of dollars for a larger army and navy.
In conclusion the speaker expressed the hope that the proletariat of all nations would, after the war is ended, take such steps as to insure lasting peace even if this would mean the elimination of the royal houses of Europe and the dethronement of the money power in this country.
From outside of town Mr. and Mrs.
Geo. Wiedenmann of Mankato, Mr. and Mrs. William Mack of Milford and Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Albrecht of Fairfax were present. Part of the afternoon was taken up in taking a group picture of all those who were in the park and also a picture of the old people and one of the Junior Pioneers. The photographs were taken by Randolph R. Johnston of St. Paul, the same man who took the views at the time of the Home Coming.
Quite a number of the Junior Pioneers who are on the picture that was taken at the time of the Golden Jubilee have been unable to place all of those that are shown in that picture. Theo. Crone took upon himself the task of securing the names of all of them and thru his courtesy we publish them in this issue knowing that all who have a copy of the picture will be glad to recall all the names and faces that were once familiar.

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING.

Surrounded by children, grandchildren and great grandchildren Mr. and Mrs.
Lorenz Dauer celebrated their golden wedding Monday at their home on North Washington Street. Both of the jubilarians were born in Germany, he 75 years ago and she 73 years ago.
Mrs. Dauer's maiden name was Eva Metzner. They were married in the old country September 20, 1865 and some years later came to America. They took up farming in the Town of Cottonwood which they followed for over 20 years.
About ten years ago, they gave up active farm life and came to New Ulm to make their home.

The golden wedding was celebrated with special services at the Catholic church in the morning at 9:30, Rev. R.
Schlinkert officiating. After the ceremony the jubilarians with the members of the family repaired to their home where they proceeded to celebrate this unusual event. All of the children were present, as well as some of the grandchildren and great grandchildren. Some of the neighbors and friends happened in to offer congratulations and tokens to remember this happy event by. The time was spent in social converse and proved very enjoyable indeed. In the evening members of the male choir of the St. Caecilian society put in an appearance and sang a number of songs which were very much appreciated. Refreshments were served and also a splendid supper.

The following children were present at the golden wedding and vied with each other to make it pleasant for the old folks: Mrs. Mary Fischer and Louis Dauer of New Ulm; John Dauer, Stephen Dauer and Frank Dauer of Cottonwood; Charles Dauer of Seales; Mrs. Robert Reinhart of Klossner and Mrs. Jos.
Gratwohl of Linden. The jubilarians have 30 grand children and 6 great grandchildren. Both of them are enjoying good health and their many friends hope that they will be able to celebrate their diamond wedding 25 years hence.

FVLL WEDDINGS

Wandersee-Krieger.
Saturday afternoon Miss Marie Krieger and Paul Wandersee of this city were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.
The ceremony was performed at the Friedens Church at 3 o'clock. Rev.
Geo. Mayer tied the nuptial knot in the presence of Olita Niemann, a cousin of the bride, Martha Wandersee of Lamberton, a cousin of the groom and Henry Krieger a brother of the bride and Frank Wandersee, a brother of the groom who attended the bridal couple and acted as witnesses. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Krieger of this city and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wandersee of the Town of Milford and is at the present time the manager of the Farmers' Elevator of New Ulm. A sumptuous wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents on North Washington Street which was attended only by the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. After the wedding supper the bridal party enjoyed an automobile ride. The newlyweds will make New Ulm their future home and immediately went to housekeeping.

Roy Backer, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Andrew Backer of Milford township, and Miss Ella Rolloff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Rolloff of Essig, will be united in marriage in the Friedens church in this city next Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. A reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents in Essig after the ceremony.
Sixty young people, friends of Miss Ella Rolloff and Mr. Roy Backer gathered at the Rolloff home in Essig Sunday evening to honor the young lady with a parcel shower. The evening was spent in playing games and refreshments were served.

Voges-Becker

Last Friday morning Miss Rosina Becker and Henry Voges, both of the Town of Courtland plighted their troth at the Lutheran Church at Courtland.
The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock by Rev. H. Strasen. Miss Eleanora Havemeyer of Courtland acted as maid of honor, Miss Rosina Dallmann of Nicollet and Miss Hilda Gronholz of Echo as bridesmaids and the groom was attended by Henry Martens of St. Paul and Herbert Bode of Courtland. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voges of the Town of Courtland and the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Fritz Becker at whose home a large wedding was celebrated immediately after the nuptial knot had been tied at the Church. Over two hundred guests were present to help make the occasion a memorable one.
Among them were quite a number from New Ulm. The newlyweds will immediately go to housekeeping on the Henry Voges farm in Courtland.
Another Courtland wedding will take place early in October when Miss Lily Seemann and Henry J. Braun are married the 6th. The service will be read at the German Lutheran Church at 10:30 in the morning and the wedding will be held at the home of the bride's mother.

Friday, October 2nd, will occur the marriage of Miss Sophie Lindquist and Mr. Lloyd Swanson at the M. E. Church in Lafayette. The ceremony will be performed at 7:30 and a wedding reception will follow at the bride's home.

X ALONG ROUTE THREE.

Last Friday occurred the wedding of Mr. Henry Voges to Miss Rosina Becker.
A big celebration took place at the home of the bride in the afternoon and evening.
Improvements in the form of a chicken house, hog house and a new roof to the barn are in process at the Hage farm.

Torn down fences, missing ducks, winged chickens, and the like are often found in the track of hunters but to find a rubber boot in the prime of life is the latest. We hope this practise will continue as it would be quite an equal exchange.

Sunday evening the Voges-Becker after wedding took place. A large crowd assembled and the evening was pleasantly passed.
Paul Borchert, Jr. left for Oklahoma some time last week.

A number of our home folks spent Sunday in New Ulm, some at the Old Settlers Picnic, others at the Auto races and still others attended the Theatre in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Diepolder were visiting at the Martin Meidl home last Sunday afternoon.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Schmidt and Mrs. J.
Schmidt of Lake Benton, Minn., visited with E. Schmidt and Ed. Bradtke, prep., on the 14th of September.

Rev. Dysterheft of Sanborn visited his son Julius, '18, and daughter Minnie, '17, on last Wednesday and Thursday. He also visited classes during that time.

Rev. K. Koehler of Wauwatosa, Wis., arrived on the 15th of the month to fill the position left vacant by the resignation of Prof. Meyer. The election of the new professor will take place on the 22nd of October. Prof. Koehler is staying in the dormitory.

On the 15th of Sept. the students gave a farewell banquet in honor of their departing Prof. Meyer. A program was rendered in the college chapel as follows:

- 1. Organ solo.....Prof. Reuter
2. Male Chorus....."I trust in Thee" 3. Address.....Prof. Ackermann 4. Bass solo.....E. Nitschke
5. Address.....F. H. Retzlaff 6. Mixed Chorus....."O Almighty" 7. Presentation, Student-body president 8. Male chorus....."The Lord's Prayer"
9. Organ solo.....Prof. Reuter
The chapel had been beautifully decorated with vines, flowers and pennants by the members of "B" Class. The student body presented Prof. Meyer with a walnut piano bench and a study lamp. After the program the guests repaired to the dining hall, where light refreshments were served by the "A" Class members. The dining hall had been previously decorated for the occasion. Over 130 guests were in attendance.

Rev. Fritz of Wellington visited with his daughter Lydia, '17, last Friday.

At a class meeting on Friday "B" class organized for the present school-year. The following officers were elected: Pres., H. Luehring;
Vice pres., W. Kohlhoff.
Sec.-Treas., G. Toepel.

Saturday afternoon saw the second ball game in the series being played between the members of "A" class and the rest of the school. On the previous Saturday the score favored the "A" class team, but not so this time, a 10 to 2 score being the result of the last game. The tie in games will be played off in the near future.

Rev. Riedl of Springfield, Ill., paid the institution a visit on Monday. Rev.
Riedl will leave in the near future for Hankow, China, to take up mission work there.

The male chorus sang at the ordination services Sunday afternoon in St. Paul's church.

A fall tennis tournament is being seriously discussed by tennis enthusiasts.
Details of the program will be furnished later.

A negro mammy had a family of boys so well behaved that one day her mistress said:
"Sally, how did you raise your boys so well?"

"Ah'll tell you, missus," answered Sally. "Ah raise' dem boys with a barrel stave, an' Ah raise' 'em frequent."

"John," demanded the wife of her intoxicated spouse, "how did you get that gash on your forehead?"

"Guess I must 'a' bit myself."

"Bit yourself!"—scornfully. "How could you bite yourself 'way up there?"

"Guess I must 'a' stood on a chair."

"What're ye comin' home with your milk pail empty for?" demanded the old farmer. "Didn't the old cow give anything?"

"Yep," replied the chore boy. "Nine quarts and a kick."

OBITUARY

ALBERT WANDERSEE

Albert Wandersee of Lamberton passed away at the Union Hospital Sunday afternoon shortly before four o'clock.
Death was due to cancer of the stomach with which the deceased had been ailing for some months. The last three weeks he was receiving treatment at the Hospital.

The deceased was born in Poblitz, Pommern, Germany in October, 1860.
In 1883 he emigrated to America and came directly to New Ulm. For about five years he was employed as a farm hand in the Town of Milford in this County and Town of Nicollet in Nicollet County. He was married in Nicollet, August 26, 1891 to Marie Heidemann who survives him. After their marriage they moved on to a farm near Iberia where they lived for about nine years.
Then they moved to a farm about five miles north of Lamberton which the deceased had bought and there they lived continuously for the past 16 years. Of the children born to them two died in infancy.

The surviving children are Martha, Paul, Ella, Otto, Walter and Selma who are all at home. The remains were taken to Lamberton Monday and the funeral will be held there to-day (Wednesday) at one o'clock. The deceased's only brother, Franz, of Milford and family will attend the funeral from here and quite a number of relatives and friends from Sleepy Eye will also attend the funeral.

FERDINAND BERG.

While at work on the H. O. Schleuder residence, South Broadway, Ferdinand Berg suffered a stroke last Wednesday morning. He was immediately taken to the Union Hospital where he succumbed the following afternoon about four o'clock.
The deceased lived on North German Street and had been a resident of New Ulm for over thirty years.

Several years ago he was the victim of a cave-in and the injuries he received at that time may have been the indirect cause of the stroke which carried him away.

The deceased was born in Gruenders-berg, Pommern, Germany, May 12th, 1857, and was consequently only 58 years old when he was summoned.
He was married in the home of his nativity to Albertine Zuehlsdorf who survives him. The following year they left for America, arriving here in New Ulm in the month of July where they have since made their home. Five children were born to them of whom one died in infancy. The surviving children are Mrs. Charles Gehrmann, Mrs. William Ring and Emil Berg of New Ulm and Frank Berg of Far-ibault.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon with services at the house at 2 o'clock and at the Lutheran Church at 2:30, Rev. C. J. Albrecht officiating.
Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery.

SOFT SOAPS.

Difficult to Judge of Their Quality Without Testing.

Vegetable oils, such as linseed oil, sesame oil, and some poorer grades of other fats and oils are very generally used in making soft soaps. It is not wise to buy soft soaps in very large quantities because some of them do not keep well in summer, others deteriorate in winter, and it is difficult to make plain how one would judge of their quality without first testing a certain brand, and learning how temperature affects it.
Soft soaps are usually colored, though not necessarily very dark. Linseed oil soap is brown, some others green, and some cream colored.

Soft soaps may be readily adulterated with rosin, and those which are especially stringy and glossy in appearance should be avoided. Linseed oil soft soap is an exception to the rule that all soaps melt readily, as it is difficult to melt and a suds should be made by heating the soap and water together before washing, because if the soap is simply rubbed on the clothes, much of it is likely to be undissolved at the bottom of the tub or, in a set tub, be run into the sewer when the tub is emptied. Hard soap is better bought in quantity and dried before using, as it thus wastes less if carelessly left lying in the tub or machine. Soft soap should be bought by the keg or kit because it is less expensive in large than in small packages. Linseed oil soap of good quality has very little free alkali, hence is a good soap for general cleaning about a house.—Junia L. Shepperd, Domestic Science, University Farm, St. Paul.

Silage for Sheep.

Corn silage is every bit as valuable in the sheep menu as it is in the dairy ration. It should not be the principal ingredient in the sheep bill of fare, but should be supplemented by feeds that are rich in protein, such as clover or alfalfa or wheat bran or meal.

FIFTEEN YEAR HUNT TO END.

Captain C. E. Farrand's Widow to Be Declared Legally Dead.

Denver.—Mrs. May Spencer Farrand, second wife of the late Captain Charles E. Farrand, U. S. A., retired, who mysteriously disappeared fifteen years ago, may soon be declared legally dead in order that the captain's estate may be settled. The only heir the attorneys for the estate have been able to find is Mrs. Louise A. Ryder of New York city, daughter of Captain Far-rand by his first marriage.

A nation wide but futile search has been made for Mrs. Farrand for fifteen years by war department officials, federal secret service men and attorneys, since she left Arvada, a Denver suburb, shortly after her husband's death.
Neither relatives nor friends have since heard from her.

"Unless Mrs. Farrand is found in a few weeks, Public Administrator Woodward said, "she will have to be declared legally dead, and the captain's fortune will go to the only heir we have been able to locate, but if she is found half of the fortune will go to her."

MAY LOSE CITIZENSHIP.

Status of Baltimoreans Fighting in Europe is in Doubt.

Baltimore.—A question of law may arise if the young Baltimoreans now fighting in Europe, John Poe, John Sydney Howell, Alexander Godby and Martin D. Monaghan, attempt to return to their native land. It is held by the department of labor that by taking up arms they have expatriated themselves. This was the finding in the case of Frank Caswell of Harrison, Me., a trooper of the Canadian contingent, who attempted to come home, but was held up by the authorities on the ground that he had ceased to be a citizen of the United States.

Local officials declare that a different light may be thrown on the subject when it becomes known under what conditions these young Baltimoreans enlisted. If they swore allegiance to the flag under which they aspired to fight they of course ceased to be citizens of the United States, but there appears to be doubt as to just what the foreign powers exact of their recruits.

RICH OCTOGENARIAN AGAIN PROSPECTING

Goes Back to Scenes of Early Success in "Fifties."

Forest, Cal.—The spectacle of an old man, eighty-five years of age, fitting himself out as a prospector and taking his blankets into the hills after thirty years' vacation from the same sort of work proved interesting to the residents of this old mining camp. What made the incident more interesting was the fact that the prospector is a wealthy man and has no need for any more of this world's goods.

The stranger is James C. Chase, who mined in the headwaters of Jim Crow canyon in the early fifties and who took out enough to enable him to live in comfort among his relatives ever since.

He took his "pile" and later invested in the rich apple district in Washington and recently came to California to visit the fair. The call of his early life rang in his ears, and he could not resist the temptation to cover the ground where he made his fortune in his younger years.

Chase was not so successful in his first day's panning as he was in the fifties, but was delighted when he found color in his pan. "I think I could show some of you old miners a trick in this business yet," said Chase to some of the men who have been mining here with indifferent success for years.

BLIND BASEBALL FAN.

John Moore of Decatur, Ill., Has That Distinction.

Decatur, Ill.—John Moore of this city has entered the competition for the distinction of being the most confirmed baseball fan of the country. Moore is blind, but is not depending upon that infirmity to bring him any advantage over his rivals.

The prize to go with the distinction is a ticket admitting the holder to any ball game between professional teams in this country or Canada.

Moore has a strong claim to the title and is prepared to submit evidence, as conclusive as practicable, that he has not missed a game at Decatur, which is a member of the Three-I league, in eight years.

Say Dan Cupid is Loafing.

Columbus, O.—Cupid's business in Ohio was all shot full of holes last year. Little Dan trapped only 47,000 Ohio pairs in the year ending April 1, 1915, according to figures given out by Secretary of State Hildebrand. And that's 2,561 pairs fewer than were wedded in Ohio in the previous year and 300 fewer than 1912, when the population was much smaller.
