The seminary classes made their first trip to the parochial school last Wednesday. They had the pleasure of hearing teacher H. Klatt deliver a number of model lessons. This marks the opening of the weekly visits to the school for practise purposes.

Rev. J. Dysterheft of Sanborn paid a visit to the institution last Wednesday. He attended a number of recitations during the day.

While playing ball on the campus last Tuesday evening, A. Maskop had the misfortune to fall and so injure his knee that it is necessary for him to carry that member in a plaster cast. He hopes soon to be on his feet again.

E. Koenig '16 and P. Westerkamp '16 spent Saturday and Sunday at the latter's home in Springfield.

Mrs. J. Fallrath of Springfield spent Sunday with her son Walker here. Mr. and Mrs. O. Weisenborn entertained the Profs. Ackermann, Mosel and Koehler at dinner on Sunday.

PIONEER WOMAN DIES.

Mrs. John Mallgren, mother of Clerk of Court William Mallgren of Nicollet County died at the home of her daughter at Iowa City, Iowa, last Wednesday afternoon, aged 74 years. She came to St. Peter as early as the spring of 1869 and has lived there continuously until a short time ago when she went to Iowa to make her home with her daughter. She is survived by four daughters and two sons. The remains were brought to St. Peter Thursday and the funeral was held from the home of her son William Friday afternoon.

NICOLLET COUNTY CALENDAR.

Monday morning at 11 o'clock the fall term of the District Court in Nicollet County was called to order by Judge I. M. Olsen. In former years court was opened on the third Tuesday in October, but at the last session of the legislature this was changed to the second Monday in October.

Thirteen cases have been noticed for trial on the civil calendar. There are no cases on the criminal calendar as yet, but as a grand jury has been summoned there may be several criminal cases to be tried. The following is the civil calendar:

YOUNG MAN HEAVILY FINED.

Game Warden P. J. Karpen arrested Elmer Loomis and Frank Helmer of the road crew east of Nicollet last Monday for hunting without a license. They were taken before Justice A. P. Anderson and fined $18.50 each, which they paid. It was also found that Loomis was the man who had stolen an automatic shot gun out of an automobile from Albert Lea parties stopping in Nicollet two weeks ago, and was arrested by Marshal A. H. Burg on the charge of petty larceny, to which he pleaded guilty and was fined $100, which was paid by his uncle. He also took a boat belonging to Henry Schade of St. Peter from Middle lake and had it in a slough. The young man promised Mr. Schade to return the boat and no further prosecutions followed. A reward of $50 had been offered by the owner for the return of the gun which was divided among those taking part in the arrest and the finding of the gun.—Nicollet Leader.

ALONG ROUTE THREE.

Fred Ginkel is now tenant of the Thiede farm. Threshing would nearly be done, were it not for the repeated rains which have impeded it to some extent.

As Jack-frost wouldn't let the corn mature, the farmers have now begun cutting. John Harmening will remove to the A. Oachs place, while Henry Fisher will come to the Ch. Bartl farm. Wm. Borchert left for Mankato some time last week. He will complete his course in stenography, at the Mankato Commercial College.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buechl of New Ulm were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ant. Schmaus last Friday.

Louis Fluegge lost a valuable horse last Monday, while his son and daughter, Herman and Amanda Fluegge, were going home from a party. They drove against a fence post, which scared the horse. The horse tore itself loose from the rig and ran away. It got stuck in a slough and when found the next morning it was dead.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all who assisted us at the time of the death of our husband and father, Frederick Strate, and we are especially grateful to all who sent flowers, the Fairfax Choir and Revs. Hohn and Rinkel for their words of solace.

MRS. F. STRATE AND CHILDREN.

If you like this supplement of the Review tell your friends about it and suggest that they order one to send to some one out of town to help advertise New Ulm and Brown County. If you have not ordered a copy for your own use to send away for the same purpose, better do so promptly. We feel that we have done our share in getting the papers ready to send out and offering them for sale at 5 cents apiece. That is about what it cost us to secure the plates showing the various views of New Ulm and the farm lands about here. The paper for each magazine cost two cents alone. It is really a matter of getting something for nothing when you order one of these copies. Several have asked us why we sell them so cheap. They say that more people would buy them if they thought they were not so cheap. If any one is prevented from buying a copy by the thought that they are cheap, he is very welcome to pay ten cents instead of five for his copy. However, we would prefer that he buy two copies and send them out to two different persons. In that way the purpose for which the magazine was printed will be attained. It was gotten up to boost this part of Minnesota. If it stays in the Review office because it costs too much to send it out, the purpose will be defeated and the work we have done will be useless. If we sell it at such a price that everyone can afford to send out at least one copy, then the state will get a boost that is worth while. Do your part and do it now before the other fellow buys your copy.

Just another word. Do you like the quality of the printing work in the magazine? If you do, why not let the Review Office do any of your work in that line? This work is done necessarily on our newspaper press. We can do still better work on our jobbers. Don't forget us when you have anything in our line and don't hesitate to recommend our work to your friends. We can and will do it well.

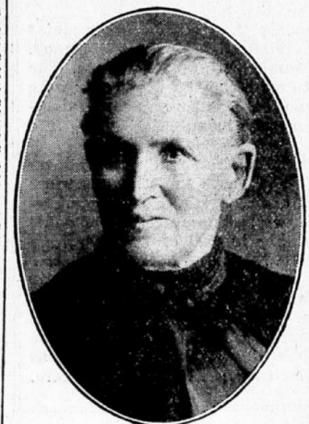

OBITUARY

MRS. JOSEPHINE ZIEHER

While attending a reunion of the old pioneers of this city at Turner Hall last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Josephine Zieher was suddenly stricken with apoplexy at about 4:30 o'clock. She had been engaged in an animated conversation with some of her friends when without warning the stroke came. Medical aid was immediately summoned and she was taken home where she soon lapsed into unconsciousness and passed away at 11 o'clock the same evening.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Josephine Schaible was born in Dellmangingen, Wuerttemberg, Germany, February 18, 1833. She came to America in 1854 and settled first at Chicago. Here she was married in September of the following year to Anton Zieher, who preceded her in death twelve years ago this month.

In 1857 they came to New Ulm where the deceased has since resided with the exception of a few years when they lived on their farm in the Town of Milford. Six children were born to them of whom two died in infancy. One daughter, Mrs. Adolph Schell, died in May, 1913. Mrs. Zieher is survived by the following daughters: Mrs. Cenci Fredericks of St. Paul; Mrs. Charles L. Roos of Wellington, Kansas; and Miss Antonia Zieher of this city. She is also survived by 5 grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Caecilia Walser of West Newton, and one brother, Xavier Schaible who lives in Germany. At the time of her death she was a member of the Mother Society of the Catholic Church of this city.

At the time of the Home Coming celebration in August, 1912, while on her way home from German Park where she had been to listen to the exercises held there she had the misfortune to break her thigh-bone and she was confined to her bed for a long time. On the day of her sudden demise Mrs. Zieher was on the program to recite a poem of her own composition and she had looked forward to this celebration with keen anticipation. She was stricken while trying to be of service to her friends and neighbors, in a way a fitting manner to be taken, since her whole life had been consecrated to service to her family, to her friends and to her neighbors. Always of a cheerful disposition, she was able to meet with the hardships and adversities of early pioneer life without sacrificing her sunny disposition. She was uniformly kind to everybody and hadn't an enemy in the world. Her death, therefore, caused a wave of genuine sympathy to sweep over the entire community.

The funeral was held Monday morning at 9:30 from Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Rev. Schlinkert officiating. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

PETER LIEBER

Word was received here the other day that Peter Lieber, at one time a resident of this city had passed away at Duesseldorf, Germany, August 19th, aged 81 years. At the time of his death he was United States consul at Duesseldorf, the home of his nativity. He was one of the very early pioneers to come to New Ulm and engaged in the merchandise business and also in dealing in furs which he bought from the Indians. In 1860 he was married to Miss Sophia Andre'. During the Civil War he served with the Minnesota Light Battery. It was at this time that his wife moved to Indianapolis and after his discharge from the army Mr. Lieber went to Indianapolis and continued to reside there until 1888 when he returned to Duesseldorf where he lived until his death. While at Indianapolis he was engaged in the brewery business and for about twenty years he was chief executive officer of the P. Lieber Brewing Co. He is survived by his widow and five children, Albert Lieber and Mrs. Fred Francke who live in Indianapolis and Miss Laura Lieber, Mrs. Emma Herber and Rudolph Lieber, an officer in the German army, who reside in Germany.

Henry Lunkenheimer, a brother of Jacob Lunkenheimer of Mankato, died at the St. Alexander Home for the Aged last Thursday afternoon. Death was due to diabetes with which he had been afflicted for some time.

The deceased was born in Wisconsin, November 23, 1848. He was a widower and had no children. He entered the Home for the Aged January 30, 1911. The remains were taken to Mankato Friday for interment.

We Invite Comparison

It's natural for a person who is selling something to point out the advantages of his commodity and follow this with a statement that it is the best procurable for the money.

We do the same when speaking of Clothes at $10 to $25, and our other lines. But we do not merely rely on the statement "best for your money" to carry us through.

We are ready to convince you any time, by comparison, that our merchandise is better than any other at the prices.
