LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hirmer of Redwood Falls were visitors in the city several days of the past week.

Mrs. John Ahle of this city was operated upon for gallstones at the Union hospital Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lang are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl who made her appearance last Sunday.

The arrival of a bouncing boy is announced in a telegram from Perry Burnham of Salt Lake City. Mrs. Burnham formerly was Miss Bertha Hummel of this city.

Otto Jager of Lambertson was in the city several days of this week, having accompanied his mother who was operated upon at the Union hospital Tuesday morning for cancer.

Myers Jorgenson, the pop corn man at the corner of Center and Minnesota streets, is passing the cigars since Monday when a little girl made her debut at his home.

Services will be Thursday, Friday and Sunday forenoons at the German Lutheran church as part of the Easter and Lenten observance. Special services will again be held Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Voss of Echo brought their nine year old son, Louis, to the city Saturday for medical treatment. The little fellow was operated upon at the Union hospital last Monday for a bowel trouble. He is getting along nicely and Mr. Voss returned to his home Tuesday afternoon.

Alfred, the fourteen year old son of Jake Macho, tenants of the Crone farm, met with a very painful accident last Saturday, when his rifle was accidentally discharged and the bullet passed through his hand. The boy was playfully handling the weapon, swinging it to and fro while holding it by the barrel. Without any apparent reason the shell was discharged. The bullet passed through the palm of the hand, but did not break a bone nor sever any large artery. Unless blood poison should set in no serious consequences are anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mueller have returned from an extensive trip through the West and South, where they have been for the past four or five months. They first visited various cities of California, taking in the two Pacific coast expositions and then extending their trip to the Hawaiian Islands, where they spent several weeks during the month of January. Upon their trip towards home they came through the southern part of the country and participated in the Mardi Gras festivities in New Orleans during the past month. While they speak highly of the entertainment and hospitality offered them in their travels they are glad to be back home again. They have temporarily taken apartments at the Dakota House.

Few farmers are seen in town these days. They are all busy with seeding and preparing their fields.

The roads are drying up fast and the machines will soon be out in force making trips through the country districts.

Victor Schleuder has accepted a position as manager of a jewelry store at Scotland, S. D.

County Attorney Frederickson of Springfield was in the city Friday and Saturday of last week.

Gertrude Ackermann celebrated her 13th birthday Thursday afternoon at her parents home on College Heights. Her schoolmates were her guests for the afternoon.

Mrs. Adolph Gluth of Morgan who recently underwent an operation for cancer has recovered and left for her home Monday accompanied by her husband.

Joseph Holm, a retired farmer, residing on Payne street, is laid up as the result of a paralytic stroke which he suffered a week ago. Although partly recovered, he seems to have lost control of his vocal cords and is unable to speak.

Edw. Hoffmann of Watertown, S. D., arrived in the city Saturday for a week's visit with his father, John L. Hoffmann. Mr. Hoffmann contemplates removing to some Montana town in the near future to open up a new cigar factory.

Inquiries for space on the second floor of the new Weiser building on the corner of Second North and Minnesota streets have become so numerous that the builder is seriously considering a change in the plans to provide for a third story and installation of an elevator.

Only $180.85 of the personal property tax remains unpaid, there being only thirty delinquents in the entire county. The amounts in most cases are only a few cents, but all of them have been placed in the hands of the sheriff for collection.

Alphonse Hofmeister was operated upon at the Loretto hospital last Saturday for hernia, believed to have been caused by attempting to lift too heavy a weight while at work. He is getting along nicely and will be able to leave the hospital within a few weeks.

Ed. Alwin will go to Winthrop on May 13, to conduct an examination for rural mail carrier out of that town.

College closed for the Easter vacation Friday noon and the students departed for their homes. Classes will again be called to order Wednesday, April 26th, at 8 A. M.

Trout fishing is permitted under the game laws since last Saturday, but all the streams are in such a muddy condition that the speckled beauties may feel secure for some time.

Mrs. Emil Frenzel has returned from St. Paul, where she had been visiting her brother, Leander Seiter, who is recovering from an operation for appendicitis. The latter accompanied her home.

Sleepy Eye business men have subscribed the $20,000 necessary for the installation of the central heating plant. The business men are advancing the money for the installation of the plant and will be paid back out of the profits.

Miss Minnie Wendt returned home Sunday evening after a long visit in Chicago where she was taking treatments from Mrs. Biel, formerly of the Union Hospital. Miss Wendt is feeling fine and enjoyed her stay very much. She also stopped in Madison on her way home to spend a day with Miss Leola Strickler.

The plans for the garage to be erected on Broadway next to the post office will not be carried out, as the property has been bought up by Messrs. H. N. Somsen and N. Henningsen, whose residences are located across the street and who did not like the idea of having a garage in that vicinity. It is said that Mr. Fesenmaier who purchased the property only recently has made nearly $1,000 on the deal.

Mrs. E. C. Hoffmann, mother of Mrs. A. Ackermann returned to New Ulm last Saturday after spending several weeks in St. Paul with a son who was injured in an automobile accident. The young man is recovering but is still at the hospital. Mrs. Hoffmann was accompanied by her Aunt Mrs. E. C. Anding who will spend a week visiting here. Mrs. Anding is 87 years of age and the trip is quite a venture for one of her years.

A quiet marriage took place at the parsonage of the German Lutheran church Tuesday evening of last week when Miss Emma Dahms became the bride of Julius Grams, both well known young people of the city. Rev. C. J. Albrecht performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Martha Dahms and Henry Dahms acted as best man for the groom. Following the ceremony a quiet celebration of the event took place at the home of the groom's parents. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Dahms and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Grams of South Jefferson street. The newly married couple will for the present reside with the bride's parents on Second North Street.
