

5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5%

The Little Wise Man Says:—

Two heads are better than one.

When you invest your money with the State Bond & Mortgage Company you get the benefit of the combined experience of its Board of Directors.

They are all successful business men who have made good.

5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5%

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm Minnesota.

5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5%

LOCAL NOTES

Miss Bertha Keim of St. James visited with friends in this city the end of last and beginning of this week.

Esther Dietz returned to her home in Sanborn after spending a few days with her friend, Miss Irene Stamm.

The finishing touches to the Farmers & Merchants Bank have been in progress the past week, a cornice being added.

Ewald Kuester intends to leave tomorrow (Thursday) for Helensville, Wis., where he will again teach school for the coming year.

Herbert Kogge returned Saturday from Redwood Falls, where he has been spending the summer vacation, so as to be present at the opening of school.

Alex. Russell of West Newton and daughter, Bessie, spent Sunday with relatives at Redwood Falls. Mr. Russell returned Monday and Bessie stayed until Sunday.

Harold Vogtel returned Sunday from Max, N. D. where he spent several days visiting with relatives. With him came Max Freitag, who will again attend the local high school.

John Stelljes and wife of Minneapolis attended the wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stelljes Friday. They returned to their home the forepart of this week.

Mrs. Peter Gareis and daughter, Esther, returned to their home in Winthrop after attending the silver wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stelljes.

Mrs. Forest English left Monday for a visit with Winona relatives.

R. D. Howe, Assistant Superintendent of the M. & St. L. R. R. transacted business in New Ulm Saturday.

Elmer Held and Armin Koehler returned last Wednesday from the Cities where they spent several weeks.

Adolph and Edwin Ackermann returned Saturday from St. Paul where they spent several weeks visiting with relatives.

Louis Buschard of West Newton has purchased the Lillie farm of 216 acres in Lafayette Twp. He will take possession the first of next March.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Vecek and little son Charles returned Sunday from a few days' visit with Mrs. Vecek's parents at Mapleton where they went after the funeral of their little daughter.

Walter Backer left for Minneapolis Monday where he will again resume his work. He has been spending the past few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Backer.

Mrs. G. A. Spelbrink of Ivanhoe, who has been spending the past few days visiting with relatives in this city, returned home. She was accompanied by Miss Mabel Simmet who will spend several days visiting in Ivanhoe.

Dr. Roland Mayer drove down from Cresbard, S. D. Monday to bring his sister Alma home. Roland is the possessor of a fine car and he says that the roads from Tracy are certainly great. They made the distance from Tracy to New Ulm in about two hours easy driving. He returned to Cresbard yesterday.

Miss Olga Sandau visited with friends at Olivia last week.

Sister Antonella returned to Elizabeth, N. J. Sunday after visiting with her mother in this city.

Mrs. Mary Pfeiffer and son, Waldemar, returned home last week from a visit with relatives in Duluth. They were gone about three months.

Julius Weisenborn and family of Winthrop visited the past week with the Joseph Weisenborn family near College Heights.

Rev. Geo. Mayer and wife and daughter, Dorothy returned home Friday from Henderson where Mr. Mayer attended a convention.

Carl Hein leaves today for Cleveland where he will again take up his work as turning teacher of the Sozialer Turnverein.

Harkin Massapust, Allan Russell and Earl Rieke and the Misses Beatrice and Pearl Rieke and Janet Massapust enjoyed a trip to Fairmont Sunday.

Miss Vivian Lienhart returned to her home in Minneapolis Friday after spending several weeks in New Ulm visiting with the F. H. Krook family.

Mrs. Lena Fleischmann and children of Springfield who have been visiting the Franz Bochum family and other relatives returned home yesterday.

Arthur Dannheim, buttermaker at Nicollet and family visited over Sunday with the Herman Marx family. Monday Martin Frey of Nicollet also visited with Herman Marx.

Mrs. F. H. Krook is spending the week at Blue Earth which is celebrating a Home Coming. Mrs. Krook's parents lived at Blue Earth before coming to New Ulm.

Miss Mollie Collins won a set of six silver teaspoons as a prize offered by the manufacturers for the best letters written acknowledging a gift of the ware advertised.

Thursday evening a number of friends of Miss Winnie Hoehne surprised her at her home on Garden street. The evening was spent in games and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Adele Schell has recently returned from Milwaukee where she had been for a visit. Mrs. Schell expects to remain in New Ulm with her parents until the colder weather sets in.

Miss Georgia Paddock and Miss Mildred Schroeder, former members of the New Ulm High School faculty, are visiting with Mrs. Wm. Meile who also taught here when they did.

Walter Rice who has been in the livery business at St. Peter for the past 25 years has decided to retire and last Wednesday disposed of the livery barn and will next Saturday sell at public auction his entire livery stock.

Miss Laura Sattler returned to her home in Ivanhoe Friday afternoon after a lengthy visit with the Peter Kitzberger family and other relatives. Her mother arrived here during the middle part of last week and will remain for several days.

Nothing but an auto truck will do now for the New Ulm grocers and one of the finest now making the daily rounds of the homes is that of Wm. A. Pfeifferle. His is a fine Overland and is very large and is built on the lines of the delivery autos of the big cities.

Miss Lenora Stephan who will teach in the local parochial school this year was the guest of honor at an informal gathering at the Lutheran school house last Thursday evening. Miss Stephan taught at Watertown, South Dakota last year.

Rev. and Mrs. Fritz of Wellington celebrated the 20th anniversary of their marriage Saturday, and Sunday thirty-five of the friends and relatives of the worthy couple drove over from New Ulm and spent the day with them.

Mrs. John Meyer and daughter Dorothy of Minneapolis have been spending a few days with Mrs. Meyer's father, Mr. John Rauschke. She had been at St. Peter to attend the Meyer funeral there last week and came on to New Ulm for a visit with relatives.

Miss Elsie Kaiser entertained a few of her young friends at a birthday party last Wednesday. A delicious supper was served and the hostess arranged a "movie" party in the evening. The guests were the Misses Louise Fritsche, Julia Meyer, Annie Mueller, Ina Bentdahl, Katharine Weiser, Grace Rinke and Marian Wyckoff.

Major Albert Pfander has been invited to be one of the guests at the official notification of the re-nomination of President Wilson which will take place at the President's summer home in New Jersey next Saturday afternoon. Major Pfander, however, is too busy guarding the border to accept the invitation.

An auto party of five cars from Milford drove to Courtland Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schroeder. Those who went were Mrs. Andrew Wagner and children, Mrs. Ernst Roloff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schroeder of Essig, Mr. and Mrs. John Inhofer and Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Schroeder of Sleepy Eye. On their way home in the evening they took in the band concert at New Ulm.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Clarence Heinen on N. State street during the week.

Mrs. Ernst Roloff and son Elmer spent two days last week visiting with the Aug. Schroeder family in Essig.

Mrs. F. A. Schrupp and children of Brownton have been visiting the past week with friends in this city.

An operation for appendicitis was performed on Albin Strom, the 13 year old son of T. C. Strom of Hanska.

Mrs. Ed. Johannes of Nicollet and Miss Florence Langenfeld of Hastings visited Miss Clara Epper Friday.

Mrs. John Bellm left last week for Hingham, Montana, where she expects to spend several months with relatives.

Walter and Theo. Hofmeister have been visiting with the Roy Backer family in Milford the past week.

Prof. Ackermann returned home Friday from Toledo where he had been a delegate to a Synodal conference.

E. C. Steinhauser of Lamberton visited from Saturday to Monday with his brothers and sisters.

Mrs. Hermann Schiemann and little daughter went to Hopkins Friday to spend a few days at the Tony Schiller home.

Mrs. W. G. Alwin and children returned last week from a month's visit with relatives at Mound and at Arlington.

A. J. Majors, representative of the Eagle Roller Mill Company in Southern Iowa spent a part of last week visiting the Company here.

G. A. Altenbern has returned from a two weeks vacation spent among old friends at Freeport, Ill. His mother who accompanied him on the trip remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Minium returned home from their vacation trip last week, rather earlier than they had expected on account of the funeral of the little Vecek child.

Mrs. Lewis Merrill and baby left Friday for their home at Minneapolis after a month's visit with the parents of Mrs. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engel.

Miss Rosebud Engel left Monday for Winona where she will attend the Normal School this year. She will make her home with her sister Mrs. Moritz Anding while at Winona.

The frame work on Jos. Bianchi's new home on South German Street was begun by Otto Tappe and his crew recently. They plan to get the place far enough along so that it may be completed during the cold weather.

Joe. M. Vogel visited with his mother, Mrs. Louisa Vogel and brother Ed. for a few days the past week. Mr. Vogel is a traveling agent for an electrical supply house in Chicago. He left for the cities Monday.

C. S. Ellis and daughter and Miss Hanson of Mapleton were present at the exercises at Fort Ridgely last Tuesday. They returned home Wednesday after a short visit with the Alex. Russell family of West Newton.

The Fred Seiter family moved last week from the Hauenstein home where they have been domiciled since their return from the West to the flat over the Red Front Grocery. They will live there until they take possession of the Merchant's Hotel in the spring.

Peter Prokosch may consider himself a lucky fellow in getting off as easy as he did in regard to the accident he had in which his car struck Adolph Schilling, while the latter was crossing the street on his way to the Turner Hall Park a week ago Sunday. Prokosch was fined $25 and costs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mathes of Minneapolis, former residents of New Ulm were in the city last Wednesday accompanied by their son Robert and his bride. The young couple were recently married in California and were on their honeymoon trip to New York where they will make their future home.

John W. Boock left Wednesday on a trip which will take him to Chicago, Washington, D. C. and New York. At the latter place he will be a guest at the convention of Equitable Life Insurance Co. agents, which honor comes to him for having solicited a certain amount of life insurance for this company.—Gibbon Gazette.

Two men, Joe Nichols and Peter Middleton, both hailing from Ashland, Ky. were taken into custody by Chief Herzog the other day and were relieved of three dangerous weapons. One of these was a forty-four repeater and the other a thirty-five calibre gun. The third of the three weapons was a "brass knuckle." After being relieved of these things the men were told to "beat it" and were escorted to the city limits.

The Pioneer Maennerchor of Young America celebrated its 56th anniversary Sunday. There was a ball game between Shakopee and Young America and a dance in the afternoon at the pavilion for which the music was furnished by the Union Band. For the evening's dance the New Germany orchestra furnished the music. The affair was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated.

Not stylish words, but stylish clothes. Not how many customers we can sell to, but how many we can please. We do not buy the biggest advertised clothes, but buy the biggest values. And follow the same rule in buying our furnishings; we select what will give you the best satisfaction. Another advantage for our customers is our Resident Buyer in New York—a man of wide experience who knows the market. He keeps us supplied with the newest ideas as soon as they appear. If you want a certain thing and fail to find it in our store he will get it for you if it's in New York, no extra charge.

Hummel Brothers
14 No. Minn. St. New Ulm, Minn.

SPECIAL BARGAINS

IN REFRIGERATORS
ONLY FOUR LEFT
Genuine porcelain enamel lined at less than the price of ordinary refrigerators.

NEW ULM ICE CO.

See Ads elsewhere in this issue. New Ulm Hardware Co. Adv. 35

HENRY A. SUBILIA
Violin and Theory
Would like to enroll a class of pupils for the violin who would make this instrument a serious study. Would accept those who never had violin lessons before. Would like them from 7 to 10 years of age only. Also a few pupils for the Boehm system Flute and Clarinet. For further particulars address the undersigned
H. A. Subilia Tracy, Minn.

We will be pleased to show you at the Brown Co. Fair this week the Best Range on the market. New Ulm Hardware Co. Adv. 35

WANTED: Boy for delivering at the Model Grocery. Must be 16 years old or over. Adv. 34

FOR RENT: 320 Acre Farm 1 1-2 miles from town. Call at 401 So. Washington or phone 722. adv 35tf.

BOARD by the day or week. Meal Tickets. Home cooking. Price very reasonable. Mrs. A. Thereau, Tel. 685. One door north of Pfeifferle's Drug Store. Adv. 21

MASSAGE
given by
AINO KAKSONEN
Graduated in Europe.
PHONE 415
217 S. Washington Str.
NEW ULM, MINN. 33-6

Arbeiterverein Picnic
GIVEN BY
New Ulm Arbeiterverein
MONDAY
SEPTEMBER 4, 1916
AT
HERMAN HEIGHTS
EVERBODY CORDIALLY INVITED
THE COMMITTEE.

Next Thursday afternoon, Aug. 31st, the sewing circle of St. Anne's Court, W. C. O. F. will entertain at the Armory. Coffee will be served by the ladies and everybody is welcome. The hostesses for the day will be Mesdames F. P. Zschunke, F. Kosek, Otto Seifert and Albert Flor.

LOST—Gold Link Bracelet Aug. 10 between Minnesota street and Turner Hall. Finder please leave at this office or call up 348 for reward. 35-6

Do not fail to visit us at our Booth at the Brown Co. Fair. New Ulm Hardware Co. Adv. 35

If in need of an auctioneer and looking for the high dollar, list your sales with me. Tel. 283. A. S. DORN.

Progress threatens every unfit individual. If you would be a success, attend the Mankato Commercial College. Send for their catalog. adv32-35

HENRIETTA HAUENSTEIN
Graduate
NORMAL PIANO METHODS
Northwestern University
TEACHER of PIANO
Telephone 302

EMIL WICHERSKI: J. E. Tilt mens shoes. Over 200 satisfied customer on their No. 3 last Once bought, always used, no others will suffice.

WE BUY AND SELL LOTS AND CITY PROPERTY. N. HENNINGSEN AGENCY. Adv. 29tf

If you have "Eye Trouble" see H. O. Schleuder, Optometrist and Eye Strain Specialist. Beussmann Block. Adv. 12

Albert D. Flor
LAWYER
Ottomeyer Block, New Ulm, Minn.
Phone 76

Schools
— are —
OPEN
Children bear in mind that this Store has as always a full line of school material, such as
Pencil Tablets
Ink Tablets
— all kinds of —
Lead Pencils, Pens and Pen Holders, Inks, Etc.
Our tablets are of exceptionally good quality. You will be pleased to see our line.
THE PIONEER DRUG STORE

3 Cakes PALMOLIVE Soap 30¢
1 Jar "P. O." Vanishing Cream or
1 Box "P. O." Powder 50¢
80¢

YOURS FOR ONLY 44 CENTS!

You know the quality of all PALMOLIVE products and what wonderful value this offer affords. It's to introduce PALMOLIVE Vanishing Cream and PALMOLIVE Powder to the particular women that use PALMOLIVE Soap—get your introduction at our store today!

Eugene A. Pfeifferle
THE RELIABLE DRUGGIST.

We beg to announce the showing of complete lines of

LATEST FALL MILLINERY

COMMENCING

THURSDAY, AUGUST 31st., 1916

Your Visit will be Appreciated

MRS. B. FOLLMANN