

Wages For Your Money

Place your money with us and it will be safe and earn good interest for you. Call on us any time.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.

New Ulm, Minnesota.

LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hopp of Courtland township are the parents of a daughter born last week.

Court Reporter W. T. Eckstein is present at the session of the district court at Redwood Falls this week.

John Swenson residing near the village of Lafayette has disposed of his farm of 120 acres to Aug. Sjogren for $8,000.

Miss Elsie Gleason has returned to her home at Sauk Rapids after a week's visit at the home of her aunt Miss Minna Gleason in this city.

Mrs. John Henle returned from Redwood Falls Saturday afternoon. She had spent several days with the Jos. Lauterbach family there.

Private Hubert Hahn has returned to his home in Brighton township from overseas duty. He was in the fighting area for over six months.

Louis Buenger, Sr., spent several days during the week visiting at the home of his son, Otto, who is conducting a furniture store in Sleepy Eye.

Capt. Jacob Hindermann has returned to his home in Ridgely township after taking treatments for several weeks at the Loretto hospital. His health is much improved.

Stanley Hoffman returned to his home in this city Friday morning having received an honorable discharge from the service. He saw considerable service in Belgium and France.

Edward Youngblood of Lafayette recently secured his discharge from the service. He was stationed at Denver, Colorado, and was called home to attend the funeral of his father.

Harry Engelbert who arrived in New York on the U. S. S. Leviathan a week ago has been reported ill. It will be remembered that he was wounded in France. His relatives have received no definite information from him.

Edmund Goblirsch of Lafayette has an unfortunate accident recently. While hunting squirrels he accidentally discharged his rifle. The bullet struck the second toe and passed thru the bone. The wound has been dressed and with the exception of a limp Mr. Goblirsch is feeling fine.

H. T. Petterson, Principal of the New Ulm high school for four years and who during the past four years has been manager of the Marshall Milling Co.'s corn mill, has with two others of the Marshall Milling Company force purchased the business of Hoffmann & Preisinger, dealers in flour, feed and salt at Fort Dodge, Iowa. Possession was given May 1st. The business is said to be one of the largest of its kind in Iowa. Mr. Petterson's many friends in New Ulm are pleased to learn of his new venture and are sure that he will be successful.

Mrs. Max Reinhart visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. M. Franz, at Cobden during the week.

Miss Laurretta Fabel, teacher in a rural school near this city spent the week end visiting at her home in Fairfax.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Rothenburg from Springfield were in the city Sunday and made a visit with the latter's father, George Doehne.

Miss Gertrude Radtke has returned to her home in Springfield after a several days visit at the home of her uncle, Herman Wendt.

Miss Grace Fisher from Morgan was in New Ulm during the week visiting with her sister who is recovering from a recent operation.

The Misses Sophia and Dorothy Augustine from Springfield spent a few days during the week at the Otto English home in this city.

Mrs. Adela Schell and son, Walter, from Los Angeles, California are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crone, Sr. They arrived last Wednesday.

Roland Doe, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Doe of Lake Hanska township, is recovering from a serious operation which he underwent at the St. Mary's hospital in Rochester.

Pfefferle & Bill, druggists and jewelers at Madelia recently added an optical parlor to their jewelry department and placed a competent optician in charge. R. O. Pfefferle is a New Ulm boy and his friends here are glad to hear of his successful business ventures.

Mrs. A. J. Loeffler entertained a group of young people Friday evening in honor of Miss Berti Kitzke whose engagement to Cyril Groebner was announced at this occasion. A mock wedding ceremony was one of the evening's features which caused much amusement. A luncheon was served and the guests had a very enjoyable time.

The Frank Kienlen residence in Ridgely township was completely destroyed by fire recently. How the fire originated is not known. The family was out of the house at the time and when they returned the smoke was issuing from the roof and in a few minutes the building was a mass of flames. Some of the furniture on the lower floor was saved. Insurance was carried but not enough to cover the loss.

Miss Erna Holsinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Holsinger who was a teacher in the public schools of Tyler until a short time ago, was compelled to take a vacation because of poor health. She had an attack of the flu and since then has not been well. Her mother who underwent a serious operation at the Union hospital a short time ago is recovering slowly. Friends of the family are looking forward to a rapid recovery for both Mrs. Holsinger and Miss Erna.

Mrs. Paul Bertrand spent several days the past week at the home of her parents in Sleepy Eye.

Mads Anderson of this city spent several days during the week attending to business matters in Hanska.

Miss Clare Winter has returned to her home in this city after a pleasant visit at the F. Steinke home in Fairfax.

Atty. H. H. Flor has leased one of the Tastel houses on North State street and will remove his family here from St. Paul in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bergstrom have returned to their home in Brighton township after spending the winter months in California.

Carl Piddé from Mankato spent the week end visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Falk and with other relatives in the city.

Mrs. A. P. Metag and daughter Cora have returned to their home in Morgan after a several days visit at the Wm. Hoehne home in this city.

Paul Wiedenmann from Sleepy Eye was a business visitor in New Ulm last week. He drove home with a new Dodge car which he purchased here.

Walter Hillesheim has returned from Minneapolis where he took examinations for the purpose of entering the U. S. Navy. He was rejected.

Mr. and Mrs. And. J. Eckstein who had decided to make their home in Westbrook have changed their plans and will continue to stay at Redwood Falls.

Miss Alma Muske celebrated her sixteenth birthday anniversary one day last week. A group of friends surprised her and all enjoyed a delightful time.

Mrs. Fred Sievert who spent the past nine weeks at the Loretto hospital was able to return to her home in Gibbon Friday. She is getting along nicely.

F. H. Wiese from Springfield attended a hearing in the probate court, in this city last week, in regard to his father's estate of which he has been administrator.

Dr. Spear who was scheduled to speak at the high school Friday evening on "Alaska" did not appear as he is suffering from a severe case of ptomaine poisoning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Klingensmith from Springfield were in this city the latter part of last week for the purpose of consulting a physician in regard to the latter's health.

Martin Anderson, son of A. M. Anderson of Lake Hanska, member of one of the military bands in France, returned from service in the army Tuesday a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dietzmann have returned to Morgan accompanied by their daughter Helen who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis here and has recovered.

A. W. Schmid transacted business, for the Frenzel Bottling Works, in Springfield several days last week. He also made a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Schmid in that city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Van from Rochester visited at the home of her niece, Mrs. P. Bertrand last week. Mrs. Bertrand left Monday for Sleepy Eye where she will spend several days with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jutz, of this city, Mr. and Mrs. John Hahn and Hub. M. Hahn, of Brighton were in Fulda last Tuesday and Wednesday where they attended the wedding of Wm. Zins and Cecelia Helget.

Lawrence Lang, monotype operator, arrived last week to take a position on the Review force. Mr. Lang's home is in St. Paul and his relatives are well-known here, being Turners and having often visited here.

Fred Rolloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Rolloff of Milford who returned recently from France has gone to Mankato to complete his course at Commercial College. His brother Edwin does not expect to be released from the service for some months yet.

George Newman, station agent at St. James for the past thirty years was killed recently by being run over by a freight train. The accident occurred at about eleven o'clock in the evening and the body was not found until the following morning. He was fifty-five years of age.

Private Andrew Schmitt of this city who was wounded in action on a battlefield in France and who lay on the open field for a day and a half before he was found lost one of his feet as a result of his wound. He has been at the base hospital at Fort Snelling for some weeks and recently he sustained another injury. He fell and broke the stump of the maimed leg and now he must stay at the hospital another month or more.

The Standard Bearers arranged a shower in honor of Mrs. Soren Nielsen last week. The affair was staged as an old fashioned wedding. Miss Lola Rieck acted the part of the groom to perfection and Mrs. Nielsen as a recent real bride needed no coaching in her part. Miss Pearl Kiesling performed the ceremony. Miss Maggie Martin was maid of honor and Miss Elsie Garbrecht was best man. The gifts which were many and varied were presented in a quaint basket and refreshments of a unique variety were served. Mrs. C. G. Hohn and Miss Mabel Durban were hostesses to the merry party.

The Henry Flor family from Long Beach, California arrived in New Ulm the fore part of the week. They will make their permanent home here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Manderfeld from Springfield were in New Ulm the fore part of the week and made a short visit at the A. S. Dorn home.

Albert Gerth from Black River Falls, Wisconsin has returned home after a visit with Mrs. Adolph Falk and family and other relatives in this vicinity.

Roy Seemann who recently returned from France was in the city the fore part of the week visiting with friends. He addressed the Epworth League at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

The Student's concert at the Dr. Martin Luther College, which was to have been held prior to Easter was held Friday evening. A large audience was present who speak with praise of the affair.

Sergt. Alfred Windland has received an honorable discharge from the service, of his country and has returned to his home in New Ulm. He was for many months connected with the Camp Exchange department at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill.

Anton F. Johnson, who is at the head of the printing department of the Co-operative Manager and Farmer, a Minneapolis publication came to New Ulm Wednesday night and spent the week end visiting at the home of his father-in-law, John Schneider and family, and with his sister, Mrs. E. J. Pelant.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Heimann of Fairfax who are well known by a large number of New Ulm people, recently celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. The affair was planned and carried out by the Lutheran Ladies' Aid Society. It was in the form of a reception in the Lutheran church of that village.

FOR SALE: Golden Oak buffet and baby's push cart. Good as new. Call 946. Adv. 19

FOR SALE: 160 Acre farm between Seaforth and Vesta, Minn. Inquire of Mathilda Jahn. 826 No. State, adv 19-20 New Ulm.

GIRL WANTED Price $30. per month- Everings free Must be able to cook and do light general house work. Four adults in family.

Apply EMIL GEIST, 28 East Sixth Str. St. Pau, Minn. adv 19

A BASKET SOCIAL will be given by School Districts 8 and 14, May 9, at the Milford Club House. Everybody cordially invited. adv 19.

FOR SALE: AVERY engine plow. self lift. 4 Bottom. Cheap. Adv. 18 J. A. Loffelmacher, Fairfax, Minn.

EGGS FOR SALE—If you want winter layers get Buff Orpington Eggs for hatching. 75c per setting of 15 eggs. JOS. J. Buechl, 322 So. Wash St. New Ulm, Minn. Phone No. 624 Adv. 17-18

FOR SALE: House and Lot on S. Broadway, two doors North of Episcopal church. Inquire MISS M. BOGEN, Moberge, S. D. Ad. 14-

GOVERNMENT TENTS ARMY 16x16x12 ft. Must be seen to be appreciated. PHONE 68 ROY L. BERG FOR RENT Furnished or unfurnished apartments for housekeeping. Inquire at Hotel Hall. adv. 6 ff.

FOR SALE: Big Strawberry plants, $1.50 per hundred. Emma Loffelmacher, Fairfax, Minn., Adv. 18.

Dr. A. F. Groebner Dentist Office in Vogel Block. Phone Res. 38 Office 122

"Keep Comfortable" Underwear

These are the days a man begins to feel that the sun is "warming up" for the season.

Very likely your underwear is too hot. Most of us through habit hang on to heavy underwear too long. It saps a man's energy.

Better change to these cool light weight union suits that feel so soft and comfortable. Prices $1.00-$1.50-$2.00

Hummel Brothers

14 No. Minn. St. New Ulm, Minn.

Prepare for Summer Needs Now

From This Great Assortment of Beautiful Wash Fabrics

Fashion knows how very attractive the new voiles, organdies, ginghams, percales and chambrays are, and that's why she insists that wash frocks will be the most popular for Summer wear.

Most of these fabrics need very little trimming, because they are so distinctive in pattern and coloring. So different, in fact, from the fabrics you have been used to in the past that you will want to spend a whole day inspecting the charms of these fresh new offerings. Amazingly intricate designs of birds, trees and flowers, dots in all sizes, chic stripes and gay colorings are all here to offer you inspiration for many a delightful costume. As quantities in some instances are limited, we suggest an early visit to these displays

Beautiful Spring Showing of DRAPERIES

"WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS ROOM?"

Beautiful spring showing of draperies—Many a woman exclaims, until she finds solution of her problem in the bright, cheerful draperies, which are a feature of our Spring home furnishing displays. They not only impart a homelike atmosphere but are economical and long wearing, as well.

SCHULKE'S The Store of Style—Service—Quality NEW ULM, MINNESOTA

60 Day Absolute Guarantee

BACKER'S PHARMACY NEW ULM, MINN.

AVALON FARMS HOG-TONE Liquid Easy to Handle 100% Strong