city Saturday evening for a several weeks' visit under the parental roof. Mr. Neumann says that community singing is coming into vogue in this country and he was surprised that the audience at German Park Sunday evening did not sing when the band played some of the popular airs. The scheme seems very feasible and is worth trying out. It certainly would aid to the pleasures derived from our band concerts.

Rev. Albrecht is attending a conference of the Lutheran Church at Sanborn this week.

Rev. Christian Albrecht of Hutchinson was a guest at the Lutheran Parsonage Tuesday.

Rev. Hohn and family returned home Friday last after an absence of almost a month. They spent their vacation with Dr. Hohn's brother at Echo.

The Misses Bertha and Lorana Buehrer of St. Paul arrived Saturday evening for a brief visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Buehrer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Espenson of Montevideo spent the early part of the week visiting with Mrs. Espenson's brother, W. H. Gieseke. They made the trip by auto.

Last Tuesday evening about forty members of Charity Lodge A. F. & A. M. met at the Masonic Hall to give their fellow lodge brother William F. Meile, a royal farewell from bachelorhood. He became a Benedict Monday. The function was in the nature of a surprise party and proved a very pleasant affair. Refreshments were served and the guest of honor was presented with a beautiful cut glass berry set.

The Missionary Society of the Congregational Church will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. John Edwards Friday.

If everything goes right New Ulm soon will once more enjoy good drinking water and the dangers arising from a shortage of water will be eliminated for the new reservoir is almost complete. And when the new supply of water is ready there will be no more need for the water which is full of bacteria rendered harmless by means of the chemical solution that has so spoiled our good tasting water.

Martin L. F. Eyrich sold out the stock of his Bargain Store to Theo. B. Meizer, owner of the Fair Store last week. Mr. Meizer will remove the stock to his place of business and expects to hold a special sale shortly. Miss Olga Schmucker, clerk at Eyrich's, will be employed by Mr. Meizer. Mr. Eyrich has not definitely decided just what he will do but plans to put the immediate future into a vacation and he and his family will leave shortly for a visit with relatives in different parts of the state. Mr. Eyrich may decide to go into the same line of business elsewhere if he finds a good opening.
