

Reputation Based on Performance

The reputation and standing of the State Bond and Mortgage Co. are based on actual facts. Let us tell you how we can be of service to you in investing your money.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.

New Ulm, Minnesota.

STORK BROTHERS
ESTABLISHED 1902
CASH BUYERS BUTTER, ETC.
PROMPT, RELIABLE, SAFE - WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS
NEW ULM MINNESOTA

LOCAL NOTES

Isidor Kosek who recently returned from overseas service spent several days last week visiting with relatives in Gibbon.

Miss Pauline Marks spent a few days during the week visiting with her friend Miss Grace Bobsin in the village of Courtland.

Work has been started on the sewer at the Friedens church. It will serve the church, parsonage and the Dr. H. W. Rieke home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Franke and Mrs. Fred Zimmermann from Sleepy Eye were guests of local relatives the latter part of the week.

Wm. H. Bierbaum, Sr., sustained a stroke of paralysis on Minnesota street Friday shortly before noon. Mr. Bierbaum is at the hospital.

Mrs. Robert Pless, of Gibbon is recovering at the Loretto hospital from a recent operation. Mr. Pless visited with her during the week.

Paul Winkelmann has landed in the states from overseas service. He expects to be mustered out of the service soon and return home.

Paul Bertrand has sold his residence on North Minnesota street to Andrew Hacker and expects to move on to a farm in the near future.

Chas. Lingenhag, member of the 110th ammunition train, and who saw considerable fighting in France has returned home. While over there he was on the Toul, St. Mihiel and Argonne sectors.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Woodmansee were in New Ulm last week. They came to attend the funeral of John Keegan, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Woodmansee have not decided where they will locate and are in the Twin Cities now.

Mrs. Peter Welter spent last week visiting with relatives in Morgan.

Chas. Roeder, a student of telegraphy at a Minneapolis school, has been spending several weeks with local relatives.

Miss Sophia Redning of Granby township was operated on at the Loretto hospital last week. She is getting along satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Schmiesing, Mr. and Mrs. John Korslund, Gust Ellefson and Theo. Torgrimson from Hanska enjoyed short visits in New Ulm during the week.

Joseph Martinka of Lucan underwent an operation at the Loretto hospital last week. He has many friends in the city who are looking forward to a rapid recovery.

Mrs. Mary Ryan who has been an inmate of the St. Alexander Home for the Aged some six months died last Tuesday night, being eighty-nine years of age. The remains were shipped to Owatonna for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Current of Home township recently received a letter from their son Paul written April 18 stating that at that time they were ready to leave their camp in Luxemburg for the coast. He expected to be in the states soon.

Dr. H. W. Froelich from Thief River Falls visited with his sister, Mrs. John Kamrath, the latter part of last week. From here he went to Mankato where he will visit for several days with his father.

Jack Tar Martin Lokensgaard of Lake Prairie township has returned to his home after serving on the high seas. He states that he was in London when President Wilson visited there some months ago and that it was a very impressive scene when the president rode through the streets of London with King George.

The Current News club met last Tuesday evening and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Miss Hannah O'Brien, pres.; Mrs. J. P. Graff, vice pres.; Mrs. G. F. Reineke, second vice pres.; Mrs. M. J. Bieber, corresponding sec.; Mrs. H. H. Walters, recording sec.; Mrs. Elmer Haerberle, treas. and Mrs. Emil G. Hage, critic.

Mrs. John Neuman was in Sleepy Eye last week visiting at the home of Mrs. Fred Koehne.

Auctioneers Dorn and Schueller and Wm. Voss were in Nicollet last Wednesday attending to business matters.

Miss Theresa Wiedel spent a few days last week in Sleepy Eye visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Zwaska.

Mrs. Rud. Enter of Nicollet, who recently underwent an operation at a local hospital, has recovered sufficiently to be able to return home.

Henry Brandl and Joseph Mueller of West Newton township are the owners of new Chevrolet cars which they purchased in New Ulm last week.

The District Court at St. Peter convened last Monday. Judge Frank Clague and Court Reporter W. T. Eckstein were present. There were thirty cases on the civil calendar.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Berg were in Jackson last week to take a look at their new grandson, who was born recently in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berg, Jr.

The waron crows which had been announced for Sunday a week ago was not held on account of the unfavorable weather conditions. It probably will be held at a later date.

Mrs. Wm. Schroeck and daughter spent several days last week in Gaylord. They attended the funeral of the former's grandfather, Aug. Mass, Sr., and also visited with other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Witmer and Wm. and Bertha Vierling of Wabasso came to New Ulm last week for a visit with John Vierling, their father, who recently was operated upon in one of the local hospitals.

A "parcel shower" was arranged one day last week at the Thomas Forstner home in Sigel township in honor of Miss Sophia Forstner, now Mrs. B. W. Huelskamp. The rooms were beautifully decorated and the bride received many useful gifts.

Mrs. Jos. Eckert, of near Gibbon, mother of Frank Eckert of this city, celebrated her eightieth birthday anniversary last week. She is well and hardy and is known by many here as she makes frequent visits with her son's family.

A change took place in the time card of the M. & St. L. Sunday. The morning train is leaving at 5:05 instead of 5:15 and the two noon trains which formerly left at 1:10 are now leaving at 1:05. Travelers should take note of the new schedule.

A "500" party was given by the St. Anne Court, W. C. O. F. at the Catholic school house last Tuesday evening. The prize winners were Miss Clara Korbel, Mrs. Aug. O. Berndt, Miss Mary Korbel and Frank W. Dietz. The evening was greatly enjoyed by a large crowd.

$50,000 was voted by the legislature for the erection of a home for male nurses at the St. Peter hospital and $70,000 was provided for the erection of a building for women. In addition to these appropriations $70,000 was voted for general improvements, one of the items being $10,000 for screened porches.

A group of twenty-five friends were entertained at the Dr. C. W. Miller home at a six o'clock dinner last Tuesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Schmidt, who intend to leave for Springfield soon, where Mr. Schmidt will be associated with Aug. Erickson, publisher of the Springfield Free Press.

New Ulm was represented at the annual state meeting of the Knights of Columbus by Henry J. Berg and J. J. Moriarty. Both are members of the local St. Patrick's council, in which they hold the positions of Grand Knight and District Deputy respectively. The meeting was held yesterday, in St. Paul.

Thru the courtesy of Carl Englebert, of the A. E. F. we have received a copy of the "Watch on the Rhine" which is published by the marine division of the army of occupation. We have taken from it the following editoria which all should take to heart as there are still lots of us "kicking."

Two pair of wooden shoes are on display in the window of the Schmucker & Burk Pharmacy which were sent to Henry Herrian by Columbus Herrian from "Over There." Many were under the impression that wooden shoes were a thing of the past over there but seemingly they are still right in style.

Louis Spreng of New Ulm is still at the State Sanitarium at Walker, where he receives treatments. County Commissioner Henry Meyer and John H. Forster made a call at the institution last week. They originally had planned to bring Spreng back to this city but while there, they decided to leave him in the care of the sanitarium. Mr. Meyer also visited relatives at Bemidji, on the same trip.

The Annual State convention of the Knights of Columbus was held in St. Paul yesterday. Henry J. Berg, Grand Knight of the St. Patrick Council and District Deputy John J. Moriarty were delegates from this council. Among the speakers at the convention were Archbishop Dowling; Lieut. C. Arthur MacLeod, chaplain at Fort Snelling; Luke E. Hart, of St. Louis, a supreme director; and Dr. E. W. Buckley, of St. Paul.

Attorney H. W. Dempsey attended to business matters in St. Peter during the week.

George Krueger visited with his sister, Mrs. Theo. Johnson, in Springfield several days last week.

C. S. Peterson from Springfield attended to probate court business in the city last week.

Peter S. Schons from Mahanomen is spending a week visiting with friends here and in Nicollet.

Miss Lydia Berg from Springfield spent the week end visiting at the R. Schmid home in this city.

Miss Frances Kreitinger from Springfield visited with friends in New Ulm several days during the week.

F. J. Nanno, deputy revenue collector, was in New Ulm during the week, attending to the duties of his office.

Miss Thelma Rinke visited with her friend, Miss Harriet Davis, at Springfield several days during the week.

John Ahrens from Gaylord visited with relatives and friends here last week. He also attended to business matters.

Miss Meta Gluth was in Morgan last week where she was present at the marriage of her cousin, Miss Agnes Gluth.

Mr. and Mrs. And. Olsen have removed to Winthrop and they will make their home with their son, Gust Olsen, there.

Erwin Schmid was in Springfield last week visiting at the home of his uncle, Geo. P. Forster, and family. He made the trip by car.

Mrs. John McTaggart returned to her home in Lambertton after a stay of several weeks at the hospital here, following an operation.

Fred Wills, Jr., of Nicollet was brot to the Union Hospital during the week and has been operated on for tumor. He is recovering nicely at present.

Xavier Brunner has returned to his home in Bird Island after a visit with relatives here. He came to attend the funeral of Joseph Heck.

Mrs. Caroline Drusch has returned home after a pleasure visit with her daughter, Mrs. Math. Koelfen, near Franklin and with friends in Fairfax.

Frank Schneider and Otto Schneider left for Shakopee the forepart of the week where they will enter the sanitarium and take mud bath treatments.

The war department has made an announcement that farm workers will not be granted favors over other men in getting their discharges from the army.

Mrs. Rosa Gag has returned to her home in this city after enjoying a several days' visit at the home of her brother, George P. Forster, and family at Springfield.

F. D. Minium and his crew of surveyors began work this week on Judicial ditch, No. 7 near Comfrey, extending from Cottonwood township into this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Brady and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bohrer from St. Peter were in New Ulm several days last week visiting at the John Keegan home. Mrs. Keegan is the former's sister.

Herbert Volk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Volk of Comfrey was brought to the Union hospital the forepart of last week, suffering from an attack of acute appendicitis. He has been operated on and is getting along nicely.

N. P. Neilson of Morgan is at the Union hospital where he underwent an operation for intestinal trouble recently. He is recovering at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kiergaard from Morgan visited with him during the week.

WEDDING BELLS

Huelskamp-Forstner

Wednesday morning at nine o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Sophia Forstner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Forstner of Sigel Township and Barney W. Huelskamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Huelskamp of Lafayette township. The solemn ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Schlinkert in the Catholic church. The couple were attended by Eugene Huelskamp, a brother of the groom and by Miss Cecilia Forstner, a sister of the bride. Wm. Mohr and Raymond Huelskamp acted as ushers and Miss Cecilia Eibner played the wedding march.

The young bride was charming in a suit of navy blue serge with a corsage bouquet of white lilies. The bridesmaid also wore a navy blue suit and a corsage bouquet of crimson roses.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to relatives and intimate friends at the home of the groom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Huelskamp left on a honeymoon trip to San Francisco, California, and other Western points. They will be at home after the fifteenth of June and will live on the John Huelskamp farm in Lafayette. Both the bride and groom are well known in New Ulm and vicinity.

Miss Sophia Fischer from St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Forstner of Madelia and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hillesheim from Fairfax were out of town guests who were present at the wedding.

IT TOPS THE WORLD

Our waist seam suit. American models, American tailoring are recognized over the whole globe as the best clothing for men.

And this spring you'll see here the most interesting patterns you've ever glimpsed. The suits are gathered, not from one or two manufacturers, but from many so you find variety not found in an agency store.

$15-$20-$25-$30-$35.
HUMMEL BROS.
14 No. Minn. St., New Ulm, Minn.

Money to Loan

We have money to loan on approved security at a reasonable rate of interest. In case you desire to negotiate a loan we shall be very glad to talk it over with you. We might be able to offer a suggestion you had not thought of that would save you money. All financial matters held strictly confidential.

Brown County Bank

New Ulm,

Minnesota

H. C. Kinney transacted business in Sleepy Eye one day during the week.

Corp. Elmer W. Sandmann who was with the 364th Inf. A. E. F. returned Friday from Camp Merritt where he was mustered out after nearly two years' service. A family gathering of welcome was held at his home in Evan and was attended by the Adolph Sandmann family of this city.

The Marshall mills were shut down last Tuesday as the result of a strike by about fifty of the mill hands. The employees had been given the eight hour day and now demand more pay. The mill issued a statement that the company would adjust with individuals. On Thursday the mill was started again and a few of the strikers had reconsidered and returned to their work and other men were hired to fill out the force.

LOST; $40 Saturday evening on Minnesota street (two twenty dollar bills). Honest Finder return to Review office and call for reward. Adv. 20.

The East Brown County Red Cross Chapter will give a DINNER and Sale at the New Ulm Armory, Thursday, May 15, NOON; 50 cents per person. Coffee will be served all afternoon. Everybody invited.

FOR SALE: 160 Acre farm between Seaforth and Vesta, Minn. Inquire of Mathilda Jahn. 826 No. State, adv 19-20 New Ulm.

FOR SALE: House and Lot on S. Broadway, two doors North of Episcopal church. Inquire MISS M. BOGEN, Ad. 14- Mobridge, S. D.

H. O. SCHLEUDEF
OPTOMETRIST
AND OPTICIAN
We Grind Our Own Lenses
102 No. Minn. St. Tel. 87

JOHN HENLE
Fire Tornado Accident
Hail Health
Auto Liability
Insurance Bonding
Office: Ottomeyer Block.

My First Bottle of HOG-TONE Made Me $100.00

and saved more than that many dollars' worth of hogs for me. I had 30 head of hogs in all, and they got sick. I thought they had the cholera, as two of them died and there was cholera all around me. I got a bottle of your HOG-TONE and my hogs got better at once, declares H. O. Michael, R. No. 2, Markle, Ind.

Avalon Farms HOG TONE

The Liquid Worm Killer and Hog Conditioner

Frees hogs of worms—and thus protects them against contracting Cholera, Rheumatism and scores of other deadly hog diseases. Try it. Come in the store—tell us the number of your herd—and we will give you enough HOG-TONE to treat all your hogs 60 days and we will guarantee it. If its results fail to satisfy you, it will cost you nothing.

Backers Pharmacy
New Ulm, Minn.

Dr. A. F. Groebner
Dentist
Office in Vogel Block.
Phone Res. 38
Office 122

FOR SALE: AVERY engine plow, self lift. 4 Bottom. Cheap. Adv. 18 J. A. Loffelmacher. Fairfax, Minn.

FOR RENT: Furnished or unfurnished apartments for housekeeping. Inquire at Hotel Hall. adv. 6 ft.

FOR SALE: Big Strawberry plants, $1.50 per hundred. Emma Loffelmacher adv. 18. Fairfax, Minn.

A Public Service of Vital Importance to YOU

We have been appointed Local Representative of the famous SAN-TOX Public Service line. Assures absolute, uniform excellence in toilet preparations and remedies.

SanTox

Best toilet specialties and safe remedies of more than 100.

SCHMUCKER AND BURK'S PHARMACY
4 No. Minn. St. New Ulm, Minn.