COURT LAID.

A large number of people from here attended the Loyalty meeting at New Ulm.

Fred Wilking, F. Eohsen Jr. and Otto Berberich with their respective families visited at Aug. Beyer's at New Ulm on Sunday.

Miss Leona Etter has returned to her home in Cambria after having spent the summer in the employ of the M. Fredericks family.

Some of the state fair visitors last week were Miss Florence Fechner and Messrs. Theo. Lange, Robt. and Walter Schroeder and Albert Havemeier.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing.

Mrs. Aug. Meyer of New Ulm visited Mrs. Philip Young on Monday.

Bernhard Pochler is the fortunate possessor of a new Roadster. He plans to use it mainly for his trips to and from school.

The entire community was shocked to learn of the death on Sept. 3, of Miss Martha Raedele of Carver, Minn. Miss Raedele was well known in this vicinity having taught the primary grades in the village school for three years. During that time she had won many friends both thru her charm of manner and because of her nobility of character.

For some time her health had been failing and word was received that she had become ill at Appleton, Minn. where she was visiting. An operation for gall trouble was performed and at first she rallied nicely but on Saturday she suddenly became worse, and on Monday morning at nine o'clock the Death Angel came. She is survived by her sorrowing parents three sisters and three brothers, besides other relatives and friends who mourn her loss. The funeral was held at the German Lutheran church at Carver, Rev. Baumhoefner and Rev. Erthal officiating. Among those attending from here were Miss Margaret Strasen, Miss Jennie Arndt and Mrs. Lorenz Hunziker and daughter Wilhelmina.

Cincinnati man tells how to shrivel up corns or calluses so they lift off with fingers.

Ouch ! ! ! ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn or hardened callus stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callus dries up and lifts right off without pain.

He says freezone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freezone tell him to order a small bottle for you.

CAMBRIA.

Evans-Luedke.
 Wednesday, Sept. 5, at 1:30 p. m. at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Annie Luedke at Garvin, Minn., occurred the marriage of Miss Emma Luedke and Willie Evans. The witnesses were Eddie Evans, a brother of the groom and Miss Mitzen, a cousin of the bride. The newlyweds took the afternoon train from Tracy and came directly to Cambria where they will make their home.

The groom is a cordial and accommodating young merchant at Cambria and the bride has taught school a number of terms in that locality. She is also an accomplished musician. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Evans of this place. Their many friends wish them joy and prosperity thruout their wedded life.

A great many autoed to Lake Crystal to attend the Welsh C. E. convention Saturday evening and Sunday. Miss Millie Thomas was the President of the meeting Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Tanley who have been ill are now able to be about.

Mrs. Rowland Evans has gone to Sykeston, North Dakota, to visit with relatives.

Mrs. Charlie Davis who came to visit at the home of her nephews, John and Harry Jones has been taken very ill and is unable to return to her home in Mankato.

Nearly everyone from this locality attended the Loyalty meeting at New Ulm Tuesday evening of last week. They all report that the parade was splendid and the speeches excellent.

Reuben Pfetscher autoed to Olivia to spend Sunday with relatives.

East Wednesday night some bold thieves entered the C. and N. W. depot at Cambria. They broke thru the window to the office and ransacked the cash drawer but as Mr. Johnson, the agent had taken all the money home with him, the robbers got no coin. They stole some tickets and a suit case which had been checked in and the owner had not yet called for. People here are wishing that the company would install a night agent.

It is evident that professional pick pockets were at work in New Ulm the night of the loyalty meeting. In stepping off the excursion train about seven o'clock at the New Ulm depot, Mrs. Evan Price had the experience of some one jerking on a little hand satchel on her arm but the handle was so strong that it did not break. The crowd was so dense on the platform that she could not tell which man did it, but she immediately turned and told her husband, "Look out for your pockets." Mr. Price at once slapped his hand down on his trouser pocket and just as he did so another hand was pulled away from under his hand but the pocket book was not taken. James D. Price was farther back in the crowd but he discovered that his purse containing between $9.00 and $10.00 was stolen from his hip pocket. They reported the matter to the depot agent but all decided it was impossible to find the men. Mr. James Price said that as he was getting off the train three well dressed men pushed against him so that he could hardly pass and he is confident the theft was committed at that time.

Gwendoline and Mary Owens are attending Mankato High School, Nellie Griffiths is taking the advanced course for High School graduates at Mankato Normal. Blodwen Lloyd, Viola Price, Florence Espenson, Gladys Williams, Floyd Hughes and Bruce and Lewis Harris are all attending New Ulm High school.

Mrs. Wm. H. Jones of Butternut Valley is staying at the home of B. L. Tanley for a few days.

Mrs. Ida M. Wise of San Francisco, Cal. is visiting at the residence of John and Harry Jones.

Wm. J. Evans attended the Minnesota State Fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Garvin visited over Sunday at the residence of Hugh R. Hughes. They came by auto.

A large crowd attended the charavari party for the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Evans at Woodman Hall last Friday night. A lunch was served at mid-night and all present enjoyed a pleasant evening. Reuten Pfetscher in a few appropriate words presented Mr. and Mrs. Evans in behalf of the young people an elegant library table and a pedestal, and Mr. Pfetscher also presented in behalf of the ladies of the village of Cambria, a linen tablecloth. The recipients were very grateful and expressed their thankfulness.

The annual convention of the Northern German conference of the Methodist church will open at Mankato on Thursday, September 20. The conference will continue for about ten days. Rev. C. G. Hohn, and several other New Ulm people will attend the conference, as representatives of the local Methodist church.

Studebaker SUPERIORITIES

—a more economical Car to run

Studebaker engineers have spent four years in developing the present Studebaker car from a single basic design.

It is only reasonable to expect that the studious, ceaseless effort of these experts should produce results.

And it has—

For as the Studebaker stands today, it is the lightest car in ratio to its power on the market—this means economy of gasoline.

Its perfect balance, its long, resilient springs, its oversize tires, mean comfort and remarkable tire economy—8,000 miles per set and more.

The electric system is so simple that it rarely, if ever, needs attention.

And most important of all, the highly refined Studebaker motor reduces garage bills almost to the vanishing point. Let us show you the details of what we, as experts, consider the most economical high-quality car to run.
