M. PENNING SUCCESSFUL NEW ULM FRUIT GROWER

What can be accomplished in this portion of the fruit growing industry in this portion of Minnesota has been pretty well demonstrated by Martin Penning, who owns the Highland Fruit gardens, on Summit avenue, a short distance south of the Dr. Martin Luther college. Mr. Penning's place is beautifully located on the bluff overlooking the city and for many miles up and down the Minnesota valley a most gorgeous view is obtained.

Mr. and Mrs. Penning have resided in their present location about ten years, since which time Mr. Penning has grown a fine fruit and berry orchard, composed of plum and apple trees of the very best known varieties, besides large quantities of raspberries, strawberries and other small fruits. He also retains on his small farm ample garden space from which he grows all the vegetables for himself and wife, and to spare, but he sells only the fruit that grows from his well laid out orchard. He also maintains a cornfield every summer from which he grows the feed for his horse.

"You've got to like this business in order to make it a success," Mr. Penning says. "I thoroughly enjoy it and it pays me well. When we bought this place ten years ago and moved from our farm near Sleepy Eye, it was a sorry looking place. It didn't look much like a site for a fruit farm, but we have pegged away until we have a place of which we have reason to feel quite proud."

Mr. Penning spends a week at the Minnesota Farm School, University of Minnesota, every winter, where he meets fruit growers from all over the country and says it pays him well for the time and money expended.

Any one doubting that Southern Minnesota is adapted to fruit growing has but to visit Mr. Penning's place to disabuse his mind of that idea.

NICOLLET DISTRICT COURT IN SESSION AT ST. PETER

Judge I. M. Olsen and Court Reporter W. T. Eckstein left Monday morning for St. Peter where the May term of the district court for Nicollet county convened on that day. The calendar is a short one and no important criminal cases were scheduled for trial. Of the cases to be tried the Free Press says:

"Two old cases involving a charge of larceny against Wm. Edmons are still on the docket. He was once convicted, but the case was sent back for a new trial, and has not come to trial since, though it has not been dismissed. There is also a case against F. G. Banker for concealing mortgaged property, an automobile."

Edward Engesser for damages alleged to have been suffered on account of the overflow of lands.

The case of Conrad Vogt vs. Clell Childs grows out of an old stabbing affray that occurred three years ago.

"Mary Unverworn, Emma Meyer and Elizabeth Frische appeal from the decision of the board of supervisors of the town of Brighton in a road matter."

"Anna V. Searles, divorced from Wm. M. in the courts of a western state, seeks an equity in Nicollet County real estate held in her husband's name."

"Hans Eckloff and Andrew Levine will adjudicate a boundary dispute."

"Wm. Weelnes Jr., and Chas. A. Johnson will try out the merits of a dispute over a note."

"Alfa C. asks a divorce from John Blow."

"Dorothy Becker appeals from a road decision of the town board of Courtland."

"William Wagner sues Julius Siehndel for damages to his automobile when the two collided near a bridge under which passes the road from St. Peter to Ottawa."

"Ada B. says that John R. Knaub treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner and asks a divorce. They are from North Mankato. The Mankato Mercantile company has replevined the household furniture of the Knaubs."

"A number of other cases are on the docket, but are on the records by title only, no other papers having been filed."

OBSERVANCE OF BABY WEEK.

The Current News Club has taken in hand again the observance of "Baby Week" and is arranging for a program to be given at the High School Auditorium, Tuesday evening, May 15. The exercises will begin at eight o'clock and everyone is cordially invited to be present. There will be no admission charge and the program will deal with subjects of general interest to parents and all others who have anything to do with the care of children.

An illustrated talk will be given by a trained nurse on "The Care of the Baby." The subject, "Proper Feeding of the Baby" will be handled by Miss Johnson of the Domestic Science Department of the city schools. It is hoped to have an out of town physician to give a talk on "Child Welfare." The balance of the program will consist of musical numbers in which only children will take part.

"Baby Week" begins Sunday, May 13, which is Mothers' Day. The committee in charge of the work hopes that "Baby Sunday" may be observed by appropriate services and announcements in the churches calling attention of congregations to the undertaking which is to promote the welfare of the children of the city.

INFORMATION WANTED.

The following letter was received during the week. Perhaps some one among our readers may be able to furnish some information.

Eyremore Alta, April 18, 1917.

Editor Review:
About two years ago I wrote to your post master seeking information of my mother or her people and he advised me to advertise in the local papers.

I was born in Duluth and I am told my mother died and I was taken at the age of seven months by a family who claimed me as their own and I did not know I was adopted till I was twenty-one when the brother of my deceased foster mother told me of it. My father's name was Henry Mattman and my mother's given name was Mary. I am told her people were farmers near New Ulm and that they did not wish her to marry my father and she ran away and did so. Now what I want is her family name and any other information of her or any of her relatives. Surely there must be some one around New Ulm who would know something of what I seek. I would be very thankful even for the very vaguest of information.

Very respectfully,
Mrs. Bartlett Kingsbury.

DR. WEISER IS INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Dr. George B. Weiser was struck by an automobile at the corner of Minnesota and First North streets shortly before 6 o'clock Thursday evening, and painfully, altho not dangerously injured. Dr. Weiser was crossing First North street, when a car driven by Edward Throldahl of Linden township, attempted to round the corner from Minnesota street. According to eye-witnesses the car was not running fast. Three persons including the doctor, were crossing the street, the other two passing ahead of the car, while the doctor apparently was not seen by the driver, struck by the car and knocked down, two wheels passing over his body.

Dr. J. H. Vogel and Dr. O. C. Strickler were close at hand, took Dr. Weiser home and attended his wounds. No bones were broken, but he was bruised from head to foot. He is recovering as well as could be expected, but will probably be laid up for several days.

The car was occupied by the driver, his brother, Anton Throldahl, and Mrs. John Larson and daughter.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN

Continual surface cultivation should be given currants and gooseberries.

In setting out plants from the hotbed or cold frame, see that the soil is fine and moist.

Do not plant beans until the soil is warm. From May 15 to June 1 is usually about the right time.

A WONDERFUL EXPEDITION

Gallantry and heroism, tragedy and comedy, humor and pathos, triumph and disaster—all this and much more illumine from start to finish every foot of the wondrous filmization of Sir Douglas Mawson's Expedition into the heart of the Antarctic which Lyman H. Howe will present at the Turner Theater on Monday, May 21. The humor is all the more sprightly and refreshing because it is so natural. Although the comedians are birds and animals, they are so humanely amusing in every action that laughter is simply irresistible.

Some of the noblest scenery in America will also be shown during a ride through Yosemite National Park. It abounds with memorable views of jagged peaks, incomparable vistas of nature and rivers strolling majestically from dizzy heights. Then, too, a rich measure of merriment and humor are provided by the quaint antics and rollicking humor of entirely new and original animated cartoons.

There will be a pupils piano recital given by the pupils of Miss Cassie Rickson at the Club Rooms of Turner Hall, Friday evening, 8 o'clock, May 18. Admission 25 cents.
