

5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5%

The Little Wise Man Says:

A large number of people have sums of $100, $500, $1000, or more saved up, and would become investors if they knew the advantages of purchasing thoroughly safe-guarded First Farm Mortgage Bonds.

Call at our office and we will be glad to give you full information regarding the safety and desirability of these investments.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm Minnesota.

5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5%

LOCAL NOTES

F. H. Behnke returned Sunday after an absence of ten days.

Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Reineke returned Monday from their visit to New York.

By the looks of some of the lawns in the city the dandelions did not suffer much from the late spring.

Major Alb. Pfander was the principal speaker at the Memorial Day exercises at Henderson yesterday.

Ex-Governor John Lind was in the city Thursday and Friday, attending court in the case of the State Bank of New Ulm vs. the Minnesota Flint Rock Co.

Paris green is said to be becoming prohibitive in price on account of the European war and the potato bugs will have things very much their own way this summer.

Ben Stockman, formerly connected with the New Ulm Roller Mills, but now manager of a large milling concern in Duluth, was in the city several days of the past week renewing old acquaintances and transacting business.

The law firm of Pfander & Flor has dissolved partnership by mutual consent and Mr. Flor will strike out for himself, having leased rooms in the Ottomeyer building for the present. The senior member of the firm will continue the business at the old stand.

Hose Company No. 1 of the fire department had a fire drill last Friday evening, trying out a new team of fire horses from the Gieseke livery barn by a run down Minnesota street and connection at the plug on Second South street. Water was turned on in about thirty seconds after the truck reached the plug.

J. R. Higgs was a business visitor to the Twin Cities several days of the past week.

Mrs. Nellie French of St. Paul spent the early part of the week with New Ulm relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Mo of Minneapolis arrived in the city Sunday to spend a few days with friends.

Dr. Horace Newhart of Minneapolis was in the city Saturday and performed several operations at the local hospital.

Albert Flor is in the Twin Cities, purchasing office furniture and law books for his new offices in the Ottomeyer block.

Rev. Geo. Mayer was in Minneapolis Friday of last week to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. A. J. Mayer, who passed away Wednesday.

Governor Burnquist has accepted an invitation to address the Renville county pioneers at their annual reunion to be held at Morton June 14 and 15.

A. W. Bergstrom, who recently returned from a trip to the West, left Monday of last week for a trip to Sweden, where he expects to visit with relatives and friends for several months.

Leslie R. Olson of Great Falls, Mont., has accepted a position as chemist with the Eagle Roller Mill Co. and has removed with his wife to this city. Mr. Olson is a son of O. M. Olson.

Hanska's garage man is planning to practically double the capacity of his storage and repair shop. H. H. Ling is the proprietor of the garage and well known to New Ulm autoists who stop at Hanska occasionally.

Supt. Mueller and City Clerk Backer were in the Twin Cities several days last week, consulting with the firm engineers, Pillsbury & Co. in regard to the installation of the municipal heating plant in this city.

Miss Nora Johannis of Nicolet has taken a position as nurse at the Loretto hospital.

Today is the last day to pay the real estate taxes without being compelled to pay the additional penalty.

Mrs. Mollie Marden, who has been visiting at the N. Hennings home, returned to Minneapolis Thursday.

Hofmeisters Family Orchestra gave a dance at the Opera House Saturday evening and enjoyed a large attendance.

Word was received in the city Saturday of the arrival of a boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Friedmann of St. Paul.

Mrs. John Hays and son of Ottawa were in the city several days of the past week visiting at the home of Herman Marks.

The "Palm Beach" boys and girls enjoyed themselves at a picnic held near the Alwin bridge on the Cottonwood Sunday afternoon.

Edgar Chute of Hanska was brought to the city Tuesday of last week and was operated upon for appendicitis at the Union hospital Wednesday.

Capt. Edw. Juni received notice Saturday of this appointment as battalion adjutant, a position made vacant by the promotion of Capt. Bill to regimental adjutant.

Dr. H. F. Herron of Comfrey, who recently sold his practice to Dr. A. W. Eckstein, will remove to Alta, Iowa, where he has acquired an interest in a private hospital.

Lamberton will have a "Home Prosperity" celebration June 12-17 and the Lamberton boosters are visiting the towns along the Northwestern inviting the people to help them celebrate.

Dr. McHale, who only recently opened up dental parlors at Hanska, had to take a vacation on account of sickness and spent several days of the past week at the home of his parents in this city.

Jul M. Riley, a former resident of Belle Plaine, has invented a lady's bathing cap, for which she has been offered $20,000, besides royalties that will bring in several thousand a year more.

There will be no banking business at Mankato Saturday afternoons beginning June 1, the banks having agreed to close during the summer months and if the change meets with favor will continue the practice throughout the year.

Terry's Uncle Tom's Cabin show last week drew a good crowd who were well pleased with the production. The music, both by the band and orchestra was very much appreciated. The company travels in a special train of private cars and went from here to Springfield.

The quarterly conference of the German Evangelical congregation was held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Bethel church. Services were held on the afternoons and evenings of the three days. The meetings were conducted by Presiding Elder H. Plantikow of Mankato.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Runck were agreeably surprised by their relatives Tuesday evening of last week, the occasion being the 55th anniversary of their wedding day. The out of town guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Runck, Mr. and Mrs. James Gould and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Runck of Sleepy Eye.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Wabasso will be held in the near future to plan for a campaign having the removal of the county seat from Redwood Falls to Wabasso as its object. It is said that several towns besides the two mentioned will contribute towards a fund to defray the expenses of conducting the campaign.

Members of the New Ulm Business Men's Gun Club will have their first weekly shoot of the season Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the fair grounds. Several professional shots from the Twin Cities will be present to give an exhibition of their skill in dropping the pigeons. The contests are expected to take place regularly from now on.

It is expected that orders will be received by the commander of the machine gun company stationed in this city to go into camp at Sparta from July 5 to 19. Adjutant General Wood received word from Washington recently to the effect that the war department had granted permission to send the three Minnesota machine gun companies to the camp of the regulars. None of the regulars will participate in the maneuvers as they are all busy either on the border or in Mexico. Army officers, however, will be present to give instructions to the militiamen.

Another trial of the so-called fishermen's case has been ordered upon request of the county attorney and the hearing has been set for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock before Judge Henningsen. The case has been tried on the street corners for the past three weeks and it will be rather hard to secure a jury composed of men who are unbiased. While there is no criticism of the county attorney in asking for a retrial of the case, it is the general opinion that the case might just as well be dropped, because the state was unable to secure a conviction after having its own way in the manner of selecting a jury and the admission of testimony regarded as irrelevant.

Hon. D. W. Lawler delivered the Memorial Day address at Chaska yesterday.

Members of the Mothers' Club were entertained at the Dr. O. J. Seifert home Tuesday evening of last week.

Waconia has rid itself of an old and antiquated gas plant and installed a modern electric lighting plant.

Mrs. F. W. Sellner, who has been visiting at the And. Losleben home in Home Township, returned home Wednesday of last week.

Seven bootleggers were arraigned in the municipal court at Pipestone last week and bound over to the district court in bonds of $500 each.

Both Farimont and Mankato are bidding for the annual convention of the Southern Minnesota Teachers' Association to be held in the course of the summer.

Only males over 21 may ride on the freight trains of the Chicago Great Western. Women and minors are barred and only adults with special permits may ride in the caboose.

Trains going west on the Northwestern were late nearly every day last week owing to the derailment of a freight train near Waseca which tore up the track considerably.

Henry Sinkel, a former photographer of the city, has decided to open a studio in Fairfax this week. He recently disposed of his gallery in this city to the other photographers.

Prof. B. Gruenfelder has been appointed director of the Butterfield band for the season. He already has the directorship of four other bands, St. James, La Salle, Lafayette and Winthrop.

According to reports there will be no Sunday train service over the M. & St. L. to New Ulm this summer. Announcement is made by the company that the Sunday train will run from Minneapolis to Morton this year, beginning June 11.

Mrs. A. Hirschfeld of Minneapolis, Mrs. R. D. West of St. Paul, and Mrs. W. G. Sturdivant of Brownton are guests of Miss Harriet Payne this week. They were all class mates at school years ago and came here to celebrate the anniversary of their commencement which took place twenty years ago. There were but four members in the graduating class at that time and this is the first reunion in fifteen years.

F. W. Johnson announces that he has appointed the following members of the Commercial Club as a committee to perfect the organization of an ad club in this city: P. Liesch, Emil Metzinger and A. L. Boock. The committee will make an effort to organize the club along the lines outlined by three members of the Minneapolis Advertising Forum, who visited the city recently and spoke at a meeting of the Commercial Club.

Lorenz Merkle, the painter, had a narrow escape from a broken neck one day last week, while at work on one of the Tastel houses on North Broadway. He was painting the roof of the porch about fifteen feet from the ground when his foot slipped and he was forced to jump off backwards. His athletic training when a youngster came in handy, as he turned a complete summersault and landed on his feet. A good shaking was the only damage, but Lorenz does not care to do the thing over for exhibition purposes.

Farmers of the western end of the county are interested in the picnic of the Stately Farmers' club which is to be held June 7. James A. Peterson, a Minneapolis attorney interested in the farmers' club movement, will be the principal speaker of the day and Rev. C. W. Samuelson of Comfrey will be the other speaker. The picnics in past years have been the big events of the season, several thousand people from both Brown and Redwood counties attending as the membership of the Stately club is made up of farmers of both counties.

During the meeting of the guard officers at St. Paul Wednesday of last week a new board for the control of the New Ulm Armory was elected as follows: Major Alb. Pfander, president; Lieut. W. H. Bierbaum, vice president; Lieut. Ad. Klaus, secretary; Capt. B. Groebner, treas.; John Dengler, stage and floor manager. The new management proposes to make several changes at the Armory, one of them being the fixing up of the dining room as a rest room for visitors to the city. This matter probably will be brought to the attention of the Commercial Club in the near future.

At a meeting of the board of directors of Dr. Martin Lutler College held in this city last Wednesday it was decided to grant the request of Prof. J. E. Sperling to be placed upon the pension list, he having served for more than fifty years as an instructor in the parochial schools of the Lutheran church. Prof. Sperling has been one of the instructors in the local college for fifteen years, having come here from Appleton, Wis., where he had engaged in like work before that time. His successor at the college probably will not be chosen until late in the summer as Prof. Sperling will serve until the end of the present school year. Attending the meeting of the board were: Rev. J. H. Naumann, St. Paul; Rev. E. A. Pankow, St. James; E. W. Zutz, Norfolk, Neb.; R. Albrecht, Milwaukee; Prof. A. Ackermann, Prof. H. Klatt and F. H. Retzlaff of New Ulm.

Fred Kuck of Redwood Falls visited with his sister, Mrs. Henry Ahrens over Sunday.

Miss Helga Bolstad of Minneapolis is spending some time with friends in New Ulm.

Miss Allie Scherer came down Saturday from Minneapolis to spend Decoration Day in New Ulm.

Sheriff W. J. Julius was in the Twin Cities Saturday attending to business connected with his office.

Miss Elvera Brandt is spending her summer vacation with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Brandt.

Gp. J. Inhofer, grain dealer of Winthrop is in the city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Flor.

Rev. C. Hohn of this city was the orator of the day yesterday at Sleepy Eye's observance of Memorial Day.

Mrs. M. Brandt of Minneapolis is visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Brandt.

Arthur Meyer of Opheim, Mont., is at present visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Meyer. He is employed at a bank in Opheim.

R. S. Peterson of the Westbrook Sentinel was a New Ulm visitor one day last week between trains and paid the Review office the compliment of a call.

Three companies of the Second Regiment, Fairmont, Northfield and Worthington have been placed on probation and will be mustered out unless they speedily reorganize.

Robert Vieregger, commercial teacher in the local high school, was suddenly called away to his home in Nebraska on account of the death of his sister, who died last Monday. He returned the latter part of the week.

Miss Carrie Backer closed her school last week and has returned home for the summer. She expects to make a trip to the Pacific Coast states with her parents and they will leave in about ten days and probably will remain the greater part of the summer.

County Auditor Vogel celebrated his 47th birthday last Wednesday, but was so deep in work that the band boys who wanted to serenade him failed to dig him out. Mr. Vogel is always reminded of his birthday by the band because it also is that organization's anniversary, it having been organized eighteen years ago.

The police were notified Saturday by one of the local liverymen that parties who had hired a rig the day before had not returned and it was feared that it was a case of horse stealing. The parties who hired the rig turned up later in the day, however. They had been delayed by the bad roads in the Swan Lake district.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spoerhase of Winthrop celebrated their china wedding last Saturday. Mrs. W. G. Alwin, Mrs. A. Rinke, Mrs. Otto Seiter and Miss Melita Spoerhase went over for the festivities and returned Monday. Others had planned to attend but the heavy rains made roads too uncertain for autoing.

Burton French of Minneapolis will be associated with Capt. Albert Steinhauer in the practice of law after June 1st. The young man, a son of Mrs. Nellie B. French and a grandson of Anton Brey, was admitted to the bar about a year ago. For the past four years he has been employed in the claim department of the Twin City Rapid Transit Company.

Marriage licenses have been granted to Frank Ziegenhagen of New Ulm and Agnes Petrick of Evan township, and Frank E. Wales of Minneapolis and Anna M. Hansen of Prairieville township. The latter couple were married by Judge Ross and immediately left for Minneapolis where they will make their home. The ceremony took place at the office of Judge Ross Saturday afternoon.

A number of friends of John L. Hoffmann arranged a surprise party in his honor Saturday evening, the occasion being his 61st birthday anniversary. Those attending the celebration were members of the fire company of which organization he has been a member for a good many years. Despite his advanced age Mr. Hoffmann is still hale and hearty and goes to work every day like a youngster.

The Turner Ladies celebrated their regular birthday gathering last Thursday at the Hall. The hostesses were Mrs. Neumann, Mrs. Spoerhase and Mrs. Witte of Nicolet. A very fine lunch was served and the program consisted of a piano duet by Bertha Kral and Gladys Grussendorf, a reading by Mrs. Bellm, a song by the trio and music by Miss Alta Sprenger. The congratulations were offered by Mrs. Frank Burg.

George W. Kraus last Saturday closed a deal whereby he becomes the owner of the jitney bus line operated since last fall by Henry Schwartz. Mr. Kraus has established an office at the Grand Hotel and will do a general auto livery business outside of the regular calls at the two depots for all trains day and night. The jitney bus line seems to have been a paying proposition in New Ulm and more cars will no doubt be added when the increased business during the summer months demands such a move.

Before you take your car home today stop at this store and see the special auto coats, caps, gloves, etc. we have for you this spring.

And for the chauffeur here are practical, neat, becoming Norfolk suits and raincoats.

Auto Coats $5 to $15.

Gloves $1 to $3.

Caps 50c to $2.

Hummel Bros.
14 N. Minn. St. New Ulm, Minn.

Get your gasoline now at 19.7 cents per gallon. Standard Oil Co. Adv 19-20

EMIL WICHERSKI: J. E. Tilt mens shoes. Over 200 satisfied customer on their No. 3 last. Once bought, always used, no others will suffice.

St. Paul, Minneapolis Excursion $2.00 Round trip, via M. & St. L. Saturday, June 3rd. Leave New Ulm 1:08 P. M. returning tickets good until Tuesday noon June 6. Inquire Agent M. & St. L. Adv. 21-22

BOARD by the day or week. Meal Tickets. Home cooking. Price very reasonable. Mrs. A. Thereau, Tel. 685. One door north of Pfefferle's Drug Store. Adv 21

WE BUY AND SELL LOTS AND CITY PROPERTY. N. HENNINGSEN AGENCY. Adv. 29tf

FOR SALE. FOR SALE:—Number 905 North Minnesota Street, seven rooms and large summer kitchen, good water, four cement cellars, electric light, will be sold cheap. Warranty Deed. Abstract of Title. Enquire at this office. Adv. 16-42

FOR RENT—eight-room dwelling house with all modern conveniences. Central location. Inquire of either Henry N. Somsen or N. Henningsen.

FOR RENT—Business room and adjoining 4 room dwelling (if wanted). Now occupied by Tailor Greig. Modern conveniences. Next door to Postoffice. One of the best locations in the city. N. Henningsen.

ADAM J. PETERS: Painter, decorator and Paperhanger. All orders promptly executed by experienced workmen

Mind your own business. If you don't have one, take a course in Mankato Commercial College and you soon will have. Send for their catalog. Adv. 17-22

If you have "Eye Trouble" see H. O. Schleuder, Optometrist and Eye Strain Specialist. Beussmann Block. Adv 12

How much do you save

by going without ice? Just keep account of the food that spoils for lack of it in one week and we will guarantee that next day you will call 252-Call 2 and order us to supply the ice you should have.

Yes, we have refrigerators also at prices you can afford.

New Ulm Ice Co.

William Pfander Agency
GENERAL INSURANCE

Insurance against fire, hail, tornado, automobile, accident and death in the best of companies.

Real estate bought and sold. Legal documents executed, loans negotiated, steamship tickets sold.

A Wonderful New Drug Store Public Service

100 Reliable Toilet Preparations and Remedials

for almost every need eliminates all doubt—all experimentation—all risk of danger—for you. You can select SAN*TOX preparations with absolute assurance that they are of the purest, safest ingredients, compounded on reliable, scientific formulas.

Your SAN*TOX Druggist, (who was selected for his reliability), will personally guarantee absolute satisfaction.

SanTox

Make This Money-Back Test:

Try any SAN*TOX preparation today, at our risk. If you are not delighted—surprised—fully satisfied, your SAN*TOX druggist is authorized to refund your money at once. This is proof of the supremacy of SAN*TOX preparations. No matter what you need in Toilet Preparations or Remedials, ask your SAN*TOX druggist for it.

EUGENE EDISON PFEFFERLE PHONOGRAPHS