

LOCAL NOTES

Seats for the musical spectacle, "The Prince of Tonight," which is to be the attraction at the Turner Theatre next Sunday evening, go on sale at the Pioneer Drug Store this morning. This attraction will prove one of the very best offerings of the season and it would be well for theatre-goers desiring choice locations to order their tickets early.

Oscar Baer of Rochester came home Saturday to spend a couple of days with his people. He has not been home since last Christmas as he is kept pretty busy. He is looking fine and says everything is going well for him. New Ulm, he thinks is a little more fortunate as to crop conditions than most other places. Around Rochester and Owatonna frost recently hit the corn fields hard.

Mrs. W. L. Key and children of Winona are visiting with Mrs. Key's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Bluhm.

Mrs. Geo. F. Reineke and her mother Mrs. Albert Remund, attended the funeral of Mr. L. C. Remund at Minneapolis last Wednesday. The deceased is a cousin of Mrs. Reineke.

He was known thruout the country as the "Father of the Newsboys" and was the founder of the National Association of Newsboys. He often lectured for Chatauquas and spoke in New Ulm two years ago during the Lyceum Course.

A complete program of the Methodist Conference will be found on the second page of this issue, giving the hours of the various sessions, the subjects to be considered, the speakers, and also a rostrum of the guests and where each is to be entertained. We are giving this as a matter of convenience to our readers who may wish to know where to find some one of the visitors during their stay here.

Friends of Miss Maud Zencie Hagberg received cards last week announcing her marriage to Mr. Peter Okkelberg at Ann Arbor, Mich. Thursday, September 2nd. The newlyweds will be at home to their friends after November 1st at 519 Forest Ave. The bride is well known here and is a young lady of exceptional accomplishments. She was born and raised here in New Ulm and after graduating from the local High School she went to Ann Arbor, Mich. where she graduated from the musical course of the State University. She also spent a year abroad taking instruction in the best Conservatories of Germany. For several years she has been an instructor of music at a college in Mount Carrol, Ill. The bride's New Ulm friends extend congratulations and good wishes.

Next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock the marriage of Paul Wandersee, manager of the Farmers Elevator Co. of this city, and Miss Marie Krieger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krieger of North Washington street, will take place at the Friedens church, Rev. G. Mayer officiating. A reception will be held at the Krieger home after the ceremony.

Owing to the unfavorable weather conditions the Booster Tour planned for today had to be called off. This may mean merely a postponement or it may mean a total abandonment of the project as happened last year when the weather man scowled on the day planned for the same trip. It rather looks as tho somebody was wishing a jinx on the plan to get acquainted with our neighbors in Redwood and Renville. A little more enthusiasm might scare that jinx into fits.

Another New Ulm young man has chosen for himself a better half, as wedding cards received this week indicate. The groom-to-be is Leslie Olsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Olsen, and the young lady is Miss Bonnie Lucille Hanson of St. Paul. The marriage will take place September 27th, at Olivet Congregational Church in St. Paul, at 8 o'clock in the evening and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. The young people expect to go to Great Falls, Montana, to live where Mr. Olsen is employed as chemist in the Royal Milling plant.

An Old Settler's Picnic will be held at Turner Hall Park, New Ulm, Minn., Sunday afternoon, Sept. 19th., rain or shine. Music by the Second Regiment Band and a fine program has been prepared. The picnic is given under the auspices of the Junior Pioneers of New Ulm. These picnics have in the past proven enjoyable affairs and this year's will be no exception. Everybody is cordially invited. Adv. 37

A large number of additional news items will be found on the inside pages of this issue. Our advertising this week came in suddenly and finds us crowded for space so that the news had to be crowded into unusual corners. Don't fail to notice the large number of new ads this week showing the beginning of a new commercial season. Crone Bros., The Bee Hive, G. A. Ottomeyer, and Metzinger are all announcing the arrival of new Fall and winter wear. Hummel Bros., as usual have something new to offer. The Columbia is advertising a special Removal Sale chance to get goods at a bargain. F. H. Retzlaff talks of a new line of automobiles, the Kleanal has a new argument why you should have your clothes cared for by them. The State Bond & Mortgage Co., the N. Henningsen Agency and the Brown County Bank, never let a week go by without advancing their reasons for clients to come to them and if one reads the Review ads he is pretty sure to be quite well informed as to where the business of the city is being done and why it goes to those points. The Bank Statements are also to be found in this issue, on page 2, together with the report of the County Commissioners session. In fact, the current news of the town is to be found in the ads this week.

Mrs. Andrew Amann is a patient at Loretto Hospital, having been operated upon for abdominal tumor.

Mrs. George Wicherski left last Friday for Wabasso to visit her sister, Mrs. John Huber, for a week.
