

LOCAL NOTES

Sheriff Julius was a business visitor to St. Paul last week.

John Saeckl was a business caller in Mankato last week.

Henry Ahrens was a business caller in Sleepy Eye last week.

Mrs. Henrietta Dirks returned from a visit to Springfield Friday.

Prof. E. Bliedernicht conducted church services in Morgan Sunday.

Mrs. A. Olding of Redfield, S. D. is visiting at the John Henle home.

Rev. C. G. Hohn delivered an address in Walnut Grove last Wednesday evening.

Miss Helen Hoermann of Courtland visited with New Ulm friends over Sunday.

There will be the usual Thanksgiving Dance at the Opera House this season.

Mrs. Philip Knees has returned home after spending a few days with relatives in St. Paul.

John Goblirsch of Redwood Falls was in town Monday and paid this office a pleasant call.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Davis of Madelia spent several days with friends in New Ulm last week.

Miss Martha Reinhart visited over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. B. Frantz at Sleepy Eye.

Miss Lillian Koehler has returned home after spending several weeks with friends in Winthrop.

August Ott, who has been visiting with relatives in Morgan last week, has returned to this city.

Mrs. G. C. Koebitz of Waseca, spent several days with friends in New Ulm during the past week.

Wm. Martinka of Springfield visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. A. Martinka, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Schnobrich and son, Edmund of Sleepy Eye, visited relatives in New Ulm last week.

Miss Caroline Uhlhorn of St. James is in New Ulm on account of the serious illness of her son Henry.

Rev. Walter Burk of Balaton, Minn. visited with his parents, Prof. and Mrs. G. Burk, for a few days this week.

Mrs. Henry Wentzlaff of Nicollet was operated on for appendicitis in the Union Hospital last Wednesday.

H. H. Frenzel returned from an extended visit to Ghent, Minnesota, Ivanhoe and Hendricks last Wednesday.

Joseph Groebner left for St. Paul Friday where he took in the big football game between Chicago and Minnesota.

Friedrich Seibel visited friends and relatives in Judson the latter part of last week and the beginning of this week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Pfister left New Ulm Wednesday, the former to go to Chicago and later to New York to take up post graduate work and Mrs. Pfister to visit with her parents for a few weeks. The Doctor expects to spend a couple of months in the East.

Several saloon keepers of Springfield found themselves cheated last week Saturday when Geo. Riker passed a lot of forged checks on them. Those who were victimized were Schneider & Johnson, $35; A. Brey, $15; Jos. Tauer, $20 and Sparr Bros., $15. W. M. Davis cashed a check for $10 which was found to be good.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Varsity Fifty Five Suits

SOME "snap" to this style. For young men who want the liveliest fashion, and the greatest economy.

METZINGER'S

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Good Clothes and Florsheim Shoes.

Henry Mueffelmann of Gaylord was in New Ulm Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Massapust and daughter, Jeanette visited with Harkin Massapust in Northfield Saturday.

Mrs. Louise Vogelwohl celebrated her 72nd birthday at the home of Emil F. Buenger last Sunday.

Arthur Meyer of Opheim, Montana, visited the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer of this city.

Mrs. Olga Brandt of Springfield came down Thursday for a short visit with relatives and to attend the Stiftungsfest.

Miss Ida Muesing, who is attending the Mankato Commercial College spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Miss Cole of Mankato has been engaged as special nurse at the Union Hospital and assumed her duties last week.

Miss Hattie Johnson of St. Peter returned home Sunday after a short visit with the family of her brother, F. W. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Siegel left New Ulm Monday for French Lick Springs, Ind., where they will spend from two to three weeks.

Miss Agnes Gieseke left New Ulm Saturday morning for Montevideo, where she is spending a few days with the Fred Espenson family.

Edmund Stephan of Moosejaw, Sask., Canada came to New Ulm Thursday and will spend the winter with his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Stephan.

The New Ulm Steam Laundry has purchased a new up-to-date delivery wagon which improves the appearance of the laundry turn-out greatly.

Mrs. Alfred W. Mueller went to Sleepy Eye Friday to visit with her parents. On her return she was accompanied by her sister, Miss Nora Seigler.

The following people from New Ulm attended the Carlton-Hamlin football game at Northfield Saturday: Mr. John Kierzieck, Hilton Durban, Sherman Beecher and Arthur Miller.

Mrs. Frank X. Friedmann of St. Paul is visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schroek. Mrs. Friedmann will remain for some weeks.

Judge Olsen and Court Reporter W. T. Eckstein are at Marshall this week in attendance at the Lyon County Term of Court which promises to be a lengthy one.

Mrs. W. S. Vercoe who has been quite ill for the past five weeks is beginning to improve and is able to be up and about the house. Her little son and daughter have both been sick also recently.

Mrs. E. Posch of St. Paul, who has been visiting with the Chas. Hauenstein family for a number of days, returned to her home Saturday. Mrs. Hauenstein and daughter, Ilda, accompanied her.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church held a meeting in the church last Wednesday. The ladies busied themselves in making clothing which is to be distributed among the poor of St. Paul.

Mrs. Julius Berndt, Sr. celebrated her 71st birthday last Tuesday. Mrs. Berndt is enjoying the best of health. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davin of Springfield were present on the occasion. Mrs. Davin is Mrs. Berndt's daughter.

P. W. Hutson, Principal of the High School, and Armin Koehler and Walter Wiedenmann, members of the debate team, were in Mankato Saturday, where they looked thru the public library of that city for debating material for the coming debates.

Mrs. Wm. Ebert and son of Bedford, Ind., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falk. They expect to remain here during the holidays. Miss Eleanore Falk, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ebert during the summer returned to New Ulm with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Leber returned from their wedding trip to the Pacific Coast States last Thursday morning. They stopped over in New Ulm with Mrs. Leber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Behnke until Saturday when they left for their home in Minneapolis. They were guests at the Stiftungsfest Thursday evening.

Mrs. Frances Kuester, Grand Past Chief of the Degree of Honor was present at the meeting of the order last Wednesday evening and gave a talk to the members on insurance matters in connection with the Degree of Honor. Following the business session a social entertainment was given in honor of Mrs. Kuester.

Sunday nights show at Turner Theatre, "Henpecked Henry," was not quite up to the high standard of the recent productions given there, for there have been such excellent offerings heretofore this season. There were some parts of the show that appealed and received generous applause and laughter so it could not be called a failure by any means but other shows have been better. A good crowd attended. There will be no play next Sunday evening but the following Sunday the favorites, "The Oberammergau Peasant Player," will be here.

Miss Mary Henkel was a Twin City visitor last week.

Mrs. Louise Peglow went to Minneapolis Sunday to spend a few days.

Emil Metzinger has been attending to business matters in Springfield this week.

Mrs. H. Vogelwohl and Mrs. A. V. Demmann and child of Mankato are visiting with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Richard Kneef of Oshawa underwent an operation for the removal of a fibroid tumor at a local hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. John Shultz and Mrs. J. L. Farrell of Springfield were guests at the home of Supt. and Mrs. R. B. Kennedy last week.

Last Sunday a surprise party was given at the home of Frank Wellner in honor of John Poehler. Lunch was served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Miss Frances Krook entertained Sunday afternoon and Monday afternoon for two different groups of the teachers of the city schools.

Mrs. Gottlieb Schmidt and Miss Bertha Schmidt entertained the work committee of the Congregational Ladies Aid Society Friday afternoon.

The ladies aid society of the Congregational Church will hold their regular meeting at the church parlors next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Minnie Schroeder, deputy Co. Auditor, and Mr. Fred Pfeiffer of Morton have announced their engagement to their friends. The marriage will take place next week Wednesday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffmann of Cottonwood and also one to Mr. and Mrs. John Domeier, Monday. The Domeier child died shortly after birth.

Albert and William Fritsche came home Saturday to make an attack upon their mother's pantry. They were quite successful and went back to the University satisfied with their foray.

The Friedens, Bethel, Congregational and Methodist Churches will unite to have their Thanksgiving services which will be held at the M. E. church Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Geo. F. Mayer attended the dedication of the Nurses Home of St. Luke's Hospital at Faribault Monday. Mrs. Mayer is one of the Directors of the Hospital and she also attended a meeting of the Board.

So many cases of measles developed among the small lads and lassies that Miss Heers found herself without any kindergarten pupils one day last week. All are recovering now, however, and will soon be back at work.

The New Ulm Steam Laundry people find that their dry cleaning business is growing to such an extent that it became necessary for them to install a steam-presser recently. This machine will enable them to handle the work to much better advantage.

New Ulm may have another dental office in the near future for another one of her sons has completed his course and has taken his examination before the State Board. The young man is Alfred Groebner who has been studying dentistry at Marquette for some time past. He is considering locating here.

The Current News Club met with Mrs. H. D. Beussmann yesterday afternoon. Mrs. G. R. Reineke was leader and her article was on "The Nation's Capital." Mrs. Dougher read a paper on "Cooking and Literature" and Mrs. Haebler one on "The Value of Diet Fads." Mrs. Buehrer furnished the musical number.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Zimmermann and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kettner were at Morgan on Tuesday to assist Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zimmermann in celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. This worthy old couple were united in marriage in Germany and came to America in May, 1883, locating at New Ulm. After two or three years they moved onto a farm in Nicollet township where they resided until 1892 when they removed to Morgan, their present home. Mr. Zimmermann is 75 years old and his wife is 69 and both are enjoying good health.

At their meeting last Thursday evening, the Men's Club of the Congregational Church elected officers for the year. Judge Olsen will act as president with C. A. Stolz as vice-president. Thor Snilsberg is Secretary-treasurer. The gentlemen have decided to have something to eat to start off with and they will give an oyster supper for members of the club at the December meeting. Dr. C. W. Miller and Louis B. Krook will attend to the details of arranging the affair.

Arthur Janka who for years was clerk for F. H. Behnke before the latter retired from business, has decided to go into the same line of endeavor and has rented the store formerly occupied by F. P. Zschunke's clothing store. He will open for business about the first of December and no doubt a number of those who remember Mr. Janka's obliging habits as a clerk will find it convenient to give him some of their trade. The grocery business keeps quite a number of people busy in New Ulm, and judging by the way some of them are obliged to hustle to keep up with the heavy trade they enjoy, there is room for Art and he should make a success of it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ahrens are visiting with relatives in Lafayette.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henle attended the marriage of their niece, Miss Meta Gratz at Waseca. The groom was Mr. Hensley.

The second dance of the Club program will be given at the Hall Saturday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Saffert are at home, having returned from their wedding trip last week.

The Wm. Ochs place in the west end of town has been sold to R. A. Weinkauf of Truman who will go into the poultry raising business.

Nicollet and Le Sueur Counties have gone in together this year to hold a corn and colt show which will take place this week Saturday at St. Peter. Prizes will be awarded as usual at these shows.

The Friedens Church services on Sunday mornings from this time on will begin at 10:30 o'clock instead of at 10 as has been the custom during the summer months.

Schools at Winthrop have been closed for a time owing to the prevalence of diphtheria in that city. Several deaths have already occurred and the authorities have forbidden all public gatherings until the disease is under control.

Word was received here Monday noon by Otto Pless that his sister, Mrs. Edward Ditzmann had died that morning while visiting in Minneapolis. Her home is on a farm near Bismark, N. D. About two months ago Mrs. Ditzmann had suffered a paralytic stroke from which she had apparently recovered and her death was therefore very sudden.

Ed. Erickson of Fertile, Polk Co., and another brother E. J. of Canada agreeably surprised Attorney Geo. D. Erickson Tuesday afternoon when they walked into his office unannounced. He had not seen his brother Ed for about twelve years and actually passed him on the street without recognizing him. The brothers left the same afternoon for Lafayette for a visit with the old folks.

SOCIAL DOINGS.

At the party given by Mrs. Ed. Hoffmann last Tuesday evening prizes were awarded to Mrs. E. Wicherski and Mrs. A. O. Olsen, high, and Mrs. J. H. Siegel and Mrs. F. R. Emmings, low.

The lucky players at the party given by Mrs. H. Held last Wednesday afternoon were Mrs. F. D. Minium and Mrs. W. A. Stoll and the consolation prizes went to Mrs. Thor Snilsberg and Miss Minnie Wendt. Mrs. Held was also hostess to a group of the older ladies Thursday evening and Mrs. B. Follmann and Mrs. C. A. Zelle won high favors while Mrs. E. G. Hage and Mrs. A. Meile won low.

Mrs. P. Liesch and Mrs. L. Haas gave a parcel shower last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Mary Schuster who will be married shortly to Joseph Kraus. The bride was the recipient of many pleasing gifts for her new home. Supper was served for the company.

Mrs. M. Mullen and Miss O'Brien were hostesses Monday afternoon at a large "500" party at the Mullen home. There were forty-four guests present. The high prizes were awarded to Mrs. T. Snilsberg and Mrs. J. Arbes and Mrs. Hess and Miss Payne secured the booby prizes. A dainty supper was served following the game.

LOST: On Broadway, First South or South State Street Wednesday, a large silver medallion brooch. Valued as keepsake. Return to Review office for reward. Adv. 47.

MORE MEN THAN WOMEN HAVE APPENDICITIS

Surgeons state men are slightly more subject to appendicitis than women. New Ulm people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach or gas. THE INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is surprising. E. A. Pfeiffer, druggist. Adv. 46.

Don't imagine you can be a success without business training. See what Mankato Commercial College can do for you. Adv. 46.

Just received several cars Fancy New York State Winter Apples. If interested call at Stork Bros. 46tf

FOR SALE CHEAP: Coal Heater. Inquire at Review office. Adv. 45-

BIG TYPE POLAND CHINA

Spring boars of select breeding. Our pigs are as large as you can find them and will be sold at farmers prices. Pedigrees furnished. HAGBERG BROS., Rt. 2, Lafayette, Minn. Adv. 45tf.

WANTED: Two to four rooms furnished or unfurnished; modern for light housekeeping. Apply at Review Office. Adv. 44tf.

WANTED: Waitress at Berndt's Restaurant to work evenings. Apply at once. Adv. 47

FANCY BARRELED APPLES

I offer for sale for Thanksgiving week only some very fine winter apples at very low attractive prices. From $2.25 to $3.00, per barrel at Second Hand Store, 101 So. Minn. Street.

You dress the bird and we'll dress the guests.

Everything here for the Thanksgiving week dress-up occasion.

Sure, the little ones are as important as the big ones today, and here are all the desirable styles. Suits with two pairs of trousers at $5 is one of our specialties.

Norfolk Suits $4-$5-$6

Mackinaws $4 to $10

Overcoats $7 to 15

HUMMEL BROTHER'S

14 N. Minn. St. New Ulm, Minn.

100 new coats, consisting mostly of plushes and corduroys, just received at the Bee Hive. J. A. OCHS.

5% GOLD BONDS

Keep Your Money

working for you all the time. But give it safe and profitable work.

There is no better way to do this than to invest in our Farm Mortgage Bonds.

The interest is 5% and it is paid every six months.

STATE BOND & MORTGAGE CO.
NEW ULM — MINN.

FOR SALE: Combination leather couch and pool table complete. Fine piece of furniture. Phone 588 or inquire at this office. Adv. 44tf

WE BUY AND SELL LOTS AND CITY PROPERTY. H. HENNINGSEN AGENCY. Adv. 29tf

WANTED: All our readers to feel free to call us up at any time between 7 in the morning and 10 at night and give us particulars of news items. Our telephone number is 101.

A large line of Ladies Suits, latest styles, just arrived. Crone Bros.

A BARGAIN if sold at once. 6 room Dwelling, full basement, City Water, cistern and good barn. Centrally located. Reasonable payment down, balance on time. N. HENNINGSEN AGENCY.

A large line of Ladies Suits, latest styles, just arrived. Crone Bros.

BOARD by the day or week. Meal Tickets. Home cooking. Price very reasonable. Mrs. A. Thereau, Tel. 685. One door north of Pfeiffer's Drug Store. Adv. 21

AUCTIONEER

If in need of an auctioneer and looking for the high dollar, list your sales with me. Tel. 283. A. S. DORN

PAINTERS

ADAM J. PETERS: Painter, decorator and Paperhanger. All orders promptly executed by experienced workmen.

P. W. SOUKUP: Plumbing and Heating. Cor. Minn. and Third N. Sts. In business to give satisfaction.

SHOE STORE

EMIL WICHESKI: J. E. Till mens shoes. Over 200 satisfied customers on their No. 3 list. Once bought, al-

AUCTION!

Having completed my contract work for this season and not having sufficient barn-room for all my horses, I will sell the following horses and mares at public Auction to the highest bidder on Saturday, November 27th at one o'clock p. m. in front of Wm. H. Gieseke's Livery barn in New Ulm:

- 1 Bay Mare, 7 years old 1400 lbs.
- 1 Bay Mare, 3 years old 1200 lbs.
- 1 Brown Mare, 4 years old 1100 lbs.
- 1 Brown Horse, 9 years old 1200 lbs.
- 1 Bay Mare, 12 years old 1200 lbs.
- 1 Gray Horse, 9 years old 1500 lbs.
- 1 Gray Mare, 14 years old 1300 lbs.
- 1 Black Mare, 12 years old 1100 lbs.
- 2 Bay Western Mares, 9 years each 1050 lbs.
- 1 Black Mare, 9 years old 1050 lbs.

Also 12 Slush scrapers, about 300 ft. of lumber, odds and ends.

These horses have been working on contract work all summer; they are not fat but in good working condition. Every horse guaranteed as represented.

Terms: Under $10.00 cash, above $10.00 at 7 per cent interest on bankable notes at one year's time.

ANTON BRAND, Owner.
S. A. DORN, Auctioneer.

THANKSGIVING DANCE

— AT THE —

Opera House

THURSDAY, NOV. 25th.

Music by the Opera House Orchestra

Lunch and Light Refreshments Will