LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Braun of Courtland township are the parents of a son who was born recently.

John Rader who was a resident on a farm near Porter for the past two years, has removed to this city.

I. Seitz from Manitowoc, Wis., is spending several weeks at the home of his uncle, John H. Arbes, in this city.

Mrs. O. J. Seifert is visiting at the home of her parents in Amery, Wis. She was called home by the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pfafke from Fairmont are visiting at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Martin Eyrich and family.

Mrs. Henry Hoermann of Courtland who had recently submitted to an operation at a local hospital, is recovering rapidly.

Mrs. Herman Siegler has returned to her home in Sleepy Eye after a several days' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alf. W. Muesler.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckstrom of St. Peter visited their daughter, Mrs. Gus. Nelson, one day during the week. She is being treated at a local hospital.

Jos. Brown of West Newton has purchased a residence property in Gibbon and will remove to that village next fall, after the crops are harvested.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bode of Echo visited at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fitzner last week. They were called by the illness of Mrs. Fitzner.

Miss Thecla Herriges went to Sleepy Eye Saturday to spend Sunday with friends and to meet her brother who had just returned from France. Another brother is still overseas.

Mrs. Albert Hupfauer of Claire, Ia., is recovering from an operation performed recently at a local hospital. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Brou, residing on South Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Haas, who have been spending the winter visiting in the Twin Cities, at Paynesville and various other points, have returned to New Ulm and will make their home here now.

Ben Terthofer and Otto Plautz of this city appeared before Judge of Probate Wm. B. Mather last week. The boys are the guilty parties who caused considerably damage at the Johnson and Garrow summer homes in January. They have been placed on probation.

George Vetter of this city is assisting in the National Citizens' bank at Gibbon. Mrs. Wm. Fleck returned last week from a visit with relatives in Milwaukee. She was called there by the illness of her son-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Samuelson of Lafayette have left for Miller, S. D. where Mr. Samuelson has accepted a position as instructor in manual training in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Sittard have moved into one of the Investment Company flats on South Broadway and now are pretty well settled. Mr. Sittard has taken a position with the New Ulm Publishing Company as editor.

A. Heymann of Sleepy Eye has been appointed chairman of the War Savings Stamp drive. George Glotzbach, of the same city has been named vice-chairman. Mr. Glotzbach was named chairman some time ago but did not accept because of business cares.

Jake Neubauer, engineer on the M. & St. L. is enjoying a passenger run. Ever since the Norwood wreck he is in charge of the engine which pulls the "Wooden Shoe." Jake rather enjoys the change because it gives him an opportunity to visit with his New Ulm friends Sunday.

There are others also besides the food administration who need disciplining, fuel administrators, for instance, who made use of their positions as dictator of coal supplies for their own personal ends. Oh, yes, there has been a nice lot of business going on the past two years and when it is all told there is going to be a shifting of values.

The people of St. James are contemplating to erect a $75,000 community building as a memorial to the soldiers, who died during the war. No definite plans have been decided upon but it is expected that there will be three floors, including an auditorium which will seat at least 1,000 people, rest rooms, office rooms, public library, gymnasium and swimming pool.

Edwin A. Roloff who was among the men called for overseas service has notified his parents who live in Milford that he has arrived safely in the States and is expecting to be mustered out at Camp Grant. He arrived at Newport News March 15 on the U. S. S. "Aeolus." Edwin was working in a bank at Ballaton when he was called.

Fd. Buerkle who is with the army of occupation in Germany recently wrote to his parents near Gibbon that the doughboys there are having a good time. He is quartered with a German family and had been invited to attend the marriage of one of the daughters of the family. He writes that he hasn't seen a good looking girl since leaving the states. Evidently there are no longer "Loreleis" along the Rhine.

Leo Wagner and Theo. Schmid from Springfield visited with friends in this city the forepart of the week.

B. W. Kaegbein has entered the employ of Adam Rieke on his farm near Fairfax for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Vetter of West Newton township are the parents of a daughter born last Thursday.

August Luepke of Courtland township, who has been in poor health for some time, suffering with rheumatism, is recovering from his ailment.

John B. Ellensburg of Macelia who was reported as missing in action was killed at the front, near Matin, France. The body was found and identified by a Woodman pin.

Glen Dezeliski, ten year old lad was drowned in the Minnesota river near Judson, last week. The lad was walking along the river and broke thru the thin ice.

Nicollet county has a home Service nurse. Miss Eva Lanz of St. Peter has accepted this position. She will also perform the duties of visiting nurse in St. Peter.

A group of friends surprised Mrs. Wm. Lieb at her home on North Washington street last week. The occasion was the anniversary of Mrs. Lieb's birthday. All present greatly enjoyed the occasion.

John Schroeder of Fairfax who is receiving treatment at a local hospital is recovering. His wife and children were in New Ulm during the week to visit with him.

After some sharp debates the Wisconsin legislature has refused to listen to the would-be-killers of the German language and defeated the bill directed against the use of that tongue.

Earl Pellant recently enlisted in the navy but did not pass the examinations because of defective eyesight. He left last week for Huron, S. D., where he will spend the summer on a farm.

The Mother's Club met at the George Bromley home last Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The following program was carried out: Roll call, reading of the minutes, impromptu reading and talk on Self Control, piano solo, Mrs. C. W. Miller. After the program a luncheon was served by the hostess.

Ben Rolwes entertained a group of some fifteen friends at the home of his parents on Sunday evening. Cards and various other amusements were enjoyed by the guests. The occasion was a farewell party as Mr. Rolwes left for Chicago the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Gaetke have returned to their home near this city after a pleasant wedding trip. They spent some time at Jamestown and at Devils Lake, N. D. They will make their home on the Gaetke farm in Cottonwood township and Mr. and Mrs. John Gaetke will remove to New Ulm.

Mat. Verlinden, of Eden who recently disposed of his farm to Louis Hoffmann, has purchased a big farm near Sidney, Nebraska, and the family will remove to that state. The Verlinden family removed to New Ulm some five years ago but because the climatic conditions did not agree with Mr. Verlinden he was compelled to go farther south.

A large group of friends agreeably surprised Mrs. Ben Reinhart Sunday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Reinhart's natal day was Thursday but her brother was ill at that time so the surprise was postponed until Sunday. The guests were entertained at cards and other games, and a luncheon was served, and all enjoyed a pleasant evening. The celebrant was presented with a library table.

Mrs. Fred Fohl and Miss Margaret Steffl from Sleepy Eye visited with friends in Springfield Sunday.

Mrs. John Korbel and daughters Clara and Marie spent several days last week visiting with relatives in Mankato.

Mrs. J. H. Brunner of St. James, formerly of this city, spent a few days in this city last week visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Aug. Doering has returned to her home in Gaylord after recovering from an operation which she underwent at a local hospital.
