

LOCAL NOTES

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Ulrich last Thursday.

Herman Kuehnel of Waseca was one of the visitors here for the Sunday K. C. doings.

Miss Amanda Leue of St. Paul has been the guest of Miss Lulu Doehne for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Meile are the proud parents of their first-born, a son who arrived Sunday.

Mrs. B. Bergeson of Watertown, S. D. is visiting at the homes of her brothers Anton and George Preisinger.

Edward Hoffmann, foreman of a cigar factory in Watertown, S. D. is visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hoffmann.

Dr. J. P. Graff is having an addition built to his livery stable in the form of rooms over the main floor. The night men will occupy part of the space and the rest is for storage purposes.

The ladies work committee of the Ladies Aid of the Congregational Church meets with Mrs. Jas. Dougher this week to carry on the plans for the annual sale which will be held in December.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Posch of St. Paul will be pleased to know that a new baby girl arrived at their home last Thursday. Mrs. Posch is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hauenstein.

Rev. and Mrs. Hohn and Mrs. Rinkel of Fairfax autored to Blooming Grove and Faribault last week where they visited with Rev. W. E. Mahle at the former place and with Rev. F. E. Meierbachol at the latter stop.

Thursday of this week the ladies of the Turnverein will celebrate their regular birthday gathering at the hall. The hostesses will be Mrs. Christ Spellbrink, Mrs. Fred Seiter, Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. Forest English.

Miss Ida Hauenstein writes the Review that she and her mother, Mrs. Regina Hauenstein have decided not to return to New Ulm for the winter as has been their custom but will make their home in St. Paul. They have secured apartments at 244 Virginia Avenue in that city.

Sunday was one of those wonderful rare days of Autumn that seem to come from nowhere and disappear as unaccountably. The past week has been of the sort that Minnesotans love to boast of as "regular Minnesota days" but we are forced to admit that there have been but a few of them this year.

An auto party consisting of six cars made a trip Sunday from Milford to Clements where Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Lavinski live. Those who made up the party were Mr. and Mrs. Gus. Radloff, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Backer, Mr. and Mrs. August Roloff, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Roloff, Jr., and Mrs. Ernst Roloff, Sr., and Paul and Rudolph Lavinski.

The Music Lovers Club is considering the matter of preparing to give an operetta sometime during the coming months. Nothing definite has yet been decided upon but it is hoped that the club will do something of the sort. Any one interested in singing work and desirous of joining the organization can secure details of the work by calling upon the director, Miss Frances Krook. A small amount is charged in dues for the purpose of securing the necessary music for the use of the club. The meetings are held at Miss Krook's home.

Ed. Honl made a business trip to Minneapolis last Saturday.

Mrs. P. J. Soukup is visiting with relatives in the Twin Cities.

A baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adair Saturday.

Miss Ruth Galstad went to Tracy Saturday to spend Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Walrath spent Sunday as guest of relatives in North Mankato.

Fred W. Johnson is on jury duty before the Federal Court at Mankato this week.

Mr. Chas. Vogtel and Mr. J. R. Higgs left Monday to make a trip to Chicago by auto.

Mrs. F. L. Emmings is suffering quite severely from an abscess which effects one of her eyes.

J. P. Manderfeld of the Town of Sigel left Monday for a short visit with relatives at Comfrey.

Miss Ida Fritz of Wellington is visiting this week at the Herman Meyer home at "Waldheim".

Mr. and Mrs. John Mueffelmann were guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Weissenborn.

Mrs. Frank Struss and her twin boys are visiting with her aunt, Mrs. M. Daluge and other relatives this week.

Mrs. Peter Welter who visited for about two weeks with relatives and friends at Cherokee, Iowa, has returned home.

Mrs. Albin Carlson returned to her home in Minneapolis Friday after a visit of a couple of weeks with New Ulm friends.

Miss Hertha Heers left Thursday for New York city where she will spend the winter attending an institute for the study of the fine arts.

Measles are quite prevalent at present among the children of the public schools and there are a number of vacant seats all the time.

The Misses Starr and Zieher are planning a Hallowe'en party for the little youngsters in their grades at school for next Friday afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Wheeler came home from St. Peter to spend the week-end with her parents. She returned to her school duties Monday morning.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gotthilf Kassuelke of the town of Cottonwood was made happy Tuesday evening by the arrival of a baby daughter.

Arthur Huhn visited the past week with his mother and other relatives. He is now located at Cavour, S. D. where he is engaged in the mercantile business.

Miss Allie Scherer was a guest over Saturday and Sunday at the Dakota House. Miss Scherer made the trip down with Mrs. Silverson and returned with her Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Waibel of Cottonwood drove to Jeffries in their car Sunday. They expect to spend a week visiting with relatives at that place and at Comfrey and Lambertson.

Miss Verona Pagel, one of the teachers in the grades, suffered quite a severe attack of tonsillitis last Thursday and Friday and had to be excused from her duties for a part of the time. She has, however, quite recovered.

Mrs. L. B. Krook entertained the working committee of the Ladies Aid of the Congregational Church last Friday afternoon. A number of the public school teachers were also guests at the same time. A delightful lunch was served.

Miss Lillian Koehler is a guest of friends at Winthrop and Brownton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffmann of St. Paul were guests at the Prof. Ackermann home from Thursday till Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Metzinger were guests Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Blum and Mr. and Mrs. H. Szamet of Mankato. From there they left for the Twin Cities.

Mrs. Mary Meile, Mrs. Adolph Meile, Mrs. M. J. Bieber, Mrs. A. W. Bingham and Mrs. E. Metzinger will be hostesses to the Ladies Guild of the Episcopal Church this afternoon at the church parlors.

Mrs. Fester and two little sons of Owatonna were guests last week of Mrs. Christ Dahl. The ladies are sisters. When Mrs. Fester returned to her home on Friday, Mrs. Dahl also left to spend a few days at her mother's home in Minnesota Lake.

Mrs. M. Reinhart entertained a small party Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Andring and Mrs. Carlson who were visiting here. Cards were played and euchre was the game. Mrs. Riegler won the Star prize, Mrs. Carlson the punch prize and Mrs. A. A. Schlumberger the booby.

Mrs. Otto Heymann returned last week Tuesday from a visit to St. Paul where she went to have treatment for her ankle. She was accompanied by Mrs. Annie Andring on her return. Mrs. Andring, who for many years was a New Ulm resident remained for several days visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Ernst Gieseke.

Members of the Young Ladies Sodality of the Catholic Church enjoyed a very pleasant evening last Tuesday when they entertained at a Hallowe'en party. The usual decorations made the Catholic School Hall festive for the occasion and guests were welcomed by ghosts in the darkened halls who gave a most solemnly representation of departed ones. Of course there was the witch to provide "futures" for the guests, which she brewed out of a great kettle. Games and other similar diversions filled the evening and all enjoyed the merriment exceedingly.

Otto Buenger sends the Review from Ortonville where he is located a copy of the enormous paper gotten out by one of the newspapers of that thriving little city. Otto writes: "The paper you got out was a dandy. Here's another", and we are compelled to agree with him that the one he sends is a splendid exhibit of the enterprise of the newspaperman of that town. And Ortonville really has a good many things to boast of to judge by what the paper shows. There is a public library, which was particularly marked for our attention, and a number of other worth while public institutions as well as private ones. Among the latter is shown the furniture establishment in which Otto is employed.

Last Thursday evening a number of the friends of Arthur Dengler gave a stag party in his honor at the Turner Hall Club Rooms. It was in the nature of a farewell to Mr. Dengler who was leaving the ranks of the carefree bachelors to become a benedict and the gentlemen who prepared the celebration did so with a view to encouraging him on his way. A supper was served in the Dutch Room and the gentlemen spent a long evening over the meal and responding to toasts proposed by Attorney C. J. Eide of Madelia. Among the guests present were twelve of Mr. Dengler's friends from Madelia and the New Ulm guests were Carl Crone, Jr., Harry Bingham, Ed. Stoll, G. L. Schmidt, John Christopherson, W. E. Engelbert, Wm. Pfeifferle, and Alfred Marti.

Joe Wendinger of Fairfax was in town Tuesday and made a pleasant call at the Review office.

Mrs. Jake Laven and son Wilfred visited the latter part of last week at the George Hahselbruck home.

Mrs. Mary Dewanz who has been visiting with relatives and friends for the past three weeks returned to her home at Dotson, Minn., on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Werner and baby of Renville are visiting at the Chas. Melzer home on South Washington Street.

Gertie, the 11 year old daughter of Jos. Smith of Lambertson, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Union Hospital is recovering nicely and it is planned to remove her this week to the home of her mother's aunt, Mrs. M. Frasch, until she is recovered sufficiently to go home.

The Hermans Sisters were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meyer Monday evening. Euchre was played and the star prize was awarded to Mrs. Bachmann, Punch to Mrs. J. F. Neumann and the booby to Mrs. F. A. Schnobrich. A very fine lunch was served and a most enjoyable time spent together.

Mrs. R. Massapust and family gave a very happy afternoon to several of the young people of the Congregational Church Sunday when she invited them to an auto ride to Rosebank farm, a chicken dinner and a boat ride on the river followed by the return trip to town by auto. The weather was wonderful and the trip most delightful.

Sunday weather brought all the cars out of the garages for long trips. Mr. and Mrs. N. Henningsen and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Olsen drove to Rapidan and Mankato, taking dinner there and then on to St. Peter, Norsesland and home by way of Lafayette. The trip covered about a hundred miles and was very enjoyable.

Mrs. Katherine Silverson arrived from Minneapolis last Friday evening for a short visit with friends. She came by auto and the trip from the city was made in about three hours which shows that the roads are in very good condition considering the heavy rains of the past two months. Mrs. Silverson returned home Sunday and was accompanied by Mrs. E. Mullen who spent Monday in the city, returning home in the evening.
