The Little Wise Man Says:

Investment and Speculation are different as night and day. Investment means safety, contentment, and regular interest returns. Speculation while it may promise fortunes, usually means no income -- loss -- and at best a feeling of insecurity.

Miss Elfrieda Tqerber has been appointed Deputy Register of Deeds to look after the affairs of the office while Register of Deeds Christianson and P. J. Moe are away on military duty.
The Zoelings-Verein is making arrangements for a big reunion of all Zoelinge to be held on the 11th of August. The celebration will take the form of a banquet to be followed by a dance.
Mrs. Pauline Spoerhase and her daughter, Mrs. Pauline Fritsche and two children left Monday for Canon City, Colorado, where they will spend a month visiting with Henry Spoerhase and family.
Friends of Mrs. L. G. Bell arranged a pleasant surprise party for her Monday in honor of her birthday. A picnic at Hermann's Heights provided the afternoon's pleasure followed by a small gathering of her close friends at the Bell home in the evening.
Carl Hein returned home from Cleveland, Ohio, last Wednesday, just in time to get into line with the military men for drill preparatory to leaving for Fort Snelling. He was in the ranks Monday when the boys entrained.
Ben Waible of Wolverton, Minn., who has been visiting with friends and relatives for several weeks returned home today. He admires this country very much, but says, however, that compared with the northern part of the State we are backward in the matter of road building.
George Brandt left for Faribault last week where he intends to look up a job with one of the big plumbing jobbers of that city. For the past year or two he has been employed by P. W. Soukup. Mrs. Brandt will remain until the end of the month when she also will go to Faribault.
George Marti virtually walked on air when he went home Monday night, all due to his winning the first prize at the weekly skat tournament at Turner Hall. He took first place with 13 net games; Anton S. Dorn captured the second prize with 486 net points and George Liesch won third prize with a heart solo against 4 matadores.
F. C. Lewis of Worthington spent a couple of days in New Ulm last week and tried his hand at newspaper work. Mr. Lewis edited the Review all last summer and every once in a while he likes to get a smell of printers' ink and he comes back to New Ulm for that purpose. He is building a house this summer at Worthington where he is principal of the High School.
About fifty friends of Miss Leona Vogelpohl greatly surprised her Saturday when they made their appearance at the Vogelpohl home in the western part of the city and informed her that they had come to help her celebrate her birthday. The evening was spent in amusements of all kinds and a light lunch was served. All present enjoyed a pleasant evening until the early morning hours.
Fred Stadlbauer who recently graduated from the Academic Department of the University at Madison, Wis. has accepted a position with the J. C. Case Threshing Machine Co. of Racine, Wis. He will be employed in the office during the summer months and receive the necessary training to represent the Company abroad. The plans now are to send him to Buenos Ayres, Argentine in September. Mr. Stadlbauer is well-known here and was in the employ of the Eagle Roller Mill Co. for some time. He is a grandson of Julius Baarsch of this city.

Miss Nora Ziegler of Sleepy Eye is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Alfred W. Mueller.
George Kuck, Sr. and George Kuck, Jr. and wife of Delhi, Minn. visited with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ahrens over Sunday.

Miss Viola Mueller of Faribault is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hellmann this week.
Judge I. M. Olsén and Court Reporter W. T. Eckstein are at Marshall this week, trying several cases that were left over from the regular term.
F. W. Johnson returned today from a trip to Madison, Wis. Mrs. Johnson has been visiting at Madison and has been ill while there.
Oscar and Albert Brunner of St. James visited with their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schlumpberger over Sunday.
Dr. Kurt Bell returned home from Indianapolis where he recently completed his course in dentistry. He has not fully decided whether he will locate in New Ulm or go elsewhere.
Mrs. A. W. Bingham went to the Twin Cities last week for a short stay. Mr. Bingham expects to drive down one day this week and they will return together.
Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Edwards and little son and a Mrs. Harden of Marshall were Sunday guests of their New Ulm friends. Mr. H. T. Petterson also accompanied them on the trip.
The Ladies Guild of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will hold their regular social meeting at the Guild Hall this week. A program has been prepared as usual and supper will be served. These social gatherings are strictly for the guild members and their invited guests.
L. B. and F. H. Krook went down to the city last Thursday to attend a meeting of bank officers. L. B. returned the next evening but his brother remained until Saturday, visiting with Mrs. Krook and Amy who are spending some time with relatives in Minneapolis.
City Clerk Backer is going to have all the assistance he needs soon and the Council need not worry about the extra help recommended by the auditing company since the young son who arrived at the Backer home two weeks ago is growing like a weed and will soon be on the job.
Mrs. J. H. Siegel entertained a schoolmate of hers, Mrs. W. E. Dodds of Bristol, Pennsylvania, for several days the past week. Mrs. Dodds was on her way to the Pacific Coast and made it a point to have New Ulm on her route so that she might renew acquaintance with her schoolyard friend.
Mrs. Thor Snilsberg enjoyed a visit from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Sommerstad of New Richland over Sunday. Her brothers, Carl and Emil Sommerstad and wife of Waseca and her sister, Mrs. Alfred Jaehning and husband of Wood Lake were also here from Saturday to Monday.
Mrs. J. H. Siegel is looking forward to a visit from her brother, Chas. F. Lamb, and wife of Madison, Wis., shortly. Mr. Lamb is Grand Commander of the Knight Templars of Wisconsin and he and Mrs. Lamb have been attending the convention of Knight Templars in Los Angeles and will come to New Ulm on their return trip. They will be in New Ulm over the Fourth.
Mrs. John Hermes and two children of San Bernardino, California, have returned to their home after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Schlumpberger. Mr. Hermes was also here for a short visit. They also visited with relatives in West Newton and with a brother near Little Falls, Minnesota.
Mrs. W. T. Eckstein entertained a number of friends at her home last Thursday afternoon at a needlework party. The house was decorated for the event with peonies from Mrs. Eckstein's own collection which is very fine. The table favors were clove pinks. Mrs. Elmer Haerberle and Miss Cecilia Eibner played a short musical program during the afternoon. Mrs. Haerberle's selections were "Valse Arabesque" and "The Rosary" and Miss Eibner played "Dance of the Demons" and "Whims."
