Do You miss the concerts, theatres and amusements of the winter season?

The New Edison supplies what you miss. Play it on your front porch, or in your house with wide open windows. The neighbors won't object. The New Edison is not a talking machine. It is a wonderful new invention, which recreates all forms of music in a way that baffles detection from the original.

Please Call for further information about this new invention—

The picnic will be strictly private and restricted to members of both societies only.

Miss Allie Muhs and Clarence Grussendorf were married at the local Methodist parsonage Friday, August 4th, Rev. Hohn officiating. The young people failed to take their friends or relatives into their confidence until at the last moment when they needed another witness to the ceremony and Mr. Grussendorf's father was called in. Miss Muhs had been employed at the F. W. Eibner restaurant and when she neglected to return to her duties Friday morning inquiry at her home discovered the fact that she had taken a sudden leave. A postal card during the week informed friends that the couple were at Grand Rapids, Minn. It is expected they will make their home here. Mr. Grussendorf is a painter by trade.

Last Saturday evening about 6 o'clock when Henry Herrian was on his way from home to the Post office and had reached Broadway and Center Street he noticed a boy lying near the flag staff who seemed unable to move. The thought came to Mr. Herrian that the boy might have attempted to climb the pole and fallen and he rushed to the youngster's assistance as fast as possible. Instead of a boy with broken bones, he found one of Tony Wiesner's boys with his hands and feet so securely tied together that he could hardly move. What is more he found a bigger boy in the act of tying up another small fellow in a similar fashion. When Herrian had made a complete survey of the situation, he was mad clear thru and ordered the Gasink boy who was handling the lasso to release the kids. Gasink didn't respond promptly and a tussle followed. Herrian sent in a call to the police and before they arrived a few minutes later the young Wild Bill had released his prisoners and made good his escape. "The movies, the movies!" says Henry.
