Fairmont is one of the most progressive little cities in Southern Minnesota, according to F. W. Johnson, who visited the town on Memorial day. No less than 55 blocks of pavement have been contracted for to be laid this summer, although the business section of the city already is paved. One of the nearby lakes is made attractive as a summer resort and an immense new hotel is in the course of construction. The spirit of a wide-awake, progressive city is evident on every hand, Mr. Johnson says.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stephan, living in Lafayette, Nicollet County, were agreeably surprised Sunday afternoon by about one hundred members of the Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran Church and their husbands. This was in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Stephan were married at Rochester, Minnesota, June 10th, 1891. Mrs. Stephan's maiden name was Ida Behnecke. For the past six years the Stephan family have lived on a farm immediately adjacent to New Ulm and have during their short residence here made a host of friends. All enjoyed their visit to the Stephan home and the jubilarians were the recipients of many appropriate and valuable presents. Mr. and Mrs. Behnecke of Clark, S. D., brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Stephan; Edwin Stephan, a son who resides in the northern part of the state, and Miss Mary Soelster, his fiancée, were some of the out-of-town guests. At the anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Stephan the approaching wedding of the son, Edwin Stephan, and Miss Mary Soelster, who are to be married at Mankato, June 20th, was announced.

That there are vicious dogs running at large in the city, C. A. Stolz can testify for he carries the marks of the teeth of such a cur on the calf of his leg. The dog was one of the non-barking variety and the first Mr. Stolz knew of the attack was when he felt the grip of the dog's jaws as he was leaving a house down on North Spring street. Parties who have occasion to go into that section of the town should keep an eye out because the owners of the dog admitted that the dog had turned the trick several times. Such an animal should be speedily disposed of.

New Ulm people may be given opportunity to hear the famous men's choir, the Mozart Club of St. Paul this fall, if the proper local arrangements can be made. Wm. Baumgaertner of St. Paul was in the city Saturday of last week and called upon local people who are interested in good singing and especially those who were members of the local choir some years ago. An effort will be made to arouse interest along these lines locally so that another men's choir may be formed here during next fall. The Mozart Club expects to visit several of the German cities of the southern part of the state next fall, including New Ulm, Fairmont and Mankato.

The Lutheran Concordia Club members and their wives will picnic next Sunday at the Falk farm in Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dingler left Monday for their new home at Miles City, Mont., where Mr. Dingler will have a position with a construction company. Their household goods were shipped to their new home some time ago, so they can go to housekeeping shortly after their arrival.

Miss Henrietta Hauenstein returned home this week after having completed her four year course in music at the University of Chicago. Miss Hauenstein's piano work is always exquisitely done and all who have heard her know that she is most gifted and a thorough student as well. She is planning to remain at home for a time and probably will organize a class.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pfeifferle and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kosek and son Albert enjoyed a hundred mile trip in the former's automobile Sunday. Leaving New Ulm at 11 o'clock for Lake Crystal, they drove from there to Rapidan and Mankato, where the dinner baskets were opened for an out door lunch at Sibley park. Having taken in the "Zoo" and places of interest the party went on to St. Peter where the gentlemen attended the K. of C. initiation. On their return they came by way of Nicollet and Judson.
