

LOCAL NOTES

Attorney Geo. D. Erickson left for Pine City Monday to attend to some legal business.

Miss Minna Fischer of Minneapolis is spending the week visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. G. Bell.

George Graff and family of Ivanhoe spent several days last week visiting with Mrs. Graff's mother, Mrs. Barbara Baer.

Miss Laura Brust who was visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graff, last week returned home Saturday.

Carl Hein left today to return to his duties as instructor in physical culture in a Cleveland, Ohio, Turnverein.

J. H. Siegel who has been quite seriously ill is spending a few days at Lake Emily in hopes of regaining his strength.

Mrs. Augusta Friton returned last week from a vacation spent with her sister, Miss Emma Roloff, in the Cities.

Philip Runk and family and Jos. Gould and family of Springfield were guests last week at the H. L. Runk home.

Mrs. Mary A. Schmid of Springfield was a guest last week of Mrs. Henrietta Hauenstein and was a guest at the Turner birthday party.

Mrs. Henry Heimerdinger who has been visiting here and in Sleepy Eye for the past week returned to her home in St. Paul yesterday.

Mrs. Martin Hose, Mrs. W. G. Alwin and Mrs. Herman Hein drove to Mankato Saturday but found the rain made the return trip rather unpleasant the latter part of the way.

Miss Emilie Runk and Miss Sophie Hoffmann returned Saturday from a three weeks' vacation trip spent with friends and relatives at Morton, Redwood Falls and Springfield.

Miss Melita Spoerhase of Winthrop is one of the students enrolled in the new commercial department of the High School. She will live with her aunt, Mrs. W. G. Alwin while here.

Mrs. Leo Collins of Fairbault visited the past week with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Riegler.

Miss Elsa Marti will entertain Wednesday of this week for a group of her old High School friends.

Art Janka is now a knight of the grip, having recently accepted a position with a wholesale grocery at Fairbault.

Miss Alma Foerster, teacher of German in the Humboldt High School of St. Paul is a guest of Mrs. L. B. Krook.

Miss Gertrude Frasch who has been spending several days visiting friends and relatives in Cromfey has returned home.

Mrs. Jos. Salchert of North Dakota arrived last week for a visit of a week's duration with her mother Mrs. Louise Willinger.

The H. F. and L. B. Krook families drove to Mankato Saturday morning, combining business and pleasure on the trip.

Rev. C. J. Albrecht preached the sermon in the Lutheran Church at Renville Sunday morning. Prof. John Meyer occupied the pulpit in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in this city during his absence.

Last Thursday H. J. Knudson, W. J. Schmid, G. A. Carmichael and W. R. Hodges, publisher of the Sleepy Eye Herald-Dispatch, were in the city boosting for the big Street Fair which our neighboring city is going to pull off September 16th, 17th and 18th. Hodges says it is going to be the biggest ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Seiter and family arrived from the West last Saturday night. Aline entered school Monday as she and her mother will remain in New Ulm probably until Christmas. They are making their home with Mrs. Seiter's mother, Mrs. Henrietta Hauenstein.

Miss Olga Mayer entertained a number of her old school mates Monday afternoon. There are eight or ten of the girls here at the present time but several of them will be leaving shortly and the party was a sort of farewell. Miss Mayer goes to Nevis, Minn., Thursday to begin her work in the public schools.

Fred Kueck of Delhi spent Sunday visiting at Henry Ahren's.

Mrs. B. Frantz of Sleepy Eye visited with her mother, Mrs. Max Reinhart, the early part of the week.

Knute Haugen of Hanska submitted to an operation at the Union Hospital Sunday. Albert Wandersee of Lambertson was admitted to the hospital for treatment and will undergo an operation later.

Among the visitors at the County Fair yesterday were Andrew Olin and family of Fairfax and accompanying them was Mrs. Jane Peterson who formerly lived in New Ulm for a great many years. Mrs. Peterson now lives in California and she expects to spend a week or ten days here with old friends.

Miss Flora Spellbrink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Spellbrink was operated upon at the Loretto Hospital Monday morning for appendicitis. The same morning Horton Kienlen, the 6 year old son of J. Kienlen of Fairfax had his tonsils removed. Saturday, Mike Schmidt submitted to an operation for an infected hand.

The Mission Festival held at the Friends churches in New Ulm, Essig and Nicollet Sunday was well attended. Rev. John Meier of St. Paul Park delivered the addresses. In the evening he spoke to the New Ulm congregation on his experiences during six years of missionary work in South Africa.

Mrs. J. P. Jensen and daughter, Miss Amanda, of Boseman, Mont., are guests at the home of J. P. Graff, Mrs. Jensen's brother. The young lady has been under medical care at Rochester for some time and they will remain here for several weeks before making the long trip home. Mr. Jensen is expected the latter part of the week.

According to the Hanska Herald, the 120 acre farm owned by Frank Knott in the Town of Linden near the Linden store was sold recently at the rate of $120.00 per acre. Mr. Knott bought it only a little over two years ago for $82 per acre. Brown County real estate has gone up some within the past few years, and yet compared with Iowa lands our farm lands are quite cheap.

Rev. N. O. Grunden of Fargo, N. D. will be the new pastor of the Lafayette Lutheran Church and expects to enter upon his duties about the middle of October. Some years ago he was in charge of the Lutheran Church at Bernadotte and he is therefore not a stranger to a large number of his new congregation. The parsonage is undergoing extensive repairs and will be thoroughly renovated by the time the new pastor arrives.

A near auto accident occurred at the intersection of Center Street and Minnesota Tuesday afternoon about one o'clock when two automobiles owned by strangers, going in opposite directions on Minnesota Street ran into each other. However, no damage was done and the parties escaped with a scare. The front fender of one car interlocked with the rear fender of the other car and after their embrace was broken, both cars were able to proceed with but a few scratches.

The Board of Trustees of the Dr. Martin Luther College will meet next Friday for the purpose of acting on Prof. John Meyer's resignation from the faculty. Prof. Meyer recently received a call from the Lutheran congregation at Oconomowoc, Wis., and will accept this position if the Trustees decide to release him from his duties at the College. Altho the friends of Prof. Meyer would like to see him advance, they loath to see him depart from New Ulm and would therefore welcome a decision from the Board which would continue the Professor as a citizen of New Ulm.

Altho a cold, raw wind Sunday morning followed the rain of Saturday afternoon so that Sunday evening was a bit chilly, still when the last park concert of the season began a good sized crowd was on hand to enjoy the "all favorites" program. Autos as usual filled the street on the west side and a large throng gathered at the foot of the grand stand. However, the smaller groups which on former nights occupied the outskirts of the park were fewer in number and less inclined to sit quietly thru the program. It was too cool for that and many contented themselves with staying just long enuf to hear one or two of their favorites played. The program was a good one and the only regret is that such unfavorable weather has marked the season. All will now look forward to better luck next season. The receipts from the refreshment stand for the entire season amounted to $1078.71. About 40 percent of this amount is profit, so the band will receive a trifle more than $900.00 for the ten concerts.
