The past week has been a busy one in a social way owing to the fact that Lent is very near at hand. A number of small parties and wedding celebrations have been held and more are in prospect for the next two weeks.

Carleton College at Northfield is quarantined for Scarlet fever. There are quite a number of New Ulm girls and boys attending Carleton but they are not allowed to go home while the college is under quarantine. St. Olaf's College also at Northfield is under quarantine for small-pox.

Miss Henrietta Hauenstein entertained a number of the teachers at her home Saturday evening. They sent a sleigh in for the teachers who were dressed to represent children, some boys and some girls, and the evening was spent playing "kid" games and after supper the big sleigh took the merry-makers home again.

A surprise party was arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Puchner Sunday evening, by the St. Cecelia Society. The occasion was in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary which occurred yesterday. The evening was spent in playing Five Hundred and prizes were won by Miss Helen Berg, Miss Marie Guenfelder, M. Schuster and A. Henle.

The Turner Frauenverein observed their regular birthday gathering last Thursday and celebrated for Mrs. Schapekahn, Mrs. Brandt, Mrs. Maltzahn and Mrs. Marks. Miss Alice Haeberle read a very appropriate message of congratulation, Miss Henrietta Hauenstein played, the Misses Elsie Reiser and Asta Gag sang a Spanish song in costume and Mrs. Reiser and Elsie sang German folk songs.

The Armory Prize Masquerade drew a large crowd Saturday and an unusually large number of spectators were present who joined in the dancing after the masks were removed. The first group prize went to a school master, Richard Macho and his pupils, Mrs. John Vogel, Mrs. Albert Neno, Mrs. John Ahle, Mrs. Aug. Boesch, Miss Frances Lamacker, Miss Cecelia Macho and Miss Minnie Dietz. The second group prize was taken by the gypsy girls, Nora Stroschein, Dora Schreyer, Clara Farrington, Meta Gekeler, Julia Gekeler and Emma Matke. The third prize was awarded to the black and yellow dominoes, Miss Krahl and her brother, Earl Pellant as the old maid, Frank Franta, as the porter, Alex Garrow as a Mexican, Olivia Klause as the ballet girl, Fred Schultz as a sailor, Clarence Simmet and Miss Louise Witt as "Dr. Eisenbart" and the baby doll, the Turk, the Jap and the Liberty girls, Miss Clara Austed and Miss Grace Williams, were also prize winners. The judges were Sheriff Julius, Fred Christiansen and Wm. Pfeiffer.

A number of the ladies of the Methodist Church arranged a party at the Glaesemann home in honor of Mrs. C. Cleveland and her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Strassturt who have been staying there for some time. Mrs. Strassturt visited Springfield a couple of days last week but returned again to New Ulm.

Mrs. Francisca Bellm was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when fourteen of her friends called to spend the evening. Mrs. Bellm has been away for almost two years and so the party was a sort of reunion. Five Hundred was played and Mrs. John Neumann, Miss Alice Haeberle and Mrs. Geo. Schmidt were the prize winners. Supper was served.

A pleasant surprise was arranged Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schneider of South Broadway. Their friends, to the number of one hundred or more, gathered at Turner Hall Gym for what they said was to be a private dancing party and Mr. Schneider was asked to play in the orchestra. Mrs. Schneider attended the party and after they had been there for a time someone volunteered to take Mr. Schneider's place in the orchestra and let him dance. When they were on the floor a member of the company announced the fact that his services in the orchestra would not be required for the rest of the evening as he and Mrs. Schneider were to be the guests of honor, and the party had been arranged in celebration of their crystal wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider were married in February but their wedding date falls in Lent this year and their friends took time by the fore-look. The celebrants were presented with a number of gifts of cut glass and the occasion was a very pleasant one for all concerned.

HEIDER IS MORE THAN REPRESENTED
Hanska, Minn.
Northern Rock Island Plow Co., Minneapolis, Minn.
Gentlemen: The Heider tractor has given the best of satisfaction under trying conditions. Have used the tractor in subduing quack grass sod, working with three bottoms, and with sufficient power to handle four in stubble, plowing easily on one and one-third to one and three-quarter gallons of fuel per acre.
Any prospective purchaser of a tractor can refer to me concerning the HEIDER. It is everything and more than represented.
Yours very truly,

I Thank You.

During the month of October thousands of men who sell Rawleigh Products had a sales contest, the prize for each successful man being an Honor Medal. It gives me much pleasure to announce that I secured enough additional business to entitle me to a Medal and I take this opportunity to thank my many customers who patronized me so liberally that the Company awarded me a Medal. I will call again on all my friends with my store-on-wheels, loaded with Rawleigh Quality Products and trust I may merit a continuance of your patronage.
Sincerely and thankfully yours,
Adv. 5. Jos. E. Gleisner,
